J. CLYDE TURNER

Born: March 31, 1878, Statesville, N. C.; Died February 1, 1974, Raleigh, N. C.; married to Bertha May Hicks of Raleigh 1908. Attended Wake Forest College 1895-99 and Southern Baptist Theological Seminary 1902-1905, received the Master of Theology degree. Pastor of churches in Fishersville and Newport, Kentucky 1902-1907, Tattnall Square Church in Macon, Georgia 1907-1910 and First Baptist Church in Greensboro, N. C. 1910-1948.

Among the blessed in Christ who hear the Father's sweet words, "Well done thou good and faithful servant," J. Clyde Turner stands in close fellowship with the foremost of the company. His days were long in the land which the Lord his God gave him. There was ever about him an air of mortal permanence and of spiritual eternity. He was driven by an unflinching will and a strong determination to live the Christ life and like Paul to become the Doulos, the loving bond slave, of his Savior. He did justly; he loved mercy; and he walked humbly with his Lord. Love was his watchword: love for God and love for man. His understanding was great because he believed. He found his greatest joy in telling the old old story. Though a man of learning who grew into knowledge and ultimately into transcendental wisdom, he dwelt in the immediate simplicities.

It was inevitable that a man of such soul stature would have heaped on him a multitude of commands, responsibilities, duties, and calls from God's throne. Honors and recognitions included: president of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina four years (1929-32); trustee of Southern Baptist Theological Seminary for 31 years, ten of which he was president of the board; author of six books, one These Things We Believe, perhaps the best known of all doctrinal books written by Southern Baptists.

He was a prophet with honor in his own city. A Greensboro Daily News editorial comment pays this tribute.

"Dr. Turner's contribution to the richer, fuller life of Greensboro, although working essentially through and with his own church, has been incalculable. He has been one of those pillars upon whom the community has rested in a spiritual growth and humanitarian service which balanced and implemented its material progress. Dr. Turner has wrought himself into the lives of thousands of the community's residents and thus into the community structure itself."

Dr. and Mrs. Turner had no children born of the flesh, but their family of those born in the spirit is immense. Prominent among these is Claud Bowen, a Timothy to his Paul, who followed him in the Greensboro First Church ministry. Dr. Bowen loves to tell of Dr. Turner's answer to the question: "If you had your life to live over, what would you change?" That answer came quick and strong, "I would try to win more lives to Christ."

Duke McCall, president, Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, recalls warmly the vivid memories of his long entwined association with Dr. Turner in affairs of the Seminary and in close personal friendship. He notes that Dr. Turner's clear thinking and succinct persuasion may have been influential or even instrumental in the final determination that he was to be president of the Seminary. Dr. Turner presided at Dr. McCall's installation. Dr. McCall also remembers that the Seminary board of trustees proposed to make Dr. Turner a life member of the board which brought about a strong demurrer from him. Dr. McCall added in effect that Dr. Turner could demur with the best of them at the slightest sign of sin of which he took self seeking and vain glory to be hideous examples.

But it was in the First Baptist Church of Greensboro, his home for 38 years (1910-1948) that he found the place of the kingdom in which he believed his Master, his Savior, and the Holy Spirit wanted him. He determined that the institutional function of the church should be balanced with the evangelical mission to the end that each should have its due meed. Even so, he was jealous of expense dulling the edge and scope of the great commission ministry. His inexorable dictum and order to the church was "as a minimum, for every dollar we use in sustaining ourselves we shall give another dollar to the advancement of that same grand ministry" and the fellowship and the dollars and the church grew. Now First Church of Greensboro is largest in the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina and gives to benevolences and to the cooperative program more than twice as much as the second place sister church in the state. Members when asked: "How do you do it?" without hesitation cried out: "Dr. Turner taught us and trained us and led us."

Just a little while after Dr. Turner's death members of the Greensboro First Church proposed to make a memorial gift, to the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary establishing a visiting professorship in evangelical ministry and preaching. The goal set was $30,000.00. Within a very short while over $50,000.00 had been collected and the check therefor presented to Dr. McCall. So in this manner, as in others, J. Clyde Turner's influence will still follow and comfort, and brace his "preacher boys."

Of equal or greater significance was the harmony and unity maintained in the large church community by his gentle wisdom and tact. It was said that he could remain silent in at least ten languages and yet speak out in soft thunderous tones when the need demanded.

His manifest glowing purpose to please God first, and not man, set him forth as a leader shorn of offensiveness and as a peacemaker bringing love.

And the Lord, his God, seeing that he had long responded to the call and precept of the gifts of the spirit rewarded and blessed him with the spirit's fruits—love, joy, peace, long suffering gentleness, meekness and the others and endowed him with serenity, dignity and integrity.

WALTER ROY CHAMBERS

Men are often best seen by their silhouettes . . . the contrasts that their stature makes in the midst of where Life sets them down and where they choose to stand. Such a view of Walter Roy Chambers' life yields memorable returns.

He was born within a few miles of Mars Hill in Madison County on February 13, 1891. His ancestors were among the earliest settlers in Madison and Buncombe counties. At the age of sixteen he entered Mars Hill College and while a student there, made his life-commitment to God through Jesus Christ, joining the Mars Hill Baptist Church.

He was graduated from Mars Hill College in 1911, received his BA degree from Wake Forest University in 1914, and remained at Wake Forest to study Law. He passed the state bar examination in 1915 and later did graduate work in Education at Columbia University in New York.

After serving in World War I, Mr. Chambers moved to Marion and opened a law practice. In 1929 at the onset of the "Great Depression," he was one of the organizers and president of the Marion Industrial Bank. The name was changed to Marion Bank and Trust Company in November of 1960 and then in February of 1970 the bank was merged with North Carolina National Bank. During all these years he served as president and director. After the merger he continued to hold a directorship on the Marion Board and served as its chairman and attorney.

In addition he was director and president of the First National Bank of Marion until 1961 when it merged with First Union National Bank of North Carolina. He affiliated with the McDowell Savings and Loan Association which began over 40 years ago and was vice-president, board member, and attorney.

His career includes four years as public school principal in Buncombe County, 25 years as farmer and cattleman in Pleasant Gardens, and more than 20 years as director and attorney for Clinchfield Manufacturing Company before it became a unit of Burlington Industries.

Mars Hill College held a special place in the affections of this "son of Madison County." He was first elected a Trustee of that institution in 1924 and for thirty-six years he served as Chairman of that Board. On May 20, 1973, the College conferred upon him the honorary degree "Doctor of Humane Letters." In 1963 Mars Hill had named him "Alumnus of the Year," and two years later named its new physical education plant for him.

In addition to his Mars Hill College Trustee service he served four-year terms on the Meredith College Board and the N. C. Baptist Hospital Board.

In the First Baptist Church of Marion his ministry as a deacon spanned 54 years and in 1972 he was named deacon-for-life, the first deacon ever so named in that Church. A quote from that Church action reads:

"When this congregation considered the New Deacon Rotation plan, he favored it . . . when the number of deacons was enlarged, he urged it . . . when property improvements and acquisitions were considered, he led out . . . when 'the winds of the Spirit' have moved in deepening channels, he has rejoiced."

For 16 years he served as Moderator of the Blue Ridge Baptist Association. His love for and investments in the life of McDowell County's churches had earned him the affectionate title: "Mr. Baptist."

Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. James V. Blackburn, Jr., Ft. Lauderdale, Florida, and Mrs. Jerry Willis, Morehead City; one step-daughter, Mrs. Margaret Craig Martin, Raleigh, and five grandchildren.

Bequests in his last will and testament were directed toward Mars Hill College, the Baptist Children's Homes and Fruitland Baptist Bible Institute, evidence of his concern for needy hearts and prepared minds.

And when he burst from our earthly sight on Friday, September 27, 1974 . . . a portion of us went with him . . . but his deposits, so regularly made with all of us, will remain to yield dividends, compounded daily.

He has moved through the eternal portals with deed of trust in hand . . . to take his place among that great cloud of witnesses. We thank God for the blessing and overflow from this rich and full life . . . truly, "a man in Christ." It seems fitting to let W. R. Chambers' choice of Scripture in his 1933 Mars Hill Commencement address speak a final word . . .

"Whosoever shall save his life shall lose it; but whosoever shall lose his life for my sake and the Gospel's the same shall save it."

OSCAR CREECH

OSCAR CREECH

The oldest of eight children born to Ransom Right and Henrietta (Sullivan) Creech, Oscar Creech was reared on a farm in Johnston County. He graduated from Clayton (North Carolina) High School in 1905, and entered Wake Forest College in the autumn of that same year. He was awarded the B.A., cum laude, from Wake Forest in 1908, beginning his professional career as a principal-teacher in a boarding school at Castalia (Nash County), where he remained until 1912.

In the latter year Creech moved to Nashville, North Carolina, where he served as principal of the Nashville Graded School (1912-14) and, subsequently, as Superintendent of Nash County Schools (1914-1919). Observing both his deep faith and his leadership ability, the congregation of the Nashville Baptist Church called Mr. Creech to service as their pastor (1915). He consented to ordination at the hands of the Nashville Church, and served Nashville (1915-1919), Crocker's Chapel (1915-1919), Castalia (1915-1919), and Oak Level (1915-1918) churches prior to his removal to Louisville, Kentucky, for a year of theological studies at the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary (1919-1920).

Returning to Nash County in the late spring of 1920, Creech was called to the pastorate of the Red Oak Baptist Church and to service as principal of the Red Oak Farm Life School—a boarding school of some 125 pupils. He continued these dual services in the Red Oak community until called to the pastoral charge of First Baptist Church, Ahoskie, on January 1, 1925. The Reverend Oscar Creech was one of those individuals instrumental in the "rebirth" of Chowan College in 1949, following six years during which the institution was closed (1943-1949). During this period he was busily involved in the religious and civic affairs of the Roanoke-Chowan region. He served as pastor of First Baptist Church, Ahoskie, until his first retirement in 1951. In that year, President F. O. Mixon persuaded Mr. Creech to accept the position of Vice President for Development at Chowan. His subsequent service as a member of the college's administrative staff—including an eight-month period as Acting President following the death of President Mixon—continued until his second retirement in February 1961.

Oscar Creech's leadership among Baptists was recognized through his selection to serve the denomination in a variety of capacities beyond the local church ministry. Such service included: member, Board of Trustees, Chowan College, 1929-1930, 1961, 1963-1967; member, Board of Trustees, Meredith College, 1932-1943; member, General Board of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, 1931-1937; 3rd Vice President Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, 1940-1941; president, North Carolina Baptist Pastors' Conference, 1940-1941; member, Board of Directors, Biblical Recorder, 1944-1947; and member, Board of Trustees, North Carolina Baptist Hospital, 1948-1951. Locally, he served as clerk of the West Chowan Baptist Association, 1934-1944, and as moderator of the Association, 1946-1953. He was selected to preach the Annual Sermon before the North Carolina Baptist State Convention in 1943. He was named Honorary Life Trustee of Chowan in 1967.

In Ahoskie, Creech served for a number of years as a scoutmaster for a troop of Boy Scouts. He was instrumental in securing support for the construction of the Roanoke-Chowan Hospital, on whose Board of Directors he served for a number of years. He authored a History of the Ahoskie, North Carolina, Baptist Church, originally written for inclusion in a special issue of the Hertford County Herald saluting the Town of Ahoskie on her Golden Anniversary (1939). The history was published as a separate booklet in 1940. He was also co-author, with Edgar V. McKnight, of A History of Chowan College, published by the college's Department of Graphic Arts in 1964.

Oscar Creech was united in marriage with Martha Louise Guley on August 6, 1907. To their union were born five children: Orville Ransom, Leah Jessica (Mrs. Gil Frommelt), Oscar, Jr., Judson Yates, and Elva Louise (Mrs. Edward Bond). Mrs. Creech and three of their children survive him to this day.

WILLIAM HARRISON WILLIAMS

William Harrison Williams was born in Charlottesville, Virginia. At an early age the family moved to St. Louis, Missouri, where his father became editor of the Central Baptist, the denominational paper of Missouri.

Early education in schools of St. Louis. Attended William Jewell College at Liberty, Missouri; was graduated with the A.B. degree. After graduation from college, attended Southern Baptist Theological Seminary at Louisville, Kentucky. Was graduated from the Seminary with Th.M. degree. Received D.D. degree from William Jewell College and Wake Forest College.

Held pastorates in Kentucky and Missouri. In 1928 came from the First Baptist Church, St. Joseph, Missouri to Pritchard Memorial Baptist Church, Charlotte, North Carolina. He retired January 1, 1959.

Since his retirement from the pastorate Dr. Williams held many interim pastorates, taught Bible study courses, and served as pulpit supply.

Dr. Williams served as Vice President of the Southern Baptist Convention, as a member of the Foreign Mission Board of the S.B.C., the Home Mission Board, and of the Executive Committee.

He was past president of the North Carolina State Convention, and on the Board of Trustees of many of the institutions and schools of the Convention.

Dr. Williams served as interim pastor for the following churches: Wedgewood Baptist, Charlotte, First Baptist of Boone, N. C., First Baptist of Lexington, N. C., Western Avenue in Statesville, Pleasant Plains, Oakland Avenue in Rock Hill (two times), First Baptist in Chesterfield, S. C., First Baptist Church in Marshville, N. C., and acting pastor for Carmel Baptist Church in Charlotte.

Dr. Williams married 451 couples while minister of Pritchard Memorial Church, and during his entire ministry married over 1,000 couples.

LUTHER MALCUS MASSEY

LUTHER MALCUS MASSEY

Luther Malcus Massey was born July 4, 1895 at Wakefield, Wake County, N. C. to Daniel and Eldora Frances (Hood) Massey. He was educated at Wakelon High School in Zebulon, Wake Forest College in which he completed his undergraduate work, two years of medical school, and the Medical College of Virginia from which he received the DDS degree in 1918. He practiced dentistry in Zebulon from 1919 until his death in 1974. He was married to the former Vivian Dawson, and they had one child, Mrs. Carolyn Kitahata of New Haven, Conn.

Such a bare biographical sketch does not reveal the extent of his contributions to North Carolina Baptists over the years of his ministry among us, for we remember him primarily as an outstanding Christian layman and benefactor of Christian higher education in North Carolina. This service is characterized by the responses which he has received from the beneficiaries of his concern. In 1970, he was named a distinguished alumnus of Wake Forest University. His own congregation, the Zebulon Baptist Church, cited him for thirty nine years of outstanding service as Superintendent of the Sunday School. But, perhaps, his most obvious testimonial is the President's House at Meredith College, a school which he served as Trustee for twenty years, eight years as Chairman of the Board of Trustees. For it is to him more than to any person that the realization of this edifice is due. He contributed generously of his money, time and energy to bring it to completion.

We thank God for His providence in inspiring men of the caliber of Luther Malcus Massey to exercise their divinely-given talents in the advancement of His Church and her ministry to men in His Name.

2. COMMITTEE ON MEMORIALS

Death is the one certainty in life; we shall all die. Of course, our attitudes toward death are conditioned by the circumstances surrounding its coming. If it occurs in the early or middle years before the person has had the opportunity to realize his potential in life, we consider it tragic. But if it occurs at the end of a long and fruitful life when the person is worn out with age, illness and suffering, we think of it as an expression of God's mercy and grace. Thus, our attitudes toward death often reflect more the life which preceded it than death itself. This is the case concerning our Convention's desire to memorialize those persons who have died in the past year; we are not celebrating their deaths so much as we are commemorating their lives. We are not remembering them because they have died but because they have lived. And this is as it should be.

Yet, the grace of God is also seen in the fact of their deaths. For it is a reminder to us who still live that no matter how high we may have risen on the ladder of success ecclesiastically, financially, professionally or socially, or how low we may have fallen there is an end to each. For the high and mighty in terms of this world's values there is finally judgment based upon their use of their gifts and opportunities; for the down and out there is hope for better things to come. And these are both gifts of the same God.

Your Committee presents for your consideration two recommendations. The first is that as we celebrate the lives of those who have so clearly shown us the path of righteousness we pray for the grace to live ourselves so that we may be remembered after our deaths with as much thankfulness as we are remembering them today.

Our second recommendation is that the 1974 Convention Annual be dedicated to five persons who were outstanding in their devotion to their Lord and to His Church: W. R. Chambers, businessman, church leader and philanthropist of Marion; Rev. Oscar Creech, longtime pastor in Ahoskie and administrator of Chowan College; L. M. Massey of Zebulon, dentist, pillar of his church and trustee and benefactor of Meredith College; Rev. J. Clyde Turner, pastor for many years in Greensboro and past president of this Convention; and Rev. William Harrison Williams, beloved pastor in Charlotte for more than a generation, leader in the continuing Baptist quest for religious liberty for all and past president of our convention.

Respectfully submitted,

R. DOWD DAVIS, Chairman

CONSTITUTION

PREAMBLE

For the declaration of its fundamental purposes and the permanent guidance and control of its activities, the body does adopt the following as its Constitution, to wit:

ARTICLE I. Name

The name of this body is the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina.

ARTICLE II. Purposes

The object of this Convention shall be to promote missions, evangelism, education, social services, the distribution of the Bible and sound religious literature, and to co-operate with the work of the Southern Baptist Convention.

ARTICLE III. Authority

While independent and sovereign in its own sphere, the Convention does not claim and will never attempt to exercise any authority over any other Baptist body, whether church, auxiliary organization, association, or Convention.

ARTICLE IV. Composition

The Convention shall be composed of

(1) Two messengers from each co-operating church, and one additional messenger from each church for every hundred members or major fraction thereof, beyond the first one hundred members; provided, that no church shall be entitled to more than ten messengers. No one shall be a messenger who is not a member of a church co-operating with the Convention, and messengers must be duly elected by their churches; a co-operating church shall be one that supports any object of the Convention and which is in friendly cooperation with this Convention and sympathetic with its purpose and work; and (2) The officers of the Convention, the members of the General Board, the editor of the Biblical Recorder, and the President of the Woman's Missionary Union.

ARTICLE V. Meetings

The Convention shall convene annually on Monday after the second Sunday in November at 7:00 p.m. In case of emergency or unusual circumstances the General Board is empowered to change the time or place of meeting, cancel the sessions of the Convention, or call a special meeting by a vote of two-thirds of the members present when the vote is taken.

ARTICLE VI. Officers

The officers of the Convention shall be a President, a First Vice-President, a Second Vice-President, a Recording Secretary, an Assistant Recording Secretary, a General Secretary-Treasurer, three Trustees, and a Parliamentarian. The terms of the President, the Vice-Presidents, Recording Secretary, Assistant Recording Secretary, Trustees and the Parliamentarian shall commence at the conclusion of the annual session at which they are elected and continue until the close of the next annual session of the Convention. The President and Vice-Presidents may not be elected for more than two consecutive terms. The election of all officers subject to annual election shall be on the afternoon of the first full day of the annual Convention, but the elections may be completed, if necessary, on the morning of the second full day. A vacancy in any of the above-mentioned offices, except that of President, occurring between sessions of the Convention may be filled by the General Board; such vacancies in the presidency shall be filled by the Vice-Presidents succeeding to the office in order of their rank.

a. In case of a vacancy in the office of General Secretary-Treasurer, the General Board shall nominate a man to the Convention to fill this office.

b. Opportunity shall be given to receive additional nominations from the floor of the Convention.

c. The man receiving the majority of votes cast shall be declared elected.

Upon election, the General Secretary-Treasurer shall hold office for an indefinite period, with voluntary retirement at age 65. He may continue on a year-by-year basis after review by the Executive Committee, with automatic retirement at age 68; retirement to take effect upon December 31 of the year in which he retires.

d. In case the position of General Secretary-Treasurer becomes vacant between sessions of the Convention, the General Board, upon the recommendation of its Executive Committee, shall name an acting General Secretary-Treasurer to serve until the next regular session of the Convention.

The General Secretary-Treasurer is the chief executive officer of the General Board, the chief administrative and program officer of the General Board staff, the chief budget officer of the General Board staff, the chief professional adviser of the General Board and its committees, the secretary and treasurer of the General Board and the Convention, and one of the denomination's spiritual leaders, providing statewide guidance and inspiration.

The General Secretary-Treasurer and the President of the Convention shall serve ex-officio without voting on all committees and aid by furnishing information, printed materials and needed guidance for the work of the committees.

ARTICLE VII. Trustees of the Convention

The General Board shall nominate three Trustees to be elected by the Convention in annual session. These trustees may succeed themselves, if nominated and elected, and will continue in office until their successors have been elected. The trustees shall hold title to the property of the Convention and convey and use the same as directed by the Convention, its General Board or Executive Committee. They shall execute obligations only in behalf of and as ordered by the Convention. They shall have the powers granted to trustees of religious societies by the laws of the State of North Carolina, but subject always to the limitations imposed by this Constitution and by action of the Convention, its General Board or Executive Committee. They shall require the Treasurer of the Convention to give suitable bond, with corporate security and in adequate amount as determined by the General Board, and they shall cause such bonds to be safely kept. Failure on the part of the Treasurer to maintain such a bond in force for as long a period as ten days shall authorize the Trustees to remove him from office. The Trustees shall make full, detailed reports to the annual session of the Convention and at other times if requested by the General Board. They shall safely keep the seal of the Convention and affix it only as authorized by the Convention, its General Board or Executive Committee. The seal shall be circular in form and shall bear the words:

"Trustees of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, Incorporated 1893. SEAL."

The Trustees shall keep full minutes of all their meetings and preserve the same in permanent forms. They shall elect their own Chairman and Secretary. Any vacancy occurring in their membership between sessions of the Convention shall be filled by the General Board.

The membership of those moving from the state shall be terminated upon the date of the move from the state.

In the event a member fails to attend at least one meeting of the General Board in a calendar year, without giving due notice of his absence, his membership shall immediately terminate.

7. Any vacancy on the General Board occurring between annual sessions of the Convention may be filled by action of the Executive Committee. Those elected shall serve through the remainder of the calendar year. The Convention shall at its next regular annual session fill the vacancy for the unexpired term.

Any vacancy on a Board shall be filled by the remaining members until the next regular annual session of the Convention, and the Convention shall at its next regular annual session fill the vacancy for the unexpired term. The Board of Trustees or Directors of said corporation by affirmative vote of three-fourths of the entire membership given in regular annual meeting or in a special meeting called for the purpose, shall have the power to remove from office any trustee or director of such corporation for cause considered sufficient by such Board, but only after reasonable notice to such trustee or director and opportunity to be heard by the Board. The Convention shall have the right to remove any trustee or director for cause considered sufficient by the Convention, but only after reasonable notice to such trustee or director, and opportunity for him to be heard by the Convention. Notice of such contemplated action and hearing by the Convention may be given by the Executive Committee of the General Board of the Convention.

5. The trustees or directors of the institutions and agencies of the Convention shall be elected by the Convention after receiving nominations from the Convention's Nominating Committee or from the floor. It shall attend conferences and seminars where these matters are being discussed. It shall report to the Baptist State Convention on any developments in this area and otherwise keep our people informed. This Council shall recognize that its primary responsibility is to speak to our people rather than for them.

18. The time for Miscellaneous Business having arrived, B. J. Morris, Boger City, offered the following resolution and moved its adoption, which, after being seconded, was referred to the Joint Committee on Resolutions:

Whereas, we, messengers of the General Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, Inc. and the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, meeting in joint session, recognize that there is much so-called adult entertainment available throughout North Carolina which goes beyond what is reasonably acceptable according to contemporary standards of our communities; and

Whereas, we recognize that the crass commercial exploitation of explicit sexual conduct through the public exhibition of lewd films, books, magazines, etc., constitutes a debasement and distortion of a sensitive key relationship of human existence, central to family life, community welfare, and the development of human personality; and

Whereas we recognize that the material is indecent and offensive to the senses and interferes with the interest of the public in the quality of life and total community environment, the tone of commerce in the city, property values, and the public safety; and tivities is detrimental to the best health, safety, convenience, good morals, and the general welfare of our communities:

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED

1. That we hereby declare our support of the Christian Action League of North Carolina, Inc., in their effort to obtain strong anti-obscenity laws for North Carolina; and

2. That we encourage our legislators to assist in every way in passing such anti-obscenity laws as quickly as possible; and

3. That we especially favor procedures which abate as public nuisances those places which repeatedly deal in obscenity and lewdness as a regular practice and exhort all public officials throughout North Carolina to do all that is necessary to rid our State of these corrupting influences with all due haste.

19. Jerry Draghton, Winston-Salem, raised a question concerning the relationship between the Joint Resolutions Committee and the separate resolutions committees of each Convention.

20. W. Perry Crouch, Raleigh, spoke concerning the separate functions of the various resolutions committees.

21. A group of young people presented "Baptist Youth Laboring Together." The presentation began with a film depicting the need for bridging chasms. Then two choirs, one white and one black, began to sing different kinds of music simultaneously, with chaotic results. Finally the two groups appointed three persons each to work out a cooperative plan of endeavor. Then they sang, separately in turn, and together, thus symbolizing the unity which we find in Christ. The young people were from Shaw University and from Lawndale Baptist Church in Greensboro.

22. Charles S. Gatwood, Cary, led the joint Conventions in singing "To God Be the Glory."

23. E. B. Turner, Lumberton, introduced the speaker of the hour, Theodore F. Adams.

24. The combined choirs of the Raleigh Baptist Churches sang "Let Me See Through Your Eyes, Savior" by Matthews.

25. Theodore F. Adams, Wake Forest, former president of the Baptist World Alliance, addressed the Joint Conventions. He quoted I John 1:7 and confessed that we Baptists have been stronger on the blood than we have on the fellowship. We need to confess our sins and in Christ renew our fellowship. He related experiences from his many friendships with Baptists around the world, underscoring the reality of the brotherhood of man under the Fatherhood of God and showing how this brotherhood is essential to the carrying out of the world mission which God has assigned us.

26. The benediction for the Wednesday evening meeting was pronounced by L. D. Holt, Raleigh.

THURSDAY MORNING

27. Charles S. Gatwood, Cary, led the Convention in prayer. He then led the Convention in singing "Fairest Lord Jesus." He read various passages from the healing ministry of Jesus and from the teaching ministry of Jesus, some of them pantomimed by several members of the staff of the Baptist State Convention. The Singing Churchmen, a choral group made up of Ministers of Music from various churches of the Convention assisted him in the reading of the crucifixion narrative. 31. Parliamentarian Bulman made a motion to change the By-Laws as follows: To amend By-Law II, B, 1 by adding the following paragraph: The stipulations of the first two above paragraphs do not apply in the case of a special committee appointed to report jointly with a group of another religious organization.

To amend By-Law II, C by adding this sentence: When there is to be a special committee to report jointly with a group of another religious organization, appointment may be made by the Executive Committee or the President.

The motion was seconded and carried.

32. First Vice-President Privette presented Mrs. Allen A. Bailey to the Convention and then introduced President Bailey for his President's Address.

33. President Allen A. Bailey, Charlotte, delivered his President's Address, dealing with the nature of the Baptist State Convention and its relationship with the local churches. He stressed the fact that the local churches are autonomous bodies, cooperating voluntarily with the Convention. He urged the messengers to allow no one to tamper with the Constitution of the Convention by adding any kind of legalistic requirements to the present principle of voluntary cooperation symbolized by even one small financial contribution to any Convention cause whatsoever once each year. This cooperative arrangement has made us strong, and we must use this strength to face the challenges of the future. This includes the internal challenges as we make the choice of a new General Secretary-Treasurer, and the external challenges thrown at us by immorality in government and business. He issued a ringing call for lifting the level of spiritual maturity in our churches through study and through practical involvement in doing God's work in the world.

34. Billy T. Mobley, Ahoskie, President of the General Board, introduced the Report of the General Board of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, which is reprinted in full on pages 105-201 of this Annual. He commented upon various items in the introductory section of the report.

Spencer. He reported a successful year thus far, calling special attention to the gifts for Foreign Missions and for the State Missions Offering.

37. Burrell F. Lucas, Raleigh, Director of the Sunday School Department of the Baptist State Convention made a report on the Reach Out Program now being conducted throughout the Southern Baptist Convention.

38. W. Perry Crouch spoke concerning the recommendations of the General Board in regard to the Communications Center, Caswell, and the Conference Center at Caraway. He then spoke of the proposed budget and its relationship to the observance of the fiftieth anniversary of the Cooperative Program. A Declaration of Recommitment to the Cooperative Program was projected upon a large screen, and presidents and administrators of various convention agencies and institutions signed this document within the full view of the assembled messengers. W. Perry Crouch read to the Convention this statement:

Eleven years ago, as the Baptist State Convention met in Wilmington, this Convention voted to accept the nomination of the General Board and elected me to fill the position of General Secretary-Treasurer of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina. During these years, I have sought to serve North Carolina Baptists to the best of my ability. You have been wonderful in your encouragement and support, and I am deeply grateful for the privilege of working with you.

In keeping with the age limit of our Constitution, and with profound gratitude for good health and the joys of service in the work of our Lord, I present my resignation as General Secretary-Treasurer of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, effective December 31, 1975.

39. Billy T. Mobley, Ahoskie, President of the General Board, made a motion that this resignation be adopted. The motion was seconded and carried. After common consent was secured for an extension of time for five minutes, Billy T. Mobley spoke concerning the appointment and the work of the Search Committee as described on page 112 of this Annual.

40. Cecil E. Sherman, Asheville, gave notice of his intention to make a motion tomorrow morning to amend the proposed Convention budget for 1975, as follows: that the percentage in the Co-operative Program to southwide causes be raised from 33.34 percent to 35 percent, that one percent of the amount taken from the state's share be taken from the portion that is now appropriated to the colleges, and that the remaining 66 parts of one percent be taken from the State Mission section of the budget.

41. Charles S. Gatwood, Cary, led the Convention in singing "Great Is Thy Faithfulness."

42. First Vice-President Privette recognized new ministers (including pastors, music, education, and youth) in the state since the time of the 1973 annual session of the Convention. Upon his invitation, a large number of newcomers came to the platform to give their names and indicate their places of service.

43. First Vice-President Privette asked all visitors to the Convention to stand and be recognized. Worth Grant, Wycliff Bible Translators, was thus introduced to the Convention.

44. First Vice-President Privette asked all representatives of agencies and institutions of the Southern Baptist Convention to stand and be recognized. The following representatives were presented to the Convention: Daryll Morgan, Annuity Board; and Leonard Hinton, Home Mission Board.

46. W. C. Fields, Nashville, Director of Public Relations of the Executive Committee of the Southern Baptist Convention, expressed gratitude for the excellent support which North Carolina Baptists have given to the Southern Baptist Convention. 47. The time for Miscellaneous Business having arrived, President Bailey presided and recognized Carlos L. Young.

48. Carlos L. Young, Shelby, offered the following resolution and moved its adoption, which, after being seconded, was referred to the Committee on Resolutions:

Whereas, mental illness and mental retardation are so frequent and complex that today in America mental illness is considered to be the Number One Health Problem, and

Whereas, there has been so much prejudice, stigma, misunderstanding and rejection of those who have mental handicaps, and

Whereas, in North Carolina there are Mental Retardation Centers at four different areas and there is not a church or chapel on any of these campuses, and

Whereas, we believe that the people in these centers and the staff who work there are entitled to attend Sunday School and worship God in a church on Sunday, and

Whereas, we believe that our friends and other denominations and faiths would like to have a part in these efforts, and

Whereas, we believe that the Baptists in North Carolina, can and should lead the effort to build chapels or churches on the different campuses of these centers

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina in session at Raleigh, North Carolina, November 6-8, 1974:

1. That a committee of seven people be named by the Committee on Committees;

2. That the committee will contact our friends and other denominations and faiths, asking them to join with us in a financial plan to build the chapels; and

3. That this committee will report its actions and make further recommendations concerning the spiritual and physical needs of all handicapped children to the North Carolina Baptist State Convention at its annual meeting in 1975.

49. Parliamentarian James M. Bulman, Oak Ridge, called attention to the fact that his proposed amendment to the Constitution has appeared in two issues of the Biblical Recorder in accordance with the requirements of Article XIII of the Constitution. His proposal is as follows: "To amend the statement in Article IV of the Constitution, 'No one shall be a messenger who is not a member of a church co-operating with the Convention,' by inserting after the word 'church' the following words, 'which inclusive within its autonomous actions, exercises its autonomy by recognizing only immersion as baptism and by'; thus causing the statement to read: "No one shall be a messenger who is not a member of a church which, inclusive within its autonomous actions, exercises its autonomy by recognizing only immersion as baptism and by co-operating with the Convention. . . ." (Suggested changes are in italics.) The Biblical Recorder indicated that James M. Bulman is the maker of the motion and Mrs. June Bulman is the person seconding the motion.

50. Calvin S. Knight, Winston-Salem, offered the following resolution and moved its adoption, which, after being seconded, was referred to the Committee on Resolutions:

Whereas, Mr. Reid Thomas Holmes has served the North Carolina Baptist Hospital as administrator from 1945 to 1967, and as president from 1967 to 1974; and

Whereas, Mr. Holmes rendered a worthy ministry to North Carolina Baptists in the leadership of this institution; and

Whereas, the Baptist Hospital has greatly expanded in size and in service under his administration; and

Whereas, Mr. Holmes found it necessary, because of illness, to retire from active service on August 1, 1974:

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED:

That the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, in its one hundred forty-fourth annual session at Memorial Auditorium in Raleigh, November 6-8, 1974, express profound appreciation to Mr. Holmes for his contributions through North Carolina Baptist Hospital; and

That a copy of this expression be recorded in the permanent records of our convention; and

That a copy be sent to Mr. Holmes.

51. W. W. Finlator, Raleigh, offered the following resolution and moved its adoption, which, after being seconded, was referred to the Committee on Resolutions:

Whereas, we Baptist people, in summoning up remembrance of things past, recall the dungeon, fire and sword our fathers suffered for the faith at the hands of both Protestant and Catholic governments in the old countries, and

Whereas, we also recall the disabilities, harassments and imprisonments to which our forebears in early America were subjected at the hands of the Colonial authorities for the civil offense of preaching the Gospel, and

Whereas, we further recall the vital contribution our Baptist leaders made in forging the American Constitution, and especially its Bill of Rights, guaranteeing religious and political liberties and church-state separation,

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED BY THE BAPTIST STATE CONVENTION OF NORTH CAROLINA: That though we have fought the good fight and kept the faith through the years, the course of religious freedom is never finished, the price of our liberties is still eternal vigilance, and we do hereby solemnly affirm the following:

1. We express appreciation for the discontinuance of government-sponsored religious services in the White House and call for the immediate ending of any and all similar practices throughout the land.

2. We remind the civil magistrates of North Carolina of the recent decision of the U.S. Supreme Court to the end that it is no part of the business of government to compose and promote religious prayers.

3. We remind our own people that since the public schools as agencies of the government are not extensions of our homes or churches but institutions supported by tax funds, and laws requiring attendance, and under the administration of civil servants, the practice of prayer and the use of the Bible for devotional and religious purposes in these schools are violative both of the American Constitution and of our Baptist faith.

4. We oppose any and all government funding, whether directly or indirectly, of independent and often church-sponsored schools popularly known as "Christian Academies."

5. And finally, we urge our seven Baptist colleges and universities to regard with solemn circumspection, with fear and trembling, the advocacy of public subsidies, whether direct or indirect, to alleviate the financial crisis that has come to religious and private institutions of higher learning throughout the nation.

52. Ed Middleton, Louisburg, offered the following resolution and moved its adoption, which, after being seconded, was referred to the Committee on Resolutions:

Whereas, we recognize that draft evaders are humans who broke human laws and yet at the same time we hope not to defile personal, ethical and philosophical convictions, and

Whereas, President Gerald Ford has the power to grant amnesty to all draft evaders, and

Whereas, we affirm that we are recipients of God's all-forgiving grace and love and are called upon to share this grace with others,

BE IT HEREBY RESOLVED that the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina supports universal amnesty.

53. Steve Barbee, Fayetteville, offered the following resolution and moved its adoption, which, after being seconded, was referred to the Committee on Resolutions:

Whereas, valid evidence has established the fact that the death penalty is not a deterrent to crime; and

Whereas, reviewing statistics on executions in North Carolina shows that capital punishment has been a tool for racial discrimination; and

Whereas, believing that we as individuals making up society must bear partial responsibility for the behavior of our fellow man; and

Whereas, believing that laws have been created to protect life, which is viewed as sacred, the death penalty is in violation of this established belief; and

Whereas, believing the purpose of punishment is to be reformative in nature, the death penalty brings an end to life and thus is not reformative; and

Whereas, believing that life is a gift of God in whose control it lies and that man does not possess the authority to destroy another's life;

BE IT RESOLVED by the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina that we are strongly opposed to the death penalty.

54. First Vice-President Privette, Kannapolis, offered the following resolution and moved its adoption, which, after being seconded, was referred to the Committee on Resolutions:

Whereas, 500 million people in the world are without adequate food, with 10,000 dying daily from starvation, and,

Whereas, demand for food products pushes prices higher and higher as the pattern has been in the last year, and,

Whereas, more than 16,000 tons of grain and other food products are used daily in this country to make alcoholic beverages,

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina in session in Raleigh, North Carolina, November 6-8:

1. That we call on the Congress of the United States, through our elected representatives from North Carolina, to ration grain, sugar and other food products to breweries and distilleries.

2. That not more than 90 per cent of the previous year's consumption be authorized and less if possible since these are non-essential industries.

3. That this resolution be sent to each member of the North Carolina delegation in Congress with a covering letter, pointing out that food products have been rationed in other times of crisis such as in World War II.

4. That copies of this resolution also be sent to President Gerald Ford and House Speaker Carl Albert, urging that this legislation be a first step by the United States to make more food available to the millions who are starving throughout the world.

5. That this Convention, through its elected messengers, urge members of the churches cooperating with this Convention to practice food conservation and urge others to do so at all times.

55. Gerald T. Smith, Mount Airy, alternate to preach the Convention Sermon, read Matthew 7:13-29 and led the Convention in prayer.

56. Miss Rosalyn Barlowe, Lenoir, sang a medley of songs including "How Firm a Foundation," "My Hope Is Built," and "Amazing Grace."

57. Thad R. Dowdle, Lenoir, preached the Convention Sermon, entitled "Building on Firm Foundations." After discussing the importance of firm foundations appropriate to that which is to be built thereupon, he spoke at length concerning the foundation of divine revelation as it is found in the created order, as it is seen in Jesus Christ, and as it is found in the Bible when it is interpreted to our hearts by the Holy Spirit. A second foundation is God's redeeming grace offered to men in Jesus Christ, interpreted to the world by the church, and received by men through faith. A third foundation is righteousness, which is a gift of God calling us to place ourselves fully under the lordship of Jesus Christ. This means we are called to be thoroughly Christian, but some of us are more white than Christian, or more American than Christian, or more Baptist than Christian. It also means we are responsible for trying to influence the social order which so powerfully influences the lives of men. These firm foundations are bonded together in Jesus Christ himself, who is the chief cornerstone.

58. The benediction for the Thursday morning meeting was pronounced by Jack A. Bracey, Weldon.

64. The time for Miscellaneous Business having arrived, Charles B. Deane, Jr., Rockingham, offered the following resolution and moved its adoption, which, after being seconded, was referred to the Joint Committee on Resolutions:

Whereas, our commitment to Christ compels us to be concerned for any injustice or undue hardship placed upon the people; and

Whereas, North Carolina law imposes a tax on food which is an essential commodity to all people; and

Whereas, this law is regressive taxation which hurts those the most who can least afford to pay; and

Whereas, with the continued rise in the cost of food, this form of taxation has imposed an undue hardship on thousands of North Carolina's retired citizens who are on fixed income;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that we, the messengers to the 144th Annual Session of the Baptist State Convention and to the 107th Annual Session of the General Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, meeting in Raleigh, November 6-8, 1974:

1. Call upon the 1975 North Carolina General Assembly to repeal the taxation on food;

2. That the loss of revenue which results from the repeal of the food tax be reclaimed through many available options to the General Assembly; and

75. Second Vice-President Deane stated that in his opinion this matter is not out of order and that this would be his ruling.

76. Allen Laymon stated that in view of some difference of opinion in regard to whether this motion should be out of order, the Council on Christian Life and Public Affairs would await the recommendations of the Committee on Resolutions on this issue. He then introduced Charles V. Petty.

77. Charles V. Petty, Raleigh, Director of the Division of Christian Life and Public Affairs, addressed the Convention concerning the significant issues contained in the report. He described "inauthentic morality" as the kind which concerns itself only with "gnat issues." He stressed also that we, as religious leaders, must be willing to obey the laws of the land and the laws of God.

82. Dave Gordon, Knightdale, offered the following resolution and moved its adoption, which, after being seconded, was referred to the Committee on Resolutions:

Whereas, we live in a country of abundance amidst human need, and

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED

108. Reginald Kamara, from Monrovia, Liberia, a student at Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary in Wake Forest, spoke concerning Africa's need for Christ. He pointed out that Southern Baptists have done great work by sending white missionaries to Africa. He then expressed the hope that we would become willing to send black missionaries to Africa also.

109. Isamu Matsumoto, from Tokyo, Japan, a student at Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary in Wake Forest, sang "God Is So Good to Me," and then led the Convention in singing. 110. Sophia Gomes, from Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, a student at Gardner-Webb College, Boiling Springs, pictured the multitudes of Latin America lost in sin, most of them nominal members of a dead religion but with empty hearts. She pled for a massive increase in our missionary effort.

111. Alice Ann Yates, from Enfield, North Carolina, a student at the University of North Carolina at Greensboro, agreed that the supreme need is for Christ's salvation, but said it would be a great mistake for us to think of this as primarily a matter of future deliverance from eternal death. She stressed how important it is for people to experience the love of Christ in the present moment.

112. Charles S. Gatwood, Cary, led the joint Conventions in singing "All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name."

113. President Allen A. Bailey presided and presented to the joint Conventions Joy J. Johnson, Fairmont, newly elected president of the General Baptist State Convention. He then introduced O. L. Sherrill.

114. O. L. Sherrill, Raleigh, Executive Secretary of the General Baptist State Convention, addressed the joint Conventions on the theme "Reaching Beyond Ourselves." Man, early in his history, learned the primal lesson of self-preservation and labelled everything in his world, including other people, as "good" or "bad" according to how they affected his personal well-being. Through the centuries the destructive power of this attitude has borne bitter fruit in man's inhumanity to man. However, our spiritual forebears were called by God to a nobler heritage, and in Jesus Christ men are transformed into new men who are able to love their fellow Christians and to love all men in Jesus' name.

115. President Bailey introduced W. Perry Crouch.

116. W. Perry Crouch, Raleigh, General Secretary-Treasurer of the Baptist State Convention, addressed the joint Conventions on the theme "Reaching Beyond Ourselves." Since Cain killed Abel man has been devising laws for the protection of life and property, but law is not enough. The law reveals sin but cannot save. It is only in Jesus Christ that man is redeemed and learns how to treat his fellowman with compassion. Christianity is more than ministry to human need; it is also living in true brotherhood with our fellowman, seeking to love as God has loved—not physical attraction or sentimental attachment, but sincere good will for every person.

117. Charles S. Gatwood, Cary, led the joint Conventions in singing "O Zion Haste."

118. President Allen A. Bailey announced the election of James M. Bulman as Parliamentarian of the Baptist State Convention.

120. The combined choirs sang "The Battle Hymn of the Republic," by Steffe.

121. Samuel D. Proctor, Brooklyn, New York, addressed the joint Conventions on "Longer Cords and Stronger Stakes," based upon Isaiah 54:3. This text comes out of the tragic depths of the Exile, and we who struggle in the present generation of despair can be instructed thereby. God found his people in ancient Babylon and mapped out a great program of advance for them in spite of their deep needs. In a similar way God calls us to reach out to minister to human need, but we cannot do this reaching out without stronger stakes, the solid character which is found only in Jesus Christ. The ideals of the Declaration of Independence and the Constitution of our country constituted the greatest lengthening of cords ever undertaken in the human social order, but now, two hundred years later, we can clearly see that we need stronger stakes, people with deep spiritual roots. Longer cords do call for stronger stakes.

122. The benediction for the Thursday evening meeting was pronounced by Frank Marshall, Asheville, President of the Layman's League of the General Baptist State Convention.

Gatwood led the Convention in the reading of a responsive reading and in the singing of "The Church's One Foundation." Six of the Singing Churchmen read, in turn, the words of a familiar hymn or gospel song. Charles S. Gatwood led the Convention in singing "Savior, Like a Shepherd Lead Us" and in a period of prayer.

125. President Bailey expressed appreciation for the music during the Convention.

Whereas, Baptist churches believe there are many avenues opened to involve people with Christ and His way of life within their neighborhood,

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, by the General Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, Inc. and the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina in joint session assembled, that the Church's stewardship to the local neighborhood be strengthened by encouraging each church to participate in its neighborhood area in developing to a higher degree the Christian community by involving more people in such programs of Christian and community growth as: seminars in Christian living, Christian recreational programs, scouting programs (boys and girls), family counseling programs, Bible teaching groups, day care centers, and other areas that may be thought of as sensitive needs within the church's neighborhood, and

Whereas, the strength of this nation is dependent upon the corporate strength of its individual citizens and families, and

Whereas, the present time seems to reflect a severe state of moral decay in our country, a serious crisis in confidence in government and governmental leaders, and an epidemic level of crime in high and low places, and

Whereas, there is the likelihood of further decline in the well-being in our country because of widespread apathy and lack of remedial citizenship involvement;

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED that the General Baptist Convention of North Carolina, Inc., and the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, encourage all of our citizens to accept the responsibilities of constructive citizenship;

That we urge them to register to vote, to inform themselves of issues and candidates, to vote in all elections, to vote for and support candidates who will provide honest, just, and constructive leadership; and

That with the kind of willingness so many have shown to defend their country, even to dying for it if necessary, that we will be willing to live in such manner as citizens as can assure its inner strength;

WE FURTHER RESOLVE to call to the attention of all Americans, by example and precept, that the nation which forgets God will perish, but that righteousness exalteth a nation.

Whereas, our conventions are aware of the great contribution to society our public supported system of education has made, and,

Whereas, as Christian citizens we are concerned that the quality and values of our public supported system of education be both treasured and expanded, changing in ways appropriate to meet changing needs:

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED that we reaffirm our support of our public supported system of education generally; and, more specifically, we express our convictions that it is our legal and moral responsibility to provide education to all our youth through secondary graduation; and that children and youth with special needs have the full right to have programs available that will meet these needs, however varied; and that our state and nation must move forward in our program of desegregation, so that in the immediate future full integration will be achieved, including students, professional staff and all supporting services; and that waste and displacement of capable administrative and special area personnel must not be a practice in any school district; and that we must commit ourselves to support reasonable techniques, including those presently employed, to enable us to achieve this goal; and that we urge all Boards of Education and County Commissioners to work cooperatively in their specific area of responsibility to provide sufficient local tax funds in order that the basic support by the state may be enhanced.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Baptist State Convention and the General Baptist State Convention in joint action, encourage its officers, ministers and all lay persons to give prayerful and full active support to these principles.

222. R. Irving Boone, Kinston, in behalf of the Joint Resolutions Committee made a motion that the following resolution be adopted:

Whereas, the basic principle on which the judicial systems of this state and nation are founded is that of equal justice under the law; and

Whereas, the longer reaches of history point to religious sanctions for this principle in the Bible and in the Judaic-Christian heritage; and

Whereas, this principle is severely tested from time to time in the temptation to yield to power, prestige, privilege, or position in the administration of justice, thus causing self-interest, passion, or prejudice to influence judges, juries, or publics to deviate from the aforementioned principle of equal justice under the law and consequently to perpetrate injustice; and

Whereas, the revelations of scandals which reach to the highest offices in the land, although having resulted in the resignations of a Vice-President and then of a President of the United States, nevertheless continue to bring persons before the bars of justice and thus, to test the principle of equal justice under the law;

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED that we reaffirm the principle of equal justice under the law and call upon all persons who participate in the judicial processes of the State and the Nation strictly to adhere to this principle;

BE IT FINALLY RESOLVED that we request the general secretaries of these two conventions, Dr. O. L. Sherrill and Dr. W. Perry Crouch, to transmit copies of this resolution to the Attorneys-General of the State of North Carolina and of the United States respectively.

The motion was seconded and carried.

223. Thomas A. Bland, Wake Forest, in behalf of the Joint Resolutions Committee made a motion that the following resolution be adopted:

Whereas, the General Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, Inc., and the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina have each, separately, in earlier years, gone on record calling for the abolition of the death penalty under the laws of the State of North Carolina; and,

Whereas, as these two Baptist bodies meet in an historic joint session in the capital city of Raleigh on this eighth day of November, 1974, we, the messengers are acutely aware that not far from where we meet today the largest number of persons awaiting execution by any state in the nation are under this penalty and are on "Death Row" in our beloved state of North Carolina; and

Whereas, the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina will convene in this city within a few weeks from this date to begin the 1975 session of the Legislature;

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED that we reaffirm the earlier actions of our conventions in calling for the abolition of capital punishment in North Carolina, and that we urge the 1975 General Assembly to enact appropriate legislation to this end.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that we request the General Secretaries of these conventions, Dr. O. L. Sherrill and Dr. W. Perry Crouch, to transmit copies of this resolution to the Speaker of the House and the presiding officer of the Senate of the General Assembly of North Carolina.

Whereas, the greatest human wealth in North Carolina is in the children and youth of our State, in whose formative years the family and the church share; and

Whereas, the quality of life for these children and youth is being determined in large measure by the moral guidance of families and churches, with the major responsibilities residing in the families;

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED that we urge our churches to aid parents to teach, by word and by deed, such basic virtues as honesty, personal and social responsibility, integrity, truth-telling and truth-doing, and such additional virtues as will lead to wholesome awe and reverence for God, regard for truth, respect for all persons, and commitment to freedom and order in human relations.

The motion was seconded and carried.

226. James H. Ward, Jr., Goldsboro, made a motion to amend the motion by adding the following:

For a little over a year we have had to sit in our television rooms and listen to a set of four letter words which has apparently been adopted as acceptable by the world of entertainment and I have not seen nor have I heard any religious group denouncing these words as insults to the Christian home and a threat to the clean vocabulary of a Christian family.

BE IT RESOLVED that fair warning be given, through the weekly television guides, of the use of these words so that parents may better censor the entertainment of their children especially during prime time hours.

The amendment was accepted by common consent, and the motion, as amended, was carried.

227. Henry Turlington, Chapel Hill, in behalf of the Joint Resolutions Committee made a motion that the following resolution be adopted:

BE IT RESOLVED that the General Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, Inc., and the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, meeting in joint session in Raleigh on November 8, 1974, call upon our people, on the occasion of the bicentennial of a nation born in revolution, to reaffirm and celebrate the historic Baptist witness to, and struggle for, the sanctity of private conscience, the freedom and autonomy of the churches, and the separation of church and state;

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that we call upon the Bicentennial Committees, both Federal and State, to memorialize and dramatize the heritage of religious faith in American history, to give special emphasis to the vital contributions of the black churches in keeping, generation after generation, the fires of freedom burning in the human heart, and to bring to light the full story, so often tragic and unrecorded, of the undaunted commitment of minority peoples to free all Americans from every form of tyranny over the mind of man;

AND BE IT FINALLY RESOLVED that we, as people called Baptists, remind the President and the Congress, the magistrates and all the people of the United States, that the quest for full civil rights for Blacks, Indians, Puerto Ricans and Chicanos, the liberation movement for women, the welfare rights movement for the poor, the growing awareness of and concern for the aging, and the determination to protect free conscience against the encroachments of the government, are vital and valid expressions of the continuing and unfinished revolution which is at the heart of America.

The motion was seconded and carried.

228. R. Irving Boone, Kinston, in behalf of the Joint Resolutions Committee made a motion that the following resolution be adopted:

Whereas, man's survival is related to the environment; and

Whereas, the earth and all things are God's gifts to mankind, and we, as Christians, are expected to be good stewards of these gifts;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that we, the messengers to the General Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, Inc. and the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, meeting in joint session on November 8, 1974, endorse, support and become actively involved in sound environmental and ecological activities which seek to encourage participation of all citizens as individuals and as groups to protect and improve all facets of the environment as good stewards in accordance with the teaching of Holy Scripture.

The motion was seconded and carried.

229. Leon Riddick, Charlotte, in behalf of the Joint Resolutions Committee made a motion that the following resolution be adopted:

Whereas, there are more than twenty-one million persons over the age of sixty five in the United States of America; and

Whereas, the life expectancy is now seventy-two years; and

Whereas, transportation, nutrition, and medical care costs are on the increase; and

Whereas, many of these retired persons have a very low social security income, because they were in the very low income bracket during their working years; and

Whereas, many of these persons over the age of 65 cannot live decently on their social security incomes, and the $2,400 they are allowed to earn before their social security checks are reduced proportionately; and

Whereas, many of these retired persons have marketable skills that could be used for the good of the community and themselves;

BE IT RESOLVED that we enlist the aid of our representatives in Congress to raise the amount of the earned income of those persons over the age of sixty five, who are living in poverty, above the present $2,400 (and $2,520 as of January 1, 1975) to an amount that would lift their living standards above the poverty level.

The motion was seconded and carried.

230. Henry Turlington, Chapel Hill, in behalf of the Joint Resolutions Committee, made a motion that the following resolution be adopted:

Whereas, there is abundant evidence of increasingly devastating problems of famine and hunger in the world, with perhaps as many as thirty million people threatened with death from starvation this year; and

Whereas, the Sahel region of Africa has experienced five years of drought (only minimally moderated by recent rains) with widespread famine resulting, and Bangladesh and India have experienced floods and droughts respectively; and, whereas Honduras has serious problems of hunger; and, whereas serious depletions of grain supplies exist in many parts of the world; and

Whereas, both the commandment and the spirit of Christ impel us to feed the hungry;

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED

First, that we take note of the World Food Conference now in progress in Rome, with the major governments of the world represented, that we note the principal issues on the agenda of the Conference: (1) an increased food aid program for emergency relief; (2) the creation of a coordinated grain reserve system with stocks maintained at strategic locations for purchase by countries in time of need; and (3) technical assistance measures for increasing food production in lesser developed countries; and

That we request the General Secretaries of our two conventions, Dr. O. L. Sherrill and Dr. W. Perry Crouch, to send a message to U. S. Senator Jesse Helms, a member of the United States Delegation to the World Food Conference in Rome, in which the deep concern of the Baptist conventions is expressed, the assurance of our prayers is offered, and the fervent hope is communicated that the Conference will be able to bring the resources of the nations with food to the immediate aid of those nations where assistance is so desperately needed; and Secondly, that we urge individual Baptists, and Baptist churches to contribute to the alleviation of world hunger through the Baptist World Alliance, c/o Dr. Carl W. Tiller, Relief Coordinator, 1628 16th St., N.W., Washington, D. C. 20009.

The motion was seconded and carried.

231. James Lassiter, Winston-Salem, in behalf of the Joint Resolutions Committee made a motion that the following resolution be adopted:

Whereas, the Scriptures repeatedly remind us that God shows no partiality between persons; and

Whereas, we recognize our responsibility as Christians to live together in love and in peace and to support harmony among people, and accordingly seek for all persons full justice and opportunity to develop their finest potential;

BE IT RESOLVED that we strongly affirm our support of the principle of equal opportunity in employment in our society; and

That we similarly affirm our support of the principle that race, color, or national origin must not be determining factors in the acquisition of appropriate housing in which families may live.

The motion was seconded and carried.

232. R. Irving Boone, Kinston, in behalf of the Joint Resolutions Committee, made a motion that the resolution on the repeal of the sales tax on food submitted by Charles B. Deane, Jr., a messenger to the Baptist State Convention [See Item 64 above], be adopted. The motion was seconded.

233. An unidentified messenger raised the question as to whether there is a tax on medicine. Charles B. Deane, Jr., the author of this resolution, and a member of the state legislature, answered in the affirmative but requested that this issue not be attached to the present resolution since it would weaken its impact upon the legislature. The vote was taken on the resolution and it was carried.

234. Ray K. Hodge, Kinston, in behalf of the joint Resolutions Committee, made a motion that the resolution on pornography submitted by B. J. Morris, a messenger to the Baptist State Convention [See Item 18 above] be adopted. The motion was seconded.

235. B. J. Morris, Boger City, spoke in favor of the motion.

236. W. W. Finlator, Raleigh, expressed great sympathy for the basic thrust of this resolution; he then made a motion that we amend this motion by substituting in its place the following:

In the light of the fact that we are a people of freedom, that we believe in freedom of the press, and that when you give the government power to declare what is obscene and to repress, you give the government also power to repress other freedoms, including religious freedom, I make a substitute motion that instead of going to the government to enforce what we Christians believe is right or wrong, as we have so often in the past, including such things as blue laws, that we try under God's grace to survive the openness of society today, and by counteracting it by preaching, teaching, loving, doing all we can from our churches and homes to provide the kind of Christian citizens who can live in an open society and survive and ultimately spiritually, without the power of the law, defeat this.

The motion to amend was seconded and the motion was defeated. The vote on the original motion was carried.

237. R. Irving Boone, Kinston, in behalf of the Joint Resolutions Committee made a motion that the following resolution be adopted:

Whereas, the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina and the General Baptist State Convention of North Carolina convened in joint session in the year of our Lord, 1974; and

Whereas, the constituents of both these Conventions subscribe to the New Testament doctrine of the Fatherhood of God and the Brotherhood of man; and

Whereas, the implementation of this immortal doctrine is greatly enhanced through mutual fellowship and joint participation; and

Whereas, there is a basic commonality of objectives and a variety of areas of mutual concern, on part of both Conventions;

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED that the two Conventions acknowledge the unique opportunities, both in terms of expanded ministries and of exemplary services, which such togetherness provides;

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that these two Conventions look with favor on a program of continued cooperative ministries; and that, specifically, these Conventions:

1. Explore more creative ways to engage more youth in Christian vocations;

- (1) Strengthen and expand the summer program for college youth, and provide more opportunities for black and white youth to minister together;

- (b) Enlarge student aid funds, to encourage those who seek college preparation to enter church-related vocations.

2. Request the staff members of both Conventions to explore and pursue ways of more fully ministering with and to all the Baptists in North Carolina;

3. Encourage more programs in training and education, planned by representatives from both Conventions;

4. Seek ways to assist those churches which are struggling to minister in new and racially changing communities;

5. Encourage churches and district associations to explore ways to combine their efforts in interracial ministries;

6. Continue conferences and programs which assist Baptists with interpersonal relationships;

7. Plan more programs for evangelism and witnessing to reach all of the unchurched people of North Carolina—regardless of race or class;

8. Focus attention on fact of the sacredness of human personality, that in the bosom of every individual there burn the fires of the eternal, and that, under God, every person possesses untapped resources.

The motion was seconded and carried.

238. Thomas M. Freeman, Dunn, immediate past president of the Baptist State Convention, introduced the speaker of the hour.

239. Mrs. John W. Fleming, Raleigh, sang "Lord, I Don't Feel Noways Tired" arr. Johnson.

240. Owen Cooper, Yazoo City, Mississippi, immediate past president of the Southern Baptist Convention, addressed the joint Conventions on the subject "The Christian Voice of the Nation." Many voices are being heard in our land, including the voices of Milwaukee, of Hollywood, of Broadway, of Bourbon Street, of Reno, of Wall Street, of Berkeley, and of the Pentagon. To each of the various philosophies of life espoused by these voices, the scripture answers. Jesus told us what is the first and greatest commandment, and it is to his voice that we should respond first and most supremely. If we love God first of all, we are going to give him priority in our lives. Jesus immediately went a step farther and said we must love our neighbors as ourselves. This involves personal involvement with our neighbors, in housing the poor, in feeding the hungry, in clothing the naked, in treating the sick, and in communicating the gospel to those who do not know God. God has given us the ability to do these things, and ability brings responsibility and accountability.

241. The benediction for the Friday afternoon meeting and for the 1974 Annual Session was pronounced by Robert F. Hewitt, Matthews, President of the North Carolina Baptist Brotherhood of the Baptist State Convention.

RALEIGH
November 6-8, 1974

I. FOREWORD

"For We Are Labourers Together With God. . . ."—I Cor. 3:9

The year 1974 has been excellent for North Carolina Baptists. Every phase of our work has shown strong activity and progress. The year has included activity on the part of two long-range committees, one studying the summer assembly facilities at Caswell, and one studying the need of a statewide conference and leadership training center at Caraway. Both of these committees have completed their study and the General Board will bring definite recommendations to you concerning these items.

I am particularly grateful to Richard Smith, who is completing his first year as Business Manager-Comptroller. He has shown unusual ability to handle our business office and to continue the excellent work done by Leon Spencer, who retired at the end of 1973. During the year the Executive Committee decided to secure computer equipment and change our financial records to a data processing system. This change is now in process and should be completed by March of 1975. The Department of Survey and Statistics has been changed to the Department of Data Processing. Ted Williams continues to head the department. During the year he has been taking special training for the work of programmer, and will continue to be responsible for associational letters and all statistics. We are grateful to the Mississippi Baptist Convention for the gift of the basic data processing plan developed by their state. This has saved us much money and hopefully many errors in setting up our own system.

I continue to be grateful to Robert Bruhn and the office of Pastor/Church Relations for the excellent help given to our churches seeking a pastor, and pastors seeking a field service. Several hundred churches use this service each year.

During this year we have unified our Convention printing through the Department of Public Relations. Dan Euliss, a trained commercial artist and printer has joined Bill Boatwright in the work of this department. All departments direct their printing through this office. This has resulted in a better quality of material, and a better price on printing. Our own print shop continues to do an excellent job.

This has been an unusually good year in the promotion of the Cooperative Program among our churches. Tom Greene, Harold White and Cleve Wilkie continue to do a good job in producing material and in keeping our people informed about our mission needs. They are now busy preparing special plans for the observance of the 50th Anniversary of the Cooperative Program in 1975. Recommendations concerning these plans are in the General Board report.

I never cease to be grateful for a loyal, devoted and talented staff who work constantly at the task of helping our churches with their needs, and extending the arm of our churches to those special mission needs beyond the ability of a local church to accomplish.

I am grateful for 72 excellent Superintendents of Missions in our state. These men and women are elected and supported by their associations, but cooperate with our Convention staff in the promotion of all of our work. A few years ago we helped them get a group insurance program and this year we are beginning a group hospital program for most of them.

In 1975, I will begin my last year as General Secretary-Treasurer of our Convention. These eleven years have been busy ones, and I am grateful for all who have pulled together in the work of the Convention. We have great plans for 1975. Will you help us make it a good year?

—W. PERRY CROUCH

II. GENERAL BOARD REPORT AND RECOMMENDATIONS

The General Board is composed of at least one member from each of the 80 associations, and twelve of these associations have a membership of more than 20,000 which gives them two or more members. The Board meets three times per year to carry on the work of the Convention between sessions. An Executive Committee of the Board meets each month. This committee is composed of the officers of the Convention, the chairman of the major committees of the Board and five members elected from the Board. The Executive Committee for 1974 has been:

Allen Bailey, president, Baptist State Convention

Coy Privette, first vice president, Baptist State Convention

Billy Mobley, president, General Board

Howard Holly, vice president, General Board

Gene Watterson, president, Council on Christian Higher Education

Al Laymon, president, Council on Christian Life & Public Affairs

Horace Jackson, chairman, Evangelism Committee

Joe Burnette, chairman, Missions Committee

Gene Booker, chairman, Social Services Committee

Hoke Cook, member-at-large

James O. Hagwood, member-at-large

Mrs. W. K. McGee, member-at-large

Jack Noffsinger, member-at-large

M. O. Sears, member-at-large

Our General Board program is divided into divisions of work. We will follow these divisions as we discuss the year's work.

BUSINESS MANAGEMENT

This has been an unusual year for this division because of two things. First, Richard Smith began the year as Business Manager-Comptroller succeeding Leon Spencer who retired on December 31, 1973, after twenty years service with the Convention. Mr. Smith has proven his ability as an excellent business manager and his grasp of our Baptist work.

This division handles the money matters for North Carolina Baptist Assembly, Camp Caraway camps and retreats, Camp Mundo Vista, Fruitland Bible Institute, the student centers, as well as all money received at the Convention office in Raleigh. In addition the business office is responsible for the upkeep of buildings, insurance and all travel accounts.

During the year, the Executive Committee approved a recommendation, from a special committee that had been studying our bookkeeping methods, that we secure computers and equipment that would make possible a faster method of keeping our records. The Department of Statistics and Survey was changed to the Data Processing Department and Ted Williams has been trained as programmer for the work. The change has already begun and will be completed by March. This will make possible quarterly reports to our churches and eventually monthly reports.

DIVISION OF MISSION MINISTRIES

This division under the leadership of Dr. Howard Ford has many functions. One is to encourage small mission churches, by helping with the purchase of church lots and pastoral aid for a five-year period. In 1974, we will spend $38,250.00 for new lots and approximately $78,234.00 pastoral aid. Another big help for these mission churches is a church loan fund. This year, because of tight money, we have had an unusual number of requests for loans, and have exhausted loan money available. We would urge churches of three hundred members or more to seek loans locally or apply to the Home Mission Board. We need the small amount we have to help new mission churches, or churches that are too small to get local loans.

During the year the Board authorized the beginning of a new Christian Social Ministry program with the New River Association, with headquarters in Jacksonville. This is a joint project supported by the association, the Baptist State Convention, and Home Mission Board. Tommy Fewell was employed to begin work September 1.

Fruitland Bible Institute has continued with an enrollment of about 212 men per quarter. During the year Gary Harthcock resigned as Director-Business Manager to move to Puerto Rico where he will be self-employed while doing voluntary mission work. Alex Booth, our present Dean of Fruitland was named Director-Dean. The work continues in an excellent manner. Word has just come about the death of a benefactor who has left $25,000 to the Institute. We are not free to mention the donor until the contents of the will have been made public.

During the year a number of small requests from churches and associations were met from the Special Mission Fund that is provided for emergency needs. Recently a Disaster Committee was named, composed of three members from the Raleigh staff, three regional missionaries, and one layman from each of the 10 regions. This committee will have a special orientation soon, and be ready to meet any disaster occurring in our state. During this year, the Mt. Liberty church near Murphy lost their building in a tornado. Funds were sent from our emergency reserve, and from the Home Mission Board to help the church build a new building.

In case of a disaster outside of our state, such as the recent flood in Honduras, we would urge local churches to send any relief money they may desire to give to our office, clearly marked for the particular disaster. We will immediately send it to the Home Mission Board or the Foreign Mission Board as the location suggests.

We are particularly proud of the 55 Seminary Extension Centers in our state, promoted by the Town and Country and Seminary Extension.

We are grateful for the excellent work carried on by the Department of Cooperation with the General Baptist Convention. Corbin Cooper has worked very closely with the committee planning the Joint Convention with the General Baptists.

Perhaps the biggest boost to any of the departments in the Missions Division has occurred to the Communications Department. In the recent addition to the Baptist Building, a modern Communication Center was planned. However, equipment was not included. During the year, A. J. Fletcher of Capitol Broadcasting Company in Raleigh, gave a $50,000 Challenge Gift toward equipment. The General Board voted to match this gift which will be received over a three-year period. There will be a recommendation concerning the borrowing of money against these pledges, which will make possible the purchase of half of the needed equipment now. A committee is working on the task of raising money for the balance of equipment needed. This will make it possible to produce tapes for Cablevision and for local churches and association. When all of the equipment is secured, we will be able to produce all kinds of TV film and tapes for our Baptist people and for distribution in North Carolina.

CHURCH PROGRAMS DIVISION

Nathan Brooks does an excellent job of directing the Division of Church Programs. During the year a Long-Range Committee has been studying the needs of our summer assembly at Caswell. They have secured professional help, and have done an excellent job of projecting future needs and suggestions of procedure to meet these needs. The General Board has a recommendation on this matter.

Another committee has spent two years studying the needs for a conference center at Caraway. This proposed building would tie together existing winterized buildings at Caraway and Mundo Vista Camps so that facilities for conferences up to 300 would be available. The General Board has a recommendation on this matter.

A strong emphasis has been placed on the work of the deacon during the past year. Retreats and seminars have been conducted in local churches, associations and on the state level. For the second year a state-wide conference was held for pastors and chairmen of deacons in Greensboro. We believe this emphasis can greatly strengthen our local churches.

Our summer program using college young people was the largest in our history. Over three hundred young people were used on the staff at Caswell, Caraway, Mundo Vista, Truett Camp, and Youth Corps, resort missions, Vacation Bible School, Apostoloi and other youth ministries.

The division sponsored a conference for the elderly at Caswell, a new conference for exceptional children and several youth weeks.

The Sunday School Department is making a strong plea for increased Sunday School attendance, with high attendance day set for November 17. It is hoped that we can have 500,000 present in Bible study that Sunday morning.

Our Brotherhood Department has had a strong program of lay renewal and lay witnessing going among the men of our churches. The boys' camps continued strong with 1,500 in attendance during the summer.

DIVISION OF EVANGELISM

W. C. Lamb continues to lead this division in a strong emphasis on lay witnessing. Clinics have been held in many churches and associations. The state-wide evangelistic conferences continue to be one of the strongest meetings held in our state each year.

Jimmy Hinson, associate in this division is recovering from serious surgery and is now back on the job. Mr. Hinson works with young people and directs the Youth Evangelism Team each summer.

COUNCIL ON CHRISTIAN LIFE AND PUBLIC AFFAIRS

Charles Petty is completing his second year as director of the Council. He has been in much demand across the state, especially in the fields of family life and marriage enrichment. A state wide seminar on family life was held in Greensboro during March of this year. The Council meets three times per year to study moral and spiritual problems facing our people, and prepare guidelines for their use. Brochures have been prepared and are available on many of the ethical and moral questions of our day.

RELATIONSHIPS WITH BAPTIST INSTITUTIONS

Through the Council on Christian Higher Education and the Social Services Committee of the General Board, a constant contact is made with our colleges and social service institutions.

During the year, the General Board considered a special request from Baptist Homes to conduct a campaign for $800,000 for a new retirement home in western North Carolina. The Convention will receive a recommendation concerning this matter.

The North Carolina Baptist Hospital requested permission to enlarge their Board of Trustees. They report a good year at the Hospital. All of our institutions seem to be in excellent condition at the present time.

APPOINTMENT OF A SEARCH COMMITTEE

At the fall meeting of the General Board at Caraway, W. Perry Crouch, our General Secretary-Treasurer for the past eleven years announced that he would be presenting his resignation to the Convention at its annual meeting in Raleigh, November 6-8, 1974. This resignation would be effective on December 31, 1975.

The Constitution of the Convention, Article VI, a, reads:

"In case of a vacancy in the office of General Secretary-Treasurer, the General Board shall nominate a man to the Convention to fill this office."

In keeping with this instruction, the Executive Committee recommended a committee of 21. The General Board nominated two more from the floor and then approved a total number of 23 to serve as the Search Committee. This committee is as follows:

RECOMMENDATIONS TO THE BAPTIST STATE CONVENTION

1. Change in Number of Trustees for Baptist Hospital

The General Board recommends that the number of trustees for Baptist Hospital be increased from 28 to 32.

2. Financial Campaign for Baptist Homes for New Home in Western N. C.

The General Board recommends to the Convention that the North Carolina Baptist Homes, Inc. be granted permission to conduct an enlargement campaign on a state-wide basis, in keeping with the financial plan of the Convention. These funds would be used for the construction of a retirement home in western North Carolina.

3. Purchase of Equipment for Communications Center

The General Board recommends to the Convention that permission be granted to borrow up to $60,000 for the purpose of paying for equipment needed to furnish the Communications Center.

4. Long Range Planning Committee for Caswell

The General Board recommends to the Convention the following:

a. Approval of the over-all five-phase program as a working direction for the assembly.

b. That implementation of Phase One take place as funds are available.

c. That implementation of the other phases take place after further studies, authorization and plans for funding.

5. Caraway Conference Center

The General Board recommends to the Convention:

a. That the Convention approve the request to borrow up to $600,000 for completion of a Conference Center building at Caraway.

b. That the plans for handling the construction, including time and supervision be left with the General Board and its Executive Committee.

6. Observance of the 50th Anniversary of the Cooperative Program

The General Board recommends to the Convention that North Carolina Baptists join the Baptist people of our Southern Baptist Convention in the celebration of the 50th Anniversary of the Cooperative Program in at least the following ways:

a. That we instruct the General Secretary-Treasurer and Convention president to sign the Declaration of recommitment to the Cooperative Program at the Southern Baptist Convention in Miami, representing the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina.

That the presidents and administrators of the institutions and agencies, and representatives of their trustees, be invited to sign for their institution or agency at the 1974 annual convention, November 6-8, 1974.

b. That the associational missionaries and officers of the 80 associations in North Carolina be urged to make a special effort to magnify the Cooperative Program in 1975.

c. That the churches in the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina be urged to have a recommitment service in their churches during April, 1975, and that they urge their members to indicate their support for the Cooperative Program by voting to increase their Cooperative Program budget substantially in the fall of 1975.

d. That the final emphasis on the Cooperative Program be made during the annual session of the Baptist State Convention in November, 1975.

e. That North Carolina Baptists assume the proportional part of the 150 million dollar goal for the calendar year of 1976.

7. Budget for 1975

The General Board recommends to the Baptist State Convention the following budget for 1975:

That the basic goal for 1975 be $10,500,000 and a challenge goal of $500,000 for a total goal of $11,000,000.

The General Board recommends to the Baptist State Convention that all basic percentages for SBC and State institutions remain as follows:

SBC Causes	33.34
Colleges	25.50
Social Services	10.04

The General Board further recommends that the General Board budget items such as State Missions and Convention-wide items be:

State Missions	25.25
Convention-wide	5.87

The General Board recommends that the challenge budget be divided as follows:

SBC Causes 40%

$200,000

State Objects 60%

$ 50,000—State Missions Specials
 100,000—Caraway Conference Center
 50,000—Fruitland Improvement Needs
 50,000—North Carolina Assembly Needs
 50,000—Retirement Home in Western N. C.

The General Board recommends that the 60% for State causes be divided in the order mentioned with #1 funded before #2 receives any, and so through the other needs in that order.

The General Board further recommends that the 1976 Budget Committee be asked to consider seriously a budget (basic budget) of $11,600,000 and a challenge budget of $900,000 or a total of $12,500,000. (This would be in keeping with the $150,000,000 SBC goal for 1976).

RECOMMENDATION CONCERNING PROPOSED COOPERATIVE PROGRAM BUDGET FOR 1975

The General Board recommends a Cooperative Program Budget of $10,500,000 for 1975 and that allocations be made as follows: 33.34 percent to the Southern Baptist Convention; 25.50 percent to Christian Higher Education; 10.04 percent to Christian Social Services (Children's Homes, Homes for Aging, and Pastoral Care Department at the Baptist Hospital); 5.87 percent to Convention-wide items, and 25.25 percent to State Missions.

The General Board further recommends that a Challenge Budget be divided as follows:

SBC Causes—40%	State Objects—60%
$200,000	$ 50,000—State Mission Specials
	100,000—CaRAway Conference Center
	50,000—Fruitland Improvement Needs
	50,000—Caswell Needs
	50,000—Retirement Home in W. N. C.

The 60% for State causes would be divided in the order mentioned with #1 funded before #2 receives any, and so through the other needs in that order.

III. PROGRAMS OF WORK

A. ADMINISTRATION

1. Department of Stewardship and Cooperative Program Promotion

R. TOM GREENE, director

The department's aim is the promotion of biblical stewardship which leads to persons growing in the grace of giving so that the needs of people may be met through the local church program, the associational program, and the Cooperative Program. The work during the past twelve months may be divided as follows:

I. LEAFLETS

We have developed and distributed leaflets, posters, and programs as follows: 300,000 basic Cooperative Program leaflets and posters plus 718,000 other leaflets, programs, and booklets on Stewardship and the Cooperative Program.

II. SEMINARS

We held Mission Advance Seminars for certain denominational leaders from the area of each association. The seminars included:

1. Explained and distributed the latest materials for teaching scriptural stewardship.
2. Received the wise suggestions from these leaders.

III. WORKSHOPS

Two kinds of workshops were conducted during the past year:

A. Associational and local church workshops dealing primarily with budget preparation (including pastors and staff salaries) and the promotion of the budget plus increased tithers and the giving of a report showing where the churches stood in their goals of Cooperative Program and associational mission's giving.

B. Mission Advance Workshops were held for the pastor and treasurer of each church in five associations. A speaker was secured on the Cooperative Program on the following Sunday in each church requesting this service.

The purpose of both of these workshops was:

1. To challenge the leaders of each church to use the latest and best stewardship methods, materials, and techniques to increase their budgets, to find larger financial resources to meet the local and associational and Cooperative Program needs, to deepen the spiritual lives of the people by helping them to become better stewards;
2. To increase support for associational missions; and
3. To give encouragement to these leaders and offer our services to the limit of our time and talents to aid these leaders in their aim of mission advance through the Cooperative Program for the benefit of carrying out the commission of our Lord through the churches where they serve.

IV. ARTICLES, ART AND REPORTS

We wrote articles, developed art and furnished pictures on Stewardship and Cooperative Program for the Biblical Recorder in cooperation with Marse Grant, editor. We published in the Biblical Recorder Cooperative Program giving of each church as well as the division of the Cooperative Program dollar. We wrote articles on the Cooperative Program for each issue of Charity and Children in cooperation with Charles Hodges, editor. We wrote an article each month on the Cooperative Program and associational missions in cooperation with Superintendents of Missions, Moderators, Stewardship-Cooperative Program chairmen, annual associational program chairmen, and the Convention's General Board members for publication in their bulletins.

We wrote an article each month for the Baptist State Convention Newsletter. This article was "Missionary Illustration."

V. HELP FROM THE TEN BAPTIST INSTITUTIONS

The ten Baptist institutions (six Baptist colleges, one university, Baptist Childrens Homes, Homes for the Aging (retirement homes), and Baptist Hospital) offered their services to one or more of the leaders in the churches of two associations each. They had the aim of increasing their outreach by greater sharing through the Cooperative Program on the part of each church. Thus, the college and the three benevolent institutions used their talents and time to benefit the churches in 20 associations.

VI. REGIONAL CONSULTANTS

The Regional Consultants offered their services to each association in the state, each pastors conference and each church in their own region.

The ten Regional Cooperative Program Consultants, without pay, met for two days in Raleigh in a workshop on Stewardship and Cooperative Program and in addition to the offer of service referred to above, led many individual conferences, contacted each pastor and denominational officer concerning increased Cooperative Program giving, enlisted five associations to conduct a Face to Face Campaign, talked with the pastor and/or other leaders in 319 churches concerning increased Cooperative Program giving, aided in the promotion and the conducting of one Mission Advance Workshop and Colloquy plus many other things to enhance the work of the Kingdom of our Lord through the Cooperative World Mission Program. The ten Regional Cooperative Program Consultants for 1974 were: Bennie Pledger, Colerain; Gordon Conklin, Greenville; David T. Mashburn, Sr., Lumberton; Lewis Beal, Buies Creek; Ray Benfield, Greensboro; Marion Parker, Troy; Fred D. Barnes, Lenoir; Frank R. Campbell, Statesville; John H. Knight, Asheville; and Willie M. Newman, Bryson City.

VII. ASSOCIATIONAL AND CONVENTION OFFICERS

The associational Stewardship-Cooperative Program Chairmen, with the aid of the Superintendent of Missions, Moderators, Program Chairmen, and the Convention's General Board members and officers of the Convention contacted each church in a majority of the associations in the state to offer their services to the limit of their time and ability in aiding the leadership in each church to advance their aim of a greater outreach in preaching the gospel of Christ around the world through the Cooperative Program. They did this through telephone parties, letters, associational meetings, and other face to face contacts.

VIII. OTHER AREAS OF WORK

We have answered the requests of many churches needing special help in the areas of Stewardship and Missions.

W. Perry Crouch, General Secretary-Treasurer of our Convention, the personnel of other departments in the Convention, the heads of the ten Baptist institutions, the Regional Consultants, and the above named associational and Convention's officers have given wise counsel and help in all the work of this department. Harold M. White, E. C. Wilkie, Trudy Cleland, and Judi Scarborough have been valuable co-laborers in our common task. To these individuals, plus each pastor and many other volunteer helpers, we express our genuine thanks for their cooperation.

A number of great advances were made during the year which included: 1,236 churches increasing Cooperative Program giving by 10 per cent or more over the previous year. Every church in the Flat River and Tar River associations contributed through the Cooperative Program during the calendar year 1973.

2. Department of Pastor/Church Relations

ROBERT H. BRUHN, director

Increasingly, pastor selection committees are requesting basic factual information on prospective pastors and staff members.

Pastor selection committees desire adequate biographical data to assist them in their pilgrimage of search for a new undershepherd.

Fellow Southern Baptist state conventions have added similar services so that now eleven have Pastor/Church Relations Departments. Other states are in the process of giving serious consideration to such a service.

Mary Williams is secretary of the Pastor/Church Relations Office.

3. Department of Public Relations

WILLIAM H. BOATWRIGHT, director

The Department of Public Relations is responsible in matters of General Board public relations, relationships with the denominational and secular press, and promotion of the various General Board divisions, departments, councils, and committees.

Specifically, Public Relations edits, designs, and produces all printed materials related to General Board ministries; plans, designs, produces, and distributes State Missions Offering (September) materials; and compiles and edits the monthly Newsletter and the annual Baptist Diary.

On February 15 of this year Dan Euliss of Graham, N. C. joined the Office as director of art services. The skillful and creative work of Mr. Euliss has greatly enhanced the quality of printed materials produced by the General Board.

Also during the year, Lafata McDonald resigned as office secretary. The Office and its director are indebted to the work of Mrs. McDonald.

4. Data Processing Department

TED W. WILLIAMS, director

The Data Processing Department, formerly the Office of Statistics and Survey, is responsible for the general computer operations of the state convention; including the accounting procedures of the business office, the maintenance of the several mailing lists and processing data for the annual statistical report.

The department provides the following services: (1) maintains the various bookkeeping records for the Business Office; (2) maintains the computerized mailing lists; (3) compiles and edits the state convention Annual; (4) receives the Uniform Church Letters; (5) conducts church clerk's clinics in associations and (6) serves as the resource office for General Board historical data.

Several personnel changes have occurred during the year. Rena Harrod transferred to Data Processing from the Business Office. She and Avenelle King serve as data recorder (key punch) operators. Lafata L. McDonald, office secretary, resigned in September. She has rendered ten (10) years of dedicated service to the convention for which we are deeply grateful.

C. DIVISION OF MISSION MINISTRIES

HOWARD J. FORD, director

The Division of Mission Ministries attempts to project its total ministry on the basis of bringing men to know God through Jesus Christ. We strive to keep a balance in our approach. Associational, State, Home and Foreign Missions are all a part of the mission of the church. State Missions is the foundation for building a world mission outreach.

The Division of Mission Ministries works in close coordination with the eighty (80) Baptist associations in North Carolina. Some cooperative assistance is given to each one of these associations. A supplement to the associational budget now goes to fifty-eight (58) associations.

The division coordinates the World Missions Conferences with the various associations. This involves helping schedule World Missions Conferences in geographic proximity in order to save travel expense; also selecting and scheduling missionaries from our Convention staff, etc., to present State Missions in the associational World Missions Conferences. A working relationship is maintained with the Brotherhood Commission, the Home and Foreign Mission Boards in the overall planning of an effective Conference. In the calendar year of 1974 (to date) we have had seven World Missions Conferences in North Carolina with 164 churches participating. There was a total attendance in the seven Conferences of 67,509. Other visible results are 16 mission volunteers and 29 professions of faith. Four more Conferences were scheduled for 1974.

The division joins churches and associations in a special ministry to Indians, Spanish speaking people, and Orientals. The results in 1974 have been encouraging. Conversions to Christ are taking place in both Spanish speaking congregations and from among Orientals. The Child Care Center at Cherokee continues at capacity attendance in keeping with the required number of workers and present facilities. Progress is evident in the Burnt Swamp Association.

A revolving Loan Fund is provided by the Convention for the purpose of assisting small churches in their building program. The loan is designed for churches that do not have resources to obtain a commercial loan. At present $10,000 is the maximum amount loaned. The loan is interest free for the first six months and 4½ per cent thereafter.

In addition to these special mission ministries, the larger work of the division is divided into eight departments: Chaplaincy Ministries; City and Metropolitan Missions; Fruitland Baptist Bible Institute and Conference Center; Insurance and Annuity; Cooperative Ministries with General Baptists; Town and Country Missions/Seminary Extension; Deaf Ministries; and Communications.

1. Chaplaincy Ministries Department

JOSEPH V. WATTERSON, director

The year just ending has been a highly rewarding one, both in terms of increasing interest over the state and of appreciation on the part of chaplains. Associational meetings, churches, and ministerial groups cordially received 18 messages on the chaplaincy, plus 41 other messages on the chaplaincy in the context of local, state, home and foreign mission promotion. Increasingly our Baptist people are viewing the chaplaincy as a ministry for every church on the cutting edge of missions outreach, a needed program for the more than two and one-half million non-church-going people in North Carolina.

Again our work for the year included group and individual conference at military installations, with associational leadership, ministerial groups and chaplains and their directors within each of the four major chaplaincy areas—military, hospital, industrial, and institutional. The annual Chaplains'/Wives Renewal Retreat was a highlight for the Department and for chaplains and wives attending.

Though the main descriptive word is "growth," the Industrial Chaplaincy suffered a loss of one and gained one, so that the count remains at five on full-time basis. There are also two part-time shopping center chaplains, plus sixteen volunteer chaplains serving with fire departments, Holiday Inns, etc. The Hospital Chaplaincy is now larger numerically than the Military Chaplaincy with the current military RIF program (Reduction In Force.) Prospects are excellent for a very comprehensive chaplaincy in the adult correctional system, a Religious Ministries Coordinator, six area coordinators, a full-time chaplain for each small unit. These programs are to be state supported and directed, and therefore they will not all be Baptist. Yet the fulfillment of a dream of rehabilitation of the man in prison seems near. A similar program is in the offing for the smaller juvenile system.

The Department now has eight part-time chaplains, with the Convention paying for work in small correctional units. Statistical compilation of their reports, together with that of the two young men whose terms of service with us have expired, is as follows:

2. City and Metropolitan Missions Department

ERNEST C. UPCHURCH, director

City and Metropolitan Missions Department's objective is to work with and to assist associations and churches and their committees in determining missions opportunities. This includes analyzing trends, developing growth studies, discovering new cooperative adventures and coordinating urban missions interests. The Department programs are designed in keeping with the policies of the General Board's Division of Missions Ministries of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina and the co-operative agreements with the SBC Home Mission Board.

During the year 1974, several major achievements have been made in three distinct programs of work:

I. ASSOCIATIONAL AND URBAN CHURCH MISSIONS

A. Statewide Metropolitan Missions Conference was held at First Church, Greensboro, March 3-4, 1974. Outstanding speakers for the event included Larry McSwain, Southern Baptist Theological Seminary; M. Wendel Belew, SBC Home Mission Board; and L. L. McGee, Baptist Hospital, Winston-Salem. Many other distinguished pastors and leaders across the state also assisted in the conference. The attendance at the meeting, in spite of the rain and gasoline shortage, was very gratifying.

B. The Shopping Center Ministry was continued in the Crabtree Valley and North Hills shopping centers, Raleigh, with David Moore and Don Brown, student workers from Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary.

C. Research Missions were performed in the Research Triangle Missions Committee, representing Sandy Creek, Mount Zion, Flat River, Yates and Raleigh associations in proposed church related ministries at Butner, N. C. The Triad Missions Committee, representing Mount Zion, Piedmont, Central, Pilot Mountain, Randolph, and Liberty associations, has pioneered in a cooperative area-wide educational extension program with Roy Smith, director, Town and Country Missions, Baptist State Convention and the community colleges of the area.

D. Pastoral Aid—The Department assisted 34 churches with pastoral assistance in an amount of $34,094. The following statistics reveal some accomplishment of the work: sermons preached 2,489; other addresses, 970; visits, 9,491; baptisms, 263; additions by letter, 358; conversions, 262; restorations, 63; church membership, 5,008.

E. Lot Aid—The Department assisted 17 churches with lot aid assistance amounting to $29,000.

II. CHRISTIAN SOCIAL MISSIONS

(directed toward rural and urban areas)

A. Associational Christian Social Missions—There are 6 full-time associational Christian Social Missions programs in the state. They are found in the following associations: Dan Valley, Mecklenburg, New South River, Gaston, Raleigh and Pilot Mountain. At present, we are working on a new project in the eastern part of the state. This project is hoped to be completed before the end of the year.

The associational Christian Social Missions include the following areas:

(1) Church-Community Weekday Missions—Programs which concentrate on new patterns of ministry to serve children, youth, adults and the aging.

(2) The Baptist Center Program — Neighborhood Centers and modified centers adapt easily to this phase of Christian ministry.

(3) Youth and Family Service Missions—This ministry majors on the youth and the family in trouble. There are many problems with the so-called juvenile delinquent and his family, such as truancy, drug addiction, alcohol, and even prison. This ministry has a three-fold approach: prevention, control, and rehabilitation.

(4) Literacy Missions—Literacy work is designed to reach the adult nonreader, the slow achiever at school, and the non-English-speaking person. Approximately 300,000 adults (25 and up) in our state qualify for assistance in this ministry. Also, there is a great need to help the underachiever in school with a tutoring ministry. Many schools and communities are responding to this need. Remarkable progress has been made this year in the South Yadkin Association under R. C. Johnson's leadership as director of associational youth and family services.

(5) Migrant Missions — Migrant missions continue to be a challenge in the agricultural area of our state. It is estimated that approximately 10 to 12 thousand people pass through our state annually assisting in harvesting crops and then moving on to other areas of work. The Fork Baptist Church, South Yadkin Association, has cooperated with City and Metropolitan Missions Department in the employment of a summer missionary, Theodore Myrick, Jr., who has served effectively in ministering to the migrants in Washington, Tyrrell and Hyde counties.

The Carolina Association has cooperated again this year with the interfaith migrant missions work in their area.

(6) Disaster Relief—This phase of Christian Social Missions is designed to assist in emergency needs in the state. The Truett Association was helped this year after a tornado in this area in the spring.

B. Baptist Centers—The Baptist Center work in Eden, Raleigh, and Gastonia has had good progress this year.

(1) The Dan Valley Center, Eden, North Carolina has had one of the best years in attendance at weekday activities, especially in grades 5 and 6, and 7 through 9. During the summer, there was an excellent week of camp with 40 children (grades 5-9) enrolled.

The center was assisted by 18 young people and 2 adults from Snyder Memorial Church, Fayetteville.

(2) The Raleigh Baptist Center—The Raleigh Baptist Center, under the direction of Roy L. Hood and Ann Wootton, has conducted a fruitful year of ministry.

(3) The Gaston Baptist Center—The Gaston Baptist Center, under the direction of Mrs. Jerry Strickland, has emphasized this year day care in co-operation with industry, physical and spiritual welfare.

C. Youth and Family Service Missions—Directors for Youth and Family Services are located in several areas of the state. Full-time youth and family service director in the Raleigh Association is Roy Hood. Part-time directors serve in the following associations: Joe B. Church, Catawba River; Robert G. Canipe, Central; Earl Howard with Butner youth and family services, Flat River; Fred McGehee, Kings Mountain; Travis Styles, Mount Zion; and R. C. Johnson, Sr., South Yadkin. These men work as church and associational related liaison men with the District Court personnel and assist in the rehabilitation of youth and families in trouble.

III. INTERFAITH WITNESS MISSIONS

The Interfaith Witness Missions is designed to share Jesus Christ with people of other persuasions.

Plans are in process at this writing to conduct training seminars next year.

V. CONCLUSIONS

1974 has been a challenging year for urban missions ministries. Many achievements have been made. The Department Director, by permission of the administration and the Executive Committee of the General Board, was privileged to complete his educational requirements at Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, Louisville, Kentucky, graduating with the Doctor of Ministry degree, May 31, 1974. For the achievements we say, "Thanks to God, the Convention's administration, the associations and the churches, the field staff—full- and part-time associates, to Department office secretary and all of whom have contributed to these accomplishments. To God be the glory."

3. Fruitland Baptist Bible Institute and Conference Center

ALEX BOOTH, director

The Fruitland Baptist Bible Institute, near Hendersonville, N. C., is a vital and direct program of State Missions. For almost thirty years, men who have yielded to the call to the gospel ministry after having been in another vocation have found vital and practical help at the Fruitland Baptist Bible Institute. A constant flow of more applications than can be accepted for any one quarter comes to the school from men who want to be more effective in their ministry. The deep dedication and high motivation of the students, along with the well qualified and highly skilled faculty members, generate a spirit that inspires even those who visit the campus for only a short time.

Only minimum student fees are charged for registration, room and meals. Scholarships are available in case of real need. Most of the Institute's support, therefore, must come from North Carolina Baptists through the Cooperative Program and the State Missions Offering. Fruitland is one of the best investments of mission funds, since one of the school's major aims is to lead pastors to understand and support the total program of work for our denomination.

With the conviction that those who know the truth about the denominational work will be cooperative, Fruitland Baptist Bible Institute provides full information without pressure of any kind to all students. Each week a facet of the denominational work is presented in chapel by a different employee of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina. The speaker explains his department of work and remains on campus to discuss anything students wish to talk about personally.

The fall quarter began with more than two hundred students, but no class is supposed to have more than thirty-five persons in it. Twelve faculty positions provide twenty-four practical courses, in which each graduate must have earned ninety-six quarter hours of credit. The following summary answers questions often asked about Fruitland. The statistics are for the fall quarter, which began August 27, 1974.

4. Insurance and Annuity Department

SAM O'NEAL, director

Who decides if a pastor and other church staff members will have adequate financial benefits when they retire?

Answer—the church. The extent to which a church contributes to the retirement plan for its pastor and staff determines the size of the benefit.

The Annuity Board of the Southern Baptist Convention invests the money received as contributions in the best way possible. This makes the value of each individual's account grow.

But the Annuity Board can only accept the retirement contributions sent in by the church, and administer them.

The Annuity Board fiscal year follows the calendar year. In 1973, the Board disbursed a record amount of nearly $16 million to about 9,000 annuitants. This was $4.5 million more than the year before, which was also the highest previous sum.

More than 1,500 annuitants received benefits for the first time in 1973. The funds were paid out as age retirement, widow, and disability benefits. Another "13th check" was paid last December to annuitants.

The Annuity Board reached a record of more than $350 million in funds held in trust at the end of the year 1973. The funds pay benefits when participants retire, die, or become disabled.

The several Baptist state conventions provide one-third of each ordained minister's basic Plan A contribution for those serving within the state boundaries.

In addition, many Baptist agencies in each state—hospitals, colleges, homes for children or for the aged—provide for retirement benefits for their staff, in cooperation with the Annuity Board.

The Board also administers life, health, and disability insurance plans for persons serving churches or denominational agencies. The insurance program is underwritten by Aetna Life Insurance Company.

There are 19,680 churches and associations with 25,748 employees currently participating in the Southern Baptist Protection Program.

In North Carolina there are 2,083 churches and associations and 2,528 employees participating in the Southern Baptist Protection Program. During the first eight and one-half months of 1974, 130 new members have enrolled in Plan A, 38 in Plan B, and 1 in Plan C for a total of 169. In addition to these new members 120 members have upgraded their Protection Program by putting additional funds into Plan B or C. The following Baptist agencies participate in the retirement program:

Baptist State Convention of North Carolina
Biblical Recorder
North Carolina Baptist Foundation
Baptist Children's Homes of North Carolina, Inc.
North Carolina Homes, Inc.
North Carolina Baptist Hospitals, Inc.
Campbell College
Chowan College
Gardner-Webb College
Meredith College
Wake Forest University
Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary

The Insurance and Annuity Department will gladly assist churches, associations, our institutions and their personnel with retirement or insurance needs.

5. Department of Cooperative Ministries with General Baptists

CORBIN L. COOPER, director

This year has been busy and filled with a variety of activities. It was begun with a unique experience as a chartered jet airplane left North Carolina on September 4, 1973, with 206 Baptists bound for the National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., Inc. in Los Angeles, California. Thus, another happy and memorable occasion was made possible through cooperative efforts among Baptists.

We have experienced an exciting year with some progress and some delays in reaching goals. Our report includes the following concerns:

Fellowship Dinners—We enjoyed three popular one-night sessions with pastors and laymen in Wilmington, Asheville, and Winston-Salem. The dinners were co-sponsored by the two conventions to promote the joint annual sessions of the Baptist State and General Baptist State conventions in November.

Shaw Divinity School bestowed double honors upon the department director during this year. First, he was elected to serve as a trustee of the school. Second, he was granted an honorary doctors degree at the Shaw University commencement exercises on May 12, 1974. Both honors were received with sincere appreciation.

The Resignation of Mrs. Alcovia McCall was received in May with sadness, but with deep appreciation for her 25 years of cooperative ministries in Western North Carolina. The Mud Creek and Buncombe Baptist Associations honored her with a special service on Sunday, May 19, 1974, held at the Rock Hill Baptist Church, Asheville.

The Summer Program continues to grow. This year we appointed 29 young people and 7 adults to serve in Christian ministries throughout the state. Some new areas this year include:

—Weekday ministries in the Jackson Chapel First Baptist Church, Wilson. T. A. Watkins, pastor.

—Assistance for purchasing a mobile unit ($2,000) and a summer worker for the Migrant and Seasonal Farm Workers Training Center at Rich Square, for conducting cooperative religious activities by the North Hampton, West Roanoke, and West Chowan Associations.

—Workers in survey and planning toward a cooperative summer youth ministry in Durham with the New Hope and Yates Baptist Associations.

The department provided $9,082.60 toward the cost of the summer programs. They ministered to 2,702 children and reported 88 professions of faith in Jesus Christ.

Student Aid Fund—This year the department secured $7,100 in scholarship funds for 23 black Baptist students enrolled in the following schools: Campbell College, Hood Theological Seminary, Saint Augustine's College, Southeastern Baptist Seminary, Shaw University and Divinity School, Duke University, Virginia Union University, and Interdenominational Theological Center (Atlanta). Of the amount reported, Southeastern Baptist Seminary provided $1,400 in matching funds.

Joint Convention—We are very pleased that one symbol of our cooperative efforts will culminate with the two state conventions meeting together on November 6-8, 1974, in the Raleigh Memorial Auditorium. A joint committee has worked diligently under the direction of this department.

Annuity—We are pleased that 14 people have now enrolled in the new retirement plan for General Baptists. More will enter as they discover the benefits. The two conventions added $1,445 to the dues sent in by churches and pastors. Church leaders are urged to study the plan.

Soul City—We have joined other denominations in many hours of study and conferences concerning the plans for religious development at Soul City, N. C. We expect to continue in this effort with personnel and financial support.

Those who serve with the department in addition to the director are Mary E. Washington, Office Secretary; C. C. Craig, Raleigh; Leo Williams, Jr., Raleigh; J. Z. Alexander, Raleigh.

Again, we are indebted to the Unified Program, churches and associations of the General Baptist State Convention of N. C., the Cooperative Program of the Baptist State Convention of N. C. and the Southern Baptist Home Mission Board for sponsoring the work of this department.

6. Town & Country Missions/Seminary Extension

ROY J. SMITH, director

The Town & Country Missions/Seminary Extension Department is a mission ministry with numerous objectives and responsibilities:

(1) Work with associations and churches in discovering and meeting mission needs; (2) Work with the 2,695 small town and rural churches in a program of development; (3) Promote the state-wide ministries of Seminary Extension and the Week of Fellowship and Study at Mars Hill College; (4) Develop a comprehensive mountain mission ministry; (5) Develop and coordinate a state-wide ministry of Resort Missions; and (6) Assist churches and associations in determining need and methods of church extension.

The Rural-Urban Department and the Missions Department of the Home Mission Board and the Seminary Extension Division of the Southern Baptist Convention participate in the ministry of this department.

Nita Robertson is office secretary.

SEMINARY EXTENSION

The Seminary Extension program continues to be an effective tool for pastoral training, lay leadership development and continuing education for church leaders. The program design for Seminary Extension is built around a Three Level Curriculum.

1. The Basic Curriculum is an "easy reading" program, using non-technical terminology. Eleven courses are presently available in the Basic Curriculum.

2. The College Level Curriculum covers courses in the areas of biblical studies, theological studies, historical studies and practical studies.

3. The Continuing Education Curriculum is developed on a Master's Degree level with flexibility to meet the needs of alumni capable of functioning on a higher academic level.

Financial assistance in the form of teachers' honoraria and student scholarships is provided where needed.

In May of this year the department, in cooperation with the Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary and the Home Mission Board, sponsored a two weeks course at Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary on "Planning the Ministry of a Small Church." Forty-eight pastors from across the state enrolled in the course.

PASTORAL AID—LOT AID

Fifty-two churches and missions in thirty-three associations received pastoral aid during 1974. Thirteen of these mission pastors are students and four are serving fields of two or more churches.

Seven churches in seven associations received aid on the purchase of church lots. These mission grants ranged from $1,000 to $1,500.

RESORT MISSIONS

Tourism and outdoor recreation continues to increase in North Carolina. According to the Travel Bureau of the North Carolina Conservation and Development Department, more than 44 million out-of-state tourists visited North Carolina last year. These millions added to the North Carolina residents who increasingly use the recreational facilities of our state, offering a tremendous opportunity for missions and ministry.

Baptist-sponsored ministries were conducted at some 70 resorts from the mountains to the sea. The Home Mission Board appointed summer missionaries who worked in resort ministries at Cherokee, Ridgecrest, Chimney Rock, and Carolina Beach. Twenty-two students from within the state served as resort ministers.

This department cooperated with the Student Department in fielding a resort team, "Rhymes With Reasons." In addition to these special summer missionaries, pastors and other church staff, associational missionaries, and lay leaders served in various capacities.

The ministries are varied and flexible; including coffee houses, folk musicals, teen-centers, day-camping, drama, youth groups, movies, as well as the more traditional worship services.

This department may be contacted for more detailed information concerning the location and type of ministry.

WEEK OF CHRISTIAN STUDY AND FELLOWSHIP

A capacity enrollment of more than 500 people attended the annual week of Christian Study and Fellowship at Mars Hill College, July 1-5, 1974. Worship, Bible study, fellowship, and relaxation are the emphases of the week. Planned activities are provided for each age group.

A highlight of this year's conference was an "old-fashioned" July 4th celebration and picnic, sponsored by Mars Hill College.

Meals are the only cost to those attending. This department, Mars Hill College and Mars Hill Baptist Church provide the program and facilities.

GEORGE W. TRUETT CAMP

We wish every Baptist in the state of North Carolina could have the opportunity to visit Truett Baptist Camp. The camp, one mile west of Hayesville near Murphy, is located on a fifty-seven acre track situated at the historic homesite of George W. Truett. The camp has ministered to 350 boys and girls from the mountain area this past summer. In addition several churches and associations have used the camp facilities for retreats, leadership development, and fellowship meetings.

George Kenneth Crawford is doing a splendid job of keeping the camp facilities in quality condition and in leading the staff in providing the finest in Christian atmosphere and experience.

We are particularly grateful to the Brotherhood and Church Music departments, Baptist State Convention for outstanding assistance in the Truett Camp Program this year.

MOUNTAIN MINISTRIES

LUTHER OSMENT, Area Missionary

God is at work in the mountains of Southwestern North Carolina. Throughout the area we are seeing a strengthening of the churches and associations. More and more pastors and lay persons are taking advantage of Seminary Extension courses. Workshops and leadership training opportunities have been well received. Resort mission work continues to be an increasingly open door.

It has been a particular joy to work along side of the fine Superintendents of Missions of the western part of the state. It has been a part of World Mission Weeks, Pastoral Leadership Conferences, and outreach ministries these dedicated people have instigated.

The ministries of the agencies and institutions of our Convention are being well received in western North Carolina. The various General Board departments have made valuable contributions to the work.

JAMES M. LAMBERT, Area Missionary

There are three major areas of concern in the efforts that have been made in this ministry in the past year; rural church development, resort missions, and Seminary Extension centers. The challenge of my first year in this ministry has been to help meet these needs in the fifteen associations of this northwestern section of North Carolina. This ministry has proved to be interesting and profitable, for I have met many new friends and have had an opportunity to share in the life of many churches.

Schools for deacons, Bible schools, budget planning and other programs which help a church understand its work are all part of rural church development. This work is a great need in the region—one we must continue to seek to meet as we help churches see something of their mission.

The summer program of resort ministry was particularly rewarding. The churches of Boone helped make it possible for a group of young people to form a resort folk team who ministered in the campgrounds and resorts of Boone and Banner Elk. George Gagliardi, a summer missionary provided through the cooperation of the Home Mission Board, is a talented guitarist and composer who also had a summer ministry here.

Long established Seminary Extension centers are being continued through the faithful efforts of dedicated pastors and superintendents of missions. New centers have been established in the Alexander, Alleghany, Ashe, and Avery associations and others will be started in the near future. The opportunity of study for pastors and lay people alike is an important program. This helps the individual Christian as well as the church find fellowship and new visions for growth in the days ahead.

QUENTIN M. PERRAULT, Associate

This area of work covers the aspects of Seminary Extension, Resort Ministry, Stewardship and Cooperative Program Promotion, and assistance and liaison with the small churches of our Convention. This also includes working very closely with the superintendents of missions in 17 Associations along with the pastors in these associations and participating in Cooperative Program Advance emphases made in the local churches.

In the area of Seminary Extension pastors and laymen are afforded an extraordinary opportunity to continue their education. There are three curriculum areas in which one can study and after prescribed hours of study and testing, certificates are awarded to the students.

Seminary Extension work has been taught in the Community Colleges, offered as adult education courses on campus. It is hoped that through this procedure a student might be able to earn a specialization certificate within a 2-year period, with many of our pastors and laymen taking advantage of this opportunity.

Also, close contact is being kept with students at the Fruitland Baptist Bible Institute in order that they might continue their theological studies through Seminary Extension or continue in our Baptist colleges or seminaries.

In closing it should be mentioned that a summer "parking lot ministry" has continued in the Charlotte area in which both youth and adults have made commitments to the Christian faith.

7. Deaf Ministries

JERRY F. POTTER, director

NEAL L. PEYTON, associate

1974 might be called the year of camps for the deaf! There were six different camps available in North Carolina for deaf young people, including a retreat planned by this department. The Convention, through this department, assisted six deaf young people financially so they could attend camp.

According to past estimates we concluded that there were about six or seven thousand deaf people in N. C. A recent census by the National Association of the Deaf stated that there are more than ten thousand deaf people in our state! It makes us realize more than ever before how much we need your prayers for the coming year.

If I may insert a personal note: this is a special year for me. In the middle of December I will have given exactly half my total life through the Convention working with deaf people. I wish I could pin a medal on each Baptist in N. C. for making it possible for my wife and me to fulfill the call God gave us to take His love into the world of silence.

In the coming year, as in the past year, we shall continue to preach to the deaf, teach the Bible, and work with the churches as they minister to the deaf people.

8. The Fletcher Baptist Communications Center

(Radio-TV-Film)

JIMMY MORRISS, director

Known as the Department of Communications prior to the completion of new library and studio facilities, this department has been named in honor of A. J. Fletcher, prominent Baptist layman of Raleigh, who provided a challenge gift of $50,000 for the equipping of the new studio facilities for full radio and television production.

The Center promotes the total Baptist program through the divisions of the General Board, its agencies and associations. Program promotion is carried out through assistance to the departments of the General Board, to individual churches and through radio and television productions.

1. AUDIO VISUAL AIDS

A. Film Library

During the past year, the Center booked more than 11,083 free rental films and filmstrips. We estimate that approximately 75 percent of the churches in the Convention are using audio-visuals regularly. An ever-increasing number of kindergartens and day-care programs are making use of the film library in their teaching programs. The Center encourages planning for a basic library of audio-visuals at both associational and church levels, with supplementary titles provided by the Department library. At present, this library has over 2500 different filmstrip titles and over 100 motion picture titles. More than 4,229 film orders have been refused this year because films were already booked for desired dates. The Center provides a complete catalogue to churches which contains all film titles, audio tapes and video cassettes.

B. Film Production

Among the films produced this year were a 40 slide set with cassette sound track for associational promotion of state missions, and a 20 minute 16mm sound, color, film, CHANNEL OF BLESSING, produced to promote the Center's television ministry as assisted by WRAL-TV, Raleigh. Footage of sound color film was shot to be incorporated into a motion picture to be completed later. The Center also produced some 200 color slides and several hundred black and white pictures illustrating various aspects of state missions.

C. Communications and Sight and Sound Conferences

Every other year, a statewide Communications Conference is held to educate and motivate church staff and lay leaders in the various methods of Christian communications. This year the conference was held in cooperation with the Church Ministries and Training and the Sunday School Departments and the Division of Evangelism. Sight and sound conferences were held in the following associations: Wilmington, Catawba, Raleigh, Johnston, Buncombe, New South River, Caldwell, Piedmont, Yates, and West Chowan. Additional conferences were held to assist Campbell and Gardner-Webb Colleges in setting up educational FM community radio stations.

D. Audio Aids

More than 3,800 messages were reproduced at the request of pastors and churches this year. Major messages from the Evangelism Conference, Meredith Week of Christian Studies, annual Baptist State Convention sessions, and the General Baptist Convention of North Carolina were taped and placed in our master library, bringing the total number of master tapes to more than 825.

E. Film Processing, Enlarging and Slide Duplication

Equipment added to facilitate use of the dark room late in August has, in less than a month, enabled the Center to enlarge over 100 black and white prints at a substantial saving to the Convention. We anticipate this to be a rapidly expanding area of service.

II. TELEVISION AND RADIO

The Center continues to work closely with the radio and television stations in North Carolina, presently providing Baptist programming in over 100 stations each week. The Center continues to provide the network series, LIGHT UNTO MY PATH, a pioneer mission work of the Convention, which is produced in sign language and is designed to meet the needs of the deaf, the aging and the unchurched. This program is presented over a statewide network of stations including WRAL-TV, Raleigh; WLOS-TV, Asheville; WFMY-TV, Greensboro; WBTV, Charlotte; and WNCT-TV, Greenville. Also providing coverage for North Carolina are WIS-TV, Columbia, S. C.

and WTVG-TV, Chattanooga, Tennessee. The series is carried on 14 other stations in 9 states, sponsored by a church or convention in that state.

Also provided is LISTEN, AMERICA! a 30 minute color telecast featuring Christian young people with talent and testimony to their faith. This program receives the active backing of Campbell College through its music department and administration in supplying an ensemble called the Son-Light Singers for regular appearance on the program.

Other productions include BIBLE STORY TIME, a weekly 30 minute color telecast for pre-school children; CHURCH OF OUR FATHERS, a weekly 30 minute religious program featuring news, music, Sunday School lesson and some 50 interviews with church leaders each year; LIGHT FOR LIVING, a brief daily meditation carried on WRAL-TV, Raleigh; WNCT-TV, Greenville; WLOS-TV, Asheville; and WSOC-TV, Charlotte. Television specials include THANKSGIVING IN RALEIGH, a unique community interfaith program produced in cooperation with the American Guild of Organists; SONGS OF THE YULETIDE SEASON, two special Christmas programs featuring Campbell and Gardner-Webb colleges; JOURNEY INTO FAITH, an Easter special; SAM, a 30 minute televised music-drama featuring junior age youth.

The Bible teaching series, GUIDE FOR LIVING, which is produced by the Center for cablevision and local church use, is now being aired on three stations: Raleigh, Asheville, and Lenoir. As soon as studios are fully equipped, it is expected that video cassette production for cablevision and closed circuit will be the fastest growing area in the communication area.

Radio productions include INTERNATIONAL BIBLE LESSON, carried weekly on 9 stations; RELIGIOUS NEWS SCOPE, a weekly 5 minute news broadcast carried on 61 stations; LISTEN, AMERICA! carried weekly on 5 stations; BIBLE STORY TIME, carried weekly on 2 stations and LIGHT FOR LIVING, carried daily on 4 stations. Radio spots totaling more than 250 have been written, produced and distributed to stations and churches across the state, encouraging church attendance and challenging the listener to a deeper Christian life. In cooperation with the Home Mission Board, NORTH CAROLINA MISSIONSCOPE is produced for the Board's mission subscription service.

III. DRAMA

Assistance in church drama is offered in an effort to include the dramatic arts as an effective tool in communicating the gospel.

IV. OTHER AREAS

The Center has two summer missionaries at the assemblies showing some 300 films and special sound presentations each season. Equipment and supplies for Fruitland, Caswell, Caraway, and Mundo Vista as well as a number of resort ministries are provided through the Center. The Center also provides audio-visual equipment for each staff member of the General Board for field use.

D. DIVISION OF EVANGELISM

WILLIAM C. LAMB, director

The total number of baptisms in 1973 was 29,560. During 1971-73 the Baptist State Convention had the largest three year total number of baptisms—91,349—reported by the churches for any three year period since 1960-62.

LAY EVANGELISM SCHOOLS

The response to these schools has been tremendous during the past three years. Since November 1, 1971 over 11,800 youth and adults have participated in Lay Evangelism Schools from 955 churches in 50 associations. The purpose is to train persons to share a more effective witness to non-Christians. It is also a continuing ministry of evangelism with additional church members invited to participate every three months. Pastors from nine more associations have already attended a Pastor's Retreat to learn how to lead their churches in lay witness training. Six additional associations are now planning for one-week Lay Evangelism Schools in 1975.

28TH STATEWIDE EVANGELISM CONFERENCE

"Sharing His Love and Spirit" was the theme of the 28th Statewide Evangelism Conference at War Memorial Auditorium, Greensboro, during February 4-6, 1974. The speakers emphasized various phases of evangelism to over 2,400 pastors and lay persons who attended. Special recognition was given to Henry B. Anderson of Durham as Honorary Chairman.

The speakers were Bill Baird, evangelist, Greensboro; George R. Beasley-Murray, professor of New Testament, Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, Louisville, Kentucky; Harold A. Carter, pastor, New Shiloh Baptist Church, Baltimore, Maryland; Donald E. Cook, professor of New Testament, Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary, Wake Forest; H. B. Ferguson, pastor, Rock Hill Baptist Church, Asheville; Sara Ann Hobbs, director, Woman's Missionary Union, Baptist State Convention, Raleigh; C. Bill Hogue, director, Division of Evangelism, Home Mission Board, Atlanta, Georgia; A. Douglas Watterson, pastor, Cliff Temple Baptist Church, Dallas, Texas; Norman A. Wiggins, president, Campbell College, Buies Creek; H. Edwin Young, pastor, First Baptist Church, Columbia, South Carolina; and Ron and Pat Owens, guest soloists, Houston, Texas.

COOPERATIVE MINISTRIES

The Division of Evangelism, in cooperation with the Department of Communications and the Division of Church Programs, sponsored the Statewide Communications, Administration, and Evangelism Workshop on May 13 at the First Baptist Church, Greensboro.

The Division of Evangelism is now beginning a cooperative endeavor with the Brotherhood Department in specific plans for trained leadership in Lay Renewal Week-ends and Lay Renewal Evangelism with pastors serving as associate consultants and laymen serving as coordinators.

YOUTH MINISTRIES WEEK

During June 10-14 over 750 youth and adults participated in the Youth Ministries Week at the North Carolina Baptist Assembly. The three-fold emphasis is Evangelism, Vocational Guidance, and Recreation.

4TH STATEWIDE YOUTH EVANGELISM NIGHT

On August 16 about 12,000 youth, pastors and adult leaders were present for the Youth Evangelism Night at the Greensboro Coliseum. Some 1,227 youth made various decisions, of which 204 were professions of faith in Christ. Definite follow-up work was done by pastors and others in cities across the state with regard to these decisions. Some of those on the program were: Richard Hogue, evangelist, Houston, Texas, and Darcy and Sharon Hodges, Houston, Texas.

SUMMER YOUTH EVANGELISM TEAMS

This year there were three teams of nine college students who preached in youth revival services, led the music, directed youth witnessing training, and participated in witnessing visitation among twenty-seven Baptist churches across the state. The students were: Steve Stout, Cooleemee; David Crockett, Wrightsville Beach; Susan Faulk, Hillsville; Mike Lee, Goldsboro; Debbie Griffin, Huntersville; Sherry Livengood, High Point; Mark Morris, Rocky Mount; Susan George, Raleigh; and Steve Smith, Greensboro.

CRUSADES AND CLINICS

Excellent city-wide crusades, revival meetings and associational evangelism clinics continue to be held in cities and communities across the state.

The 29th Statewide Evangelism Conference will be February 3-5, 1975 at War Memorial Auditorium, Greensboro.

E. DIVISION OF CHURCH PROGRAMS

NATHAN C. BROOKS, JR., director

Leadership in the division has not only been involved in the "Now," but a number of the people within the division are a part of the "Impact 80's" Committee in North Carolina. This group is providing input for SBC leadership, as plans are being made for Baptist programming in the next decade. Several persons from the division will join similar groups from other states in a planning meeting, in Nashville, January 20-22, 1975.

The department reports will reflect details of programs during the past year. The possibility of the development of a conference center, at Camp Caraway, is offering an exciting challenge. The report of the Long Range Planning Committee for N. C. Baptist Assembly (Caswell) outlines some ways to strengthen the Convention efforts there. The large groups of young people involved in summer ministries will continue into the future.

Betty Barham, former "pool secretary," has become secretary to Davis Bowen, Youth Coordinator. No replacement has been planned in the secretarial pool.

Other staff changes are reported by departments.

A major emphasis upon "Together We Advance" will continue in 1975.

1. Youth Ministries Service

DAVIS BOWEN, director

The Youth Ministries Service is designed to assist churches in organizing, planning, and promoting youth activities. It strives to help churches coordinate youth involvement and to guide youth and youth leadership into a better understanding of Christian relationship and responsibilities.

It is hoped that the Baptist churches will realize the need to coordinate the youth organizations and youth involvement in their overall programs. This means that each organization can supplement and add to the programs of the other organizations. Workers in Sunday School, Church Ministries and Training programs, Acteens, Pioneers and Youth Choirs need to work together in order to meet the needs of youth.

The Youth Advisory Committee, composed of persons responsible for the Youth Division in each department, works to plan, coordinate, and sponsor various youth activities. The members of this committee are: Davis Bowen, chairman; Nathan C. Brooks, Jr., adviser; Jolene Ivey, Woman's Missionary Union; Kay Huggins, Department of Campus Ministry; Charles Gatwood, Department of Church Music; Rick Traylor, Church Ministries and Training Department; David Langford, Brotherhood Department; and Jimmy Hinson, Division of Evangelism.

The Youth Ministries Service is interested in helping churches develop a ministry with youth. At the request of churches, Convention workers are available to help in the planning and the execution of youth programs and activities. It is suggested that a representative group of youth in the church be chosen to plan, correlate, promote, and evaluate the activities of the members in this age group. Involving youth is the best way to: (1) become aware of their needs and interests; (2) train them to be leaders; and, (3) lead them to accept responsibility.

Special emphases of the Youth Ministries Services include: assisting churches in organizing youth councils; planning retreats, dramas, fellowships and banquets; and, interpreting Bible study and outreach through mission action projects and activities.

Conferences and programs planned by the Youth Ministries Service in 1974 are: The High School Seniors' Retreat, Camp Caraway, January 25-27; the Baptist Youth Convention, Winston-Salem Coliseum, April 26-27 (will be held every other year beginning in 1974); the N. C. Youth Ministry Workshop, Camp Caraway, May 9-11; Orientation for Summer Workers, Gardner-Webb College, May 28-June 4; the Youth Ministries Week, July 10-14; Youth Bible Conference, July 1-5; and three Youth Conferences, July 15-19, July 29-August 2, August 5-9, (these five Youth Weeks were held at the N. C. Baptist Assembly); the Youth Council Retreat, Camp Caraway, November 8-9.

2. Sunday School Department

BURREL F. LUCAS, director

There are two vital elements in the ministry of the church that may best be accomplished through the Sunday School organization. The Sunday School is the most effective facility for producing Christian nurture through Bible study and mobilizing for evangelistic outreach to unbelievers.

There are six Bible study channels that local churches may utilize to accomplish this goal: (1) Sunday School; (2) Bible Study Fellowships; (3) Vacation Bible Schools; (4) Mission Bible Schools; (5) Weekday Bible Study; and (6) Bible Conferences.

The Sunday School Department is providing strong emphasis on three major thrusts for 1975: "Reach Out to People," Adult Emphasis, and "Read-the-Bible-Through." These programs will be highlighted by Southern Baptists under the over-all Sunday School theme of "People-to-People."

PERSONNEL

The Sunday School Department Staff includes the Director and four field associates: W. Harry Clarke, associate in adult work and teacher training; Myra S. Motley, associate in children's work, Vacation Bible Schools, and weekday education; Hilda Mayo, associate with preschool work, church library, kindergarten and day care; and C. Burt Potter, Jr., associate in associational work and growth projects. Two dedicated office secretaries provide effective skills in the work of the Department: Barbara Chason and Irene Joyner.

The Sunday School Department is indebted to its capable group of Special Workers throughout the state.

3. Church Ministries and Training Department

K. MAURICE COOPER, director

The department has experienced a busy, fruitful year. The staff was completed with the addition of W. Douglas Cole, whose responsibilities include family life, assist with deacon training, and adult Church Training; and Wyanne Hall, who serves as office secretary.

Other staff associates include Richard E. Traylor, director of Baptist Youth Corps and Youth Consultant in Church Training; Doris Morgan, preschool and children's consultant in Church Training, and work with exceptional persons; and Betty Boggs, office secretary.

Activities during 1974 included many specific projects related to the department's assignment to assist churches in Church Administration, Church Training, and other special areas. Following is a resume of these activities.

ASSOCIATIONAL TRAINING

Church Training Workshops or Conferences were held in a number of associations and local churches during the year. The staff and special consultants provided training experiences in the use of latest methods and curriculum to age-group workers and others.

A special feature in associational work has been conferences for pastors, introducing them to the ABC's of Church Administration. These conferences are designed to provide practical training in the basic areas of administration for a pastor who is his church's only full-time minister.

SPECIAL CONSULTANTS' WORKSHOP IN APRIL

Forty-six persons were trained to assist the department in special leadership training assignments. It would be impossible for the department staff to meet all the requests from the field without the help of these able consultants.

DEACON TRAINING

The annual Chairmen of Deacons Conference was held in Friendly Avenue Baptist Church, Greensboro, September 6-7. This conference was co-sponsored with the Church Administration Department, Baptist Sunday School Board. There were seven leadership conferences and a conference for the wives of deacons and pastors. Principal speakers were Morgan Brian, Jr., attorney, New Orleans, Louisiana, and W. Perry Crouch, general secretary-treasurer, Baptist State Convention.

Representatives from the department have assisted in numerous associational and local Schools for Deacons. The department works jointly with Nathan C. Brooks, Jr. in the promotion of deacon training. In October of each year a Deacon's Retreat is held at Camp Caraway.

SENIOR ADULT WORK

The second Senior Adult Conference was held at N. C. Baptist Assembly (Caswell) May 20-23. More than 200 senior adults and leaders were in attendance. Program leaders included Agnes Pylant, former director of the department of recreation, Baptist Sunday School Board; Adelle Carlson, consultant, work with senior adults, Baptist Sunday School Board; Joe Hinkle, director, family ministries section, Church Administration Department, Baptist Sunday School Board; Tom Bodkin, minister of education, Mooresville, N. C.; and Edward Pruden, pastor emeritus, First Baptist Church, Washington, D. C.

A Senior Adult Spiritual Life Retreat was held at Camp Caraway, October 24-25, with Mrs. J. Winston Pearce, W. T. Mills, and Roland Leath as leaders.

The department seeks to undergird the work in local churches through clubs for senior adults.

CHILDREN'S BIBLE DRILL
(formerly Scripture Exploring Drill)

The drill is a Bible verse memorization challenge for boys and girls in the 4th-6th grades. Two state drills were held at Fruitland Baptist Conference Center and during the assembly week at N. C. Baptist Assembly. Around 200 children participated in the state tournaments with twenty-three three-year winners.

In the future the drill will be called Children's Bible Drill and will have several other minor changes so that North Carolina and other state conventions may use the same verses and terminology. Pamphlets explaining the drill and listing verses for use in 1975 are available upon request.

WORK WITH EXCEPTIONAL PERSONS

The Happiness Retreat at N. C. Baptist Assembly, August 15-17, was the highlight activity during the year. This was the first time N. C. Baptists have sponsored a state-wide retreat for retardates themselves. Ages of participants ranged from 8 to 45. There was a well-rounded program of religious instruction, music, recreation, crafts, and fun time provided by a trained faculty. Doris Monroe, consultant, work with exceptional persons, Baptist Sunday School Board, led a conference for parents and counselors who attended the retreat with the participants. Another Happiness Retreat is planned for the same place and time in 1975.

Four special workers have been trained to assist in establishing work with the retarded in local churches. A number of churches have begun a ministry during the past year. Others are exploring the need in their community. A special conference for workers with the retarded was held in First Baptist Church, Greensboro, May 7, led by Shirley Robertson, consultant, work with exceptional persons, General Baptist Association of Virginia.

ASSEMBLY WEEK AT N. C. BAPTIST ASSEMBLY, JUNE 24-28

The Church Ministries and Training Week at N. C. Baptist Assembly emphasized leadership training and age-group sections. Attendance was over 800, and participation by adult leadership was up from past years. Various staff members were involved to some degree in faculty enlistment and/or programs for the several youth conferences held at the assembly during the summer.

FESTIVALS OF CREATIVE ARTS

State festivals were not planned for 1974, but will be held again in the fall of 1975. The department recommended that local churches continue to have festivals, and lend assistance and encouragement in promotion of local festivals.

MULTI-VENTION, CAMP CARAWAY, SEPTEMBER 18-29

An innovation in leadership training, the Multi-Vention featured various seminars designed to assist church leaders in the areas of leadership enrichment and training. David Haney of the Brotherhood Commission, Memphis, Tennessee, brought motivational messages at each session. Personnel from the Church Administration Department, Baptist Sunday School Board, assisted as conference leaders. Another Multi-Vention is planned for the fall of 1975.

FAMILY LIFE MINISTRIES

Conferences for associations and churches are conducted by the Department of Church Ministries and Training. Family life must be the place where the truth the church teaches is best lived. Thus the church succeeds when it helps its members find their place in the family of God, the church.

This department seeks to nurture the interrelationship between the church and the family; helping the church to know and do the things that help its members have a wholesome family life, and helping the family to see the church as an opportunity for them to participate in larger endeavors in the kingdom of God.

MARRIAGE ENRICHMENT RETREAT

The department sponsored a Marriage Enrichment Retreat, August 23-25 in Chapel Hill at the Carolina Inn. This was a first time event with the purpose of the retreat being to strengthen marriage relationships by renewing and enriching the love husbands and wives have for each other. Ten couples participated in this conference.

There will be two Marriage Enrichment Retreats in 1975—one in February and in November.

BAPTIST YOUTH CORPS

The Baptist Youth Corps has completed its sixth and most successful summer. "Because We Believe" in Jesus Christ as the answer to the problems and ills of our work; because we believe in the ministries of the local church to a changing society; because we believe in the power of the Christian witness through the lives of young people; because we believe in the Baptist college and university system in North Carolina, the Youth Corps has become a vital part of our convention program.

During the summer of 1974 there were eighty-seven (87) students from seven Baptist colleges serving churches in forty-three (43) associations across North Carolina. The purpose of this ten-week summer program is: the development of young people for a church related vocation or lay leadership role in our churches; the assisting of the local church in strengthening its ministries; and the promotion of our seven Baptist colleges. The summer activities were climaxed when over five hundred (500) young people from the participating churches attended one of two Youth Conferences at the North Carolina Baptist Assembly.

4. Campus Ministry Department

JAMES Y. GREENE, director

I. MINISTRY ON CAMPUS

New Baptist Student Union (BSU) groups are growing at Elon, Shaw, Louisburg and Central Piedmont Community College; there is renewed interest on several other campuses; state staff and local campus ministers are enthusiastic about the work, the growth of the students, numbers involved and the continuing spirit of joy, exploration and commitment to Christ as "Lord of Life."

Baptist Student Union and the ministry of the Department are a specialized focus of the denomination as it seeks to work with those in the academic community.

Each of the groups and style of service may vary in accordance with the needs of a particular campus, but in each there is emphasis on worship, Bible study, outreach, witness and the development of Christian community. Ours is an attempt, in Christ, to guide students as they embark on a "Journey Inward-Journey Outward."

II. MINISTRY ON STATE LEVEL

1. Chaplains' Seminar: Held January 13-18, 1974, at In-The-Oaks Conference Center, Black Mountain. Fifteen chaplains and campus ministry personnel participated in worship, discussion, lectures, and program planning.

2. High School Seniors' Retreat: Held (in cooperation with Youth Ministries) January 25-27, 1974, at Camp Caraway with 65 high school seniors from 16 churches. This retreat, the third held on a state-wide basis, was slanted toward potential college students. Program personnel included, Cliff Lowery, dean of student affairs; UNC-G, Bob Mullinax, executive secretary, Council on Christian Higher Education; Charles Petty, executive secretary, Council on Christian Life and Public Affairs; and Bill Simpson, assistant chancellor, N. C. State University.

3. All Sports Weekend: Held March 15-17, 1974, at Gardner-Webb College, a basketball tournament involving eight male teams and two female teams. Mars Hill defeated Western Carolina to capture the championship. Gardner-Webb defeated Appalachian to win championship honors in the female division.

4. Spring Conference: Held at Ridgecrest Baptist Conference Center, March 29-31, 1974, with approximately 334 students and staff in attendance. The theme, "You Are What You Live—Live It Out!" was developed by Bob Racine of Mass Media Ministries and Randy Mishoe, associate minister, Myers Park Baptist Church, Charlotte who lead the students in the areas of music and worship. W. Perry Crouch, general secretary-treasurer, shared from his own experiences as pastor, director of campus ministry, and convention worker in relation to the Christian lifestyle change. A new slate of state BSU officers was elected: Tom Mangum, president; Mary Ballance, vice-president and Marcia Massengill, secretary. The three students elected to the minority caucus of the Executive Committee were: Roberta Farr and William Oliver, A & T State University, and Bill Roseman of Chowan College.

The weekend was climaxed on Sunday morning with a service of recognition of more than thirty students serving in summer missions and of the outgoing state BSU President, Greg Hassler.

5. Summer Service Programs: Students raised a summer missions budget of $5,650 which included support for two intern positions, resort ministry team, five Home Mission Board positions, and two Foreign Mission Board positions.

A. Apostoloi: a team of four students spent the summer in the Cullom Association. The team which specialized in youth ministry worked under the supervision of Ed Laffman, Superintendent of Missions.

B. Interns: Two students (in cooperation with City and Metropolitan Missions Department), worked in the New South River Association in the Fayetteville area. They conducted activities in a downtown mission center as well as coordinated the mobile homes summer ministries. Financial support also was furnished by students to a young man in resort ministries in the Sylva area.

C. Local Church Ministry: the department (in cooperation with Youth Ministries) put eighteen students in touch with churches throughout the state which were able to provide the entire amount of their salary for a ten-week period. The program, similar to that of Youth Corps, assisted students from non-Baptist colleges to find places of service in churches during the summer.

D. Resort Ministry Team: "Rhymes With Reasons '74," a student folk team, spent the summer sharing the Christian faith through music. The team sang in resort areas, campgrounds, parking lots of shopping centers, picnic grounds and churches. Five students shared in this ministry both with their music and personally with a Christian witness.

E. Home Mission Board: Five North Carolina students worked with the Home Mission Board in BSU sponsored projects such as: a nursing student working in Albuquerque, New Mexico in the area of public health among the New Mexico Indians using nursing skills and sharing Christ's love through other teaching activities; inner-city ministry in the area of St. Louis; ministry through Bible study, arts and crafts and recreational activities at a correctional center in Florence, South Carolina; a married couple attempted to establish a ministry to a low income housing project in Roanoke, Virginia.

F. Foreign Mission Board: A student worked in Lima, Peru, as a member of a youth evangelistic team using his knowledge of the language to preach in the native tongue. Another student worked in Barranquilla, Colombia, leading vacation Bible school and other youth activities to English-speaking youth.

6. State Officers' Workshop: Met in Raleigh in the Baptist Building September 13-15, 1974, with approximately 76 students, chaplains and state department staff in attendance. During this weekend, the 7 student committees completed plans for the various state BSU programs for the current school year.

7. Bible Conference: Sponsored in cooperation with National Student Ministries and the Sunday School Department was held in Raleigh, September 27-29, 1974. Interest groups were led by Robert Murray, campus minister, N. C. Central University (UCCM); Paul Larsen, campus minister, UNC-Charlotte; Ed Coates, N. C. Baptist Foundation; Welton Gaddy, Christian Life Commission; Richard McBride, campus minister, Wake Forest University; John Lewis, pastor, First Baptist Church, Raleigh; Nathan Brooks, director, Church Programs Division; Geneva Metzger, campus minister, UNC-Greensboro; Ted Purcell, campus minister, NCSU, and Furman Hewitt, graduate student at Duke. Speakers were: John Durham, Southeastern Seminary, spoke on "Understanding the Bible" and Jerry Buckner, National Student Ministries, spoke on "Living the Good News."

8. Fall Convention: Ridgecrest Conference Center was the location for the 1974 Fall Convention, November 1-3. Approximately 400 students and resource personnel met together to explore the theme, "Sharing His Love." Mel Williams, associate minister, Pullen Memorial Baptist Church, Raleigh, led the music and worship for the weekend. John Westbrook developed the theme "A Family in Christ." Planned recreation highlighted Saturday afternoon. The double feature Saturday evening included highlights of summer mission activities, including "Rhymes With Reasons" and Apostoloi teams and a "Sing and Share" session (music, poetry, humor, etc.). Shaw University Choir led the worship service Saturday evening and Mel Williams coordinated the worship service for Sunday.

9. International Student Conference: Sponsored by the Woman's Missionary Union of North Carolina and the Department of Campus Ministry . . . International and American students met November 27-30, 1974, at Meredith College in Raleigh. Various seminars were conducted by political leaders, health care planners and religious leaders. Approximately 100 conferees participated in a tour of the Capital City, thanksgiving dinner, square dancing and a talent parade. Another highlight was an appearance by the "Rhymes With Reasons '74," a Christian folk group sponsored by the Department of Campus Ministry.

10. Student Publications: Encouraged local BSU's to prepare local newsletters for better communication in working with students as they form outreach teams for sharing with churches near the campuses.

1. On-to-College Emphasis
2. Student Day at Christmas

3. Student Conferences at Ridgecrest and Glorieta

JOE STROUD, director

CHARLES GATWOOD, associate

RETROSPECT

On April 1, 1956, the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina was the thirteenth state convention of the Southern Baptist Convention to establish a Church Music Department. This action came as a result of several years of work and reporting of a special committee of the convention. There was a strong feeling on the part of this committee, pastors, music directors, and denominational leaders for a department of church music education to assist the churches in their music needs; choral, instrumental, and congregational. Encouragement was given by the music departments of the seven Baptist colleges. At that time, there were approximately fifty fulltime ministers of music serving churches in the convention, now there are almost two hundred, with some fifteen churches now in the process of finding someone to fill this staff position. The first offices were housed in the old BIBLICAL RECORDER BUILDING on Hargett Street in Raleigh. In the earlier years, the department was listed organizationally as one of the twenty-one ministries of State Missions under the direction of E. L. Spivey. The first annual budget was $10,500, the proposed 1975 budget is $66,340. The total music enrollment reported by 72 per cent of the churches of the convention in 1973 was 131,347. Joseph O. Stroud has served as director of the department since its beginning. There have been most efficient office secretaries through these nineteen years. The department has seen some of its greatest achievements since the coming of Charles S. Gatwood, January 1, 1967, to serve with Mr. Stroud as associate. His work has been of highest quality and most far-reaching in every association across the convention.

INTROSPECT

Through the years, the purpose and function of the Church Music Department has been the same:

1. To provide opportunities for fellowship and inspiration.
2. To interpret the music program.
3. To train church music program leaders.
4. To consult with church leaders concerning the music program.
5. To provide organization and leadership for cooperative work among the churches.

To perform these tasks and accomplish goals, the department has had the able assistance of ministers of music, ten of whom are asked each year to serve as regional directors, assisting in planning and carrying out the work of the department. During 1974, the following are serving in this capacity:

1. Kenneth Hill, Scotland Neck
2. Steve Barnes, Jacksonville
3. Robert Haynes, Fayetteville
4. Mrs. J. F. Thompson, Graham
5. Charles Storey, Winston-Salem
6. Marion Epps, Charlotte
7. Adrian Littlejohn, Boone
8. Paul Robbins, Cherryville
9. Morris Jordan, Canton
10. Don Welborn, Asheville

The year 1974 has been one of the best years. Carol Permenter, herself an able musician, joined the department November 21, 1973 as office secretary. Already, she has made a lasting impression on the department and the entire staff of the Baptist Building. Almost a record attendance has been experienced in all music schools, worship and hymnology workshops, the North Carolina Baptist Church Music Conference meeting at Ridgecrest in April, twelve summer music schools, and the first Part-time/Volunteer Music Directors' Retreat at Camp Caraway. The Festival Program in February, April, and September reported an increase in attendance. The department is encouraging more adult choirs to participate in this program and in 1974 the number of choirs participating was greatly increased. Five weeks of music study, worship, and fellowship were planned for the assembly and camps. The two Children's Choir Camps at Fruitland had an enrollment of approximately 100 each. The Children's Choir Camp at the North Carolina Baptist Assembly enrolled 575. Youth-Adult Choral Workshop at the assembly was attended by 960 persons. For the second year, the department sponsored a Youth Choir Camp at Camp Truett in region eight. It was a most helpful week with fifty young people in attendance.

The Statewide Handbell Festival was held in April in First Baptist Church, Winston-Salem, with an enthusiastic participation. This phase of the work is growing each year with approximately 80 churches now reporting handbell ensembles. The All-State Youth Choir Festival was held in Winston-Salem in September with more than 100 selected youth singers participating under the direction of Bingham Vick, Furman University, Greenville, South Carolina.

Metro-Music Emphasis Week was planned by the department with the assistance of the Church Music Department, Baptist Sunday School Board and held in the Piedmont Association, Greensboro, January 27-February 1. Twenty-two churches participated in the program which culminated with music for the Statewide Evangelism Conference in War Memorial Auditorium on Monday and Tuesday nights, February 4 and 5.

SINGING CHURCHMEN, a choir of ministers of music serving churches in the convention has done an outstanding work for the department and the convention. This outstanding group of men singers is under the able direction of Charles Gatwood, associate in the department, with James Reich of First Baptist Church, Monroe, accompanist. They sang for the sessions of the convention, and also did a full concert at the North Carolina Baptist Assembly, Front Street Baptist Church of Statesville, and Fruitland Baptist Bible Institute.

During 1974, the department has had many opportunities to work with pastors, churches, and committees in securing ministers of music, both part-time and fulltime, as well as organists. Even though the department is not a placement bureau, it does have a fine opportunity to supply names and information to those requesting it.

PROSPECT

The Church Music Department is now ready to do some of its more effective and creative work. The Festival Program for 1975 will major on Children's and Adult choirs on the regional level, February 27-March 1, and sponsor one statewide Youth Choir Festival in Pritchard Memorial Church, Charlotte, March 21 and 22.

BAPTIST HYMNAL, a revision of the present hymnal will be available in Baptist Book Stores March 1, 1975. Three North Carolinians have had the opportunity of serving the Baptist Sunday School Board on this committee: Charles Storey, Winston-Salem; Cecil Sherman, Asheville; and Joseph O. Stroud, Raleigh.

PRAISING '75, a convention-wide music celebration will commemorate the edition of the new hymnal in the city of Nashville, Tennessee, March 10-13, 1975. The Singing Churchmen of North Carolina will appear in concert; the hymnal will be sung in its entirety; there will be something on the four-day program for everyone from country and western, gospel song, hymn, to oratorio and the great classics, as well as some of the outstanding church musicians of the world and the Nashville Symphony Orchestra. The department is chartering a plane, perhaps two, if there is need. Musicians, pastors, and laymen are invited to go.

PRAISING CLINICS, eight of them, are planned for October 1975. These one-night clinics are designed to give the church music leaders the help they need with congregational music. These can meet a great need in most of our churches.

SUMMER MUSIC SCHOOLS will be conducted again in 1975 as will the Part-time/Volunteer Music Directors' Retreat.

FIVE WEEKS AT THE ASSEMBLIES AND CAMPS sponsored by the Church Music Department with another record attendance provide a great challenge.

TWO LARGE ASSOCIATIONAL MUSIC SCHOOLS are being planned in 1975, one for the Mecklenburg Association and the other for the Kings Mountain Association.

And we could say more, but space will not permit. The prospects are great. We have only touched the surface. A worker in the area of Children and Pre-School Music should be added to the department staff within the next several years as budget permits. This worker could help the churches not only in choirs and music activities, but could provide invaluable assistance in Christian education through helping leaders of children and pre-schoolers with music methods and materials in the Sunday School, Kindergarten, Day-Care Activities, Church Training, and the missions organizations of the churches. Some of the most attractive and effective materials Southern Baptists are producing now are in this area. It will take a fulltime worker trained in this field to produce the greatest effectiveness and usefulness in the churches. I hope this dream may become reality within the next few years.

PERSONAL

When you read this report, my wife and I will be in Newcastle, England, where you have given me the opportunity to study for three months with Erik Routley, eminent theologian, hymnologist, and church musician. I shall be doing research and writing on our Baptist forebearers and other Protestant groups, their worship practices, as well as the theological implications of the psalms, metrical psalms, and hymns they sang, following them to this country when they landed at Providence, Rhode Island. It is an exciting undertaking and I am grateful and indebted to the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina for making this study leave possible. I shall endeavor to be a good steward of the investment of time afforded me. In my absence, the work of the department will be under the able direction of Mr. Gatwood.

6. Church Building Planning Department

JACK CLARK, director

All churches differ in their needs for buildings and their use of property and space. The reason for this is the extent of the church's understanding of God's purpose for the congregation in a given location and the objectives which are related to its ministry requiring adequate property and building space. A church requires space designed and built to accomplish stated objectives.

AVAILABLE SERVICES

The Church Building Planning Department provides help for the churches in planning better buildings to provide space for adequate church programs. The program, tasks, and ministry a church wishes to offer determines the buildings and property needed. This department assists the church by: (1) making on-site visits, when requested, to look at needs and meet with appropriate committees responsible for planning new space or renovation and/or readjustment of existing space; (2) acting as a liaison between the church and the Church Architecture Department, Baptist Sunday School Board, so that program graphics may be prepared to reflect the needs of the church; (3) reviewing and interpreting sketches after they are received from the Baptist Sunday School Board; (4) sharing information about architects available and other services necessary to building and equipping a building; and (5) consulting about the financing of a building program, particularly in regard to capital fund drives. There is no charge for the services of the department staff. It is a ministry made possible by Cooperative Program gifts. The department has assisted 296 churches in the past year, through 195 on-site visits, 38 in-office visits, 721 telephone conferences or correspondence communications. In addition, 12 churches of the General Baptist State Convention have been assisted in their building program planning during this year.

STATE CHURCH BUILDING CONFERENCES

Two State Church Building Conferences are planned for 1975: April 22, Baptist Building, Raleigh; September 16, First Baptist Church, Asheville.

STATE TOUR

A tour, with a consultant from Church Achitecture Department, Baptist Sunday School Board, is planned for August 11-15, 1975.

NEW SECRETARY

Effective the first of December 1973, Elizabeth Mercer, who had been office secretary for over eight years, transferred to the business office to be secretary to the business manager, Richard Smith. Dorothy Rodger, an office secretary in the Sunday School Department, became the secretary of the department.

7. Brotherhood Department

J. EDWIN BULLOCK, director

News of increased Baptist Men and Royal Ambassador units in the churches helped the North Carolina Brotherhood Department to begin 1974 with an optimistic viewpoint. The 1973 church year was the fifth straight year of gain in units and enrollment, and in fact, was the largest gain reported by a Southern Baptist Convention state. Statistical growth was only one measurement of growth. New state emphasis in behalf of missions education and missions involvement among men and boys also suggested a growing interest in Brotherhood. The state, regional, and associational missions training and missions emphasis meetings were well attended, and there were multiple reports of men's groups and Royal Ambassador groups from the churches that were getting involved in mission type activities. Department staff members, Bob Watson and David Langford, worked long and hard in providing excellent leadership with new emphasis and activities as well as the older and more proven state programs for men and boys. The office staff also did a good job in getting out the resource materials, promotion, etc. There was a significant change in office personnel in that Judy Latta, after several years of excellent service, gave up her job as office secretary. Lynn Tharrington, with three years of service with the department as the receptionist secretary, was promoted to the office secretary position; and Donna Jolly came to the department in August as the new receptionist secretary.

NEW LEADERSHIP

In the 1974 church year, the Brotherhood Department adopted a regional leadership emphasis. The following men were selected by the state Baptist Men officers to serve as regional leaders: Region 1, Fahey Harrell, Elizabeth City; Region 2, Bob Shields, Rocky Mount; Region 3, Robert Hickman, Bladenboro; Region 4, George McCotter, Lillington; Region 5, Horace Barefoot, Thomasville; Region 6, LeRoy Yates, Rockingham; Region 7, James Marchman, Forest City; Region 8, Earl Woods, Hudson; Region 9, C. M. King, Hendersonville; and Region 10, Luther Osment, Sylva. Regional leaders are to assist the state Brotherhood program by encouraging the selection of associational Brotherhood leadership, encouraging associational leadership to provide basic assistance for the churches, assisting associations in providing basic needs, coordinating of regional training and inspirational Brotherhood programs, and planning with state officers and Brotherhood Department staff with the objective of developing better state Brotherhood programs.

A NEW ASSOCIATIONAL EMPHASIS

In 1974, the Brotherhood Department challenged the associations to upgrade their approaches, seeking to help the churches to do a better job with missionary education for men and boys. Associational leadership was challenged to meet six basic goals. The goals which will also be promoted in 1975 are: (1) gathering the names and addresses of Baptist Men and Royal Ambassador leadership in the churches, (these are needed and are being gathered both for use in the state office and associational office); (2) select at least three associational Brotherhood leaders (director, Baptist Men's leader, and Royal Ambassador leader); (3) conducting a fall associational Brotherhood workshop; (4) providing at least one Baptist Men's Rally; (5) providing at least two associational Royal Ambassador events, and (6) seeking a ten percent annual gain in new units.

TRAINING—OLD AND NEW

Leadership training for Brotherhood leadership was intensified in 1974. Proven programs used in previous years were continued. Leadership training programs that were continued were department directed, associational Brotherhood workshops, Royal Ambassador leadership courses, a fall leadership training retreat at Caraway, training sessions for home and foreign mission study teachers, associational mission action clinics, training of participants in correctional ministries, day camp director's training, lay witness revival team coordinators and member training, and associational leadership training. (The new training program was for regional leadership teams.) Regional leaders lead six man teams from each region in a special training session at Caraway which prepared them to conduct training sessions in each respective region for associational leadership training teams. Another new training program was for coordinators and team members to participate in the lay renewal emphasis. Two training programs for those team members were provided in 1974.

MISSIONS INSPIRATION PROGRAMS

An abiding conviction of the Brotherhood Department staff is that people are not going to become any more actively involved in mission action than they are educated and inspired in the direction of missions needs. In keeping with that conviction, numerous annual state missions emphasis programs are conducted annually for men and boys. Some of those programs that continued to enjoy good success in 1974 were the Business and Professional Men's Retreat at Camp Caraway, See Baptist College Days for Royal Ambassadors, four weekend Royal Ambassador Camps, World Missions Week at N. C. Baptist Assembly, two Family Camping Weekends, thirty associational RA Track Meets culminating in the spring state RA Track Meet at Gardner-Webb College, eight associational missionary education dialogues with pastors and church staff members, and two missions tour experiences. Mr. Bullock took a group for a missions tour experience visiting mission operations and missionaries in five countries of the Orient. The group had a fellowship experience with Baptists from around the world in Hong Kong. Mr. Langford took older high school age young men to Missions Games '74 in December. This missions emphasis program was conducted by the Home and Foreign Mission Boards and the Brotherhood Commission. New mission inspiration programs that were well received during the year were the state Pioneer RA Congress at First Church, Hickory in March, a state Crusader RA Congress at First Church, Greensboro in September, and a state Laymen's Conference at Raleigh Memorial Auditorium in November. The Pioneer Congress featured missions in action and had the advantage of inspirational messages by Dallas Cowboy Football Coach, Tom Landry, and Baker James Cauthen, executive secretary, Foreign Mission Board. The Crusader Congress featured a unique missions interest program for younger boys. A variety program included foreign missionaries, Lloyd Corder and his friend "Joe the Baptist" of the Home Mission Board, and an exciting Crusader Car Derby. The car competition had its beginning in eight associations and culminated with the competition at the state congress. The state Laymen's Conference was honored in having a Prayer Breakfast, co-hosted by North Carolina Governor James Holshouser. More than 1,000 people participated in the Prayer Breakfast in behalf of Southern Baptist foreign missions. A good total missions program was also enjoyed by the group on Friday night and Saturday morning.

ROYAL AMBASSADOR CAMPS

An excellent staff composed of fifteen college age and four senior high school age young men and Brotherhood Department Associate David Langford had another successful summer at Camp Caraway, the state Royal Ambassador camp. Approximately 1,200 boys attended the nine weeks of summer camp. More than 300 boys made professions of faith and commitments to missions. There was a consensus that the Caraway summer was in many respects the best summer ever experienced in Royal Ambassador camping. Three additional Royal Ambassador camps weeks were provided for boys camp in the far western part of the state at Camp Truett, Hayesville, N. C. These three weeks were directed by Brotherhood Department Associate Bob Watson. Mr. Watson put together a superb volunteer staff for each of these weeks. Attendance continues to climb each summer at Truett, and there is excitement about a good program of missionary education and Christian personality development with the boys in the Region 10 area of the state.

DAY CAMPING

Under the direction of Bob Watson, the department intensified its Convention assignment of training persons to conduct day camping programs through their churches and specifically with Woman's Missionary Union and the Baptist Sunday School Board Recreation Department. Ten regional day camp workshops were held and approximately 350 people were trained. Special day camp materials were developed featuring missions in Botswana. These materials were used for the day camp at the N. C. Baptist Assembly and by RAs and GAs in many of the churches.

LAY REVIVAL AND LAY RENEWAL

The Brotherhood Department has continued to enjoy a good relationship with the Laymen's Witnessing Foundation. The department staff assists with the coordination of approximately eighty lay-led revival weekends annually, the training of team coordinators, editing and mailing the monthly lay revival newsletter, continuous planning of ways to advance men serving on missions teams, and providing an evangelical thrust in the church areas where wives and youth are involved in missions activity.

Lay renewal has come to life as far as Brotherhood Department coordination is concerned. Mechanically, lay renewal works a lot like lay revival with the major difference being that lay renewal is an in-church program designed to promote spiritual growth, and lay revival is a personal witness program designed to get the church out to win the lost. Ten or more lay renewal weekends were conducted in the fall of 1974. Two training sessions were held for coordinators of lay renewal teams during the year. In order to protect the two programs and guarantee effectiveness of both, totally different personnel is being used in the two programs. It is anticipated that both emphases will continue to grow in 1975 and that additional lay people will be enlisted to serve.

BAPTIST MEN'S CORPS

More than 200 men are committed annually to accept special missions assignments through N. C. Baptist Men's Corps. Men agree to receive invitations to perform various types of mission activities throughout the year and to respond at least one or two times. The best example in 1974 was two work projects led by James Marchman, state mission study leader on a St. Kitts Island and in Ecuador. In both areas, the men conducted work projects on church buildings. The men went to West Virginia in a project of training Royal Ambassador counselors. In 1975 there are plans for these men to provide work projects and evangelical campaigns in Michigan, New York, and other pioneer states as well as several foreign countries. There is also a new design being developed for using these men for disaster relief activities and for numerous other mission type activities.

CONTINUED GROWTH

There seems to be every reason for anticipating continued growth in the missionary education and involvement programs for Baptist men and boys in 1975. Reports from the church leadership reflect an increased interest. The state Brotherhood Department is completely staffed with experienced individuals and demands are great for assistance in the churches, associations, and regions. The Brotherhood Department now has the best trained leadership for rendering assistance to the churches across the state that it has ever had. There are also plans for 1975 that should further develop that leadership. The tools for conducting missionary education and action programs in the churches as provided by the SBC Brotherhood Commission are substantially better than they have ever been before. The Commission is also doing a superb job in interpreting missions to men and boys through their own approaches to leadership training and in interpretation type meetings. Requests for materials, suggestions, information on state Brotherhood communications and programs seem to increase daily as they come by phone, letters, and visitors to the department offices. There seems to be a growing interest in mission service on the part of men and boys and increasing belief that missionaries at home and abroad can be produced through Royal Ambassadors and Baptist Men. There is every evidence that 1975 can be envisioned as a year of continued growth.

8. Woman's Missionary Union

Auxiliary to the Baptist State Convention

MRS. GILMER CROSS, president

SARA ANN HOBBS, executive secretary

I. ONGOING WORK

Woman's Missionary Union has steadily promoted the ongoing missions activities in the churches which include regular study of missions, enlistment of women and youth in mission action and faithful support of all areas of mission work. According to the Department of Survey and Statistics, Baptist Sunday School Board, North Carolina had an increase of .02 percent in the number enrolled in WMU organizations. This is 374 more people than a year ago. These members are enrolled in age-level organizations as follows:

	Organizations	Enrollment
Baptist Women	2,768	61,056
Baptist Young Women.....	603	6,532
Acteens	1,910	19,225
Girls in Action	2,466	25,870
Mission Friends	1,540	15,197
Missions	250	WMU officers 9,294
Totals.....	9,537	137,142

North Carolina Woman's Missionary Union has more people enrolled in the total WMU program than any other state in the United States. Baptist Women, Baptist Young Women, and Acteens have more enrolled in these age-level organizations than in any other state.

Giant Step, a major enlistment-enlargement effort, was introduced into the churches in the fall of 1972. Covering a two-year period, the program had as its goal to increase membership, increase the number of WMU organizations, and to increase WMU magazine subscriptions. Churches were awarded certificates for the meeting of each of these goals. One hundred seventy-seven churches received recognition for having increased organizations; 150 for having increased membership by 25 percent and 218 for having increased magazine subscriptions by 25 percent.

Prayer and giving are the two main emphases in mission support. The intangible quality of prayer makes statistical progress immeasurable. Increased giving is measurable and North Carolina has set an enviable record in 1973-74 on two of the special offerings. The Lottie Moon Christmas Offering, with a goal set of $2,250,000.00, reached $2,361,738.33, an increase of $208,182.23 over the year before. The Annie Armstrong Easter Offering amounted to $693,656.68, an increase of $75,918.95. The goal was $650,000.00. The State Missions Offering did not reach the goal but the largest offering ever was given, $327,867.65. The Heck-Jones Offering for WMU Promotion totaled $75,000, missing the $80,000 goal by $5,000.

Leader training is an integral part of the ongoing program of WMU. Leader training is conducted in churches, associations and state meetings. State promoted leader training included.:

Associational Officers' Workshops (3), 384 attending
 Associational Acteens Officers' Training, 100 attending

Day Camp Workshops (7 in cooperation with Brotherhood), 265 attending. State field staff members conducted leader training assisted by five approved workers: Mrs. Oren Bradley, Mt. Airy; Mrs. Alfred E. Andrews, Jr., Wilkesboro; Mrs. M. Fred Scott, Jr., Littleton; Mrs. Ronald Carter, Surf City; and Mrs. William F. Wilson, Gastonia.

State promoted meetings, designed to offer both leader training and inspiration attracted 286 women and young people. These included a Baptist Young Women Convention with 236 present and an Acteens Leaders' Retreat with 50 present.

Meetings designed for inspiration and missions education were attended by 2,693 persons as follows:

Mother-Daughter Camps (2) 402

Vivian Nowell, retired as WMU financial secretary after 13 years, was replaced by Sandra Dillard. Maxine Bumgarner, secretary, resigned from the WMU staff to enroll at Southern Baptist Theological Seminary. She was replaced by Peggy Bridges.

II. CAMP MUNDO VISTA

The women who served on the original Camp Development Committee could hardly have imagined the magnitude of what they initiated when they recommended the building of Camp Mundo Vista. Seven years after the initial vote to proceed with building, the layout consists of 33 buildings and an outdoor chapel. This year 3,366 were reached through WMU promoted meetings and an additional 2,562 persons came in church planned retreats and conferences.

The camp building costs have amounted to approximately $469,708.09 with an additional $72,621.35 paid in interest on the loan from Wachovia Bank. Through the Heck-Jones Memorial Offering, special gifts, and advances from the Baptist State Convention, $341,514.27 has been paid. At present the indebtedness at Wachovia Bank is $93,000.00. This loan is scheduled to be completely repaid in November 1977. Capital improvements in 1973-74 were construction of the last two unit lodges, landscaping of the outdoor chapel and paving the entrance road and parking lot.

Landscaping of the outdoor chapel was done through gifts given in memory of Fran Gilreath, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Frank Gilreath, Jr. of Charlotte, who served as camp nurse during the summer of 1972. Mrs. Gilreath is first vice president of Woman's Missionary Union.

Decisions regarding Camp Mundo Vista are made by the WMU Camp Committee, Mrs. J. E. Cargill, Cliffside, chairman. Other members are Mrs. W. T. Dorrity, Durham; Mrs. Albert Kaleel, Clinton; Mrs. Henry Rowe, Mount Airy; and Mrs. Larry Sides, Welcome.

Each summer camperships are offered to 65 girls. Fifty of these are offered to the county departments of social services. Any girl who would benefit from the camping experience and who cannot afford to come is eligible. She is chosen by her county director. Three camperships are offered to each of the four Baptist Children Homes and three to the Oxford Orphanage. In each of these the girls receive travel expenses, room and board and $5 spending money. Woman's Missionary Union would like to expand the camper-ship program but cannot as long as the debt is unpaid and the Heck-Jones Memorial Offering remains at its present level.

Future dreams for Camp Mundo Vista include the building of a chapel for adult groups to use for retreats and conferences, installation of additional showers to accommodate church groups, and the erection of a home for the maintenance superintendent.

III. SPECIAL ACTIVITIES

In October, 1973, eighteen women from North Carolina traveled to Pennsylvania to assist the churches in WMU leader training. These women constituted three teams of six women. Each team went to a different section of the state for a week of training. The teams got into 15 churches and attracted 266 women. Each team member paid her own expenses or had her expenses paid by a sponsoring church, association or convention.

The Communications Department of the Baptist State Convention furnishes audio-visual equipment for Mundo Vista. In appreciation for this service rendered, Woman's Missionary Union gave this department $1,000 for additional equipment needed by the department. This money was taken from the fees collected for off-season use of Mundo Vista by church or other groups.

Gifts were given to the following women from North Carolina appointed for missionary service by the Home or Foreign Mission Board:

Mrs. R. Knolan Benfield, Morganton, appointed to England as special appointee, $50

Dorothy Elliott, Elizabeth City, journeyman to Japan, $50

Connie Leonard Markham, Louisburg, career missionary, Jellico, Tenn., $100

Woman's Missionary Union continues to need and appreciates the strong support of missionary pastors throughout the state.

9. Department of Camps and Retreats

B. W. JACKSON, director

The proposed conference center continues to claim attention, as drawings and specifications have been prepared for committee considerations. The conference center fund from last year's State Missions Offering and special gifts amounts to about $125,000., and shares in this year's State Missions Offering.

The Royal Ambassador Camps brought about 1,200 campers. Use of the facilities "off season" has become a large part of the operation.

Every weekend, as well as many week days, are used by various church and convention groups. One hundred and eighty groups used Camp Caraway and another eighty used Mundo Vista last year. All meals are served by the camps.

Improvements during the year include the construction of a summer cabin, and the beginning of a multi-purpose building to serve as gym-assembly hall. This building will be a winterized facility when completed soon.

The Director continues to work with Woman's Missionary Union in the operation of Mundo Vista. Also, consultant services were made to the General Baptists as they put the J. J. Johnson Baptist Assembly in operation, and continue to build.

10. North Carolina Baptist Assembly

FRED J. SMITH, director

The North Carolina Baptist Assembly has enjoyed one of its best years, with over 14,000 people attending. These came for scheduled conferences, pre and post season retreats, family vacations, and one day guest.

All who have stayed in the newly remodeled accommodations have enjoyed them immensely. The new projects for the coming year will include remodeling the family unit apartments and the Ladies' Resident Buildings. Long range plans are being made for additional church group apartments and other needed facilities and improvements.

The year round facilities are used every weekend. The pre-season begins January 1 of each year and ends the first week in June. The post-season begins the third week in August of each year and ends on December 15. The summer schedule is:

COUNCIL ON CHRISTIAN LIFE AND PUBLIC AFFAIRSALLEN LAYMON, *president*CHARLES V. PETTY, executive director

The Council on Christian Life and Public Affairs attempts to apply all of the Gospel to all of life. The following report deals with some of these areas of life.

I. STATE-WIDE WORKSHOP

Over 1200 persons attended part or all of the Council's state-wide workshop held in Greensboro March 18-20, 1974. In 1975 the Council will co-sponsor a workshop for those who work with youths. The workshop will be May 8-10 at Camp Caraway.

II. REGIONAL POLITICAL ACTION SEMINARS: DECEMBER 2-4, 1974

Five regional political action seminars are scheduled for December 2-4, 1974. Welton Gaddy, Nashville, Tennessee; Collins Kilburn, Raleigh; Coy Privette, Kannapolis; and Phil Strickland, Dallas, Texas will be the program leaders. The conferences are:

December 2 2:30 p.m. First Baptist Church, Asheville

December 3 9:30 a.m. First Baptist Church, Charlotte

2:30 p.m. Friendly Avenue, Greensboro

December 4 9:30 a.m. Kennedy Home, Kinston

2:30 p.m. First Baptist Church, Raleigh

III. RESEARCH, RESOURCE, REFERRAL

The Christian Life Council receives daily requests from North Carolina Baptists for information regarding social issues. The Council attempts to provide responsible information to these requests.

IV. ISSUES OF CONCERN*Amnesty*

It was the judgment of this Council to recommend to the 1970 state convention, and to reaffirm that recommendation in 1972, that no general amnesty be granted to those who chose not to serve in the military. It was the Christian Life Council's opinion that such action was premature as long as this nation was engaged in war.

In light of the withdrawal of American troops from Viet Nam, and because of our understanding of mercy, forgiveness and reconciliation, this Council recommends that this convention instruct the president of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina to write the President of the United States expressing our support of his plan of amnesty.

Broken Homes

The Christian Life Council has a continuing concern with the fragmentation of family life and the consequences of such brokenness. Our homes are broken by unresolved conflict, job demands, divorce, separation, death, crime, moral error, mental illness, physical illness and deterioration, and cultural shock.

We urge all churches and convention agencies to (1) develop adequate premarital preparation programs, (2) provide opportunities for marriage and personal enrichment, and (3) minister realistically to those who are experiencing familial crises.

Commendation to the Christian Action League

The Christian Life Council commends the staff, officers, and friends of the Christian Action League for their diligent work on Senate Bill 89 (mandatory breathalyzer tests). Lives of North Carolinians will be saved because of their efforts.

Morality in Government

Our nation, on the eve of its two hundredth birthday, has been thrust into an unprecedented time of moral testing. The unfolding of Watergate has revealed deep festering challenges to moral government: the assertion that the end of national good justifies the means of criminal acts against individuals; the assumption that a political elite are above the law; the eroding of the integrity of sworn testimony; the use of political power to obstruct justice. We are saddened by the presence of these sordid elements in our government. Furthermore, we are distressed that our inauthentic morality has led us to strain at gnats while swallowing camels. For example, many citizens expressed great concern over cursing but little concern over obstruction of justice. In addition, many citizens excused immorality and criminality on the basis that everyone does it.

Yet, the testing has also revealed the basic strength of our constitutional government. We are a government of law, not men. The system of checks and balances has restrained abuse of power. The public and its elected representatives have resisted unlawful and immoral practices. The necessity for openness in government has been reaffirmed. For each of these strengths we are grateful.

It is time for free men to reassess their values so that priority is given to the urgent moral, social, and economic dilemmas in our common life. We must heal the nation's brokenness, improve our environment, stabilize our economy, strengthen family relations, and build moral government.

There is a timely and timeless quality in the words of the prophet Micah relevant to both those who govern and the governed ". . . O man, what is good; and what doth the Lord require of thee, but to do justly, and to love mercy, and to walk humbly with thy God?" (Micah 6:8)

Penal Reform

North Carolina has more of its citizens on death row than any other state. Baptists should be concerned with not only what constitutes a capital offense but also with why people commit such crimes.

Attention must be given to the conditions which produce criminals.

Penal reform in many areas is needed. Baptists should become involved in both the prevention and rehabilitation of criminals. Your Council is concerned with juvenile offenders and their incarceration. It is our hope that ultimately penal reform will include abolition of the death penalty. Your Council is now exploring ways that will help North Carolina Baptists become actively involved in penal reform.

Sexism

Few would disagree that women have often been pictured as inferior and have been treated unfairly historically. They have been subjected to economic, social, and religious discrimination. Such discrimination when subjected to proper scrutiny should be declared immoral and should be spotlighted in such a way as to bring about its elimination.

While having some reservations about possible implications of the Equal Rights Amendment, we call upon the North Carolina Legislature to give serious consideration to the passage of this amendment.

The priesthood of each believer is a foundation stone in Holy Scripture. Baptists are indeed indebted to and dependent upon women who work in the Kingdom of God. Therefore, the Council on Christian Life and Public Affairs calls upon local congregations to support full equality for women within their fellowship and encourage them to exert spiritual and moral leadership in whatever way their talents will allow.

Tax on Food

For many, such as the old and poor, life is little more than a struggle for existence. The dramatic increase in the cost of food in 1974 has made their struggle more difficult. Charging a sales tax on that inflated food compounds their dilemma.

A sales tax on food is a regressive tax which hurts those the most who can least afford it.

Within the tax reform bills that will be proposed to the North Carolina legislature in 1975, there are several options available for the State to reclaim the income lost by removal of sales tax on food. It is our judgement that responsible options should be sought and sales tax on food repealed. We urge all Baptists to support this reform in our tax laws.

Jesus said, "I was hungry and you fed me." Perhaps we can feed the hungry by letting their meager dollars buy more food instead of paying more taxes.

V. COUNCIL MEMBERSHIP

Several Council members will conclude their terms of service this year. North Carolina Baptists are indebted to these who have served them well. They are:

Allen Laymon, president, North Wilkesboro; Hoke Coon, Jr.; Lexington; Clara Lou Lolley, Winston-Salem; J. Parker McLendon, Thomasville; Susan Wood, Raleigh.

Council members who will continue to serve are:

Robert Clegg, Sylva; John A. Johnson, Kenansville; L. D. Holt, Raleigh; Richard Bass, Forest City; L. L. COUNCIL MEMBERSHIP

North Carolina Baptist colleges are guided and counseled in their cooperative endeavors through the Council on Christian Higher Education. Since 1944, the Council has been an effective means of communication among the colleges, and between the colleges and the Baptist State Convention. The strength of the Council lies in a voluntary concept of Christian community rather than competition. The Council membership is made up of the following: presidents, deans, chairmen of boards of trustees of the colleges; and the General Board's Committee on Christian Higher Education. Ex officio members of the Council are W. Perry Crouch, general secretary-treasurer, Baptist State Convention; Allen Bailey, president, Baptist State Convention; Billy Mobley, president, General Board; and Mrs. Gilmer Cross, president, North Carolina Woman's Missionary Union.

The following new members from the General Board were elected to the Council membership last year: Hatcher Elliott, Earl D. Farthing, W. J. Freeman, J. D. Helms, M. B. McLeod, Jr., and Wade Yates.

THE COOPERATIVE PROGRAM

The Cooperative Program is the means Baptists use for translating their missionary, evangelistic and social concerns into action. Baptist colleges are the supportive partners of North Carolina Baptists in the effort to keep the missionary thrust of our churches strong and effective. Each college invests time, money and labor into the promotion of the Cooperative Program in at least two associations each year. The colleges are grateful for the generous support they receive from North Carolina Baptists through the Cooperative Program.

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE PAST YEAR

On June 1, 1974, Budd E. Smith retired, completing twenty-one years as president of Wingate College. In addition to his effective leadership as president, Dr. Smith was a friend and supporter of all Baptist causes through the Convention. Mrs. Smith served as head librarian of the college. Dr. and Mrs. Smith gave strength and stability to Christian higher education through the Council. Dr. Smith was named President Emeritus of Wingate College.

Thomas E. Corts became president of Wingate College June 1, 1974. He was formerly associated with Georgetown College in Kentucky, where he had served as special assistant to the president, assistant professor of speech, and as executive vice president.

Baptist Youth Corps continues to be a vital and popular ministry involving Baptist college students in the work of churches during the summer months. The funding and administration of the Youth Corps program is shared by Baptist colleges, the church being served by the student, and the Baptist State Convention.

INTERDEPARTMENTAL FACULTY MEETINGS

Interdepartmental Faculty Meetings are sponsored by the Council on Christian Higher Education. Once every two years the teachers in the same discipline in the North Carolina Baptist colleges are brought together for two days of personal and professional sharing on one of the campuses. The meetings, professional in nature, provide an opportunity for growth and fellowship among the professors from the seven colleges. There are fourteen disciplines currently involved: business education; education; psychology; English; foreign languages; mathematics and natural science; music, art and dramatics; physical education and health; religion and college chaplains; and social science.

BAPTIST COLLEGE AND SCHOLARSHIP OFFERING DAY

On Father's Day each year the Baptist colleges are recognized by the churches and an offering is received for student aid. These funds are made available to Baptist students according to the degree of need as determined by the individual school. The Scholarship Offering is a vital and meaningful part of an essential program of student aid. Every North Carolina Baptist college pledges that no student shall be prevented from receiving an education solely because of financial need. The Baptist churches of North Carolina, through their generosity on Father's Day, enable the colleges to make and to keep this promise.

A PLEDGE

North Carolina Baptist colleges renew their commitment to Christian values and to an active partnership with their fellow-Baptists in evangelism, missions, education and social concern.

1. CAMPBELL COLLEGE

FREDERICK LESLIE TAYLOR, chairman, Board of Trustees
NORMAN A. WIGGINS, president

Campbell College began the eighty-eighth year of operation on August 19, 1974, with a total enrollment of 1855. Eighty-two per cent of the student body came from 76 of the 100 counties in North Carolina, and 18 per cent came from 13 foreign countries and 23 states.

The audit for the year ending May 31, 1974, showed gross receipts income of $6,487,470.35 and net operating income of $4,708,911.43. Total assets at book value on the Combined Funds Balance Sheet were listed at $20,544,386.63. From the Cooperative Program of the Baptist State Convention, Campbell College is deeply grateful to have received $357,372.55, which was 7.59 per cent of net operating income. The college is pleased to report that the financial year ended in the black, an achievement which is becoming increasingly difficult for the private Christian college.

Campbell College's annual financial report contains a Comparative Combined Balance Sheet Statement showing the growth of the college from June 1, 1967, to May 31, 1974. It is significant to note that, through the combined efforts of Campbell College and her many friends, during this period the total assets of the college increased from $9,873,810.72 to $20,544,386.63. The net worth of the college during the same period was increased from $5,976,-125.53 to $13,946,243.31, an increase of 133 per cent during the seven-year period.

The Frederick Leslie Taylor Hall of Religion has been completed at a cost of $1,210,000.00. This beautiful, new thirty classroom building with thirty-three faculty offices replaced the Hall of Religion that burned in 1968. Taylor Hall was totally financed through voluntary special gifts from North Carolina Baptist churches, alumni, friends of the college, and industry. The Keith Hills Golf Course and residential development is under construction; completion of the project is anticipated by November 1, 1974.

At the close of the year, Campbell College had begun construction of a swimming pool and other needed physical education and athletic facilities. It is anticipated that this fine new building, to be known as Robert Nathan Johnson Memorial Hall, will be ready for use by mid-winter, 1975.

During the fiscal year that closed May 31, 1974, the college graduated 616 young men and women. Campbell College graduates serve with distinction as pastors and church vocational leaders, in secondary education, in professional careers, and in almost every field of business.

The Student Aid Program administered by Campbell College is of great importance to the total educational efforts, particularly when there is such a difference between the student cost of public higher education and the private sector. During the past year, 1,513 students were assisted with the management of their school expenses. The total student financial aid administered by the college was $1,120,647.03. Included in this amount are 1,521 grants totaling $594,731.17. Financial assistance, through the student aid program, involved 72.04 per cent of the student body.

On August 16, 1974, the Campbell College family was saddened by the death of a beloved, distinguished member of her staff, Lt. Col. William S. Terrell. Colonel Terrell served as Registrar from 1960 until his death.

In response to the request of the Convention, the following statement of plant indebtedness is submitted by the Business Office:

2. CHOWAN COLLEGE

H. DOUGLAS WHITE, chairman, Board of Trustees
BRUCE E. WHITAKER, president

August 25 marked the beginning of the 127th academic year in the life and work of Chowan College with the arrival of freshmen and transfer students for a period of orientation prior to registration for classes on August 28. Sophomores returned to the campus and the classroom on August 26. Final enrollment figures as of September 5 showed the following: sophomores, 374; freshmen, 626; "special" students, 14; audit students, 33. Thus, the total enrollment is 1,047, with a FTE (full time equivalency) enrollment of 1,009. The faculty-administrative staff of the college consists of 87 persons, exclusive of secretarial and maintenance personnel. Of this number, 58 give their full time to teaching. Nine others are teaching on a part-time basis.

Of major significance for the entire campus community in 1973-74 was the completion of a new science-engineering facility, with construction made possible through the success of the college's one million-dollar MISSION POSSIBLE Development Campaign. As of June 30, 1974, MISSION POSSIBLE had received — in cash gifts or pledges—a total of $1,217,697.34. This represents the successful completion of the largest capital needs campaign in the history of the college. Gratitude is expressed to Chowan's many friends and supporters—individual and corporate—who have made such a record possible.

The new science-engineering building was dedicated on May 19 as Carrie Savage Camp Hall. It honors the memory of an 1881 alumna, Carrie Savage, whose husband—the late James L. Camp, Sr. — was a leading figure in the formation and expansion of what is today a major segment of the Union Camp Corporation. Members of the Savage and Camp families, of Union Camp Corporation, and of the Camp Foundation joined in the dedication of the facility, for which the Honorable Colgate W. Darden, Jr., Norfolk, Virginia, was the featured speaker. Carrie Savage Camp Hall provides 10 large classrooms, 12 laboratories, 7 “mini labs,” and 20 faculty offices within a structure of 43,600 square feet of floor space.

The utilization of Camp Hall has enabled the expansion of classroom facilities for the College's division of art through the renovation of Green Hall—the former science building—for these purposes. A portion of Green Hall has also been renovated for expanded student center facilities, including recreational areas and offices for the Student Government Association. It is anticipated that 1974-75 will witness the renovation of a portion of the ground floor of Whitaker Library for expanding library services. Also, the auditorium in historic McDowell Columns Building is to be thoroughly renovated in early 1975.

Academic 1973-74 concluded with the awarding of degrees and diplomas to students on May 19. The baccalaureate sermon for the occasion was delivered by the Reverend Charles A. Trentham, pastor, First Baptist Church, Washington, D. C. The commencement speaker was the Honorable Coglate W. Darden, Jr., former Governor, Commonwealth of Virginia, and former president of the University of Virginia. Special guest for the annual Founders' Day observance on October 12 was Claud B. Bowen, pastor-emeritus, First Baptist Church, Greensboro. The annual Campus Evangelism Week was conducted October 14-18, under the leadership of Milton Hughes, consultant in evangelism, National Student Ministries, Sunday School Board, Southern Baptist Convention. Religious Emphasis Week was conducted March 18-21, under the theme “A Faith to Live.”

Cooperative Program Appreciation Day, September 8, 1974—on which twenty-four members of the college faculty, staff, and student body delivered stewardship messages for churches in the Chowan and West Chowan associations—is illustrative of the commitment of members of the campus community to the worship and ministry of the churches. On a week-by-week basis this commitment is expressed through leadership positions on the part of campus personnel in local churches, pastoral supply ministries on the part of certain college personnel, Baptist Student Union revival teams, etc. The college welcomes and seeks to honor all invitations to be of service and aid to the Baptist churches of the region, and beyond.

The indebtedness of Chowan College on October 1, 1974 stood as follows:

1.	12/1/62	$550,000.00	3½ %	West Hall
				Men's dorm 216	$ 444,000.00
2.	12/1/63	760,000.00	3⅝ %	Belk Hall & Cafeteria

In the first two instances above, loans were made from the Department of Housing and Urban Development, covering a 40-year period and carrying interest charges indicated; each is self-liquidating. In the third instance, the loan was from the U. S. Office of Education. In the fifth instance, the loan was from the Department of Housing and Urban Development, for purposes of constructing a new 280-bed dormitory for men. The loan for additional land is by arrangement with the original owner who, for tax purposes, would not agree to be paid other than over a period of 12 years; approximately 115 acres immediately adjacent to the campus involved. In the sixth instance, Chowan has been granted permission by the Convention to borrow $1,105,000.00 for purposes of constructing a new science-engineering facility which cost $1,300,000.00 equipped and including landscaping. The loan was from Planters National Bank and Trust Company of Ahoskie, N. C. Our accomplishments to date with respect to efforts to provide financial undergirding for this facility are described above.

Chowan College is pleased to report that all of the accounts of the college are fully funded, according to schedules, and that Chowan operated in the black during the last fiscal year. This latter was not easy during these days of escalation of educational costs on every hand and involving unprecedented inflationary economic trends. It would not have been possible except for the generosity of our Baptist people as expressed, primarily, through gifts to the Cooperative Program, literally the "life-line" of the institutions and agencies of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina.

During the past year the college has lost, through death, one faculty member, Joseph Robert Herford; one fine young student, Ray Romanager; and one loyal employee of the maintenance department, James Luther Warren. Chowan has also suffered the loss of the beloved Oscar Creech, who served at various times as vice president for development, acting president, trustee, and always as a devoted friend and supporter of Christian higher education. Attention should also be directed to the deaths of these former trustees of the college: A. E. Bowen, Sr., Windsor; Mrs. W. S. Penny, Raleigh; Frank Shields, Scotland Neck; and W. H. Hollowell, Ayden.

May the dedication and devotion to Christian higher education which characterized the lives of these mentioned above continue to nurture our spirits and to direct our endeavors in the days ahead.

3. GARDNER-WEBB COLLEGE

R. PATRICK SPANGLER, chairman, Board of Trustees

E. EUGENE POSTON, president

Sixty-nine years ago, in 1905, the Boiling Springs High School received a charter from the State of North Carolina. The charter was the result of a study and recommendation made by a committee of the Kings Mountain Baptist Association.

Sixty-seven years ago, in 1907, the first students entered the high school. In 1928, a two-year program of college work was begun, and the name was changed to Boiling Springs Junior College. In 1948, the college became known as Gardner-Webb College. Gardner-Webb, a senior college since 1971, is fully accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools, and is a member of the North Carolina Association of Colleges and Universities.

Gardner-Webb became a part of the Baptist State Convention's program of Christian Higher Education in 1946. Since that time, the college has enjoyed the generous and regular support of North Carolina Baptists through the Cooperative Program. Such support has made possible the development of an improved program of quality education. The entire Gardner-Webb family deeply appreciates the privilege of sharing in the Cooperative Program, and pledges their support in the promotion of every Baptist mission endeavor.

There are currently a total of 1,585 students being led by 94 dedicated faculty members. Faculty are concerned with helping students find God's will for their lives. The faculty, the administration and the staff total 187.

Gardner-Webb lost one of her most dedicated trustees, Garrie L. Kendrick, who died January 7, 1974. His family has established a scholarship in his memory.

Present total indebtedness of Gardner-Webb is $1,582,847. It is being amortized monthly. The current budget is $4,108,635. The college closed the last fiscal year in the black, and sound management of all resources is required in order to assure the continuation of a financially healthy operation.

The fulfillment of Gardner-Webb's purpose was recognized in the academic year, 1973-74, as 413 students trained for church-related vocations: 168 for the pastoral ministry and 245 as ministers of education and youth, music directors and other related fields. Fifteen "Ministerial Education Days" were held, thus providing more than 200 opportunities for ministerial students to preach in churches in nearby associations. Serving in 13 states during the past summer were 113 Gardner-Webb students. These students represented the cause of Christian higher education in preaching, work with youth, and with music.

Two hundred and eleven students were awarded the bachelor of arts or bachelor of science degree at commencement of 1974, with majors in physical education and health, business administration, teaching, social work and religious education. A number of associate in arts degrees was granted, with the students going into secretarial work and the nursing program at Gardner-Webb.

The purpose of Gardner-Webb College is to develop quality Christian students who think for themselves, and who will dedicate themselves to the Christian way of life in the vocations of their own choice.

4. MARS HILL COLLEGE

WEBB ELLIS, chairman, Board of Trustees

FRED B. BENTLEY, president

The year 1973-74 was exciting and filled with opportunities and achievements at Mars Hill College. The administration and faculty spent the entire year redefining the curricular emphasis and total academic programs, culminating in the adoption of a competence-based curriculum which can cause Mars Hill College to be one of the most unique, dynamic, Christian institutions in the United States.

During the past year the campus has been the scene of increased interest and commitment to the Christian faith by large numbers of students. One tangible evidence of this was the renovation by the students of a building for use as a place of worship on the campus. The chapel is open twenty-four hours a day, providing students a place for private meditation, group Bible study and sharing with fellow Christians.

Leaders at Mars Hill College believe that the Christian environment and the dynamics of the new curriculum are primarily responsible for the largest student body in the history of the institution. Enrolled for the 1973 fall semester were 1,515 students; the cumulative enrollment for the year was 1,646, for an increase of 38 students over the prior year. Within this enrollment breakdown, there were 49.5 per cent men and 50.5 per cent women, a very slight shift toward a heavier female population. The 1974 fall enrollment was 1,599.

The Christian Student Movement was responsible for coordinating Christian service activities, some of which reached beyond the campus. There were student revival teams organized for churches, as well as a variety of services provided by students for Oteen Hospital and area prisons. During the fall and spring break periods, students were involved in inter-city projects in Baltimore, Maryland; Atlanta, Georgia; and Phoenix, Arizona.

The total replacement value of the campus now exceeds $18,000,000, with an outstanding indebtedness of $1,461,692. The indebtedness is approximately eight per cent of the net worth, which is below the national norms in terms of total capital indebtedness.

In order to provide needed services and to assure maximum use of college facilities, Mars Hill College was privileged to host over three thousand visitors during the summer of 1974. Most were involved in conferences: The Week of Christian Study and Fellowship, The Fellowship of Christian Athletes, Supervisors of Maintenance of the public school systems, The North Carolina Association of Student Councils, and similar groups. Another pleasure this summer was for Mars Hill College to host the meeting of the General Board and the Council on Christian Higher Education. It is, of course, the hope of the institution that conference attendants, plus other visitors, will provide a broad range of exposure to the opportunities at Mars Hill College, and especially to our commitment to Christian higher education.

The college graduated 306 in May and 63 in August, a total of 369 graduates for the year 1973-74. This was an increase of 41 graduates over the prior year.

For the year 1973-74, Mars Hill College operated the academic year with a slight excess of income over expenditures. The stabilizing factor to the total financial situation was the unrestricted support which the college received from the Cooperative Program. The Cooperative Program now constitutes approximately eight per cent of the operating budget, and is the equivalent of the income from approximately $5,000,000 in endowment. Mars Hill College is grateful for this level of support.

As the college looks toward the year 1974-75, it does so with a sense of optimism because of an expected increase in enrollment, a well-qualified and committed Christian faculty, and a new sense of cooperation between Mars Hill College and North Carolina Baptist churches.

The college is pleased to be in partnership with the Baptist State Convention through the Cooperative Program, the Baptist College Day offering and the recruitment of Baptist young people to attend Mars Hill College.

5. MEREDITH COLLEGE

C. C. CAMERON, *chairman, Board of Trustees*JOHN E. WEEMS, president

The paramount objective of Meredith College is to provide the best possible Christian education for women. In order to do this, there must be a superior faculty, outstanding students, a Christian atmosphere, a progressive attitude, an up-to-date library, modern physical facilities, and a sound financial foundation. Much was achieved in the 1973-74 academic year toward this ambitious goal. A "Blueprint for the Future" has been presented to the trustees giving benchmarks to see how well the stated goals are being accomplished.

At the Meredith graduation exercises of May 12, 1974, degrees were conferred upon 292 young women. The college was fortunate in 1974 to have had the largest summer school enrollment in its history. During the three sessions of summer school, 523 students were enrolled for academic credit. In addition to these students, 5,000 people participated in various programs on campus, which included the Foreign Mission Board Journeymen orientation, swimming, equitation, tennis, cheerleading and majorette camps, sports camps, and music workshops.

As of September 1, 1974, the fall enrollment, the highest in the history of the school, totaled 1,343 students, with 1,230 degree candidates and 113 special students. (Adult students enrolled in the many courses offered in the Continuing Education program are not included in these figures.)

During 1973-74, a number of outstanding curriculum changes were instituted. Cooperative Education programs provide two career experiences on the job, working with some major corporations in a three-state area. Another proposed program, called "Meredith in Europe," has been initiated. During the summer of 1974, the first group of students and faculty studied in London. The goal is for all Meredith students to have the opportunity to spend one semester in Europe, being taught by Meredith faculty members, at approximately the same cost for a semester on the Raleigh campus. It is intended that "Meredith in Europe" will become a permanent part of the curriculum. During the last two years, Meredith College has begun five Bachelor of Science degree programs. Another innovation in the curriculum is the Human Services program, designed to draw from many fields of knowledge.

Meredith College is blessed with an outstanding, dedicated and highly qualified faculty. As one means of insuring the maintenance of a highly qualified faculty, the percentage of the faculty with doctorates is being increased from 38 to 50 per cent over a three-year period. Endowed professorships are being sought through the development program. As an example, the Kenan Trust granted Meredith $300,000 in unrestricted endowment. Endowed professorships would bring to the campus distinguished scholars.

Meredith has just completed its most successful year in development and advancement. The gift income for 1973-74 was $1,415,164. This figure is approximately 50 per cent above the peak year of the Meredith College Advancement Program. Because financial security is a high priority of this administration, the development program is firmly focused upon increasing endowment and reserve resources.

Total assets for the 1973-74 fiscal year were $13,475,995, with an indebtedness of $1,889,000. The college is grateful for the generous financial support it received during the year, of which $361,195 was from the Baptist State Convention through the Cooperative Program. Meredith is pleased to report that it has always operated with a balanced budget. The endowment and reserves have been increased during the last three years by more than $1 million.

The significant contributions from North Carolina Baptists have enabled the college to keep tuition lower than most private undergraduate colleges for women. This factor, plus the scholarship funds which Baptist contributions have helped to establish, enable the college to say that no North Carolina Baptist woman who qualifies for admission will be denied the opportunity of a Meredith education because she is unable to meet expenses.

The death of Dr. Oliver Linwood Stringfield on May 1, 1974 saddened the entire Meredith community. He was the son of Dr. Oliver Larkin Stringfield, who was instrumental in securing funds for the founding of Meredith. "Dr. String," as he was fondly known at Meredith, was a loyal, loving, generous supporter of Meredith College, and his presence and concern will be missed greatly.

6. WAKE FOREST UNIVERSITY

GEORGE W. PASCHAL, JR., chairman, Board of Trustees
JAMES RALPH SCALES, president

In spite of problems posed by inflation, Wake Forest University ended the 1973-74 academic year with a balanced budget, full dormitories, and the prospect for successful completion of the One-Fifty Fund campaign. Most important, the quality of education continues to improve.

Total enrollment for the 1974-75 academic year is 4,199 with 2,924 in the College, 312 in the Graduate School, 433 in the School of Law, 349 in the Bowman Gray School of Medicine and 181 in the Babcock Graduate School of Management.

About 900 freshmen and other new students in the undergraduate college were selected from 3,528 applications processed by the admissions office, and applications for the professional schools continue to be heavy.

The gap continues to widen between tuition costs at private and tax-supported colleges, but the University's program of financial aid helps bright and needy students afford a college education. Total assistance awarded to undergraduates through the financial aid office in 1973-74 was $1,806,444.

The generous support of the University's alumni and friends received national recognition when the school's alumni giving program won the U.S. Steel Award for greatest growth in a single year. Wake Forest is particularly grateful for the record contribution of the Baptist State Convention, which gave $598,272 in 1973-74 through the Cooperative Program.

The One-Fifty Fund, the University's first comprehensive capital campaign in over 20 years, stood at $9 million at the close of the fiscal year. The goal of the four-year campaign was changed from $8.59 million to $10 million, largely because of increased costs for the new fine arts building. September, 1975, is the projected date for completion of the phases of the building to house the theatre and art departments.

A major gift to the University Library was the Charles H. Babcock Library, an outstanding collection of about 2,200 rare and fine books and 19 original manuscripts in the areas of English and American literature and Southern literature.

A bill passed by Congress last spring has enabled Wake Forest to purchase the former U. S. Consulate building in Venice which the University has leased since 1970 and has used for an undergraduate study program. The house was dedicated this summer and has been named The Casa Artom in memory of Dr. Camillo Artom, who served the Medical School faculty from 1939 to 1970.

The Ecumenical Institute established by Wake Forest in 1968 has been expanded and now is co-sponsored by Belmont Abbey College. Claude U. Broach of Charlotte is the institute's first full-time director.

The undergraduate curriculum for 1974-75 incorporates features of a two-semester system along with a one-month winter term for specialized studies. For the past three years all students have participated in the winter term. Under the new plan, the calendar will return to the two regular semesters but a one-month term will be folded into the second semester for students and faculty who want the minimester. Students who participate in winter term courses will take 11-week courses for the remainder of the semester.

President Scales began a six-month leave July 1 under a sabbatical leave program for key administrators adopted by the Board of Trustees last May. During his absence Edwin G. Wilson, provost of the University, is acting president.

Frank J. Schilagi has been named dean of the Babcock Graduate School of Management succeeding Jack D. Ferner, who became director of career education at the school. Schilagi has been director of the school's executive programs since 1971.

The deaths of two retired professors and one active teacher brought sadness to the University community. The teachers were James Carey Blalock, associate professor of chemistry; Hubert A.

Jones, professor emeritus of mathematics; and Karl M. Scott, professor emeritus of management.

Basil M. Watkins of Durham, one of the University's most faithful trustees and a former chairman of the board, died July 17, 1974. Mr. Watkins served on the board for more than 20 years and was elected an honorary member in 1969.

Following is an analysis of the University's outstanding loans as of June 30, 1974.

7. WINGATE COLLEGE

W. T. HARRIS, chairman, Board of Trustees

THOMAS E. CORTS, president

Twenty-one remarkable years of service by President Budd E. Smith came to a close with his retirement from Wingate College, June 1, 1974. Mrs. Smith served ably as head librarian of the college. During Dr. and Mrs. Smith's time at Wingate, the college grew from 192 students to a high of 1,687; the value of buildings and grounds increased by some $17 million; the endowment fund advanced to $2.5 million; and the college has enjoyed a financial stability rare among private colleges. The service of Dr. and Mrs. Smith to North Carolina Baptists and to Wingate College is a monument of dedicated service in behalf of a worthy Christian cause. The college is fortunate in retaining Dr. Smith's assistance as president emeritus.

Four hundred and seventy-nine students were graduated during 1973-74. The fall enrollment for 1974 was 1,243. As in previous years, a preponderance of Baptist students came from North Carolina. The college has continued its offering to North Carolina Baptist boys and girls every opportunity possible to continue their academic training. One graduate who marked a milestone in the life of the college was a young man who completed his entire associate degree by attending night school—the first to do so in Wingate's history. He is inclined to pursue studies for the ministry and represents Wingate's commitment to persons of all ages.

Financially Wingate College ended 1973-74 in the black, even though Wingate's charges are the lowest of all North Carolina private, accredited colleges and universities. Several pieces of property were purchased, bringing to a total of 300 acres the land owned and used by the college. In addition to the much-appreciated support of Wingate College by the Baptist State Convention through the Cooperative Program, the college received almost $500,000 additional dollars to make up the difference between what education actually costs, and what the student pays. Several special contributions came to Wingate during the past year. One gift was a $50,000 endowed fund to support the arts and business. Another was a gift of twelve highly valued paintings which became a part of the permanent collection housed in the Burnside-Dalton Fine Arts Center. A specific bequest of $20,000 came under the will of Wilma L. McCurdy of Stanly County. The college is grateful for gifts that come in kind, in cash, and through wills to help meet rising costs. The 1974-75 operating budget is $2,663,459.00, excluding capital expense. The college does not have any indebtedness.

In the fall of 1973, Wingate College's music program was accredited by the prestigious National Association of Schools of Music. Wingate becomes one of only 15 two-year colleges in the nation to receive that designation.

In keeping with requirements for all fully accredited colleges, a visiting team of educators came to Wingate in the fall of 1973 for the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools. The visit followed a year of self-study by a committee of college personnel. The result was a reaffirmation of accreditation.

Many associations, churches and denominational groups make use of the college's facilities. Wingate is particularly pleased to host the Baptist State Convention's annual Vacation Bible School Clinic, where workers are introduced to new materials and programs.

In December, 1973, Wingate College was saddened by the passing of a steadfast friend and trustee, J. Herbert Bridges, of Charlotte. A businessman of great acumen and public esteem, Mr. Bridges gave many hours to Wingate College in spreading the college's story, helping to raise necessary funds, and in broadening the sphere of Wingate's influence. Bridges Business Building on the campus and the memory of his sacrificial work are testaments to his devotion. A son, H. Conrad Bridges, continues the Bridges family leadership on the Wingate College Board of Trustees.

The college has reaffirmed its commitment to Christian higher education and to service to the Baptist State Convention under its new president, Thomas E. Corts, who came to this position on June 1, 1974. Dr. Corts received the B.A. degree from Georgetown College, and the M.A. and Ph.D. degrees from Indiana University. He served as special assistant to the president, assistant professor of speech and executive vice president at Georgetown College.

Wingate College is grateful to the Baptists of North Carolina for their prayers, gifts, and interest.

H. DIVISION OF CHRISTIAN SOCIAL SERVICES

1. Baptist Children's Homes of North Carolina, Inc.

OLIN T. BINKLEY, chairman, Board of Trustees

W. R. WAGONER, president

The Baptist Children's Homes continues to offer a variety of services aimed at meeting the needs of children and families in a complex society. There are group care campuses for children at Broyhill Home, Waynesville; Mills Home, Thomasville; Kennedy Home, Kinston; and Wall Home, Wallburg. Children who can best be served in closer family units are being provided homes by foster parents throughout the State.

Social work assistance is being offered from regional centers in Asheville, Waynesville, Charlotte, Thomasville, Raleigh, Kinston, and Fayetteville. The Maternity Home in Asheville serves unwed mothers and helps in planning for their offspring.

In the spring of 1974, the first Emergency Care Home was opened at Burlington. This venture is a cooperative effort in which the Mount Zion Baptist Association provides a facility in which to work and the Children's Homes provides staffing and care. Children in crisis situations may be admitted here to receive needed care for a period not to exceed 90 days while planning is directed toward more permanent arrangements for them and their families. A second Emergency Home was opened in Charlotte with the Mecklenburg Association this fall, and other such centers are now being planned.

The Child Development Center continues to provide consultant services, observation, and teacher training to churches wishing to begin or to improve week day programs in care and early education for preschool children. In recognition of the need for preventative and enrichment programs for families, the Child Development work has been expanded to become a Division of Child Development and Family Relations.

At Wallburg in the Piedmont area and at Kennedy Home in the East, Adventure Programs for boys have been a new endeavor during this year. In each of these homes, a group of boys has lived in close companionship with skilled counselor-parents who have helped them to search for better knowledge of themselves and their abilities and for ways to relate to others in their environment. These programs are aimed at building self-esteem and increasing the skills of the youth in solving his own problems and being responsible for his actions.

In October new buildings were dedicated on the Broyhill Home campus: the Wall and Haywood Cottages, the Broyhill Recreation Building, and the Wagoner Administration Building. In November dedication services were held at Kennedy Home for the Spilman and Pridgen Residences for staff and for the Aydtlett-Davis Cottage for children.

During the past year a 30 minute sound, documentary color film has been produced for the Baptist Children's Homes by TimeRite, Incorporated of Dallas, Texas. "The Mountain Within" portrays in excellent manner the hard and difficult struggles of children who have been hurt by circumstances in life and how they respond to love, understanding, encouragement and care provided by the Baptist Children's Homes. The film has been shown by most television stations in North Carolina and is available to our churches through the State Convention's Department of Communications in Raleigh.

It has been our purpose to use wisely the resources available to the Children's Homes in providing quality care for those whom we serve. Essential to our future ministry is continued support through the Cooperative Program, the Thanksgiving offering, special gifts, and estate planning. Sincere gratitude is expressed for the generous support of our Baptist people and other friends.

2. North Carolina Baptist Homes, Inc.

HOWARD SHELL, Chairman of Trustees

WILLIAM POOLE, Executive Director

As a Baptist, among the many vital ministries that you support are your North Carolina Baptist Homes for the Aging. For over 23 years now, you have had a part in serving hundreds of older people and making life much happier and secure for them. You have done so through two very helpful means of income: (1) the Special Offering for the Homes, received on the 3rd Sunday of February each year; and (2) the Cooperative Program. Gifts through these two sources have increased from year to year, and offerings for 1974 will perhaps exceed $350,000, providing more than 30 percent of the budget needed to operate five resident Homes and the Nursing Care Unit.

God, through you, has blessed this ministry of our Baptist Homes in a remarkable way, leading you to establish two Homes in Winston-Salem, Resthaven, and the Hayes Home, and the Nursing Care Unit, and three other Homes at Albemarle, Hamilton, and Yanceyville. In these Homes, 4 out of every 5 residents depend upon your love gifts and simply could not be cared for without your help.

Of greatest significance during the past year has been the decision by the trustees of the Homes to establish a sixth Home in western North Carolina, to be located in the city of Asheville on the Pearson Estate, a magnificently beautiful twenty-one acre site, overlooking the city, and with the gorgeous Blue Ridge Mountains in the background. A dedicated group of people in the area have organized the first initial phase of what will become, it is hoped, a major state-wide fund-raising effort to obtain the necessary money to build this proposed Home, after approval by the General Board and the Baptist State Convention. Church groups are encouraged to visit the beautiful site on which the proposed Home will be built, and will be served lunch, if an appointment is made in advance.

With the addition of a sixth Home for the Aging, with the spiraling cost of living, and the great and ever-increasing needs of older people, it is most urgent that our Baptist people be more generous than ever before in support for the Homes through the regular channels of the third Sunday of February Offering, the Cooperative Program, and an over and above gift for the Western North Carolina Home.

Ministry to an older person is a direct ministry as unto Christ Himself and is most pleasing to Him, we are sure!

3. North Carolina Baptist Hospitals, Inc.

J. BOYCE BROOKS, chairman, Board of Trustees

JOHN E. LYNCH, chief executive officer

In spite of the growth in size and complexity at your Baptist Hospital, the emphasis is still upon "ministering with skill and understanding." Evidence of this is a typical patient's remark recently: "From the head surgeon to the aide who handed me a glass of water, with all the doctors, nurses, people in the business offices and chaplains in between, I was cheerfully given every consideration."

Changes and additions continue to be made for the purpose of providing better hospital care. Renovation of the Progressive Care Unit has been completed, and the South and West Wings of the hospital building are now being renovated. The Ambulatory Care Unit is scheduled for completion by mid-summer, 1975.

New discoveries continue to make possible better medical care. For example, a new EMI-Scanner is to be installed and is expected to be in use before the end of this year. This device, which combines the use of x-rays and computers, will make it possible to detect brain tumors, blood clots, and strokes more accurately and more quickly. Scans can be completed in about 30 minutes and the results can be available in another five minutes. There is no risk or discomfort involved, and the patient does not have to be admitted to the hospital.

The Department of Pastoral Care through its 27 chaplains (faculty, graduate students, and basic students) continues to offer a pastoral ministry to patients in the hospital and those who come to the Emergency Room. There is a chaplain on call 24 hours a day. More than 4,000 hours of counseling were provided through the Pastoral Counseling Center last year. The Division of Pastoral Education continues to offer courses in pastoral care for a six-weeks period, a quarterly session, a year internship and a two-year residency. Beginning in September 1974 a new program, called The Extended Half-Unit, is being offered to pastors who wish to spend two days each week for 10 weeks at the School and evaluate their ministry in their own parish setting for their clinical experience. Academic credit in Clinical Pastoral Education toward a graduate degree is available through Wake Forest University and accredited seminaries.

The Division of Human Enrichment and Development, in the Department of Pastoral Care, is conducting retreats, seminars, and workshops designed to help appropriate the resources of the Christian faith to the various areas and experiences of life. The Pastoral Care Department has also opened its first satellite center, in Fayetteville, to offer counseling and training to people in that area. Your Cooperative Program gifts help to support these ministries.

The hospital continues to operate "in the black." The 1973 Mother's Day gifts are running ahead of the same time last year. These gifts are used to assist patients with the most urgent financial needs. A special committee of five Baptists from the Winston-Salem area assists personnel from the hospital business office and the department of Denominational Relations in administering these funds.

Your hospital staff, and the people they serve, are grateful for your interest, your prayers and your financial support.

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE YEAR

By trimming expenses at every place possible, the past year was a better one for the Recorder financially speaking — and in many other respects. Because of budget squeezes, the editor and assistant editor, in addition to the ladies on the staff, have taken on heavier loads to keep staff at an absolute minimum. This has resulted in a better financial picture.

Circulation continues to grow and is 111,011 as this report is written. Because of additional assistance from the Baptist State Convention, the price of the Church Budget Plan, designed to go to every resident family, continues at $2.50 a year, plus state sales tax of three per cent, making a total of $2.58. The Recorder directors deeply appreciate the continued financial help of the Convention and believe the investment pays off in numerous ways. It is interesting to note that as the circulation of the Recorder has grown so have Cooperative Program gifts.

The Recorder is in itself a "cooperative program of information" for all North Carolina Baptists. In fact, Southern Baptist work at home and abroad is covered in depth by the Recorder.

Churches are urged to put the Recorder in the budget while the price is still so reasonable—only a nickel a week per family. In these inflationary times, it is questionable how long this price can be offered.

At the October 14 meeting of the Recorder Board of Directors, it was noted that the editor will complete 15 years with the publication on Dec. 31, 1974.

V. REPORT OF THE N. C. BAPTIST FOUNDATION, INC.

EDWIN COATES, executive secretary

During 1973-74 fiscal year, The North Carolina Baptist Foundation, Inc., embarked on a program of expanded services in administering Charitable Remainder Annuity Trusts for individuals desiring to make a gift during lifetime with guaranteed annuities for the donor with the principal gift to be held in trust for a Baptist institution, agency, or mission cause at the conclusion of annuity payments. These services resulted in added gifts through the Foundation of $84,312.00 during the year.

Total new gifts and additions to establish trust funds amounted to $150,310.15 during the past year. Of these gifts, 10.08 per cent will eventually benefit SBC causes beyond the state.

The total market value of The North Carolina Baptist Foundation investment in securities and savings on June 30, 1974, was $833,759.37. Real estate held by the Baptist Foundation was valued at $821,167.54. Total market value of all assets on this date was $1,654,926.91.

Inventory value of investments in securities and savings was $921,047.21 as of June 30, 1974.

Investment in the choicest of stocks and bonds selected on basis of yield and growth potential reflected general conditions of the market during the year. Due to caution of the Investment Committee of the Board of Directors, a yield of 6.9 per cent, based on market value, was paid to beneficiaries at the end of the fiscal year. Income distributed by the Foundation amounted to $47,858.74 and $6,740.41 was reinvested in trust funds in accordance with instructions of trust agreements.

New trusts were established during the fiscal year, as follows:

E. T. PITTARD & SARAH F. PITTARD TRUST FUND: From estate of E. T. Pittard, Oxford, N. C. (State Missions), $4,572.70

MIRIAM WILLIS TRUST FUND: Transferred by Snyder Memorial Baptist Church, Fayetteville, N. C., under agreement by James B. Willis, Richmond Co., N. C. (Memorial & care of Willis family burial site; Snyder Student Loan Fund; and Snyder Memorial Baptist Church), $5,000.00

Significant gifts were received from the following:

PAUL KELLY FAMILY, Raleigh, N. C. (Additions to Kelly Memorial Fund)

DR. & MRS. RICHARD K. REDWINE, Winston-Salem, N. C. (Additions to Richard K. Redwine & Beatrice B. Redwine Scholarship Fund).

REAVIS MEMORIAL BAPTIST CHURCH, High Point, N. C. (Additions to Marvin R. Ingram Scholarship Fund).

R. C. EGGERS, Zionville, N. C. (Additions to R. C. and Sallie Eggers Trust Fund).

SALLIE GRAVES BRADSHAW ESTATE (Additions to R. Sterling Graves Trust Fund).

The establishment of a testamentary trust, a gift through a will, continues to be a major factor in the growth of the Baptist Foundation. With this expansion of one's will to perpetuate the testimony of stewardship even after death, we can extend our Christian witness in a tangible way as well as an influence in revealing our love of God as shared with others.

VI. REPORT ON CONVENTION COMMITTEES

1. HISTORICAL COMMITTEE

The work of the Baptist Historical Collection, which is the principal activity under the supervision of the Historical Committee, progressed during the year 1973-74 in a thoroughly satisfactory manner. As in the past, the objective of the program still is to collect, preserve, and make available to the Baptists of our state, and other researchers, the most complete and comprehensive collection of source material on North Carolina Baptists that can be assembled. A few specific references to items which have been added this year will serve to illustrate the scope of the collection.

John Woodard, director, and the staff were able to add 295 copies of associational minutes, including a group of back numbers from Convention headquarters. More than 100 missing minutes of western North Carolina associations were added by borrowing them from the Mars Hill College library for photocopying. More and more churches are becoming aware of the importance of having security copies of their records in the Collection in the event the originals are lost. Thirteen sets of church records on microfilm were added this year in addition to four sets in manuscript.

In recent years the Collection has sought to acquire the personal papers of denominational leaders and other persons of significance in the life of North Carolina Baptists. Among those whose papers were added this year appear the names of Sophie Lanneau, Charles E. Taylor, Sylvester Greene, Benjamin F. Sledd, Gilbert T. Stephenson, Hight C. Moore, John Brown White (1818-1887), and William Royal (1823-1893).

Although the Collection deals primarily with materials from the past, it tries to use the latest techniques in doing so. For example, Mr. Woodard is now cooperating with nine other Southern Baptist Convention agencies and one state historical collection in an 18-month pilot project of indexing our historical materials uniformly by computer. The North Carolina part in this information retrieval system is to supply keypunched cards of the current index to the 1974 Biblical Recorder.

Another project is the systematic cross listing of all North Carolina Baptist churches and associations, both extant and extinct. When completed, these lists will enable researchers quickly to trace a church through the many associations to which it may have belonged.

Every three months the Collection sends out an attractive mimeographed newsletter entitled "Tar Heel Baptist Footprints." With a mailing list of 352 individuals and institutions, the newsletter describes items added to the Collection, discusses Baptist historical projects in progress over the state, and reminds associations to send their minutes to be preserved.

Your committee wishes to express appreciation to Wake Forest University for recent improvements in the physical facilities provided in the Z. Smith Reynolds Library for the Ethel Taylor Crittenden Collection in Baptist History. In order to take care of current shelving needs and allow some room for expansion, mobile shelving has been installed in one area at a cost of more than $8,000. All walls have been repainted and thirteen portraits of persons connected with North Carolina Baptist history have been hung in the Search Room. Professor Lewis Aycock cleaned, restored, and arranged the portraits.

The Historical Committee also wishes to recognize the work of those who have written or published historical studies relating to North Carolina Baptists during the past year. Our records show the following:

Bridges, Wade W. From the Wilderness to the Hilltop: A History of Sandy Run Baptist Church. E. P. Press, Inc., 1973.

Covington, Elizabeth W. A Brief History of Cartledge Creek Baptist Church, 1774-1974.

3. TRUSTEE ORIENTATION COMMITTEE

The 1974 Trustee Orientation program was noted for its uniqueness in brevity. This characteristic not only marked the execution of the program itself, but the one planning session by the members of the Committee. Speakers were obtained months in advance, and careful and early preparation was made at Sir Walter Hotel, Raleigh, where the Orientation was held, January 11-12, 1974.

There were some 300 Trustees and their spouses in attendance, and there was nothing left to be desired in the excellent service by the Sir Walter staff and the delicious food at the evening banquet on Friday, and breakfast buffet on Saturday.

Program personalities, informal in their presentations, made each session seem more like a family affair than a formal gathering together of celebrities. Allen Bailey, president, Baptist State Convention, and known for his warm-hearted personality, set the stage with good humor and informality in bringing greetings from the Convention at the evening session. John E. Johns, president, Stetson University, at the evening session, addressing the group on "Institutional Missions and the Denomination," was most practical in his pungent and incisive suggestions. W. Perry Crouch, general secretary-treasurer, speaking to the group at breakfast, brought challenges to provoke the highest and holiest in commitment now and in the years ahead. William A. Jellema, a consultant in private higher education, spoke on, "Great Expectations and the Real World," and left with the group an outline of some specifics on the horizon in educational circles today.

Special thanks go to T. Robert Mullinax, executive secretary, Council on Christian Higher Education, and his very efficient secretary, Grace Yow, without whom the program and the arrangements could not have possibly been executed as smoothly and successfully, and also a word of deep appreciation to each member of the Committee.

Statistical Reports

Associational and Convention

Prepared by The Department of Data Processing

TED W. WILLIAMS, Director

The following information was supplied by the clerks of the eighty (80) Baptist Associations in North Carolina. We greatly appreciate the faithful service they have rendered in compiling the statistical data. These reports are based on the associational year, and the financial figures are not the same as those based on the calendar year reported by our Convention business office.

Items marked (*) give latest data available.

Items marked () give total expenditures.

Churches not reporting: Indicated by (1), (2), or (3)

(1) First year not reporting—previous year's report will be carried, except for baptisms, additions by letter, number of missions operated by church, and Vacation Bible School enrollment.

(2) Second consecutive year not reporting—latest total membership only will be carried.

(3) Third consecutive (and subsequent) year not reporting—no figures carried, but will be counted as a church. (A church will be counted until verification is received from the association that a subject church has been disaffiliated from said association.)

AUDITOR'S REPORT

Auditor's Certificate

Executive Committee of the General Board of the Baptist
State Convention of North Carolina
Raleigh, North Carolina

We have examined the balance sheet of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina as of December 31, 1974 and the related statements of income and expenses and distributions and changes in fund balances for the year then ended. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

The funds shown as sent direct on the statement of income and its disposition to funds were taken from reports received by the Convention and were not otherwise verified by us. The scope of our examination as detailed by Note 3 was, in some instances, limited to recorded receipts. Additions to fixed assets are recorded at cost. Dispositions of fixed assets (Notes 1 and 2) are deleted from fixed asset accounts to the extent known. No provision has been made for depreciation (Note 2).

In our opinion, subject to the effects of the matters referred to in the preceding paragraph, the accompanying balance sheet and statements of income and expenses and distributions and changes in fund balances present fairly the financial position of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina at December 31, 1974, and the results of its operations and the changes in fund balances for the year then ended, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles applicable to such organizations applied on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
December 31, 1974

(1) SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES:

The accounting policies of the Convention conform to generally accepted accounting principles, applicable to related non-profit organizations. The Convention records its receipts and disbursements on the cash basis and adheres to fund accounting. Other policies are described below:

ACCOUNTS, NOTES AND OTHER RECEIVABLES—As the Convention is on the cash basis, no income is accrued. However, receivables not involving income accruals are recorded.

PREPAID ITEMS AND INVENTORIES—Inventories and prepaid expenses are recorded at cost and are charged to the following accounting period. Amounts in this category are normally small and are usually recorded to conform to budget procedures.

FIXED ASSETS—Purchases of fixed assets and improvements are charged to operating expense as they are paid for. The assets are also recorded at cost in the fixed asset accounts of the general fund and credited to the fund balance. No consideration is given to depreciation. Leasehold costs are amortized over the life of the leaseholds or extension thereof. Real estate disposed of is deleted from the fixed asset accounts at the time of disposition. Personal property is also deleted from the fixed asset accounts when disposed of, if complete information is available. Information on all disposals is not always known. Detailed subsidiary ledgers are not maintained.

DEBT AND LIABILITIES—As the Convention is on the cash basis, current unpaid expenses are not accrued and do not involve an accounts payable account. As a practical matter, at the end of the year, most all creditors are paid right up-to-date. Long-term notes and other liabilities not previously referred to in this paragraph are recorded on the Convention books and appear on the balance sheet.

RETIREMENT PLANS—The Convention contributes to retirement plans for its own employees and shares in the cost of plans of employees of participating Baptist churches in North Carolina. All such costs are charged to operations in the year paid.

RESTRICTED RESERVE FUNDS—The Convention routinely receives contributions designated for specific uses. From time to time, the Convention or General Board designates certain funds for special purposes. All designations are recorded in restricted fund accounts so that charges to the accounts can be restricted to the designated purposes.

INCOME TAXES—The Convention is a tax exempt organization and does not, therefore, have to account for income taxes.

(2) DEPRECIATION:

Fixed assets are valued at accumulated costs for prior years, plus costs of additions for the current year, reduced by dispositions when ascertainable, and with no consideration given to depreciation. As a result, the values do not reflect depreciated costs or net costs where complete information on dispositions has not been known.

(3) FUNDS SENT DIRECT AND RECORDED RECEIPTS LIMITATIONS:

The funds shown as sent direct on the statement of income and its distribution to funds were taken from reports received by the Convention and were not otherwise verified by us. As a routine procedure, funds are received by the Convention business office from various departments within the Convention covering registration fees, miscellaneous sales, expense reimbursements and other such items. The scope of our examination of these items was limited to receipts as recorded in the business office receipt books. The scope of our examination of receipts for the North Carolina Baptist Assembly, the Fruitland Baptist Bible Institute and Camp CaRAway was limited to amounts recorded in pre-numbered receipt books and did not include reconciliations to separate records of registrations, enrollments and attendance.

M. D. SMITH

M. D. SMITH

Marshall Devotion Smith was born September 10, 1907, in Concord, N.C. and reared in Mooresville. He was educated at Mars Hill College. In addition to college studies, he returned summer after summer for the Pastor's School and he kept currently abreast in Christian teachings under strong Baptist leaders.

He pastored three churches in Mecklenburg Association: Independence Hall, Hopewell, and Union Grove. He then was pastor of the First Baptist Church of Haw River. He was, however, best known as pastor of the historic Hominy Baptist Church of Candler. There he served for twenty-five years until his retirement in 1970. Under his capable leadership the Hominy Church became one of North Carolina's foremost rural churches. It was during this time that he was named "Mountain Minister of the Year" by the Clear Creek School in Kentucky.

Pastor M. D.'s gracious spirit and service extended far beyond the walls of his church. He served two terms as moderator of the Buncombe Baptist Association and for years as chairman of the finance committee and on the Executive Committee. He served on the General Board of the North Carolina Baptist Convention. After retirement he served as interim pastor at Calvary Baptist in Canton, Flat Creek, Madison Seminary, and Antioch churches.

M. D. was married to Mamie Stillwell Smith, and they are the parents of Mrs. Robert Wright, Mrs. B. T. Satterfield, Mrs. Edgar Bumgarner, and Truett J. Smith.

It was said of him, "He was a Christian gentleman of the first order. He possessed the kind of Christian spirit and attitude that inspired confidence in those who knew him—the kind of love and compassion of people that always went the second mile, day or night. He had the uncanny art of blending the earthy with the Heavenly and the blending of good humor with good religion. He knew well that the church's main task was not simply to get people into Heaven, but also to get a Heavenly spirit into people. Following Christ with him was not simply keeping rules but being like the Lord Jesus."

G. MAURICE HILL, SR.

An editorial in the November 28, 1975 issue of The News Herald states: "G. Maurice Hill walked tall in this community through the years that he lived here because he was a man of impressive attainments and influence and not because he sought attention.

"Mr. Hill had given up the important business responsibilities he had filled when he retired three years ago but he still was recognized for his influence which extended to all the many civic and community enterprises with which he had been officially identified.

"Now that he has gone, the shadow of his great stature will be a living reminder of his interest in all the many things which have been for the betterment of the community as well as many other communities which are affected indirectly by his contributions to education, industry and religion.

"His interests defy enumeration, but this is understandable to those who knew Mr. Hill. He liked people and liked to work with people. Few in all the history of the area can match his record."

Mr. Hill was born in Rutherford County October 28, 1905. He grew up in a Christian home. He attended the Rutherfordton and Columbus schools before entering the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. He was a son of the late Robert Martin Hill and Mrs. Lucy Callahan Hill. He married Elva Andrews of Chapel Hill. They had one son, G. Maurice Hill, Jr.

He came to Morganton in 1943 as business manager of the State Hospital (Broughton). On November 1, 1944 he became assistant to the president of Drexel Furniture Company. Later he became president of the Drexel Enterprises and remained in this position until this was merged by Champion International in 1968. Then he became a senior vice president and director of the parent corporation and held the position of assistant to the chairman of the board when he retired in 1970. He held many positions of prominence relating to higher education in North Carolina. In 1968 N. C. State University awarded him an honorary degree of Doctor of Humanities.

On coming to Morganton he became a member of the First Baptist Church and has been a faithful and active member through the years. For many years he served as a deacon and was a trustee of the church. He was chairman of the Church Building Committee when the church was planning to relocate and to erect a new church home. Later he asked to be relieved from the chairmanship but remained a valuable member of the committee. Much of the beauty of the church building is the result of his imagination, skill, thought, and genuine interest and concern.

He served our Baptist denomination in various ways. He was trustee of the Baptist Children's Homes, of Wake Forest University where he served as chairman of the board, and of Southern Baptist Theological Seminary of Louisville, Kentucky. During these years he came to have a deep appreciation for our denomination and for its leadership.

A. B. WOOD

A. B. WOOD

In some of his writings John Bunyan describes the Puritan preacher in this manner: "His eyes were on heaven, the best of books was in his hand, the law of truth was written upon his lips, the world was behind his back, he stood as if he pleaded with men."

Such a man was A. Bevan Wood. His eyes were on heaven, but his feet were firmly planted on earth. He embodied a vertical relationship with God and a horizontal relationship with his fellow man. His Bible was often in his hand but always in his heart. Truth and integrity were so much a part of him as to constitute the unwritten law of his life. He had renounced the sinfulness of the world, but he stood as if he pleaded with God for man and with man for God.

As a preacher he served churches in Kentucky during seminary days. Upon graduation he served for nine years as pastor at Maxton, N. C., followed by five years at First Church, Forrest, Mississippi, and then 17 and one-half years as pastor of Ninth Avenue in Charlotte, which, during his ministry, was relocated and renamed Midwood. Upon retirement he continued his preaching ministry by serving as interim pastor for eleven churches, two in South Carolina (one his home church) and nine in Gaston, Cleveland and Rutherford Counties in North Carolina.

His preaching was clear, to the point, and stressed witnessing and daily Christian living.

As a teacher he worked two years with the Home Mission Board at Fruitland Baptist Bible Institute near Hendersonville, N. C. He served as an assistant in homiletics and English at Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, and through the years has taught many classes in Seminary Extension, new member orientation, and study courses.

As a denominational servant he served as a trustee of Wake Forest University, president of the North Carolina Baptist Pastors Conference, Sunday School director and member of General Board of Mecklenburg Baptist Association. He directed a juvenile rehabilitation program for Kings Mountain Baptist Association after he had retired. Space limitations will not permit mention of numerous committees, both state and associational, to which he gave his expertise and devoted service.

As a man he was a loving husband, a faithful friend, and a loyal, patriotic citizen. He had an amazing ability to remember names and faces. He had a keen sense of humor and an appreciation for clean, wholesome fun. He loved golfing and gardening and flower growing. He loved his church and, after his retirement, in addition to his interim and supply work, was one of the leaders in the organization of Westview Baptist Church in Shelby, N. C., where he was a member until his death.

This devoted servant of God was born and grew up on a farm in Cherokee County, South Carolina. He graduated in 1916 from Piedmont High School, Lawndale, N. C., one of the early boarding schools of our state. He received the B.A. degree from Wake Forest College (now University) in 1919, the master of theology degree from Southern Baptist Theological Seminary in 1924, and the doctor of theology degree from the same school in 1927.

In 1924 he married Ollie Mae Gold of Cleveland County, N. C., who, through the years, has been a faithful helpmate in all his endeavors. She continues to live in their home on Stroud Road in Shelby, N. C.

Death came to him on February 28, 1975, but death cannot take away the fruit of his labor through the years. In the hearts of those whom he led to the Lord, married, counseled, comforted in times of crisis and grief, and whose lives were strengthened by his preaching and his example, he will continue to be a blessed memory.

RICHARD KNOX YOUNG

Richard Knox Young was born on a farm in Person County, North Carolina. He grew up in a devout Christian home. When the depression forced him to give up college after a year at Wake Forest, he worked for a while in a textile mill. Later he started a cooperative store. It was here that his life took a new turn, partly due to the influence of a country pastor, Reverend N. J. Todd, whose example of pastoral care remained with Richard all his life.

An urge toward the Christian ministry led Richard to reenter Wake Forest and to continue his preparation at the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary in Louisville. While there he was introduced to Clinical Pastoral Education at the Elgin State Hospital, Elgin, Illinois.

On graduating from the Seminary he was invited to become the hospital minister at the North Carolina Baptist Hospital in Winston-Salem. It was only after a considerable period of thought and prayer that he accepted this invitation and began his work at the Hospital in 1946. The Hospital and Medical Center were to be his parish for twenty-five years. Here, in 1947, he began one of the earliest Clinical Pastoral Education programs in the south, a program which was eventually to offer training to well over a thousand ministers who serve in almost every state and 37 foreign countries.

Richard Young understood the depth of human pain. He also had an abiding faith in the healing power of God. His life and work helped North Carolina Baptists to gain a deeper appreciation of their continuing partnership in the healing ministry of Christ.

The excellence of his work as a chaplain and teacher of pastors brought to "Dick" many recognitions. He was appointed to the faculty of the Bowman-Gray School of Medicine of Wake Forest College, and from 1953 until his retirement in 1971, served as the first Professor of Pastoral Care at Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary. He was a member of the Committee on Medicine and Religion of the American Medical Association. A past president of the College of Chaplains of the American Protestant Hospital Association, he appeared on NBC television in a film on the work of the chaplain.

He was the author of The Pastor's Hospital Ministry (1954) and Spiritual Therapy (1960).

North Carolina Baptists are the richer for work which Richard Young began in the School of Pastoral Care which continues today as one of the outstanding social ministries of the Convention. Of this program, Reid Holmes, for many years the Hospitals Administrator said, "it is the finest thing we do. It's more than another service . . . it's a way of life."

Dick Young's leadership in the field of pastoral care grew out of a deep spiritual concern, implemented by a technical competency in counseling and psychology. He was an effective pastor to pastors whose tender understanding and fearless honesty helped many a pastor to move back from the abyss when his faith in himself and in God seemed in a shambles. Hundreds of North Carolina Baptist pastors grieved at his death on December 31, 1974 and join with all whose lives he touched in expressing gratitude to God for his dedication, his faith, and his zeal for the practical and clinical.

2. COMMITTEE ON MEMORIALS

Philip, King of Macedon, father of Alexander the Great, had one servant whose primary duty was to greet the monarch, at the beginning of each day, with "Remember, O King, that you are mortal!" And so are we, each and every one. But as Christians we have a King who was and is the Lord of life and the conqueror of death, the first fruits of them that sleep. We thank God who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ. (I Cor. 15:20,57).

We are saved by grace through faith (Eph. 2:8). And we are judged by our works (Rev. 20:12).

At a gathering of Christians about two hundred years ago the question was asked in the minutes: "Who hath died this year?" The answer given concerning a circuit rider who had served long and well was: "Wyatt Andrews, who died full of faith and the Holy Ghost. As long as he could ride, he traveled; and while he had breath he praised God." That's all we know of him, but it's enough. Indeed, it's quite an epitaph.

It is very fitting that we should remember, as a Convention, our friends who have made outstanding contributions to the life and work of this fellowship of North Carolina Baptists. Your Committee on Memorials recommends that the 1975 Annual be dedicated to the following persons: W. S. Caudill, Greensboro; Gerald Riggs, Rocky Mount; M. D. Smith, Asheville; A. B. Wood, Shelby; Richard K. Young, Roxboro.

We further recommend that the Annual carry a list of all the pastors who died during this present year, and the names of laymen and laywomen whose influence went beyond their local churches.

Respectfully submitted,

HENRY ANDERSON, Chairman

CONSTITUTION

PREAMBLE

For the declaration of its fundamental purposes and the permanent guidance and control of its activities, the body does adopt the following as its Constitution, to wit:

ARTICLE I. Name

The name of this body is the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina.

ARTICLE II. Purposes

The object of this Convention shall be to promote missions, evangelism, education, social services, the distribution of the Bible and sound religious literature, and to co-operate with the work of the Southern Baptist Convention.

ARTICLE III. Authority

While independent and sovereign in its own sphere, the Convention does not claim and will never attempt to exercise any authority over any other Baptist body, whether church, auxiliary organization, association, or Convention.

ARTICLE IV. Composition

The Convention shall be composed of

(1) Two messengers from each co-operating church, and one additional messenger from each church for every hundred members or major fraction thereof, beyond the first one hundred members; provided, that no church shall be entitled to more than ten messengers. No one shall be a messenger who is not a member of a church co-operating with the Convention, and messengers must be duly elected by their churches; a co-operating church shall be one that supports any object of the Convention and which is in friendly cooperation with this Convention and sympathetic with its purpose and work; and (2) The officers of the Convention, the members of the General Board, the editor of the Biblical Recorder, and the President of the Woman's Missionary Union.

ARTICLE V. Meetings

The Convention shall convene annually on Monday after the second Sunday in November at 7:00 p.m. In case of emergency or unusual circumstances the General Board is empowered to change the time or place of meeting, cancel the sessions of the Convention, or call a special meeting by a vote of two-thirds of the members present when the vote is taken.

ARTICLE VI. Officers

sistant Recording Secretary, a General Secretary-Treasurer, three Trustees, and a Parliamentarian. The terms of the President, the Vice-Presidents, Recording Secretary, Assistant Recording Secretary, Trustees and the Parliamentarian shall commence at the conclusion of the annual session at which they are elected and continue until the close of the next annual session of the Convention. The President and Vice-Presidents may not be elected for more than two consecutive terms. The election of all officers subject to annual election shall be on the afternoon of the first full day of the annual Convention, but the elections may be completed, if necessary, on the morning of the second full day. A vacancy in any of the above-mentioned offices, except that of President, occurring between sessions of the Convention may be filled by the General Board; such vacancies in the presidency shall be filled by the Vice-Presidents succeeding to the office in order of their rank.

a. In case of a vacancy in the office of General Secretary-Treasurer, the General Board shall nominate a man to the Convention to fill this office.

b. Opportunity shall be given to receive additional nominations from the floor of the Convention.

c. The man receiving the majority of votes cast shall be declared elected.

Upon election, the General Secretary-Treasurer shall hold office for an indefinite period, with retirement at age 65, retirement to take effect upon December 31 of the year in which he retires.

d. In case the position of General Secretary-Treasurer becomes vacant between sessions of the Convention, the General Board, upon the recommendation of its Executive Committee, shall name an acting General Secretary-Treasurer to serve until the next regular session of the Convention.

The General Secretary-Treasurer is the chief executive officer of the General Board, the chief administrative and program officer of the General Board staff, the chief budget officer of the General Board staff, the chief professional adviser of the General Board and its committees, the secretary and treasurer of the General Board and the Convention, and one of the denomination's spiritual leaders, providing statewide guidance and inspiration.

The General Secretary-Treasurer and the President of the Convention shall serve ex-officio without voting on all committees and aid by furnishing information, printed materials and needed guidance for the work of the committees.

ARTICLE VII. Trustees of the Convention

The General Board shall nominate three Trustees to be elected by the Convention in annual session. These trustees may succeed themselves, if nominated and elected, and will continue in office until their successors have been elected. The trustees shall hold title to the property of the Convention and convey and use the same as directed by the Convention, its General Board or Executive Committee. They shall execute obligations only in behalf of and as ordered by the Convention. They shall have the powers granted to trustees of religious societies by the laws of the State of North Carolina, but subject always to the limitations imposed by this Constitution and by action of the Convention, its General Board or Executive Committee. They shall require the Treasurer of the Convention to give suitable bond, with corporate security and in adequate amount as determined by the General Board, and they shall cause such bonds to be safely kept. Failure on the part of the Treasurer to maintain such a bond in force for as long a period as ten days shall authorize the Trustees to remove him from office. The Trustees shall make full, detailed reports to the annual session of the Convention and at other times if requested by the General Board. They shall safely keep the seal of the Convention and affix it only as authorized by the Convention, its General Board or Executive Committee. The seal shall be circular in form and shall bear the words:

"Trustees of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, Incorporated 1893. SEAL."

The Trustees shall keep full minutes of all their meetings and preserve the same in permanent forms. They shall elect their own Chairman and Secretary. Any vacancy occurring in their membership between sessions of the Convention shall be filled by the General Board.

ARTICLE VIII. The General Board

A. Membership

1. One member shall be elected from the area of each District Association; one additional member from each District Association with a membership of 20,000 to 40,000; and one additional member from any District Association with a membership of more than 40,000; ten members-at-large to be elected, one from each region of the state, these ten to be nominated by the Convention Nominating Committee; with a limit of one member from any church and three members from any association.

These members, selected by virtue of their Convention offices, shall not be used in determining the number of members from a District Association or church.

3. The General Secretary-Treasurer, the Recording Secretary, the State Woman's Missionary Union President, and the State Brotherhood President shall be ex-officio non voting members.

4. Members of the Executive Committee of the Southern Baptist Convention, from the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina who are not then serving as elected members of the General Board shall be non-voting, ex-officio members of the General Board.

6. In the event a member moves from the association or region from which he was elected, his membership shall immediately terminate.

The membership of those moving from the state shall be terminated upon the date of the move from the state.

In the event a member fails to attend at least one meeting of the General Board in a calendar year, without giving due notice of his absence, his membership shall immediately terminate.

7. Any vacancy on the General Board occurring between annual sessions of the Convention may be filled by action of the Executive Committee. Those elected shall serve through the remainder of the calendar year. The Convention shall at its next regular annual session fill the vacancy for the unexpired term.

B. Election

1. The Nominating Committee, as directed by the By-Laws of the Convention and in keeping with Baptist policies and practices, shall present to the annual session a slate of nominees for election, and after opportunity for further nominations from the floor is given, the members shall be elected by the Convention in session.

2. Board members shall be elected for a term of four years with, as nearly as may be possible, one-fourth of the membership being elected at each annual session, provided, however, that any such board member who shall have been elected to fill a vacancy of less than two years, shall be eligible to be re-elected to a full term of his own.

C. Powers and Functions

4. Removal of a member of a Board of Trustees or Directors.

If for any reason a member of a Board shall cease to be a member of a church co-operating with the Convention or shall remove his residence from the State, his membership on any Board shall be thereby terminated. Any vacancy on a Board shall be filled by the remaining members until the next regular annual session of the Convention, and the Convention shall at its next regular annual session fill the vacancy for the unexpired term. The Board of Trustees or Directors of said corporation by affirmative vote of three-fourths of the entire membership given in regular annual meeting or in a special meeting called for the purpose, shall have the power to remove from office any trustee or director of such corporation for cause considered sufficient by such Board, but only after reasonable notice to such trustee or director and opportunity to be heard by the Board. The Convention shall have the right to remove any trustee or director for cause considered sufficient by the Convention, but only after reasonable notice to such trustee or director, and opportunity for him to be heard by the Convention. Notice of such contemplated action and hearing by the Convention may be given by the Executive Committee of the General Board of the Convention.

5. The trustees or directors of the institutions and agencies of the Convention shall be elected by the Convention after receiving nominations from the Convention's Nominating Committee or from the floor. The trustees and directors of all institutions owned and supported by the Convention shall make an annual report to the above committee of all vacancies to be filled.

B. Baptist Foundation

The Baptist Foundation shall be operated by fifteen directors who shall serve for five-year terms. One-fifth of the directors shall be elected annually by the Convention. The purposes of the Foundation shall be to receive, hold and administer donations of money and property which charitable-minded persons may leave to it from time-to-time.

All appropriations agreed upon shall be subject to the approval of the Executive Committee and the General Board.

ARTICLE X. Concerning Debts

All borrowing by the Convention for its own use, or for its institutions or agencies, or borrowings by any institution or agency of the Convention, the payment of which would require an extension of time beyond the close of the subsequent fiscal year, shall be authorized only on the following terms and conditions.

C. Any and all resolutions which propose the borrowing of money shall set forth all pertinent facts and a definite schedule for repayment. Such requests shall be sent to the Executive Committee or General Board by October 1, of each year for recommendation to the Convention. These recommendations shall be included in the General Board's report and subject to the rules concerning the adoption of this report.

(1) Notice of any and all contemplated borrowings shall appear in the Biblical Recorder in three separate issues in advance of the meeting of the Convention during which it is proposed that action be taken.

Not more than three members of any board of any institution or agency supported wholly or in part by the Convention shall be members of the same church.

C. Individuals, churches and associations, or others desiring the assistance and co-operation of the Baptists of the Convention in any work not already fostered by the Convention shall present such project to the agency under which it should be properly placed. If the agency fails or refuses to approve it, it may be presented to the Convention under miscellaneous business or as a special order.

D. Neither the Convention, nor any institution or agency, owned or supported in whole or in part by the Convention, shall accept or receive, directly or indirectly, any gift, grant, or aid from the Federal or State governments or any governmental agency, except for definite and full services rendered by the institution or agency and by and with the approval of the Convention or its General Board.

I. Duties of Officers of the Convention

A. The president shall preside over the deliberations of the Convention and discharge such other duties as are imposed upon him by the Convention or as are incumbent on the presiding officer of a deliberative body. He shall in advance of the meeting of the Convention and with the assistance of the Vice-Presidents appoint a Committee on Enrollment consisting of nine members and a Committee on Committees consisting of fifteen members no later than May 1. He may appoint other committees when so directed by the body. He shall also serve ex-officio as a voting member of the General Board and its Executive Committee. He shall also serve as an ex-officio non-voting member of all Convention committees.

B. The Vice-Presidents

1. In the event of the death of the President or his incapacity to serve the Vice-Presidents shall succeed him in the order of their rank; and so succeeding shall have and discharge the duties incumbent upon the President.

2. They shall assist the President in naming those Convention Committees for which he is responsible and shall serve ex-officio as voting members of the General Board and its Executive Committee.

C. The Recording Secretary

The Assistant Recording Secretary will assist the Recording Secretary and in case of illness, or death of the Recording Secretary during a Convention year, he will succeed him to the office of Recording Secretary.

D. The General Secretary-Treasurer

1. The General Secretary of the Convention shall promote the whole program of the Convention, including Missions, Evangelism, Higher Education and Social Service, and may serve as adviser to all the institutions, agencies and committees of the Convention. He shall work under the direction of and be subject to the authority of the General Board; and shall have administrative supervision of such work as shall be assigned to him by the Convention or its General Board.

2. In carrying out the responsibilities of each and all these functions, the General Secretary-Treasurer shall:

a. Co-ordinate and evaluate General Board programs with the help of the General Board and its Executive Committee;

b. Advise and otherwise assist the General Board, the Convention and their committees and subcommittees, including the provision of direct staff help in planning meetings, preparing agenda, presenting analyses, facts, and recommendations;

c. Plan, co-ordinate and supervise the entire budgetary process (formulation, authorization and administration) under the direction of the Executive Committee and, where appropriate, the Convention;

d. Assume responsibility for the administration, co-ordination and direction of General Board staff, including the recommendations of all divisions and department heads, organization of professional staff, development of professional staff position descriptions, and preparation of personnel policies;

e. Encourage staff members to make their fullest contribution to the work of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina;

f. Work on a co-operating basis with the heads of all Boards and Agencies of the Convention;

g. Promote participation in and support for all North Carolina Baptist and Southern Baptist Convention programs and represent the General Board, as appropriate, to the denomination and the public.

He shall sign all checks which shall be countersigned by the Business Manager and Comptroller. However, in the event that either is unable to perform his duty because of disability or other cause, the Executive Committee shall designate someone to sign checks on behalf of either officer, all of whom shall be bonded in such amount as shall be determined by the General Board. He shall forward at least once a month all contributions to their destinations. He shall make an annual report of his receipts and disbursements which shall be published in the minutes of the Convention, and upon retiring from his office, he shall deliver to his successor all money, papers, books and other property belonging thereto.

4. As General Secretary he shall supervise the work of administrative assistants, the Director of the Department of Data Processing, the Director of the Office of Public Relations, the Director of the Office of Stewardship and Cooperative Program Promotion, and the Director of the Department of Pastor/Church Relations.

E. The Parliamentarian

The Parliamentarian shall advise and assist the Presiding Officer of the Convention with respect to all matters involving proper parliamentary procedure. The Rules of Order for the Convention shall be those laid down in Robert's "Rules of Order," but in cases where the meaning may not be clear the President shall exercise his discretion, subject to appeal to the Convention.

II. Duties of Committees

Membership on Convention committees shall not bar one from serving as a member of the General Board, or as a director of any agency of the Convention, or as a trustee of any institution of the Convention.

Vacancies occurring in committees between sessions of the Convention shall be filled through appointment of the Convention President.

Nothing contained in reports to the Convention shall be construed as an action of the Convention except the recommendations which are definitely listed and adopted by the Convention.

The committees of the Convention shall be divided into three categories:

A. Those appointed by the President and Vice-Presidents in advance of the meeting of the Convention.

1. The Committee on Enrollment consisting of nine members whose duties it shall be to provide registration cards for messengers and visitors and have them in a suitable place several hours before the meeting of the Convention. This committee shall make a report to the assembled messengers upon the call of the President, and shall serve as a committee on credentials.

2. The Committee on Committees whose duty it shall be to nominate for election by the Convention the committees listed under sections B and C below, and such other committees as may be assigned to it. At least a fair proportion of the members nominated to all committees of the Convention shall come from the rural and urban churches, and no one shall be nominated to serve on more than one committee at the same time.

B. Those to report at the next regular session of the Convention

1. The Committee on Resolutions consisting of fifteen members ten of whom shall be nominated by the Committee on Committees and elected by the Convention, to serve during the succeeding year and to report at the next regular session of the Convention. The five other members should be from the General Board with at least two of the five from the Executive Committee. These five should be named by the Executive Committee after the organizational meeting in January of each year.

All resolutions presented to the Convention shall be referred to the Committee on Resolutions, except that by a two-thirds vote of the messengers present on the second day of the Convention, the rules may be suspended and a resolution be taken up for immediate consideration.

Those who plan to present resolutions to the Convention for consideration are urged to submit a copy of the resolution to the Committee well in advance of the Convention. This will not only give the Committee more adequate time to consider the resolutions, but will also make it possible to print the proposed resolutions in the Book of Advance Reports.

2. The Committee on Nominations, consisting of fifteen members, five of whom shall rotate off each year. Their term of office shall begin with the adjournment of the Convention at which they are elected and shall terminate upon adjournment of the Convention at which their successors are elected. No member shall be eligible to succeed himself after serving three consecutive years. The committee shall nominate a fair proportion of members from rural and urban churches to the various boards of all agencies and institutions, and shall also nominate members for vacancies on the 8 members-at-large of the Council on Christian Life and Public Affairs and such other nominations as may be delegated to the Committee of the Convention.

a. It shall have its first meeting not later than July 1 of each calendar year and shall meet again at least once prior to the meeting of the Convention.

b. The Committee shall through its chairman, or other members upon request, invite each agency and institution of the Convention to submit to the Committee in advance of its mid-summer meeting the names of two individuals for each vacancy to occur on their boards, and request that biographical data accompany each name.

The Committee shall request of associational executive committees that the associations submit the names of at least two lay persons and two ministers for each General Board vacancy to occur at the end of the year, and request that biographical data shall accompany each name. These shall be submitted to the Committee before its mid-summer meeting.

The Committee shall, through the Biblical Recorder, invite individual Baptists to submit the names of individuals who would be worthy of consideration for positions on the various boards of institutions and agencies and on the General Board, and request that biographical data accompany each suggested name.

When the Committee meets to do its work it shall give careful consideration to those who have been recommended from the various sources indicated above, but will be free to follow its own best judgment in making nominations to the Convention for the boards of the agencies, institutions and the General Board.

c. It shall publish its full report in the Biblical Recorder at least one week prior to the meeting of the Convention.

3. The Committee on Convention Program, consisting of nine members, three of whom shall rotate off each year. Their terms of office shall begin at the adjournment of the Convention at which they are elected and shall terminate upon the adjournment of the Convention at which their successors are elected. No member shall be eligible to succeed himself after serving three consecutive years or one full term. This committee shall be responsible:

a. For the program of the Annual Meeting of the current year and preliminary plans (speakers and theme) for the next Annual Meeting.

b. For all other matters in connection with the Annual Meeting not provided for in the Constitution and Bylaws.

4. Committee on Local Arrangements consisting of nine. This committee shall be responsible for:

a. supervising all arrangements with the local auditorium including the securing of typewriters, telephones, furniture and needed equipment for the sessions of the Annual Meeting;

b. working with Convention staff, Program Committee and Enrollment Committee of the Convention in arranging for display booths, platform, sound system and other arrangements necessary for the sessions of the Convention.

5. Committee on Memorials consisting of five. This committee shall prepare a report memorializing ministers and outstanding lay leaders of the Baptist State Convention who have become deceased during the current year. A list of these deceased shall be recorded in the Annual. This Committee may recommend to the Convention a deceased person, or persons, who may have distinguished themselves by service to the Convention, to whom the Annual of the Convention may be dedicated. This report should be published in the Biblical Recorder prior to the Convention. All other nominations should be presented to the Committee for their consideration and recommendations.

6. The Historical Committee, consisting of twelve members, four of whom shall rotate off each year. A member having served a full three-year term shall not be eligible to succeed himself.

This committee shall recommend appropriate measures for the preservation of Baptist history. It shall seek to preserve the minutes and records of all Baptist bodies, churches, associations, and conventions, historical manuscripts, printed materials, including correspondence, and museum objects. It shall encourage the writing and publication of high-standard histories of individuals, churches, associations, and conventions. It shall recommend what historic sites, including buildings, should be properly marked and preserved when these are related to Baptist history. 8. Edgar E. Ferrell, Black Mountain, Chairman of the Committee on Local Arrangements, welcomed the messengers to Asheville, gave information concerning facilities in the building, and the shuttle buses. Other members of the Committee on Local Arrangements are: Aldin Angline, Asheville; Joe R. Babb, Asheville; Fred B. Bentley, Mars Hill; Jesse M. Head, West Asheville; John G. Hicks, Asheville; John H. Knight, West Asheville; Billy H. Cline, Asheville; and Mrs. Bill Hodges, Asheville.

9. James Harris, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Statesville, a vice-president of the General Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, brought greetings from our sister Baptist Convention.

10. President Bailey recognized new ministers (including pastors, music, education, youth) in the state since the time of the 1974 annual session of the Convention. Upon his invitation, a large number of newcomers came to the platform to give their names and indicate their places of service.

11. John Williams, an employee of the Executive Committee of the Southern Baptist Convention, presented a plaque to W. Perry Crouch expressing appreciation for his diligent work in behalf of the Executive Committee. He then presented to various leaders of the Baptist State Convention paper-weights made from granite from the building in which the Cooperative Program was voted into being in 1925.

12. President Bailey asked all representatives of agencies and institutions of the Southern Baptist Convention to stand and be recognized. The following representatives were presented to the Convention: John Williams, Executive Committee of the Southern Baptist Convention; James Barry and Lloyd Householder, Baptist Sunday School Board; and Don Hammond from the Home Mission Board.

13. Joseph O. Stroud, Raleigh, led the Convention in singing "Re-vive Us Again."

14. William Hogue, Atlanta, Georgia, director of the Division of Evangelism of the Home Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention, addressed the Convention on the subject "To Win America to Christ." He read Matthew 9:35—10:8. The population of our nation is growing at the rate of six per minute, and there are 136,000,000 people in our nation today who have absolutely no religious profession of any kind. We believe that Jesus Christ is their only hope. Reaching these people is our task, and what Jesus makes primary we dare not make secondary. This calls upon us to catch a vision of these multitudes in their need, to go out on the adventure of telling people about Jesus, and to call the whole church to share again in this task. This task is urgent; it may be now or never.

15. First Vice-President Coy C. Privette, Kannapolis, presided and introduced Robert Lee Newton, Blowing Rock, a member of the Historical Committee of the Convention, who presented the report of the committee as found on pages 192-195 of this Annual. He read the six recommendations at the conclusion of the report, and made a motion that the report and the recommendations be adopted. The motion was seconded and carried.

16. Wallace E. Parham, Raleigh, Chairman of the Bicentennial Committee, appointed in 1974 upon the authority of the General Board, reported that the committee has two tasks: (1) to prepare for our Sesqui-Centennial as a Convention in 1980, and (2) to encourage the churches to participate significantly in our national Bicentennial in 1976. He cited many opportunities which we face in this Bicentennial year.

17. First Vice-President Privette commented upon Mrs. Allen A. Bailey's many contributions to the work of her husband during his two years as President of the Baptist State Convention. Upon his request Mrs. Bailey stood while the Convention applauded her.

18. The Mars Hill College Choir and Brass Ensemble presented "Psalms One Hundred Eleven" by Robertson.

19. President Allen A. Bailey, Charlotte, called his pastor, Carl Bates, to the platform to thank him for his prayers and his help during the two years of his term of office. He also asked him to escort Mrs. Bailey to the platform, and he spoke words of gratitude to her for the countless ways she has helped him during these two busy years. President Bailey then presented his "President's Address." He spoke concerning the wonder of how much we get done, with more than a million individual members in more than 3,400 autonomous churches, functioning in open decision-making processes. We have, for example, correctly refused to allow the baptismal issue to cause us to alter the working relationship between the autonomous churches, and through this period of controversy we have seen a continuing voluntary increase in Cooperative Program gifts. We had a most meaningful joint convention with the General Baptist State Convention in 1974. We had an amazingly liberal response to an emergency offering for world relief. The most important work of the past year in the life of the Baptist State Convention has been the work of the Search Committee who had the responsibility for recommending to the General Board a person whom it could nominate as the next General Secretary-Treasurer of our Convention. This was an indescribably diverse committee, and it could never have been unanimous on anything except by the clear leadership of the Lord, but this unanimity is now a reality in the nominee who shall be placed before this Convention by the General Board tomorrow morning. He concluded with the following quotation from J. B. Weatherspoon, written 25 years ago: "We must cling with intense convictions to the principles of personal responsibility, personal freedom and fraternal love. We shall be tempted to abandon them. We shall be tempted to build close drawn fences about our freedom, to condense our Bible into authoritative creeds, to convert our convictions from cooperative associations into ecclesiastical bodies with authority to force uniformity upon our churches. To yield to that temptation would be to yield to the spirit of the age, and forget our history and the genius of our fellowship. Surely that cannot be our choice. We must adhere to the essential nature and genius of the faith of Jesus Christ and of the Gospel we have in Him."

20. Vernon E. Wood, Mars Hill, pronounced the benediction for the Monday evening meeting.

TUESDAY MORNING

21. Second Vice-President Charles B. Deane, Jr., Rockingham, called the Tuesday morning meeting of the Convention to order.

22. Joseph O. Stroud, Raleigh, Director of the Department of Church Music, Baptist State Convention, introduced the Singing Churchmen, a choral group composed of a number of Ministers of Music from North Carolina churches, under the direction of Charles S. Gatwood, Cary, Associate in the Department of Church Music. He then led the Convention in singing "O For a Thousand Tongues."

23. The Singing Churchmen sang "When I Survey the Wondrous Cross" by Watts, arr. by Mallory.

24. Miss Doris Morgan, Raleigh, an Associate in the Department of Church Ministries and Training of the Baptist State Convention, read scriptures on the subject "Our Freedom: The Provision of God in Christ," as follows: Galatians 4:5-7 and John 8:36. She led the Convention in prayer.

32. Eugene Grubbs, Richmond, a consultant on laymen overseas ministries for the Foreign Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention, was unable to attend the Convention because of the death of his mother in Alabama. In his place, Sam Pittman, Associate Secretary of the Department of Promotion and Furlough Ministries of the Foreign Mission Board, Richmond, Virginia, addressed the Convention on "Baptists and World Relief." He described current relief work in Bangladesh, Brazil, Angola, and spoke of the heroic work of our missionaries in relief work in Vietnam prior to its fall and in Cambodia and Thailand since that time. In such moments of special need, regular funds and special offerings can be immediately applied to the need without any additional administrative cost through the work of our career missionaries already on the field.

33. With the time for Miscellaneous Business having arrived, Alfred Ayscue, Mount Airy, offered the following resolution and moved its adoption, which, after being seconded, was referred to the Committee on Resolutions:

Whereas, the crime rate in our nation continues to soar, threatening social stability and the common welfare of all citizens; and

Whereas, Americans are now the most heavily armed people in the world, owning 40 million handguns and purchasing more of these weapons at a rate of one every thirteen seconds; and

Whereas, an estimated two and one-half million handguns were manufactured last year for sale through 156,000 licensed dealers whose sales amounted to $500,000,000; and

Whereas, 42 states require no license for the purchase of a handgun and 30 states require no waiting period for the purchase of a handgun; and

Whereas, last year 10,000 people were murdered with handguns, 5,000 suicides were committed with handguns, and 2,600 accidental deaths resulted from handguns; and

Whereas, criminal assault by handguns occurs every two minutes and a robbery using a handgun is committed every two and one-half minutes;

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED that the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, meeting in Asheville, November 10-12, 1975 views with alarm the accelerating proliferation of handguns and the attendant increase in crimes of violence resulting in armed robbery, bodily injury, and death;

Be it further resolved that while we recognize and respect differing interpretations of the nation's constitutional provision for a citizen's right to "bear arms," we also reaffirm the necessity for restraint of personal freedom exercised in such a manner as to endanger the health, life and property of others;

Be it further resolved that we call upon State and Federal governments to institute such regulations in regard to the manufacture, sale, and ownership of handguns as will insure the safeguard of all citizens and halt the spreading menace of violence associated with these weapons; and

Be it finally resolved that copies of this resolution be forwarded to the Governor of North Carolina, the President of the United States, the President of the United States Senate, and the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives.

34. B. J. Morris, Boger City, offered the following resolution and moved its adoption, which, after being seconded, was referred to the Committee on Resolutions:

Whereas, the quality and strength of any society can be measured somewhat by the standards that exist in literature and entertainment; and

Whereas, by lowering our standards, we raise questions about the society we live in, its future and the well-being of our young people; and

Whereas, a worthy goal is to aspire for the highest standards of tone, mode, style and quality of life for our Nation; and

Whereas, the Supreme Court of the United States has ruled that the determination of obscenity is to be made by applying local standards and the Court stated in its landmark obscenity ruling handed down on June 21, 1973: "This much has been categorically settled by the Court, that obscene material is unprotected by the First Amendment"; and

Whereas, obscenity and pornography is a national problem and a national disgrace; and

Whereas, the Southern Baptist Convention has, as stated by resolutions in 1953, 1959, 1968, 1974, and 1975, affirmed its opposition to the distribution of obscene and pornographic materials and urged our people to continue to fight until these items are removed from our midst; and

Whereas, the Federal Bureau of Investigation has indicated its intention to intensify efforts to combat pornography in North Carolina;

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that this Convention urge each Association to study the problem of obscenity and pornography in their area and work with the Task Force on obscenity and Pornography of the Christian Action League of North Carolina, Inc. to eliminate it; and

Be it further resolved that this Convention will strive to create an awareness of the serious nature and quality of newsstand, mail-order, motion picture and television obscenity and its corrupting influence on our society and help to establish laws to oppose illegal massage parlors, "X" rated movies, adult book stores, and violence and obscenity on television; and

Be it further resolved that each Association will assist the Christian Action League of North Carolina, Inc. to raise the $30,000 needed to test ordinances in State and Federal Courts.

35. Larry R. McClure, Rocky Hock, called attention to the fact that his proposed amendments to the By-laws have appeared in two issues of the Biblical Recorder in accordance with the requirements of Article XIII of the Constitution. The first proposed amendment to the By-laws would add to By-law II, A, 2 the following: "No church shall have more than three members serving at one time on convention committees. No more than one member from a church shall serve on any committee at the same time." The second proposed amendment to the By-laws would add to By-law II, B, 2, b the following: "No church shall have more than three members serving at one time on convention boards. No more than one member from a church shall serve on any board at the same time." He further announced that he intended to delete this afternoon the final sentence which says, "No more than one member from a church shall serve on any board at the same time."

36. Ray Benfield, Greensboro, called attention to the proposed amendment to the Constitution which has been published in two issues of the Biblical Recorder in accordance with the requirement of Article XIII of the Constitution, to amend Article VI, c by striking the word "voluntary" in the second sentence and by striking the entire third sentence which says "He may continue on a year-by-year basis after review by the Executive Committee, with automatic retirement at age 68; retirement to take effect upon December 31 of the year in which he retires."

37. William A. Wallace, Gastonia, offered the following resolution and moved its adoption, which, after being seconded, was referred to the Committee on Resolutions:

Whereas, alcohol continues to be the number one drug abuse problem in America, bringing misery to millions, and

Whereas, according to HEW, alcoholic beverages have created a health problem that costs each individual American taxpayer an annual sum of $123.00 and

Whereas, 15 percent of the 400,000 patients in State Mental Hospitals are under treatment for problems of alcohol, and

Whereas, in our own beloved state of North Carolina, four out of ten who are admitted to our Mental Hospitals have alcohol or alcohol related problems, and

Whereas, alcohol kills 85,000 each year, being the fourth major cause of death (exceeded only by heart disease, cancer and stroke), and

Whereas, we currently have nine million alcoholics and problem drinkers, with an increase of 200,000 new alcoholics annually, and

Whereas, one out of twelve social drinkers becomes an alcoholic, and

Whereas, the consumption of alcoholic beverages continues to rise;

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED that we urge our national Congressional representatives to draw-up and support legislation that will:

1. Ban the advertising of all alcoholic beverages on television,
2. Require all alcoholic beverages to carry a warning on the label that the product is potentially dangerous to the health and safety of the consumer, and

3. That this warning also be required in all advertising of alcoholic beverages.

Be it further resolved that a copy of this resolution be sent to all members of the United States Congress.

38. W. W. Finlator, Raleigh, offered the following resolution and moved its adoption, which, after being seconded, was referred to the Committee on Resolutions:

Whereas, one of every 10,000 Americans will be murdered this year and, in North Carolina, every person has a one in fifty chance of dying by gunshot wounds, and

Whereas, since 1900 more than 800,000 American citizens have been killed by gunfire, which is more than the total number of casualties in the United States from the American Revolution to the Vietnam War, and

Whereas, two-thirds of all murders in America are committed with guns, of which 92 per cent are hand guns, with the highest rates of homicides in those parts of the country with the largest percentage of guns, the South leading the nation with 12.9 per one hundred thousand in 1973, and

Whereas, while the rate of deaths on the highways is decreasing, the murder rate in the U.S. since 1968 has more than doubled, with the prediction that if present trends continue 6,000 people in North Carolina will die of gunshot wounds in the next five years, and

Whereas, social research indicates that 95 per cent of murders are impulsive and unpremeditated, that the average murderer today is only 20 years old, and that less than 30 per cent of murder victims are strangers to their killers, and

Whereas, public polls reveal again and again that the great majority of American citizens want gun control; now therefore

lina meeting in Asheville in 1975, in obedience to the ancient mandate to honor and protect and safeguard human life, strongly urges the government at the Federal, State and local levels, forthwith to enact legislation and to adopt ordinances rigidly regulating, controlling and licensing all firearms in possession of civilians, and especially the manufacture, advertising, sale and possession of the handgun.

39. Tom M. Freeman, Dunn, made a motion that the Baptist State Convention instruct the General Board to appoint a strong and representative committee of 15 persons to make a study of our contract with the Reynolds Foundation with a view to the possibility of revision, or renegotiation, of said contract. The motion was seconded and carried.

40. Charles Midkiff, Valdese, offered the following resolution and moved its adoption, which, after being seconded, was referred to the Committee on Resolutions:

Whereas, "There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female; for ye are all one in Jesus Christ." (Gal. 3:28);

Whereas, it is the right and responsibility of all Christians to witness in God's name through proclaiming the Word, offering physical and spiritual comfort to those in need, and engaging in constructive participation in a Christian church;

Whereas, the New Testament cites several examples, such as Tabor and Priscilla, of women who responded to God's call with devoted service;

Whereas, women today are still dedicating their lives to the Lord;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the Baptist State Convention in annual session, November 10-12, 1975, recognizing the freedom of conscience of the believer, affirms the right of all Christian women to follow God's will in their lives, including those whose calls lead to ordination and professional ministry.

41. Robert W. Bailey, Concord, offered the following resolution and moved its adoption, which, after being seconded, was referred to the Committee on Resolutions:

Whereas, the display of violence on television and in motion pictures is growing increasingly rampant;

Whereas, the use of sex and pornography is being flaunted everywhere—from grocery stores to television ads, programs, and movies;

Whereas, the vulgarity of language of actors and actresses is frequently despicable;

Whereas, the use of alcohol on television programs and movies makes it seem this is the only beverage;

Whereas, these and other behavioral patterns imply everyone should conform to these standards to be authentic members of society; and

Whereas, our silence on these issues implies our acceptance or endorsement;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the North Carolina Baptist State Convention in its 145th annual session in Asheville express its disapproval of the public display of degrading behavior; and

Be it resolved that the churches of our convention be encouraged to use economic pressure to eliminate the display of these unchristian forms of behavior by writing or telling program sponsors, television station managers, store owners, and theater owners that their products will be boycotted unless the objectionable programs or products are removed; and

Be it further resolved that a copy of this resolution be mailed to all television stations in North Carolina and published in the Biblical Recorder.

42. Harry Kahn, Rocky Mount, offered the following resolution and moved its adoption, which, after being seconded, was referred to the Committee on Resolutions:

Whereas, more and more churches are providing bus transportation over greater distances as part of the ministry outreach for both young and old alike, and

Whereas, the current speed limit of 45 miles per hour for church buses on North Carolina highways is both antiquated and annoying for those of us who drive these buses and for other motorists, and

Whereas, Virginia has already established its speed limit for these buses at 55 miles per hour,

I THEREFORE RECOMMEND to the North Carolina Baptist State Convention, meeting in session in Asheville, North Carolina, November 10-12, 1975, that a petition be sent to the North Carolina General Assembly to have the present 45 miles per hour speed limit for church buses increased to a maximum of 55 miles per hour.

43. Carlos L. Young, Shelby, offered the following resolution and moved its adoption, which, after being seconded, was referred to the Committee on Resolutions:

Whereas, inflation continues to make serious inroads on the salaries of pastors, church staff members and superintendents of missions, and

Whereas, the Consumer Price Index has increased tremendously since the last study of North Carolina Church Staff salaries was made in 1972, and

Whereas, some dedicated servants of God are feeling the financial squeeze tighter than at any time since the Great Depression, and

Whereas, this convention should speak for these people when they cannot speak for themselves

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, in session at Asheville, North Carolina, November 10-12, 1975,

1. That we ask the new General Secretary-Treasurer and the Executive Committee of the General Board to give careful attention to this problem during the coming year, and

2. We ask the General Secretary-Treasurer and the Executive Committee to engage special assistance, if needed, to compile current information which will update the 1972 study entitled "North Carolina Church Staff Salaries" and

3. We ask that this updated information be sent at the appropriate time (before budgets are approved) to all churches and associations, and

4. We ask further that this information shall include suggested minimums calculated on the basis of projected increase of the Consumer Price Index to the end of 1976, and

5. We urge churches and associations not only to reach these minimums but go beyond them in compensating pastors, church staff members and superintendents of missions in a manner that reflects credit on themselves and the North Carolina Baptist State Convention.

61. James C. Cammack, Fayetteville, preached the Convention Sermon. He spoke concerning the witness we give to the world by our fellowship or by our failure to maintain fellowship. We have a mandate from our Lord to love one another, but an unfortunate amount of our effort has sometimes been expended building barriers instead of bridges. We should not try to force uniformity about our organizational structure, but because Christian love does prompt many of us to do many of the same things as God's servants there is an amazing degree of voluntary cooperation among us. The possibility of revival and of greater spiritual victories among us is limited only by our own lack of willingness to live as dedicated servants of God who love as God called us to love.

He also paid tribute to his office secretary Miss Ruth Williams. W. Perry Crouch then addressed the Convention on the history of religion in North Carolina, beginning with the granting of the charter to the eight Lord Proprietors of the new colony of Carolina and the early beginnings of religious liberty which attended this charter. The first Baptist Church in North Carolina came 69 years later, but this marked the beginning of what has now become the largest and most influential religious group in North Carolina. Significant Baptist beliefs and principles played a vital part in bringing about this prominence of Baptists upon the religious scene of our state. These same basic beliefs and principles played a large part in the formation of the Baptist State Convention in 1830 and Wake Forest College in 1834. The development of this Convention and its many institutions is a thrilling story, and the story of our support of mission causes at home and abroad is equally thrilling. There are some truly challenging questions which face us as we look to the future. One of the greatest is whether the quality of spiritual life is high enough that we will continue to really care about people, and whether this quality can somehow be improved so that this caring will be increased. He affirmed: "I have faith in the future of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina; I am deeply grateful for the outstanding qualities of General Secretary-Treasurer-elect Cecil A. Ray, and he will have my complete support." He called Mrs. Crouch to his side to express his love and gratitude to her. 143. Randall Lolley, Wake Forest, told how Billy Graham wanted to be here but could not because he is in the Orient. He said Billy Graham made a tape to give his personal words to his dear friend at this time.

144. Mrs. John Lane, New Bern, long time friend and servant of North Carolina Baptists told of experiences from long ago which endeared the Crouch family to her and to so many others.

156. Recording Secretary Lamar J. Brooks, Laurinburg, called attention to the following technical correction which needs to be made in Recommendation Number 1: in paragraph c, in both places where the location of the paragraph is indicated, a capital B should be inserted after the Roman numeral IV, and the parenthesis should be removed from the lower case g, which would cause the designation to read "By-law IV, B, 4, g, (1)". The vote on the entire budget was taken, and it was adopted.

165. Jack R. Noffsinger, Winston-Salem, a member of the Executive Committee on the General Board made a motion that Recommendation Number 4 concerning the feasibility of placing chapels on campuses of the mentally retarded, be adopted. [The full text of this recommendation appears on pages 106-107 of this Annual.] The motion was seconded.

166. W. J. Taylor, North Wilkesboro, expressed concern about the church-state questions which might be involved in this proposal.

167. Jack R. Noffsinger, Winston-Salem, responded to the question thus raised. The vote was taken and the motion was carried.

168. Howard Holly, Burgaw, in behalf of the General Board, recommended that our present Trustees continue in office for another year. These are: David Britt, Claude Gaddy, and Gale Parker, all of Raleigh. There were no nominations from the floor. He made a motion that these be elected. The motion was seconded and carried.

Caudill, Greensboro; Gerald Riggs, Rocky Mount; M. D. Smith, Asheville; A. B. Wood, Shelby; Richard K. Other members of the Committee on Memorials are: Randall Glover, Charlotte; Raymond Taylor, Greensboro; M. D. Smith, Candler [now deceased]; and John T. Wayland, North Wilkesboro. [For further action, see Item 223 below.]

171. James Pleitz, Pensacola, Florida, addressed the Convention on the subject "Restoring Our Religious Heritage." He spoke concerning our political heritage of freedom and how we need to cherish this heritage and pass it on to our posterity. He spoke concerning our religious heritage and the serious threat which rises against this heritage in a day of strident secularism in society and far too much apathy in the churches. This can be done; "if God be for us, who can be against us?"

172. President Bailey announced that the time for Miscellaneous Business has arrived.

173. Gene Watterson, Shelby, chairman of the Committee on Nominations made a motion that the following be added to the report of his committee: for an unexpired term as a trustee of Chowan College, N. O. McDowell; and as a member of the General Board in the Rocky Face Association, Guy Rogers, Taylorsville. The motion was seconded and carried.

174. President Bailey announced that we will need a second ballot to complete the election of the Second Vice-President of the Convention, voting between M. O. Owens, Jr., Gastonia, and Mrs. A. Leroy Parker, Greensboro. He suggested that we vote by secret ballot. Following some comments from unidentified messengers, he ruled that we would vote by secret ballot and asked the Convention to sustain him in this ruling. The vote was taken by standing with the result that the ruling of the chair was sustained. The Convention proceeded to vote by secret ballot.

175. Ray Benfield, Greensboro, called attention to the proposed amendment to the Constitution [See Item 36 above.] He re-read the proposal and moved its adoption. The motion was seconded. Ray Benfield spoke in favor of the motion to amend.

176. Recording Secretary Lamar J. Brooks, Laurinburg, made a motion to amend the proposed change so as to retain the clause "retirement to take effect upon December 31 of the year in which he retires." The entire sentence would then read: "Upon election, the General Secretary-Treasurer shall hold office for an indefinite period, with retirement at age 65, retirement to take effect upon December 31 of the year in which he retires." The motion was seconded by Ray Benfield. The vote was taken on the amendment and it was declared to be unanimous. The vote was taken on the proposed change, as amended, and it was carried by a standing vote.

177. Glenn Hewitt, Winston-Salem, in behalf of the Baptist Student Union of North Carolina, read as information two resolutions recently adopted in the Baptist Student Union of North Carolina Convention on October 3-5, 1975, as follows:

BE IT RESOLVED that the Baptist Student Union of North Carolina acknowledge the unique role that Dr. W. Perry Crouch has played in the life of the Baptist Student Union of North Carolina during his ministry as Director of Church Training of the Baptist State Convention, as a pastor, and as General Secretary-Treasurer of the Convention. Be it further resolved that we express our appreciation to him for his sustained interest in students and his leadership in helping Campus Ministry be a vital form of ministry.

Be it resolved that a copy of this resolution be sent to the Biblical Recorder and be read at the annual meeting of the Baptist State Convention.

Whereas, Christ was crucified and resurrected for all people, and

Whereas, we are all children of God and are loved equally by Him regardless of sex, and

Whereas, it is the right and responsibility of all Christians to witness to God's love (i.e. teaching the Word; offering comfort, physically and spiritually, to those in need; constructive participation in a Christian community) and

Whereas, in 20th century society, certain duties involved in carrying the gospel also require ordination (i.e. performing a wedding, licensing for Clinical Pastoral Care), and

Whereas, women have carried out many other ministerial duties without recognition,

BE IT HEREBY RESOLVED that the Baptist Student Union of North Carolina at this Fall Convention, 1975, supports equality of men and women's roles in the church, and the ordination of women.

Be it also resolved that this resolution be read at the Baptist State Convention, the Southern Baptist Convention, and that copies be sent to the Biblical Recorder, and to all associations in the state.

178. Lindy W. Long, Maysville, made a motion that we send a message of love to General Secretary-Treasurer-elect Cecil A. Ray and his family, expressing our Christian love to them and pledging to them our prayers as they prepare to move to North Carolina. [This message was sent by the Recording Secretary—L.J.B.]

185. George Shore, Concord, in behalf of the Committee on Resolutions, presented and moved the adoption of the following as a substitute for the resolution on ordination originally submitted by Charles Midkiff [See Item 40 above]:

Whereas, the Scriptures state: "There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female; for ye are all one in Jesus Christ." (Gal. 3:28), and

Whereas, it is the right and responsibility of all Christians to witness in God's name through proclaiming the Word, offering physical and spiritual comfort to those in need, and engaging in constructive participation in a Christian church, and

Whereas, women today are dedicating their lives to the Lord in Christian service in local churches and on mission fields, and

Whereas, the right of ordination lies within the jurisdiction of the local church,

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the Baptist State Convention in annual session, November 10-12, 1975, recognizing the freedom of conscience of the believer, affirms the right of all Christian women to follow God's will in their lives, and affirms the right of the local church to ordain all persons who are called to a church-related ministry.

Whereas, the crime rate in our nation continues to soar, threatening social stability and the common welfare of all citizens, and

Whereas, one of every 10,000 Americans will be murdered this year and, in North Carolina, every person has a one in fifty chance of dying by gunshot wounds, and

Whereas, since 1900 more than 800,000 American citizens have been killed by gunfire which is more than the total number of casualties in the United States from the American Revolution to the Vietnam War, and

Whereas, two-thirds of all murders in America are committed with guns, of which 92 per cent are hand guns, with the highest rates of homicides in those parts of the country with the largest percentage of guns, the South leading the nation with 12.9 per one hundred thousand in 1973, and

Whereas, while the rate of deaths on the highways is decreasing, the murder rate in the U.S. since 1968 has more than doubled, with the prediction that if present trends continue 6,000 people in North Carolina will die of gunshot wounds in the next five years, and

Whereas, social research indicates that 95 per cent of murders are impulsive and unpremeditated, that the average murderer today is only 20 years old, and that less than 30 per cent of murder victims are strangers to their killers, and

Whereas, public polls reveal again and again that the great majority of American citizens want gun control, now therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED that the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina meeting in Asheville in 1975, in obedience to the ancient mandate to honor and protect and safeguard human life, strongly urge the government at the Federal, State and local levels to institute such regulations in regard to the manufacture, sale, and ownership of handguns as will help insure the safeguard of all citizens and halt the spreading menace of violence associated with those weapons and

Be it further resolved that copies of this resolution be forwarded to the Governor of North Carolina, the President of the United States, and the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives.

Whereas, the standards that exist in literature, and entertainment reflect the quality and strength of any society, and

Whereas, the lowering of these standards threatens the welfare of society and its future, and

Whereas, the supreme court of the United States has ruled that the determination of obscenity is to be made by applying local standards, and

Whereas, obscenity and pornography are a national disgrace and local problem, and

Whereas, the use of sex in advertising, selling, and entertainment is deceptive and destructive,

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that this Convention urge each association to study the problem of obscenity and pornography in their area and work with the Task Force on obscenity and pornography of the Christian Action League of North Carolina and the Council on Christian Life and Public Affairs in developing programs to eliminate obscenity and pornography; and

Be it further resolved that this Convention urge each church to help determine a community standard that will oppose the existence of illegal massage parlors, obscene movies, and adult book stores.

The motion was carried.

217. Dwayne Campbell, Elkin, in behalf of the Committee on Resolutions, presented and moved the adoption of the following as a substitute for the resolution on violence on television originally submitted by Robert W. Bailey [See Item 41 above]:

Whereas, we recognize that the television industry exerts awesome influence on the minds and values of the American people, and particularly on the minds and values of impressionable, pre-adolescent children, and

Whereas, the minds and values of our children constitute our most precious resource and hope for the future, and

Whereas, we perceive an increase in programs apparently depicting violence for its own sake, and

Whereas, responsible social research indicates a direct influential relationship between continuous exposure to violent episodes on television and aggressive, anti-social, destructive behavior in some children, and

Whereas, we regard such violence to be an ultimate obscenity:

BE IT RESOLVED, that the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, meeting, in annual session in Asheville, November 10-12, 1975, deplore the amount and type of violence shown on network television:

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that we encourage and favor the addition of specialists in child behavior to all program policy-making bodies of the Federal Communication Commission whose purpose it would be to advise these bodies concerning the potential impact of violent episodes in programming on developing minds; and members of the North Carolina churches to write directly to the commercial sponsor of offensive programs voicing personal disapproval and intent to refrain from purchasing the sponsor's product if such offensive programming continues;

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that we urgently request individual

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that copies of this resolution be sent to the chairman of the Federal Communication Commission and presidents of the three major networks, and the program directors of all North Carolina television stations.

The motion was seconded and carried.

Whereas, the 145th Annual Session of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina meeting in Asheville, November 10-12, 1975, has been both historic and harmonious, and

Whereas, the officers, program personalities and committees have conducted the sessions in an excellent manner, and

Whereas, the city of Asheville has generously accommodated the messengers and visitors to this convention;

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED:

1. That we express our appreciation to President Allen Bailey and all the officers of this Convention, the Program and Local Arrangements Committees, and program personalities for their excellent leadership during these sessions.

4. That we thank the citizens of Asheville for their kind and gracious hospitality during this Convention.

of the Committee on Memorials had been presented, but no action had been taken upon it. President Bailey asked for a vote on this report and its two recommendations, and it was adopted. [See Item 170 above.]

225. The benediction for the Wednesday morning meeting and for the 1975 Annual Session was pronounced by Cecil W. Seagle, Charlotte. [The last registration information brought to the platform, but not announced to the Convention, indicated that Lewis Gentry, Asheville, Chairman of the Committee on Enrollment reported, as of 10:30 a.m., 2,930 messengers and 247 visitors, for a total of 3,177—L.J.B.]

I. FOREWORD

"Beloved, Let Us Love One Another. . . ." I John 4:7

The year 1975 has been an unusual one for many of our people. We have experienced recession in many of our industries. In some areas of our state, people have experienced unemployment. Nevertheless, our people have responded to our world mission challenge and have continued to give to the Cooperative Program. At the time of this writing we are about 5.71 per cent ahead of the same time last year in our total gifts, specials, and Cooperative Program. This indicates the spiritual concern of our people.

We have been especially grateful for the response of our people to our appeal in the early part of this year for world relief. We had hoped to receive $100,000, and as of this date have received over $260,000 for this purpose. All of this money has been sent through our Foreign Mission Board to be administered by our own missionaries.

During the year, Richard Smith, our comptroller, and Ted Williams of the Data Processing Department have led us in transferring our business activities to the computer. This is always a trying experience, but we are grateful for the patience of our people when mistakes have been made. The shift is about complete and we will soon be able to render quicker reports concerning all of our work.

During the year, Bill Lamb, director of the Division of Evangelism, suffered a heart attack while attending the Southern Baptist Convention in Miami. However, I am happy to report he has experienced an excellent recovery and is now back on the job. The various phases of our evangelistic program continue very strong.

Construction on the Caraway Conference Center is well under way and should be completed in the late fall of 1976. Construction on two church-type apartment buildings is under way at the summer assembly at Caswell. This is a part of the long-range plan for the assembly.

As I come to the close of my work as general secretary-treasurer, I am grateful for a wonderful staff who are well trained, and work hard at their tasks with the Convention. I have believed in these fine men and women who work for our Convention, and I commend them to our new general secretary-treasurer.

I am also grateful to the men and women who have served on the General Board during these twelve years. They have given of their time and energy to guide the work of our Convention. I am especially grateful for those individuals who have served as officers of the General Board and Convention. This year, Allen Bailey has given almost half of his time to the work of our State and Southern Baptist Conventions. Billy Mobley has been an excellent president of the General Board, and has given much of his time and energy during a year when very difficult problems were before our people.

I want to express a word of genuine appreciation for the excellent cooperation I have received from the seven Baptist college presidents, and from the presidents and administrators of all our agencies and institutions. Of course, there have been problems, and sometimes difference of opinions, but these have been met in a spirit of Christian understanding.

Most of all, I am grateful to our Baptist people of North Carolina. This is my second period of service with North Carolina Baptists. The first time was from 1936 to 1941, and this time since 1963. I think you are a great people, and I have been honored to serve you and my Lord these years. I have believed in our Baptist Statement of Faith, and in our Baptist churches. Thank you for your love and support during these years. As I come to retirement, I think of it as a new phase of my life as a minister of our Lord. If I can lead a Bible study or supply your pulpit, or render any service for our beloved Convention, I will be happy to do so.

I am happy to say 1975 has been a good year for our Convention.

W. PERRY CROUCH

II. REPORT AND RECOMMENDATIONS OF THE GENERAL BOARD

The General Board of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina administers the work of the Convention between annual sessions and directs the promotion of the state missions program. The Board is composed of at least one person from each district association; with associations of more than 20,000 church members having two members, and those with more than 40,000 having three members. In addition, there is one member from each of the ten regions in the state.

Every member of the General Board is assigned to one of the eight committees of the Board. These committees meet and elect their chairmen who become members of the General Board Executive Committee for the year. Five additional members are elected to the Executive Committee from the General Board membership. The Executive Committee meets each month, with the full General Board meeting three times per year (January, July and October). The following persons have served on the Executive Committee this year: Allen Bailey, Charlotte; Joe Burnette, Charlotte; Henry Crouch, Charlotte; Clyde L. Davis, Jacksonville (succeeded by Henry Stokes, Buies Creek); Charles B. Deane, Rockingham; Joseph P. Hester, Thomasville; Howard Holly, Burgaw; Earl W. Howard, Oxford; Alton McEachern, Greensboro; Billy Mobley, Ahsokie; Jack Noffsinger, Winston-Salem; Edd Nye, Elizabethtown; Coy C. Privette, Kannapolis; M. O. Sears, Goldsboro; Bob D. Shepherd, Sanford; and Raiford Troutman, Concord.

The General Board program is divided into divisions of work: Administration, Business Management, Mission Ministries, Church Programs, Evangelism, and Christian Life and Public Affairs.

In addition, there are two divisions of cooperation with institutions: The Council on Christian Higher Education and the Council on Christian Social Services. Each of these councils has a committee of the General Board that works with them and reports to the General Board. For the sake of clarity, a discussion of the programs by divisions of work is listed below.

I. ADMINISTRATION

1. During this year, the General Board transferred the Data Processing Department from Administration to the Division of Business Management. Since the financial records and statistics are now on computer, and since the Data Processing Department is handling this work, it seemed very important to put the Department of Data Processing in the Division of Business Management.

2. The Department of Pastor-Church Relations continues to render invaluable help to churches seeking a pastor, and pastors who want to move. Robert Bruhn, director of the department, often meets with pulpit committees to discuss guidelines and procedures, securing information for them about prospective pastors. This has proven to be one of the most valuable services of the Convention.

3. Public Relations supervises the printing for all General Board programs. The various departments indicate their needs, then art work and editing are rendered so that materials are "camera ready" for the printer. Some of this work is done in the Baptist Building print shop.

In addition, this department supervises the printing of the Annual, the Baptist Diary, and The Church Leader. The department also writes and edits news releases to the Biblical Recorder and secular press.

4. The Department of Stewardship and Cooperative Program Promotion works with both the Stewardship Commission of the Southern Baptist Convention and the churches and associations of the state. The department seeks to keep the churches informed about stewardship material available and the many ministries of the Cooperative Program.

II. BUSINESS MANAGEMENT

Richard Smith is now completing his second year as business manager and comptroller. During this time the business operations have been placed on the computer. This is a difficult transfer but we are pleased with the level of operation already achieved. By the end of the year, transfer of all business operations to the computer should be completed. Much credit is due Mr. Smith and his associates for this achievement.

Wixie Herring, an excellent employee, has completed twenty years of service in the Business Office, and will be retiring December 31, 1975.

Recently the Executive Committee voted to employ a firm of insurance consultants to make a complete study of the insurance needs and make recommendations concerning future insurance coverage. This was indeed a much needed action.

III. DIVISION OF MISSION MINISTRIES

The division includes eight departments of work, dealing mostly with mission areas outside of the local church. A discussion of the work of each department follows this report.

The General Board is proud of the work of the Communications Department. With their new equipment, the department is able to furnish video tapes containing Bible teaching by an outstanding teacher. These tapes are being used by cablevision, hospitals, and the educational TV network in North Carolina. Jimmy Morriss, department director, has done an excellent job in preparing and promoting many areas of our work on radio and TV in North Carolina.

Fruitland Baptist Bible Institute continues to do an outstanding work with men who have answered God's call to the ministry later in life. Some 215 students are admitted per quarter. Most of the time there is a waiting list of those seeking admission. This school is entirely a state mission project.

About seventy associations now have superintendents of missions, while others maintain offices to help coordinate their work. The director of the Division of Mission Ministries works with each of these people to encourage and support their work. During this year a total of $89,000 has been given as pastoral aid in small and mission-type churches and $44,000 has been used to help purchase lots in areas where new churches are needed. In addition, $126,000 has been used to help associations in Christian Social Ministries and $10,000 has been used in resort ministries. Recently a new Church Social Ministries program has been approved for the Wilmington Association, to begin January 1, 1976. The General Board continues to make loans to small mission-type churches for new buildings or the renovation of existing buildings. This fund is limited in amount, but all of it is used constantly.

There are many new language groups coming into the state, such as Japanese, Koreans, Vietnamese, Spanish, Chinese, and Arabs. There are now part-time workers with several of these groups. Soon a Department of Language Missions should be added to coordinate these ministries.

The General Board continues to be grateful for three area missionaries who represent all of the work in strategic parts of our state. Howard Ford continues to lead this Division in a great way.

IV. DIVISION OF CHURCH PROGRAMS

This Division contains ten departments of work and comprises about two-thirds of the staff personnel. Nathan Brooks does a good job of coordinating the people who work in these departments and keeping the emphasis on the development of every Baptist church in our state. This year the Caraway Conference Center is under way, and should be ready for use by December 1, 1976. This facility will be used as a leadership training center by the various divisions of our work. However, the Department of Camps and Retreats works within the Division of Church Programs.

During the year, the Church Ministries and Training Department continued to enlarged their efforts to reach and challenge the deacons of our churches. The conference for pastors and chairmen of deacons has registered excellent results; work has also begun with retarded people. The conference for senior citizens was also continued.

The Womans Missionary Union now has the largest enrollment of any state in the Southern Baptist Convention. They continue to undergird all of the mission work.

The Brotherhood Department has worked with the Division of Evangelism in promoting lay evangelism schools and lay-renewal work in our churches. They continue to do a good job with the Royal Ambassador work and especially the summer camping programs. Many men have been used as volunteer workers in building new church buildings in other countries and helping with disaster problems.

The Sunday School Department is seeking to magnify Bible teaching in our churches and is encouraging Bible groups in homes and other community settings.

The Youth Coordinator works with the youth workers in Sunday School, Church Ministries and Training, Brotherhood, Student, and WMU departments to plan a youth program for our churches and conduct seminars and conferences for youth throughout the year.

The Music Department conducts regional conferences, training sessions for volunteer music directors, and music camps at N. C. Baptist Assembly and Camp Caraway. Every effort is made to help any church with any organized or staff problem through the Division of Church Programs.

V. DIVISION OF EVANGELISM

During the year, Jimmy Hinson was retired on disability. This left a large work load on W. C. Lamb, who is director of the division. Mr. Lamb suffered a heart attack while attending the Southern Baptist Convention in Miami Beach in June. He has had an excellent recovery and has been back on the job since August.

In October, the Executive Committee elected Richard W. Everett of Reidsville as associate in evangelism. Mr. Everett, a native of Tennessee, is a graduate of Carson-Newman College and South-eastern Baptist Theological Seminary. He has been a pastor for several years in North Carolina.

This Division leads our state in an excellent program of reaching people for Christ. They have done an outstanding job with the lay witnessing and lay-renewal programs.

VI. THE COUNCIL ON CHRISTIAN LIFE AND PUBLIC AFFAIRS

The Council on Christian Life and Public Affairs has begun to have a real influence on the moral and spiritual life of our people. During the last three years, under the leadership of Charles Petty, division director, the emphasis has been on the home and its problems. This emphasis will be continued. Also, the Council will emphasize other areas of life as Christian truth is applied today.

This Council is designed to be the "cutting edge" of Christian experience. They will seek to remind Baptists of ways Christian beliefs should be expressed in Christian action.

VII. RELATIONSHIP WITH INSTITUTIONS

The General Board maintains a relationship with the ten institutions through General Board Committees that are a part of a council involving presidents, administrators, and trustees of these institutions.

The Council on Christian Higher Education is the channel between the colleges and the General Board and Convention. The Council has an executive secretary, T. Robert Mullinax, who occupies a place similar to the division director.

The Council on Christian Social Services is the correlating channel for the Children's Homes, the Homes for Aging, and the Baptist Hospital. Once a year this council meets with these institutions and reports to the General Board. The general secretary-treasurer works with this council.

The Biblical Recorder and N.C. Baptist Foundation, located in the Baptist Building, have their own directors elected by the Convention, and report directly to the Convention.

VIII. RETIREMENT OF GENERAL SECRETARY-TREASURER

This year marks the retirement of General Secretary-Treasurer W. Perry Crouch, after twelve years of service in this capacity.

A new general-secretary-treasurer, if elected by the Convention, will begin work January 1, 1976.

IX. RECOMMENDATIONS

IX. Listed below are the recommendations of the General Board to the Convention:

RECOMMENDATIONS TO BAPTIST STATE CONVENTION FROM THE GENERAL BOARD

1. By-law Changes

a. II B, 10-By-laws

Change the name of this committee from "The Committee on Interracial Cooperation" to "The Committee on Cooperation with General Baptists."

b. II, B, 10 -By-laws

Omit the following sentence: "Those serving on this committee in 1972 shall continue until after the joint session of the two conventions in 1974."

The following sentence should be added at the place where the sentence immediately above was removed:

"Once the committee has been organized, two persons should be nominated each year for three-year terms."

c. Article IV, 4, (g), (1)-By-laws

The General Board recommends the following sentence be added after the first sentence in Article IV, 4, (g), (1):

"The Executive Committee shall receive and thereafter recommend to the General Board all requests for change of status by a North Carolina Baptist college or university after first referring such requests to the Council on Christian Higher Education for study and report as the Council deems appropriate."

d. Article V, A, 5-By-laws

The General Board recommends that the present paragraph #5 in By-law Article V, A, 5 be deleted and the following substituted:

"It shall study all requests of the Executive Committee in regard to a change of status by a North Carolina Baptist college or university and make such report to the Executive Committee as the Council deems appropriate."

2. State Missions Goal for 1976

The General Board recommends to the Baptist State Convention the following as the 1976 State Missions Offering Goal and plan for distribution of these funds:

a. The General Board recommends that the State Missions Offering Goal for 1976 be $400,000.

b. The General Board recommends that the following plan for distribution of the State Missions funds be approved for 1976:

Basic Budget	$175,000
Classroom Building	43,000
Caraway Conference Center.....	72,000
Special Missions	10,000
Total	$300,000

c. The General Board recommends that all over $300,000 go to the Long Range Program for North Carolina Baptist Assembly.

3. Budget for 1976

The General Board recommends to the Convention the adoption of an eleven million dollar Cooperative Program budget goal for 1976. We further recommend the following percentage division of the Cooperative Program goal of $11,000,000:

Southern Baptist Causes	33.34%	or	$ 3,667,400
Christian Higher Education	25.3%	or	2,783,000
Christian Social Services Inst.:
Baptist Hospital	2.69%	or	295,900
Children's Homes	6.00%	or	660,000
Homes for Aging	1.28%	or	140,800
Total for Social Service	9.97%	or	1,096,700
State Mission Budget	25.61%	or	2,816,569
Convention-wide objects	5.78%	or	636,331
Miscellaneous Income (including State Missions offering)			1,291,433
TOTAL BUDGET for 1976			$12,291,433

The General Board further recommends that all Cooperative Program receipts above eleven million dollars be divided according to the above percentages.

4. Recommendation Concerning Feasibility of Placing Chapels on Campuses of the Mentally Retarded

The General Board makes the following recommendations to the Convention in response to the study of the Committee to Study the Feasibility of Placing Chapels on Campuses for Retarded:

(1) That the Baptist State Convention recognize the need for chapels on the campuses for mentally retarded in North Carolina. Too long, we have neglected these children of God who also have a right to places of worship and spiritual nurture.

(2) That we ask the General Secretary-Treasurer of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina to select and enlist a Baptist to be our representative on a Steering Committee to raise funds for the chapels needed on the four regional campuses.

(3) That we ask the General Secretary-Treasurer of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina to contact appropriate persons in the various denominations of our state, requesting them to name a person to serve on this Steering Committee.

(4) That the General Secretary-Treasurer of our Convention ask our Baptist representative on the Steering Committee to convene these persons so selected from their denominations and have them to elect their own officers.

(5) That the General Secretary-Treasurer refer to this Steering Committee the following suggestions which we make after our study of this matter:

a. That the Steering Committee, in consultation with the chaplains of the four campuses, select Fund Raising Committees in each of the four regions to raise the funds for each particular campus.

b. That the Steering Committee form such an appropriate nonprofit organization as may be necessary to receive and disperse the funds which will be raised for this purpose.

c. That the Steering Committee make such contacts as may be needed with the Legislature, the department of Human Resources, the Governor, and/or any other such governmental persons or agencies seeking a firm commitment to matching funds to match money raised in the private sector to enable these chapels to be built and to be adequately equipped.

d. That the Steering Committee recognize that the decisions as to what kind of building is needed on each campus and the decisions relative to architects, drawings, specifications, bids, contracts, building supervision, and equipping of these buildings must be left up to the administration of the four campuses. When sufficient money has been raised in each region for that region's chapel, the Steering Committee will notify the regional administration of this money availability and disperse such funds to the administration for the purpose of building these chapels as soon as the administration advises the Steering Committee they are ready to proceed with building and as such funds are needed to pay architects and contractors.

e. When all funds have been expended, the Steering Committee and the Regional Committees will be dissolved.

f. The Steering Committee will receive assurance from the appropriate State agencies that the chapels will be adequately maintained throughout their usefulness.

5. General Secretary-Treasurer

The General Board of the Baptist State Convention places the name of Cecil A. Ray of Dallas, Texas in nomination for the position of General Secretary-Treasurer of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina.

III. PROGRAMS OF WORK

A. DIVISION OF ADMINISTRATION

1. Department of Stewardship and Cooperative Program Promotion

R. TOM GREENE, director

The personnel of the Department of Stewardship and Cooperative Program Promotion rejoice greatly when we see people and churches growing in the grace of giving. The cause of our rejoicing is that the needs of people are being met through the local church program, the associational program, and the Cooperative Program. It is our aim to serve the great people called Southern Baptists in North Carolina that they may grow in the grace of giving by helping with individual stewardship, local church stewardship, as well as the other organized Baptist life in our state. The work of this department during the past twelve months may be divided as follows:

LEAFLETS

We have developed and distributed more than 1.1 million leaflets, posters, and programs concerning stewardship and the Cooperative Program. Except for a sample copy, all of the others have been requested by our people.

SEMINARS

We held Mission Advance Seminars for certain denominational leaders from the area of each association. The seminars included:

1. Explaining and distributing the latest materials for teaching scriptural stewardship, including Cooperative Program giving.
2. Receiving the wise suggestions from these leaders.

WORKSHOPS

Two kinds of workshops were conducted during the past year, mainly:

1. Associational and local church workshops dealing primarily with budget preparation (including pastors' and staff salaries); the promotion of the budget plus increased tithers and the giving of a report showing where the churches stand in their goals of Cooperative Program giving.
2. Mission Advance Workshops were held for the pastor and treasurer of each church in five associations. A speaker was secured on the Cooperative Program the following Sunday in each church requesting this service.

We wrote articles, developed art, and furnished pictures on stewardship and the Cooperative Program for several of our Baptist publications including: Church Leader, Biblical Recorder, Charity and Children, The Baptist Program, plus associational newsletters. We wrote an article each month on the Cooperative Program and associational missions in cooperation with the superintendents of missions, moderators, Stewardship-Cooperative Program chairman, annual associational program chairman, and the Convention's General Board members for publication in their bulletins.

HELP FROM THE TEN BAPTIST INSTITUTIONS

With the cooperation of the leaders of the ten Baptist institutions (six colleges, one university, Baptist Children's Homes, N. C. Baptist Homes, and Baptist Hospital) services were offered to one or more of the leaders in the churches of two associations for each institution. They had the aim of increasing their outreach by greater sharing through the Cooperative Program on the part of each church. Thus, each of these colleges, university, and three benevolent institutions used their talents and time to benefit the churches in twenty associations.

REGIONAL CONSULTANTS

The ten regional Cooperative Program consultants offered services to each association in their region. Thus, through their combined efforts, they offered services to each pastor's conference and each church in the state.

Without remuneration, these ten men met for two days in Raleigh for a workshop on Stewardship and the Cooperative Program to prepare themselves to offer the services referred to above.

These men led out in a Fiftieth Anniversary Cooperative Program rally in each of the ten regions of the state, plus promoting the enlistment of 240,000 dedications on the part of Baptists toward the principles of togetherness as seen in the Cooperative Program.

The ten regional Cooperative Program consultants for 1975 were: Bennie Pledger, Colerain; Gordon Conklin, Greenville; David T. Mashburn, Sr., Lumberton; Lewis Beal, Buies Creek; Ray Benfield, Greensboro; Marion Parker, Troy; Fred D. Barnes, Lenoir; Frank R. Campbell, Statesville; John H. Knight, Asheville; and Willie M. Newman, Bryson City.

ASSOCIATIONAL AND CONVENTION OFFICERS

The associational Stewardship-Cooperative Program chairman, with the aid of the superintendent of missions, moderator, program chairman, and the Convention's General Board members and officers of the Convention contacted each church in a majority of the associations in the state. They offered their services to the limit of time and ability in aiding the leadership in each church to advance their aim of a greater outreach in preaching the gospel of our Lord around the world through the Cooperative Program. This was carried out through the telephone, letters, associational meetings, and other face-to-face contacts.

OTHER AREAS OF WORK

We have answered the requests of many churches desiring special help in the areas of stewardship and missions.

A number of great advances were made during the year, including: 1,026 churches increased Cooperative Program giving by 15 per cent or more in 1974 over what they had contributed the previous year. Every church in the Anson, Tar River, and West Chowan associations contributed through the Cooperative Program during the calendar year of 1974.

W. Perry Crouch, general secretary-treasurer of the Convention, the personnel of other departments in the Convention, the heads of the ten Baptist institutions, the regional consultants, and the above-named associational and Convention officers have given wise counsel and help in all the work of this department. George C. Cowser, Evelyn Norman, Harold M. White and E. C. Wilkie, have been valuable co-laborers in our common task. To these individuals, plus each pastor and many other volunteer helpers, we express our genuine thanks for their cooperation.

2. Department of Pastor Church Relations

ROBERT H. BRUHN, director

Pastors and their families are increasingly contacting the Pastor Church Relations Office, not only seeking to relocate, but to share many pastor-church relationships. Inroads of immorality, political games, non-Baptist pressures, financial hurts, cults of every shade and variety are affecting many of our church committees. The office of Pastor/Church Relations continues to serve our churches and our pastors and staff personnel by sharing basic factual information.

Since we maintain a strict and confidential treatment of all information shared with us, we have experienced a greater interest to use our service, which is strictly informational. Counseling and guidance with pastors and staff members continues to be a procedure of our office.

We are happy that eleven sister state conventions have established a similar office. It is very evident that Pastor Selection Committees often need somewhere to turn as they await the guidance of the Holy Spirit. The basic factual information shared with these committees assist them as they contact men in their fields. Committees give assurance that the services provided are appreciated and are helpfully useful.

3. Department of Public Relations

WILLIAM H. BOATWRIGHT, director

The Department of Public Relations is related directly to the office of the general secretary-treasurer with specific responsibilities for the over-all promotion and publicity of General Board programs. The Department also works with the public relations offices of the convention's ten institutions and agencies.

Specifically, Public Relations serves as the "general editorial office" for the General Board. The Department edits, designs, and prepares all printed materials, including the convention Annual and Baptist Diary. Public Relations also edits and produces Church Leader, a bimonthly newsletter distributed free to some 18,000 church leaders across the state.

Public Relations prepares all news releases for the Biblical Recorder and secular media. The department director, along with the editor of the Biblical Recorder, serves on the convention's publicity committee with the primary responsibility for managing and directing the news room during the annual convention session.

In addition, Public Relations is responsible for the designing and distribution of State Missions Offering Day materials.

Other personnel in the Department include Dan Euliss, director of art services, and Doris Clark, office secretary.

C. DIVISION OF MISSION MINISTRIES

HOWARD J. FORD, director

The Division of Mission Ministries consists of eight departments. Each department director will give a concise report of the work of his department on the following pages.

The Convention provides some additional services in a special mission ministry. A revolving loan fund for mission type churches is provided. At present, the maximum amount that can be loaned is $10,000. Loans are now being made for a maximum of ten years at 6 per cent interest.

The Division participates with churches and associations in a ministry to several Oriental communities, Spanish speaking people, and Indians.

The Division joins Womans Missionary Union and the Brotherhood Department in sponsoring a World Missions Week at the North Carolina Baptist Assembly each year. Also we work with local associations in coordinating World Missions Conferences in same geographic areas in order to save travel costs and make the effort more effective. Working with the SBC Brotherhood Commission, Home Mission, and Foreign Mission boards, we have been able to have eleven (11) World Missions Conferences in North Carolina. The total attendance was 132,092, the second highest total in the Southern Baptist Convention. (Florida was first with 151,315 in total attendance.) Other encouraging results are 309 participating churches with 57 professions of faith and 18 volunteers for mission service. There were 102 foreign missionaries, 90 home missionaries and 88 state missionaries used in the eleven World Missions Conferences.

The Division of Mission Ministries has the responsibility of working closely with Superintendents of Missions and other associational leadership. The Division budget supplements the budgets of 57 associations.

The Division is blessed with committed and capable department directors, and office secretaries who carry a heavy work load. They, along with the department directors, stand ready to serve you in any way possible.

1. Chaplaincy Ministries Department

JOSEPH V. WATTERSON, director

The Chaplaincy Ministries Department continues to be supported cooperatively by the Convention and the Chaplaincy Division of the Home Mission Board on a 67 to 33 per cent ratio. An exception to this is the Institutional Chaplaincy which has from the beginning existed without Home Mission Board support. The Department operates within the Division of Mission Ministries.

Once again, the year has been very rewarding despite budget cut-backs and other results of the recession. Churches and associational leaders seem to have accepted the Department as a component in the overall missions effort in North Carolina.

Activities have included chairing a committee of representatives from all denominations in the state formed by the Department of Correction to aid the Department in establishing a state-paid chaplaincy program in all correctional institutions. The General Assembly did not fund the program this year, but plans and preparations continue, in the hope that our people will urgently encourage legislators from all districts to support it in the brief assembly session in May, 1976.

Commensurate with our original job description, the director has made many visits to military installations and has sponsored several group conferences and many one-to-one conferences with individual chaplains. He has visited and worshipped with many pastors who are chaplains in reserve forces, as well as, many who are on extended active duty on installations. Chaplains continue to receive the Convention liaison quite gratefully. The same applies in principle to chaplains in industry and in hospitals, where visits of interest and fellowship are made as often as possible under budget limitations. Volunteer chaplaincy continues to grow, particularly in hospitals, claiming a large percentage of our chaplaincy listings. Volunteer chaplaincy has been given a new depth as leaders have insisted upon training for volunteers and have promoted a dependable roster system of rotation, with only names of persons who really want to have a part in effective hospital ministry.

By reason of the nature of the Department's functions, the director continues to serve as chairman of the General Board's Committee On Counseling Resources, soon to print a revision of the folder, "Guide to Counseling Ministries." This committee now has funds available to aid ministers and their families in financing growth or remedial counseling so often needed in these days of many tensions.

Following is a statistical review of the work of the part-time Institutional Chaplains. The activities represented are typical of the larger volume of activities of our Baptist full-time chaplains in the correctional system.

2. City and Metropolitan Missions Department

ERNEST C. UPCHURCH, director

The City and Metropolitan Missions Department works with associations, churches, special committees and/or agencies in studying mission opportunities, analyzing trends, developing growth studies, discovering new cooperative adventures and coordinating urban mission interest in these areas.

During the year 1975 several major achievements were made in three phases of the work—

I. ASSOCIATIONAL AND URBAN CHURCH MISSIONS

(Urban Emphases)

A. The Statewide Metropolitan Missions Conference was held at the Temple Church, Durham, March, 1975. Outstanding speakers for the event were Hoyle Allred, Gastonia and David Flaherty, director, Department of Human Resources, State of North Carolina.

B. An Urban Seminar was held July 12 through August 6 in cooperation with Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary and the Home Mission Board. Thomas Bland directed the cooperative event. Thirty-two theological students and the pastors were privileged to attend. Each student prepared a written paper on urban ministries related to the Research Triangle Park area. This was an outstanding classroom and field research ministry.

C. The Shopping Center ministry was continued in Crabtree Valley and North Hills malls with two theological students. Eric Jewett replaced Don Brown who graduated. David Moore serves at Crabtree Valley Mall. New achievements have been made in stabilizing the ministry. New areas of shopping center work are being studied.

D. Pastoral Aid assisted 29 churches with pastoral assistance in the approximate amount of $42,000. The following statistics reveal some accomplishments of the pastoral work: Sermons preached, 2,135; other addresses, 783; visits, 7,951; baptisms, 205; additions by letter, 257; conversions, 194; restorations, 29; church membership, 3,506.

E. Lot Aid assisted 12 churches with lot aid assistance amounting to $26,500.

II. CHRISTIAN SOCIAL MINISTRIES

(Rural and Urban Emphases)

A. Associational Christian Social Ministries—There are nine full-time associational Christian Social Ministries ministers in our state: Dan Valley, Gaston, Mecklenburg, New River, New South River, Pilot Mountain, Raleigh (2), and Yates associations. Two other associations have requested full-time workers. There are seven part-time programs in other associations. The Christian Social Ministries work includes the following:

(1) Church Community Weekday Ministries involve the pre-schooler and continues through the aged. The rising challenge today is not only a ministry to youth but to older people as well.

(2) The Baptist Center Program has a variety of weekday ministries. It usually serves in an area that has no church. However, many Baptist churches could have "modified" Baptist Center programs to serve special groups in their communities.

(3) Youth and Family Services is designed to assist youth and families in trouble. This ministry majors on the prevention, control, and rehabilitation of youth in trouble. Appropriate Christian ministry is made available for the families of youth in trouble.

(4) Literacy work is designed to reach the underachiever in school through tutoring and the adult nonreader in our state. According to the 1970 census report, there are approximately 380,000 illiterate adults (age 25 and up) in our state. A tremendous success was had this summer in the Statesville area with seven tutoring programs reaching approximately 200 students. This ministry was directed by R. C. Johnson, a part-time department staff employee in cooperation with South Yadkin Association and First Church, Statesville.

(5) Migrants travel primarily in the eastern agricultural area of our state harvesting crops and moving on to new areas of work. Approximately 12,000 to 15,000 pass through North Carolina annually. They deserve and need a ministry from Baptist people. Three summer employees ministered to these people during 1975.

(6) Disaster Relief provided emergency relief program in disaster areas. Plans are being developed to make this an enlarged ministry throughout the state.

B. Baptist Centers in Eden and Raleigh have had successful ministries this year. The Eden (Dan Valley) Center had a summer employee, Karen Marcus, a Gardner-Webb College student from Boiling Springs, North Carolina. Miss Marcus assisted Marvin Southard in an enlarged church-community weekday program and a day camp program.

The Raleigh Baptist Center had a good year. Elizabeth Ann Wootton, director at the Center, resigned early in the year for plans of marriage. Volunteers from many of the Raleigh area churches assisted in the work. In August, Nancy Mattox Gray came to direct the work.

C. Youth and Family Services are located in several areas of the State. The following associations have part-time directors: Catawba River, Joe Bill Church; Central, Robert Canipe; Kings Mountain, Fred McGehee; Mt. Zion, Travis Styles; South Yadkin, R. C. Johnston, Sr.; and Flat River, Earl Howard.

III. INTERFAITH WITNESS

(Rural and Urban Emphases)

The Interfaith Witness ministry is shared with sectarian and world religions and internationals in our state. The 1975 March issue of Home Missions gives an excellent account of these different faiths. Interested persons would be informed and challenged to ministry by reading this issue related to information on these faiths.

A significant training conference for Interfaith Witness is planned at Camp Caraway April 10, 1976.

V. CONCLUSIONS

The year 1975 has been a great year for Urban Missions Ministries. Many achievements have been made. One outstanding event was the Tri-State Urban Church Conference held in cooperation with South Carolina and Virginia Baptists, and the Home Mission Board Metropolitan Missions Staff. A total of 90 people, 30 from each state, participated in heart-searching and deep study of urban needs and ministries. Yet, there remains much challenge before us in 1976. For the achievements, we say, "Thanks to the Convention's administration, the associations and the churches, the field staff—full- and part-time, associates, to the office secretary and all of whom have contributed to these accomplishments. To God be the glory."

3. Fruitland Baptist Bible Institute

ALEX BOOTH, director

As a department in the Division of Mission Ministries of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, the Fruitland Baptist Bible Institute provides training for older men who have been called into the gospel ministry and cannot get the full college and seminary education. With a faculty of twelve members and a student body of just over two hundred, the school requires the completion of twenty-four courses in which student must earn ninety-six quarter hours of credit for the diploma. Students who cannot qualify for a diploma may be given a certificate after attending school for the entire curriculum.

Although there is no program of publicity or enlistment, there are usually more applicants than can be accepted for any quarter. Accepting only thirty-five new students each quarter assures small classes for efficient learning.

With the conviction that ministers who understand the convention will be cooperative, the school invites an employee of the Baptist State Convention to lead chapel each week of school. An attempt is made to have representatives from all facets of the work to come and present their own mission during the thirty minute period and remain afterward for personal conferences.

Scholarships and loan funds are available for students with special financial needs. Some churches help students from their membership with financial aid. The George Shinn Foundation for Christian Living, administered by C. L. Jenkins, provides financial help for deserving students in need. Some direct gifts are received; but, by policy, the school makes no fund raising efforts. The best avenue of support for this mission is through the regular Cooperative Program and special State Missions Offerings.

The following summary answers questions often asked about the work at Fruitland:

- 217 Students enrolled for the fall Quarter August 26th.
- 171 are from North Carolina.
- 42 are from South Carolina.
- 4 are from other states. This does not include those who moved to North Carolina to attend school.
- 23 students are under twenty-five years of age. These we accepted only upon referral from a college. All students are encouraged to get a full degree training if possible. Many younger men find they can do well in college after the discipline at Fruitland.
- 113 are between twenty-five and thirty-five years old.
- 58 are between thirty-six and forty-five.
- 20 are between forty-six and fifty-five.
- 6 students are over fifty-five years of age.
- 55 students reside in the dormitory.
- 59 full-time pastors are enrolled.
- 83 veterans are receiving V. A. benefits.
- 130 have completed twelve years of school or more (or an equivalent thereof).
- 2 students are from other denominations.

During the summer, the campus is used for camps and conferences. Last summer there were two weeks for GAs, one week of choir camp, one week for superintendents of missions, and several smaller conferences and day camps.

4. Insurance and Annuity Department

SAM H. O'NEAL, director

Who decides if a pastor and other church staff members will have adequate financial benefits when they retire?

Answer—it's the church. The extent to which a church contributes to the retirement plan for its pastor and staff determines the size of the benefit.

The Annuity Board of the Southern Baptist Convention invests the money received as contributions in the best way possible. This makes the value of each individual's account grow.

But the Annuity Board can only accept the retirement contributions sent in by the church, and administer them.

The Baptist State Convention helps the churches provide a basic retirement program for pastors.

In all, the more than 30 Baptist state conventions affiliated with the SBC spend over $4 million a year from Cooperative Program funds to strengthen the retirement program for pastors. The church contributes $400 a year (10 per cent) for its pastor and ministerial staff in Plan A, the basic retirement program offered through the Annuity Board of the Southern Baptist Convention.

State Conventions put up half this amount from the churches, or up to $200 maximum per year per individual. Contributions to this plan are based on the first $4,000 of a participant's total compensation, including salary and allowances.

Since $4,000 a year will provide only a base for retirement income contributions, state conventions and the Annuity Board have begun urging 10 per cent participation based on the full compensation, and not merely $4,000, to make retirement income adequate.

Contributions above the $4,000 level do not include funds from state conventions.

Funds held in trust by the Annuity Board for pastors and others in religious vocations, including churches and denominational agencies, stand at a record $353,445,743 as of December 31, 1974.

Income from premiums and dues amounted to a record $32.5 million in 1974. Over the same period, the Board disbursed nearly $16 million to around 10,000 annuitants.

The Annuity Board, located in Dallas, Texas, also administers life, health, and disability plans for persons serving churches and agencies. The insurance program is underwritten by Aetna Life Insurance Company.

There are 20,605 churches and associations with 26,349 employees currently participating in the Southern Baptist Retirement Program. In North Carolina 2,127 churches and associations with 2,617 employees participate in this program. During the first eight months of 1975 in North Carolina 110 new members have enrolled in Plan A of the retirement program and 44 in Plan B. In addition 104 staff members have upgraded their retirement program by putting additional funds into Plan B and 12 in Plan C.

The following Baptist agencies participate in the retirement program:

Biblical Recorder, Inc.

North Carolina Baptist Foundation, Inc.

Baptist Children's Homes of N. C., Inc.

North Carolina Homes, Inc.

North Carolina Baptist Hospitals, Inc.

Campbell College

Chowan College

Gardner-Webb College

Meredith College

Wake Forest University

Wingate College

Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary

5. Department of Cooperative Ministries with General Baptists

CORBIN L. COOPER, director

During the past year we have seen increasing needs for Baptists of North Carolina to strengthen their impact in Christian ministry by a united effort to work together. Hopefully, we have grown in our respect for one another and developed a greater appreciation for people in general. The obvious fact that these two state conventions need one another is no longer debated. The only question remaining is how we can best do the work that must be done. We are moving in that direction through various cooperative ministries. The opportunities are unlimited.

We began the past year with a highly successful combined Baptist state convention meeting in Raleigh in November. The positive reports of those who attended were fitting rewards for the many people who worked long hours to bring the occasion to fruition.

Some of the highlights of a busy year filled with excitement are listed below.

The Resignation of Benjamin F. Daniels as director of the Missionary Baptist Fellowship January 3, 1975, was not a pleasant part of our year. However, his nearly nine years of service in that position will continue to be an influence in the lives of people who were involved. This ministry was sponsored by General Baptist churches in Winston-Salem, the Pilot Mountain Association, and the Department of Cooperative Ministries assisted by the Home Mission Board.

A Youth Coordinator, Richard Wright, began serving in 1975 as a part-time worker with the Department of Cooperative Ministries. His primary emphasis will be upon the summer program, interviewing and counseling youth workers and supervisors. He is a graduate of Johnson C. Smith University and currently enrolled in Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary.

The Student Aid Fund increased slightly and a shortage of funds caused a decrease in the number of applicants approved. The Department secured $7,030 in assistance for 19 black Baptist students enrolled in the following schools: Shaw University and Divinity School, Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary, Hood Theological Seminary, Duke University, Campbell College, Virginia Union University, Fruitland Baptist Bible Institute, and Saint Augustine's College. Of the amount reported, Southeastern Seminary provided $2,350 in matching funds. A special emphasis is being placed upon increasing our scholarship assistance at a time when a high rate of unemployment and the rising cost of education are taking heavy tolls among college students.

The Summer Program provided the usual satisfying results in utilizing young people. This year we appointed 22 young people and 5 adults in a variety of ministries. They ministered to an enrollment of 2,895 children and youth. Some new areas were as follows:

A weekday youth ministry with the First Church, Winston-Salem.
Youth ministries with the Eskridge Grove Church, Shelby. (F. R. Giles, pastor.)

Two workers in summer events at the J. J. Johnson Baptist Assembly, Laurinburg.

A summer program with the East Grimes Chapel, High Point. (J. D. Allgood, Jr., pastor.)

The Retirement Plan for General Baptist pastors reached an enrollment of 16 during the year. On January 1, David R. Hedgley of Winston-Salem became the first General Baptist pastor to retire with membership in the Annuity Board. He was also the first pastor to join the plan.

Capital Punishment is a concern of this Department. As this report is being written, there are 85 people awaiting the gas chamber on North Carolina's Death Row. The majority are non-white. In August of this year our department shared in the preparation of more than 5,000 letters and petitions to Baptist churches in both conventions requesting Governor James Holshouser to commute the sentences of all those waiting on death row.

Soul City plans, a religious development at the project, are dependent upon the progress of the city itself. We continue to express an interest in the residents of this community.

Those who serve with the Department in addition to the director are Mary E. Washington, office secretary; C. C. Craig, Raleigh; Leo Williams, Jr., Raleigh; J. Z. Alexander, Raleigh; and Richard Wright, Wake Forest.

6. Town & Country Missions/Seminary Extension Department

ROY J. SMITH, director

The Town & Country Missions/Seminary Extension Department is a mission ministry with numerous objectives and responsibilities:

(1) work with associations and churches in discovering and meeting mission needs; (2) work with the 2,700 small town and rural churches in a program of development; (3) promote the statewide ministries of seminary extension and the Week of Fellowship and Study at Mars Hill College; (4) develop a comprehensive mountain mission ministry; (5) develop and coordinate a statewide ministry of resort missions; and (6) assist churches and associations in determining need and methods of church extension.

The Rural-Urban Department and the Missions Department of the Home Mission Board and the Seminary Extension Division of the Southern Baptist Convention participate in the ministry of this department.

Nita Robertson is office secretary.

SEMINARY EXTENSION

The seminary extension program continues to be an effective tool for pastoral training, lay leadership development, and continuing education for church leaders. The program design for seminary extension is built around a three level curriculum.

1. The Basic Curriculum is an "easy reading" program, using non-technical terminology. Eleven courses are presently available in the basic curriculum.

2. The College Level Curriculum covers courses in the areas of biblical studies, theological studies, historical studies, and practical studies.

3. The Continuing Education Curriculum is developed on a master's degree level with flexibility to meet the needs of alumni capable of functioning on a higher academic level.

Financial assistance in the form of teachers' honoraria and student scholarships is provided where needed.

Twelve new Seminary Extension Centers were organized this past year. More than 1,100 students were enrolled in seminary extension studies in North Carolina during 1975.

PASTORAL AID—LOT AID

Fifty churches and missions in twenty-nine associations received $46,398 in pastoral aid during 1975. Thirteen of these mission pastors are students and four are serving fields of two or more churches.

Six churches in five associations received aid on the purchase of church lots. These mission grants ranged from $1,000 to $1,500.

RESORT MISSIONS

Tourism and outdoor recreation continues to increase in North Carolina. According to the Travel Bureau of the North Carolina Conservation and Development Department, more than 44 million out-of-state tourists visited North Carolina last year. These millions added to the North Carolina residents who increasingly use the recreational facilities of our state, offered a tremendous opportunity for missions and ministry.

Baptist-sponsored ministries were conducted at some 70 resorts from the mountains to the sea. The Home Mission Board appointed summer missionaries who worked in resort ministries at Cherokee, Chimney Rock, Carolina Beach, Wrightsville Beach, Kerr Lake, Surf City, and Boone. Thirty-one students from within the state served as resort ministers.

Three teams of students worked in resort areas. The Home Mission Board sponsored a drama team called "Jonah and the Whale." This team worked out of Boone. The Resort Area Ministry sponsored a team called "Signs" which worked out of Boone. This department cooperated with the Campus Ministry Department in fielding a resort team, "Rhymes With Reasons." In addition to these special summer missionaries, pastors and other church staff, associational missionaries, and lay leaders served in various capacities.

The ministries are varied and flexible; including coffee houses, folk musicals, teen-centers, day-camping, drama, youth groups movies, as well as the more traditional worship services.

This department may be contacted for more detailed information concerning the location and type of ministry.

WEEK OF CHRISTIAN STUDY AND FELLOWSHIP

A capacity enrollment of more than 500 people attended the annual week of Christian Study and Fellowship at Mars Hill College, June 30-July 4, 1975. Worship, Bible study, fellowship, and relaxation are the emphases of the week. Planned activities are provided for each age group.

A highlight of this year's conference was an "old-fashioned" July 4th celebration sponsored by Mars Hill College.

Meals are the only cost to those attending. This Department, Mars Hill College and Mars Hill Baptist Church provide the program and facilities.

MOUNTAIN MINISTRIES

LUTHER OSMENT, area missionary

We are grateful to our God for what He is doing in the mountains of Southwestern North Carolina.

One of the bright spots of our work is Truett Baptist Camp located near Hayesville. In three years time our attendance has doubled. It was thrilling to see scores of our mountain boys and girls yielding heart and life to Jesus Christ through the camping program this summer. The Rev. and Mrs. Kenneth Crawford are doing outstanding work in giving direction to the camp ministry.

Cherokee Child Care Center continues to serve the Indian community in a fine way. A "Mother's Day Out" program has been added to the regular child care program that primarily serves working mothers. Mrs. Calvin Walkinstick and her fine staff are to be commended for their excellent work.

Resort mission activity continues to grow in our area with more and more associations giving sponsorship to this ministry. Summer missionaries and Youth Corps workers added strength to the resort mission work.

In September an Appalachian Awareness Conference was conducted for new pastors and pastors interested in deepening the quality of life for our mountain people. More than forty attended.

It is always a special joy to work along side the fine superintendents of missions in the western part of the state. The various General Board departments have also made valuable contributions in our mountain associations.

JAMES M. LAMBERT, area missionary

Serving in the northwestern part of North Carolina as an area missionary gives one the opportunity of sharing in the ministry to the resort communities that are such a vital part of Watauga and Avery counties as well as the region in general. During the winters, there is the ministry at the various ski slopes and this is different in its method and scope from the summer ministry to the campgrounds and resort attractions that draw people from across the state and nation to enjoy the beauty of these mountains.

Worship and campfire services were held in at least nine campgrounds on a regular basis this past summer. Various ministers, Sunday School classes, and groups of young people served as worship leaders in these experiences. Three Youth Corp workers were assigned to churches in the area, and in addition to their other responsibilities with the churches, they were helped to become involved with their young people in a ministry to a campground nearby. They were able to lead worship and plan recreational activities that included young people from the campground and church. They led campfire services that utilized drama and puppetry as well as music and sharing. In cooperation with the Resort Area Ministry, an interdenominational group, we were able to have an interesting and helpful ministry located at Tweetsie's Country Fair. At the old depot there, selling ice cream was combined with sharing the good news of Jesus Christ through the ministry of two teams of young people. One team, "Signs," was supported through the willingness of the churches of Boone and Banner Elk to operate the concession stand at Horn-in-the-West for one week each, the proceeds of which paid salaries and expenses of the college students who formed this folk-music and puppet team. The other team, Home Mission Board's summer missionaries from Alabama, was a drama-puppet team who performed "Jonah and the Whale" and "Dolly Doolittle." While one team was at the "Depot Dippery," the other team was used at campfire services in campgrounds, at Tweetsie, Land of Oz, Land Harbors, and other nearby resort attractions. These teams were also able to assist the chaplain at Price Park with music and drama for worship there. In addition, they were used by various churches to help in some phase of Vacation Bible Schools, youth retreats, and mission emphases.

We are grateful for your interest and prayer for resort missions and ministry. Since people do seek recreation and relaxation during their times of leisure, it is important that we find ways of ministering to them in the name of Jesus. It is also important to remember that when we are engaged in leisure activities we are often more open to God and to others around us. It is this fact that gives us understanding that a ministry to resort areas is important because others are perhaps better able to hear and listen to God at this time than at other times.

QUENTIN M. PERREAULT, associate

This job responsibility entails close contact and cooperation with all Departments of the Division of Mission Ministries as well as four major areas of concern. These include classes under the seminary extension department, work with summer resort ministries, promote general stewardship and Cooperative Program giving among the local churches, and the development of good public relations between the Convention and the churches.

This area of work covers 17 Associations in which initial contact is made with the superintendents of missions in reference to seminary extension classes along with the offer to help and assistance from the Convention to the associations and churches on any problems they might have.

Also close contact is being kept with students at the Fruitland Baptist Bible Institute in order that they might continue their theological studies if they so desire through seminary extension or in our Baptist colleges or seminaries.

The summer "parking lot ministry" continues in Charlotte in which both youth and adults have made commitments to the Christian faith.

7. Deaf Ministries Department

JERRY F. POTTER, director

The primary purpose of the Department is to assist the local churches in ministering to the deaf people of the state. This assistance takes many forms: teaching sign language to hearing members who can then teach the Sunday School class of deaf people and interpret the worship services, as well as provide liaison between the church and the deaf; providing guidance to these teachers and interpreters concerning specific problems; interpreting special meetings (where the limited signing skills of the interpreter may not be sufficient); reverse interpreting (interpreting into oral language what is being signed by a deaf member or a visiting deaf evangelist); ministering during bereavement; conducting weddings or assisting the pastor in doing so.

There are forty-eight Baptist churches presently with some ministry to the deaf. Some of these may have only one couple in attendance and the ministry may not include the full church program but the wonderful thing is that people are willing to learn another language to minister to such a few persons. Most of the churches have classes averaging fifteen to thirty deaf members.

There are several WMU circles composed of deaf women. We are not aware of any brotherhood groups for deaf men. Three deaf men serve as deacons in their churches.

When the first missionary to the deaf with the Baptist State Convention of N. C. was employed there was only one deaf group meeting at the same time as the hearing church. (This first missionary, Edsel Jones, stayed with the convention only one year—from mid-1951 to mid-1952.) All other deaf groups met in the afternoon with no connection with the hearing church. They felt they were just using the facilities and would occasionally contribute money to the church in gratitude. When members of the hearing church learned sign language the deaf groups were carefully and slowly drawn into the normal pattern of church life. Today, every group in Baptist churches in the state meets at the same time as the hearing church (except one new group) and the deaf people feel they are part of that church.

My work with the deaf began in May 1952 when Edsel Jones left. In 1961 Neal and Joan Peyton moved to North Carolina where Neal enrolled in Southeastern Seminary. While attending the seminary, Neal worked as student associate in the ministry to the deaf. Upon graduation he became associate in the Department.

Our television ministry to the deaf began February 9, 1958 on WNCT-TV in Greenville. It was called CHAPEL FOR THE DEAF. In February 1961 we started a program on WRAL-TV in cooperation with the Department of Communications called LAMP UNTO MY FEET at first, and when it was discovered that we were in conflict with a network program already using that name, we changed it to LIGHT UNTO MY PATH. For a short time we were taping on both stations but WNCT agreed to accept the tapes we were making at WRAL and we ceased taping operations at Greenville. The program was accepted by a number of other stations and currently we are on approximately twenty stations in eight states each week.

Each year this department conducts a conference for teachers and interpreters for the deaf at Camp Caraway. Workshops on sign language, teaching methods, Bible study, and problems related to the deaf ministry are conducted. A religious retreat for deaf young people is also held at Mundo Vista each summer.

Educating the hearing public concerning the peculiar aspects of deafness is of prime importance. Very few people understand the psychological, emotional, and social impact deafness inflicts upon those who live in the world of silence. World Missions Conferences, associational meetings, WMU and Brotherhood meetings have provided many opportunities to explain deafness to the hearing people of North Carolina.

Neal Peyton and I both carry on an itinerant ministry holding services with the deaf as often as possible over the entire state. Bible study classes are also held weekly in several areas. We also conduct weekend revivals with the deaf.

Since we are called upon quite often to perform the functions of a pastor we feel there is an advantage in living in two different sections of the state. Neal is more accessible to the deaf in the eastern part of North Carolina by living in Wake Forest and I am more accessible to the deaf living in the western section.

Our plans for the future will be to continue to try new methods and approaches for meeting the needs of the 10,000 people in North Carolina who are isolated from our world of sound.

A number of churches have begun ministries to the deaf during this year. Some of these may minister to only a few deaf, but these few would have no ministry if Baptists did not care. All told there are almost fifty Baptist churches with some ministry to the deaf.

Our Teacher and Interpreter Conference for workers with the deaf was led this year by four capable deaf men. Everyone who attended was inspired by the leadership qualities and Christian maturity of these deaf leaders.

The retreat for deaf young people at Camp Mundo Vista was the largest retreat with nearly forty young people taking part. Nine deaf young people accepted Christ as Saviour. One adult deaf counsellor also accepted Christ.

This year marks the beginning of a special emphasis to get deaf Christians to witness to other deaf people. Along with this emphasis will be a strong appeal for additional Bible study on the part of the deaf.

With the prayers and support of God's people in North Carolina we can see a revival begin among the deaf of this state that can spread to other states. We dare to believe that this can happen! Will you join us in prayer that God will reap a harvest of souls in the coming year from among the deaf of our state?

8. Fletcher Baptist Communications Center

JIMMY MORRISS, director

Known as the Department of Communications prior to the completion of the new library and studio facilities, the Department has been named in honor of A. J. Fletcher, prominent Baptist layman of Raleigh, who provided a challenge gift of $50,000 for the equipping of the new studio facilities for full radio and cablevision production. The Center has been in production since January, 1975, developing programs for cable TV stations, associational and church use and for agencies and institutions of the state and Southern Baptist Conventions.

The Center promotes the total Baptist program through the divisions of the General Board, its agencies and institutions, through assistance to the departments of the General Board, to individual churches and associations and through radio and television production.

1. AUDIO VISUAL AIDS

A. Film Library

During the past year, the Center booked 11,931 free rental films and filmstrips, and turned down 4,881 because films were already booked for desired dates. The Center encourages planning for a basic film library of audio-visuals at both associational and church levels, with supplementary titles provided by the Center library. At present, this library has over 2,500 different filmstrip titles and more than 100 motion picture titles. The Center provides a complete catalogue to churches which contains all film and filmstrip titles, audio tapes, and video cassettes.

B. Film Production

Among the films produced this year was a 62 frame state missions filmstrip, BECAUSE WE CARE, depicting the various areas of mission ministries supported by North Carolina Baptists. Footage for a planned 16mm film, CAMPING AT CARAWAY, will be added to the Center library for next year.

C. Communications and Sight and Sound Conferences

More than 30 sight and sound conferences were held this year to assist churches in improving sound systems, lighting and in many cases, to provide special sound systems for the deaf. Sight and sound conferences were held in the following associations: Buncombe, Mecklenburg, Kings Mountain, Yates, Johnson, New South River, Tar River, Macon, Raleigh, Flat River, Haywood, Pilot Mountain, Union, Surry, and at Campbell and Gardner-Webb Colleges and Fruitland Institute.

D. Audio Aids

As the tape ministry becomes an integral part of the local church's outreach to the homebound, an increasing number of messages are reproduced by the Center. More than 4,000 messages were reproduced this year with messages from the Conference on Evangelism, annual Baptist State Convention sessions, Chaplain's Associates Seminar, annual Pastors' Conference.

E. Film Processing, Enlarging, and Slide Duplication

Equipment added to equip the dark room and the addition of part-time assistance for professional picture taking and developing, has enabled the Center to supply new personnel pictures and to cover numerous events for publicity and promotion. This facility has proven to be a substantial saving over work "farmed-out" in the past.

II. TELEVISION AND RADIO

The Center continues to work closely with the radio and television stations in North Carolina, providing Baptist programming on approximately 100 radio stations and on 6 commercial television stations in the state. The Center continues to produce the network series, LIGHT UNTO MY PATH, a pioneer mission work of the Convention, which is produced in sign language and is designed to meet the needs of the deaf, the aging and the unchurched (see Deaf Ministries report). This program is presented over a state wide network of stations including WRAL-TV, Raleigh; WLOS-TV, Asheville; WFMY-TV, Greensboro; WBT-TV, Charlotte; and WNCT-TV, Greenville. Also providing coverage for North Carolina are WIS-TV, Columbia, S. C. and WTVN-TV, Chattanooga, Tennessee. The series is carried on 15 other stations in 9 states, sponsored by a church or convention in that state.

Also produced on a sustained basis for commercial television is LISTEN, AMERICA!, a 30-minute color telecast featuring Christian young people giving testimony to their faith through contemporary music and word. This program receives the active backing of Campbell College through its music department and administration in supplying an ensemble, the Son-Light Singers, for regular appearance on the program. This mission team of students is available to churches and associations for youth meetings.

Other productions for commercial television include BIBLE STORY TIME, weekly, pre-school children; LIGHT FOR LIVING, daily devotional; CHURCH OF OUR FATHERS, weekly, church news and guests.

Programs produced for cablevision in the facilities of the Center include GUIDE FOR LIVING, weekly, color Bible teaching series featuring John Bunn as teacher; INTERNATIONAL BIBLE LESSON, weekly featuring Frances Cooke as teacher; NORTH CAROLINA RELIGIOUS NEWS SCOPE, weekly religious news program; and a number of other missionary and resort team programs to be released under the generic title, OPEN HOUSE. A 30-minute cassette tape, GATEWAY TO MINISTRY, was produced for the six Southern Baptist seminaries for use in promotion and for the annual report to the Southern Baptist Convention meeting in Miami.

Radio productions include: NORTH CAROLINA RELIGIOUS NEWS SCOPE, LISTEN, AMERICA!, BIBLE STORY TIME, LIGHT FOR LIVING, INTERNATIONAL BIBLE LESSON and numerous "spots" are produced each year for promotion by associations and area churches.

III. OTHER AREAS

The Center helps support two summer workers at the assemblies for audio-visual presentations and for assistance with all enforced sound and lighting needs. Equipment for Fruitland, Caswell, Caraway and Mundo Vista, as well as a number of resort ministries are provided through the Center. The Center also provides audio-visual equipment for each staff member of the General Board for field use.

D. DIVISION OF EVANGELISM

WILLIAM C. LAMB, director

In 1974 there was a slight increase in the total number of baptisms—29,587. During 1971-74 the Baptist State Convention had the largest four year total number of baptisms—120,936—reported by the churches for any four year period since 1960-63—121,049—only a difference of 113 baptisms. William C. Lamb has now served ten years with the Division of Evangelism as of September 15, 1975. He has served as the director since January 1, 1970. A new associate director has recently been elected — Richard W.

Everett, with responsibilities in the areas of renewal evangelism, youth evangelism, leadership training with ethnic groups in evangelism, and other phases of evangelistic work in associations and churches.

29TH STATEWIDE EVANGELISM CONFERENCE

The theme of the 29th Statewide Evangelism Conference at War Memorial Auditorium, Greensboro (February 3 through February 5, 1975) was: "Be Reconciled to God and Man." About 2,200 pastors and lay persons attended the conference. The Monday afternoon session only was held at the First Church, Greensboro, and there were eight practical conferences on various phases of evangelistic work. Forrest C. Feezor of Shelby served as honorary chairman.

Some of the speakers were Jaroy Weber, pastor, First Church, Lubbock, Texas, and president of the Southern Baptist Convention; John W. Williams, pastor, St. Stephen Church, Kansas City, Missouri; Herschel H. Hobbs, the Baptist Hour Preacher and pastor emeritus, First Church, Oklahoma City; Carl E. Bates, pastor, First Church, Charlotte; Owen Cooper, layman, Yazoo City, Mississippi; Franklin Paschall, pastor, First Church, Nashville, Tennessee; Mark Corts, pastor, Calvary Church, Winston-Salem; Alton McEachern, pastor, First Church, Greensboro; Forrest Watkins, director, Associational and Metropolitan Evangelism Ministries, Home Mission Board, Atlanta, Georgia; John E. Weems, president, Meredith College, Raleigh. Randall Veazey of Samford University, Birmingham, Alabama was guest soloist.

LAY EVANGELISM SCHOOLS

There continues to be a genuine interest in Lay Evangelism Schools across our state. Since November 1, 1971 over 13,400 youth, adults, and pastors have participated in Lay Evangelism Schools, Monday through Thursday, from 1,055 churches in 59 associations. During the witnessing visits in the homes on the 59 Thursday evenings, there were 814 professions of faith reported in these homes. Most of these made a public profession of faith the next Sunday and joined Baptist churches. The purpose is to train youth and adults to share a more effective witness to unsaved persons. It is also a continuing ministry of evangelism with additional church members invited to participate in witnessing visitation every three months. Several additional associations have already planned a one week Lay Evangelism School for 1976.

5TH STATEWIDE YOUTH EVANGELISM NIGHT

Over 11,000 youth, pastors, and adult leaders attended the 5th Statewide Youth Evangelism Night on August 15, 1975 at the Greensboro Coliseum. William Self, pastor, Wieuca Road Church, Atlanta, Georgia was guest preacher, and Bill and Linda Cates of Nashville, Tennessee were the guest musicians. A summer youth musical group "Rhymes With Reasons"—also shared on the program, along with other youth. Many youth made various decisions for Christ during this service. Christian youth are challenged to share a genuine witness for Jesus Christ in their church communities across our state. In the past five years, during the five nights of the Statewide Youth Evangelism Night, almost 70,000 youth, adult leaders, and pastors have attended.

YOUTH MINISTRIES WEEK

Over 520 youth, adults, and pastors participated in the Youth Ministries Week during June 9-13, 1975 at the North Carolina Baptist Assembly with the emphasis on evangelism, vocational guidance, and recreation.

RENEWAL EVANGELISM

The Division of Evangelism is cooperating with the Brotherhood Department in Lay Renewal Weekends and Renewal Evangelism. The total emphasis is on "Journey into Lifestyle Evangelism and Ministry." Twenty pastors and superintendents of missions have already been trained to serve as Associate/Consultants in Renewal to pastors and church leaders in local churches upon their request. The new associate director will be able to expand this area of work in future months across our state.

PROCLAMATION '76 REVIVALS

All churches have received Proclamation '76 Planning Calendar Booklets for 1975-76 and other revival materials. Each association is encouraged to plan a simultaneous revival among the churches during the spring (March or April) of 1976. If an association does not plan to have a simultaneous revival, every Baptist church in North Carolina is urged to plan a dynamic revival effort in the spring of 1976.

CRUSADES AND CLINICS

Good reports have been received this year with regard to associational evangelism clinics, city-wide crusades, and local church revival meetings which have been held in cities and communities across our state.

TRACT MINISTRY

Upon the request of hundreds of churches across the state, our office secretary, Hope Christian, continues to mail out over 300,000 various free evangelistic tracts each year from the Division of Evangelism office.

The 30th Statewide Evangelism Conference will be held at the Civic Center Auditorium, Asheville, during February 2-4, 1976.

E. DIVISION OF CHURCH PROGRAMS

NATHAN C. BROOKS, JR., director

"Variety" is the word to characterize what has taken place in the division during the past year. Programs for the aging, for youth, for exceptional persons, and for leadership have met with a good response.

The Sunday School Department has projected a January Bible Study Preparation day for pastors and teachers at six Baptist colleges and Southeastern Seminary on Friday, November 21. Outstanding Bible teachers will lead in an examination of Hosea at each location.

Deacons have been reached in large numbers in a state conference for pastors and deacons, in Durham, as well as in numerous associational and local training efforts and in the Annual Retreat at Camp Caraway.

Progress in the erection of the Caraway Conference Center at Camp Caraway, gives promise of a major thrust in leadership training before the end of 1976.

A new spirit of optimism, aggressiveness, and faith in the leadership of the Holy Spirit marks the outlook in our churches.

1. Youth Ministry Service

DAVIS BOWEN, director

The Youth Ministry Service is designed to assist churches in organizing, planning, and promoting youth activities. It strives to help churches coordinate youth involvement and to guide youth and youth leadership into a better understanding of Christian relationship and responsibilities.

It is hoped that the Baptist churches will realize the need to coordinate the youth organizations and youth involvement in their overall programs. This means that each organization can supplement and add to the programs of the other organizations. Workers in Sunday School, Church Ministries and Training programs, Acteens, Pioneers, and youth choirs need to work together in order to meet the needs of youth.

The Youth Advisory Committee, composed of persons responsible for the youth division in each department, works to plan, coordinate, and sponsor various youth activities. The members of this committee are: Davis Bowen, director, Youth Ministry Service, chairman; Nathan C. Brooks, Jr., director, Church Programs Division, adviser; Jolene Ivey, Acteen Director, Woman's Missionary Union; Kay Huggins, associate, Department of Campus Ministry; Charles Gatwood, associate, Department of Church Music; Rick Traylor, director, Baptist Youth Corps, Church Ministries and Training Department; David Langford, Pioneer Director, Brotherhood Department; Roy Smith, director, Town and Country Missions/Seminary Extension; and Corbin Cooper, director, Cooperative Ministries with General Baptists.

The Youth Ministry Service is interested in helping churches develop a ministry with youth. At the request of churches, Convention workers are available to help in the planning and the execution of youth programs and activities. It is suggested that a representative group of youth in the church be chosen to plan, correlate, promote, and evaluate the activities of the members of this age group. Involving youth is the best way to: (1) become aware of their needs and interests; (2) train them to be leaders; and, (3) lead them to accept responsibility.

The purpose of Youth Ministry Service is to provide opportunities for youths to respond to Jesus Christ and to commit their lives to Him as Lord and Savior. This provides a foundation for personal spiritual growth, and involvement in witnessing to other youth.

Special emphases of the Youth Ministry Service include: assisting churches in organizing youth councils; planning retreats, dramas, fellowships and banquets; and interpreting Bible study and outreach through mission action projects and activities.

Conferences and programs planned by the Youth Ministry Service in 1975 include:

1. High School Seniors' Retreat, Camp Caraway, January 24-26. This retreat is designed to help seniors deal with changing family relationships, financial responsibilities, life on the college campus, BSU, their personal commitment to Jesus Christ, and church involvement after leaving home. This retreat is co-sponsored by the Youth Ministry Service and the Department of Campus Ministry.

2. Youth Ministry Workshop, Camp Caraway, May 8-10. This workshop is for all adults who work with youth. Emphases relate to counseling with youth, understanding youth, family relationships, motivating youth, ministering with youth, and involving youth.

3. Orientation Week, May 27-June 3, Gardner-Webb College, Boiling Springs, N. C. This week is set aside each year as a training program for all college students involved in summer missions and ministry opportunities sponsored by the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina.

4. Youth Ministry Week, June 9-13, N. C. Baptist Assembly. This week is co-sponsored by the Youth Ministry Service and the Division of Evangelism. The major emphases during the week relate to youth evangelism, vocational guidance, and church recreation.

5. Three Youth Conferences, July 14-18, July 28-August 2, August 4-8, N. C. Baptist Assembly. These weeks are designed to involve youth with Bible study, worship, Christian fellowship, church recreation, and personal spiritual growth.

6. Youth Evangelism Night, August 15, Greensboro Coliseum. The Youth Ministry Service cooperates with the Division of Evangelism in the planning for this event. It is designed for Christian fellowship and music, testimonies, and worship. The commitment service is a very meaningful aspect of this program.

7. Youth Council Retreat, November 7-8, Camp Caraway. This retreat is for Youth Councils and adult sponsors. Time is spent looking at the purpose, role, and function of the Youth Council.

2. Sunday School Department

BURREL F. LUCAS, director

The Sunday School Department personnel made concerted efforts during the past year to provide personal attention for Sunday School meetings in each association. The department director and the age group consultants made efforts to meet and plan with every superintendent of missions in personal conferences to assist with the planning for needs in the associations. Myra Motley Prince provided counsel in Regions 1 and 2; Hilda Mayo met with associations in Regions 3 and 4; Burrel F. Lucas provided counsel for Regions 5 and 7; C. Burt Potter, Jr. met with the missionaries in Regions 6 and 8; and Harry Clarke conferred with associational leadership in Regions 9 and 10. The department leadership sought to provide guidance for the new administration books released from the Sunday School Board. New Books Schools were held across the state with Sunday School Department leadership. The schools that were held were open to regional Sunday School workers in adjoining associations.

Bible Study was promoted through six channels of the local church: (1) Sunday School; (2) Bible Study Fellowships; (3) Vacation Bible Schools; (4) Mission Vacation Bible Schools; (5) Weekday Bible Study; and (6) Bible Conferences.

Special Sunday School emphases for 1974-75 included Read-the-Bible-Through and ReachOut '74. The ReachOut emphases included the special High Attendance Sunday in which a record 471,353 Sunday School attendance was recorded.

The age groups receiving special recognition and resource assistance for 1975-76 include the preschool and young adult areas.

Office secretaries for the Sunday School Department are Barbara Chason and Irene Joyner.

3. Department of Church Ministries and Training

K. MAURICE COOPER, director

The Department has experienced a busy and rewarding year.

The staff consist of W. Douglas Cole, associate; Rick Traylor, associate; Doris Morgan, associate; Betty Boggs, secretary, and Wyanne Hall, secretary.

Activities during 1975 included many specific projects related to the department's assignment to assist churches in Church Administration, Family Ministry, Church Training, and other special areas. Following is a resume of these activities.

ASSOCIATIONAL TRAINING

Church Training workshops or conferences were held in twelve associations and several local churches during the year. The staff and special consultants provided training experiences in the use of latest methods and curriculum to age-group workers and others.

A special feature in associational work has been conferences for pastors, introducing them to the ABC's of Church Administration. These conferences are designed to provide practical training in the basic areas of administration for a pastor who is his church's only full-time minister. Three special conferences in the ABC's of Church Administration were conducted in different areas of the state.

AREA WIDE CHURCH TRAINING LEADERSHIP CONFERENCES

On March 17-21, 1975 the department sponsored two Area Wide Church Training Conferences for workers with children. One conference was at the Chantilly Church, Charlotte and the other conference at Snyder Memorial Church in Fayetteville.

Ethel McIndoo, Phil Bennett and Dan Fowler, consultants in Children's Work, Church Training Department, Baptist Sunday School Board provided leadership for these conferences.

On September 15-19, two Area Wide Youth/Adult Workshops were co-sponsored by Church Ministries and Training Department, and the Church Training Department of the Baptist Sunday School Board.

Conferences were held in Cerro Gordo and Asheboro.

Larry Yarborough and Tommy Dixon, consultants, Church Training Department, Baptist Sunday School Board were conference leaders for the meeting.

SPECIAL CONSULTANTS' WORKSHOP IN APRIL

Thirty-two persons were trained to assist the department in special leadership training assignments. In 1975 consultants were trained for assistance in associational Church Training work, deacon training, and family ministries. It would be impossible for the department staff to meet all the requests from the field without the help of these able consultants.

PASTORAL LEADERSHIP SEMINARS AND WORKSHOPS

On April 28-30 this department and the Division of Mission Ministries sponsored a special leadership seminar for superintendents of missions at Camp Caraway. Twenty-eight people registered for the conference. Robert Dale and Ernest Mosley were principal leaders for the seminar. Doug Cole, associate in the Department assisted in the area of staff relations.

The Department of Church Ministries and Training assist in the pastoral leadership seminars and workshops by enlisting associations to schedule one of these conferences and by promoting these meetings through direct mailings and promotion in the Church Leader.

DEACON TRAINING

The annual Chairmen of Deacons-Pastors Conference was held at Greystone Church, Durham, September 5-6. This conference was co-sponsored with the Church Administration Department, Baptist Sunday School Board. There were six leadership conferences and a conference for the wives of deacons and pastors. Principal speaker was Morgan Brian, Jr., attorney, New Orleans, Louisiana. Conference leaders include, Mrs. W. Perry Crouch, Raleigh, Nathan Brooks, Baptist State Convention, Harold McDonald, First Church, Albemarle, Charles Treadway, John Ishee, Francis Martin, and Ernest Mosley of the Church Administration Department, Baptist Sunday School Board. Approximately 625 persons were present with 46 associations and 131 churches represented.

Representatives from the Department have assisted in numerous associational and local Schools for Deacons. The department works jointly with Nathan C. Brooks, Jr. in the promotion of deacon training. In October of each year a deacon's retreat is held at Camp Caraway.

SENIOR ADULT WORK

The third Senior Adult Conference was held at N. C. Baptist Assembly, May 19-22. Approximately 160 senior adults and leaders were in attendance. Program leaders included Agnes Pylant, former director of the Department of Recreation, Baptist Sunday School Board; John Hendrix, consultant in Adult Work, Baptist Sunday School Board; John Tresch Jr., First Church, Cherryville, Nathan Brooks, Baptist State Convention, and Dr. and Mrs. Forrest Feezor of Shelby. (Feezor was formerly Executive Secretary Treasurer of Texas State Baptist Convention.) Gerald Campbell of East Belmont Church and Mrs. Henry Morgan of Salem Church, Apex, provided excellent leadership with the music for the conference.

A Senior Adult Retreat was held at Camp Caraway, October 23-25. Nolan Howington, Baptist Sunday School Board, George Williamson, Florida Street Church, Greensboro, Mrs. W. T. Mills, Temple Church, Raleigh and Art Fore of Hendersonville were leaders. Crafts and handwork were led by Marshall Price, First Church, Winston-Salem.

The Department continues to undergird the work in local churches through clubs for senior adults. A booklet has been compiled by the Department leaders that provides program suggestions for each month of the year as well as a list of suggested crafts and activities for ministry with this age group. This booklet is provided to club leaders upon request from the Church Ministries and Training Department.

CHILDREN'S BIBLE DRILL

The drill is a Bible verse memorization challenge for boys and girls in the 4th to 6th grades. Three state drills were held this year. One each at Fruitland Baptist Conference Center, First Church, Asheboro, and during the assembly week at N. C. Baptist Assembly in June. Two hundred twenty-nine children participated in the state tournaments with thirty-four three year winners from twenty-seven associations.

The drill will continue to be called Children's Bible Drill and this will link North Carolina with other state conventions by using the same verses and terminology. Pamphlets explaining the drill and listing verses for use in 1976 are available upon request.

WORK WITH EXCEPTIONAL PERSONS

The Happiness Retreat at N. C. Baptist Assembly, August 14-16, was the highlight activity during the year. This was the second time N. C. Baptists have sponsored a state-wide retreat for retardates themselves. Ages of participants ranged from seven to 46. There was a well-rounded program of religious instruction, music, recreation, crafts, and fun time provided by a trained faculty. Another Happiness Retreat is planned for the same place next year and the date is August 12-14, 1976.

A number of churches have begun a ministry during the past year. Others are exploring the need in their community.

Area wide conferences for workers with the retarded were held in Charlotte, March 17 and 18 and in Fayetteville, March 20 and 21. Shirley Robertson, consultant for work with Exceptional Persons, Baptist General Association of Virginia, was conference leader for these workshops. Attendance was very good, and interest seems to be high in this area of the work.

ASSEMBLY WEEK AT N. C. BAPTIST ASSEMBLY, JUNE 23-27

The Church Ministries and Training Week at N. C. Baptist Assembly emphasized leadership training by age-group sections, a special workshop for pastors and educational directors, and a family enrichment seminar. Attendance was 743, and participation by adult leadership was up from the past several years. Various staff members were involved to some degree in faculty enlistment and/or programs for the several youth conferences held at the assembly during the summer.

FESTIVALS OF CREATIVE ARTS

Three state festivals were conducted in 1975: First Church, Hickory; First Church, Morehead City; and a festival in connection with the Senior Adult Retreat at Camp Caraway in October. The department continues to lend assistance and encourage promotion of local festivals.

MULTI-VENTION

An innovation in leadership training, the Multi-Vention, held September 18-20, featured five seminars designed to assist church leaders in the areas of leadership enrichment and training. The following seminars were: Fundamentals of Long Range Planning, Innovations in Christian Teaching, Church Secretary—Personal Enrichment, Experiential Education: X-Ed, and a conference on Pastoral Leadership. Tom Corts, president, Wingate College, brought motivational messages at each session. Personnel from the Church Administration Department, the Church Training Department, Baptist Sunday School Board, and Mary Cosby, Washington, D. C., assisted as conference leaders. Another Multi-Vention is planned for the fall of 1976.

FAMILY LIFE MINISTRIES

Conferences for associations and churches were conducted by the Department of Church Ministries and Training. Family life must be the place where the truth the church teaches is best lived. Thus, the church succeeds when it helps its members find their place in the family of God, the church.

This Department seeks to nurture the interrelationship between the church and the family; helping the church to know and do the things that help its members have a wholesome family life, and helping the family to see the church as an opportunity for them to participate in larger endeavors in the kingdom of God.

A State Wide Family Life Conference is scheduled for May 1976, Greensboro.

MARRIAGE ENRICHMENT RETREAT

The Department sponsored two marriage enrichment retreats, February 14-16 in Fayetteville and October 31-November 2, in Winston-Salem. The purpose of the retreats was to strengthen marriage relationships by renewing and enriching the love husbands and wives have for each other. Several couples participated in each conference.

There will be two marriage enrichment retreats in 1976—one February 13-15 and the other October 29-31.

BAPTIST YOUTH CORPS

During the summer of 1975, there were eighty-eight (88) students from seven Baptist colleges serving churches and associations across North Carolina. The purpose of this ten-week summer program is: the development of young people for a church related vocation or lay leadership role in our churches, the assisting of the local church in strengthening its ministries, and the promotion of our seven Baptist colleges. The summer activities were climaxed when several hundred young people from the participating churches attended one of two youth conferences at the North Carolina Baptist Assembly.

Church Applications: Churches should request application forms from the Church Ministries and Training Department. As quickly as the church decides to secure a Youth Corps worker, the application forms should be returned to the Youth Corps Director, Church Ministries and Training Department.

Student Applications: Students should request application forms from their campus representative (Chaplain or other designated person) or the Church Ministries and Training Department.

4. Department of Campus Ministry

JAMES Y. GREENE, director

I. MINISTRY ON CAMPUS

The most significant growth of students as Christian persons takes place as they worship, study, fellowship, and share with others within BSU in their campus community. "Journey Inward-Journey Outward" is our prayer as the students work closely with campus ministers across the state to deepen their spiritual lives, grow in understanding and find ways of reaching out to witness and share with others on campus and in the larger community. Weekly programs, use of centers in strategic places, and emphases upon retreats are valuable means of ministry.

In addition to serving as BSU advisers, Baptist campus ministers are charged with the task of finding significant and creative avenues of ministry to faculty, administrative personnel, and staff in the college communities.

II. MINISTRY ON STATE LEVEL

1. Chaplains' Seminar: Held January 5-10, 1975, at In-The-Oaks Conference Center, Black Mountain. Seventeen chaplains and campus ministry personnel participated in worship, discussion, lectures, and program planning.

2. High School Seniors' Retreat: Held (in cooperation with Youth Ministries) January 24-26, 1975, at Camp Caraway with 56 high school seniors from 18 churches. This retreat, the fourth held on a state-wide basis, was slanted toward potential college students. Program personnel included, Al Burris, academic dean, Meredith College; Charles Petty, executive secretary, Council on Christian Life and Public Affairs; Jennifer Gibson; Randy Gibson and Richard Tumbleston, Southeastern Seminary students.

3. BSU Basketball Tournament: Teams from 14 schools participated in the Annual BSU Basketball Tournament. Two regional tournaments were held, one at Mars Hill College and one at Campbell College, March 21-22, 1975. The winning male and female teams from each region played for the championship at Ridgecrest during Spring Conference. Campbell college won the girls' tournament by defeating Appalachian, while the Mars Hill boys' team defeated Campbell for the boys' championship trophy.

4. Spring Conference: Held at Ridgecrest Conference Center, April 11-13, 1975, with more than 400 students and staff in attendance. The theme, "Communication: Bridging the Gap," was developed by Charles Wilson, chaplain, North Carolina Baptist Hospital School of Pastoral Care. Gene Cotton, Christian folk singer, led the music during the weekend. Ray Benfield outlined the process involved in choosing a new general secretary-treasurer for the Baptist State Convention. A new slate of state BSU officers were elected: Glenn Hewitt, president; Kathey Winfrey, vice president; and B. J. Elkins, secretary. Students elected to the minority caucus of the executive committee were: Erma Washington, Bill Roseman, and Yvette Whitney.

Climax of the weekend was a Sunday morning service of recognition of the more than 100 students serving in summer missions and of the outgoing state BSU president, Tom Mangum.

5. Summer Service Programs: Students raised a summer missions budget of $7,200 which included support for four intern positions, resort ministry team, four Home Mission Board positions, and two Foreign Mission Board positions.

A. Apostoloi: a team of four students spent the summer in the Yates Association. The team which specialized in youth ministry worked under the supervision of Hubert Mumford, superintendent of missions.

B. Interns: Student interns worked in Statesville (counselor in the juvenile courts and teacher in reading center); Elizabeth City (migrant ministry); Charlotte (inner-city work); and Mt. Zion Association (Backyard Bible studies and youth programs).

C. Local Church Ministry: Under the leadership of Youth Ministries, the department aided in putting twenty-two students in touch with churches throughout the state which were able to provide the entire amount of their salary for a ten-week period. The program, similar to that of the Youth Corps, assisted students from non-Baptist colleges to find places of service in churches during the summer.

D. Resort Ministry Team: "Rhymes With Reasons '75," a student folk team, spent the summer sharing the Christian faith through music. The team sang in resort areas, campgrounds, parking lots of shopping centers, picnic grounds and churches. Five students shared in this ministry both with their music and personally with a Christian witness.

E. Home Mission Board: Four North Carolina students worked with the Home Mission Board in BSU sponsored projects such as: mountain ministry in Eastern Tennessee, resort and day camp ministry in a Georgia state park, work with Bible schools and general mission work in Michigan and inner-city ministry in Buffalo, New York.

F. Foreign Mission Board: A student worked in a mission office in Ecuador, led in projects for MK's and taught English Bible courses to Spanish speaking students. Another served as a preacher in camps throughout Trinidad.

6. State Officers' Workshop: Met at Camp Caraway August 29-31, with approximately 90 students, chaplains, and state-department staff in attendance. During the weekend, the seven student committees completed plans for the various state BSU programs for the current school year.

7. Church Workers with College Students Conference: Representatives from seven Greensboro area churches participated in a workshop for "Church Workers with College Students." The September 5-6 Workshop was sponsored by the Department of Campus Ministry in cooperation with National Student Ministries. Geneva Metzger, campus minister, UNC-G, was primarily responsible for the conference which helped church workers gain an understanding of today's college students and explore ways of working with this age group in the church. Ed Coates, Art Herron, Bud Rallings, Doyle Baird, and Kay Huggins served as resource persons for the workshop.

8. Fall Convention: Ridgecrest Conference Center was the location for the 1975 Fall Convention, October 3-5. Approximately 400 students and resource personnel met together to explore the theme, "1976—Fed Up?" Dr. Hal Warehime developed the theme and George Gagliardi led the music for the weekend. Other highlights included a drama by the Apostoloi team, a missions emphasis, hunger emphasis and "Rhymes With Reasons" concert. Elections were held to choose a new member for the Christian Life Commission.

9. International Student Conference: The annual International Student Conference at Thanksgiving was held November 27-30, 1975, at Chowan College. Stan Nelson of the Foreign Mission Board served as major resource person for the 65 Internationals and 20 American students. In addition to the presentations and discussions, the conference participants shared in an International Talent Parade and spent one day visiting historic Williamsburg, Va.

10. Student Publications: Local BSU's were encouraged to prepare local newsletters for better communication in working with students as they form outreach teams for sharing with churches near the campuses.

V. CONCERNS

There is limited Christian witness and almost no Baptist work on black campuses across the state.

Community college personnel and students have few avenues for participation in ministry specifically designed with their needs in focus.

The growing group of married students in North Carolina schools have acute and long-range needs which are not being adequately met.

Many students are in the midst of choices related to life work and vocational calling. Adequately prepared campus ministers could be of inestimable value at this point.

Students are home and away from campuses a large part of each month. The department is committed to learning from and sharing with local churches and associations as we seek together to reach these persons in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ.

5. Church Music Department

JOSEPH O. STROUD, director

The Church Music Department has completed one of its most fruitful years. Interest in more effective music for each age group in the church is growing, and the Department receives more requests for assistance than it is able to fulfill. During the year many music schools, clinics, workshops, and conferences were conducted by the personnel of the Department with much interest from the churches and associations. Participation in regional choir festivals was most encouraging. These festivals were conducted for older children choirs and adult choirs. The Statewide Handbell Festival was well attended and the All-State Youth Choir Festival had a total registration of 615. All these festivals are on the calendar for 1976, and materials have been distributed to the churches so the directors may incorporate them in their year's work.

PRAISING '75, March 10-14 in Nashville, Tennessee was a great experience. Several hundred people from North Carolina were in attendance for this celebration which presented the new hymnal, BAPTIST HYMNAL—1975 Edition, to more than 10,000 Southern Baptists in attendance. The Department sponsored four Piedmont Airlines flights to the event.

The North Carolina Baptist Church Music Conference was held at the Ridgecrest Conference Center, April 7-10. The attendance was down this year perhaps because so many had attended the meeting in Nashville weeks earlier. However, a most helpful program had been planned by the officers of the organization.

The Southern Baptist Church Music Conference was held in Miami, Florida, June 8-9 in connection with the annual sessions of the Southern Baptist Convention. The meeting was well attended by North Carolina ministers of music and choir directors. The Mars Hill College Choir was a featured choral group for the conference.

Since the presentation of the new hymnal in March, many churches have purchased the book for their worship and many dedication services have been conducted with others planned for the remainder of the year. Sales of this hymnal have been phenomenal, the one millionth copy having been sold already. This one millionth copy went to the Churchland Baptist Church, Route 5, Lexington, North Carolina in the Liberty Association. On Sunday morning, October 19, William J. Reynolds, secretary, Church Music Department, Baptist Sunday School Board and editor of the hymnal and Joseph O. Stroud were present for the Sunday morning worship and presented the Churchland Church with a gold bound copy of the hymnal as a memento of the occasion. Paul Millwood serves as pastor of the church.

One of the most far-reaching projects of the Department is the Summer Worker Program. Eleven churches were supplied a worker for one week during the summer months. This worker conducted study classes, conferences, and individual study with the music leadership of these churches. In the eleven weeks, there were 348 persons enrolled. This program is on the calendar for next summer.

The annual Children's Choir Camp was conducted at the North Carolina Baptist Assembly, June 16-21, with a total attendance of 610. Also, the Youth-Adult Choral Workshop at the assembly was a most meaningful week with 886 in attendance. This week was climaxed with the performance of the oratorio, "What is Man?," by Ron Miller under the direction of James Berry, minister of music, Myers Park Church, Charlotte.

Two Children's Choir Camps had been scheduled for Fruitland Conference Center, but in light of the budget adjustment, only one week was conducted with a total attendance of 175. Likewise the Youth Choir Camp at Camp Truett was cancelled. However, the leaders of Region 8 had this event anyway with the Department serving in the enlistment of leadership. All these have been restored to the 1976 calendar of events.

Realizing that most of the churches affiliated with the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina are smaller churches with volunteer and part-time music leadership, the third retreat was held for these workers at Camp Caraway, September 12-13. William J. Reynolds of the Baptist Sunday School Board and Sylvia Stewart of First Church, Laurinburg, assisted Joseph O. Stroud and Charles Gatwood and approximately 200 workers were in attendance. It was one of the most effective and encouraging projects of the entire year.

The Singing Churchmen have been busy during the year under the direction of Charles Gatwood, with James Reich, First Church, Monroe, as accompanist. They sang for the conventions, Fruitland Baptist Institute, and did special concerts in the Ardmore Church, Winston-Salem and West Asheville Church, Asheville. They also sang a concert in Nashville, Tennessee, while participating in PRAISING '75.

Eight Regional Praising Clinics were conducted in eight different locations during the week of October 13-17 with John Gardner and Festus Robertson of the Church Music Department of the Baptist Sunday School Board assisting. These clinics were designed to give choir directors, song leaders, ministers of music, pastors, organists, pianists, youth and adult choir members assistance in leading congregational singing. This constitutes one of the greatest needs in all our churches. All churches have congregational singing, and this aspect of church music needs to be a more meaningful experience in the worship and Christian education of the churches.

Carol Permenter resigned as office secretary on August 15 to join her husband in his business. Mrs. Permenter served the department well for approximately two years and is greatly missed.

A LOOK AT 1976

The Department will major on congregational singing as a part of an overall emphasis of the Southern Baptist Convention. Three outstanding projects are being sponsored and call for the attention of all our leaders.

PRAISING '76—OVENS AUDITORIUM, CHARLOTTE, FRIDAY, APRIL 2, 1976

This will be a time of singing and praise for adults. Participating will be the North Carolina Symphony Orchestra under the direction of John Gosling, the combined choirs of the seven Baptist Colleges in sacred concert, William J. Reynolds, leading the congregational singing, Robert Hale, baritone and Dean Wilder, tenor—internationally acclaimed duo singing the great hymns of the faith. All departments and divisions of the Baptist State Convention will participate. This will mark the 20th anniversary of the Church Music Department.

HYMN SINGS IN THE CHURCHES

Each church is encouraged to have at least four hymn sings during the year involving the entire congregation:

ThankSing—November 23

WitnesSing—January 11

RessurrectionSing—April 18

FreedomSing—July 4

Appropriate materials may be secured by writing the Church Music Department and also referring to the Hymns-of-the-Month in CHURCH MUSICIAN MAGAZINE.

MUSIC EMPHASIS WEEK—AUGUST 22-29

Each church is encouraged to set aside this week or another suitable week in the church calendar for music emphasis, studying the graded music series with the entire congregation. The following books are suggested and may be purchased from Baptist Book Stores:

For Adults and Young People—Great Hymns of Testimony

For Older Children—The Singing Book

For Younger Children—Hymns to Know and Sing

For Preschoolers—Me, Music, and Others

Thus, the Church Music Department of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina will endeavor to assist the churches in their program of "admonishing one another in Psalms, and Hymns, and Spiritual Songs, singing with thankfulness in the heart."

6. Church Building Planning Department

JACK CLARK, director

The Church Building Planning Department desires to be of service to the churches in planning and providing space for adequate church programs. Sometimes a church needs to erect new facilities. Many times a church needs to look at its existing space and reassign the space according to program needs. The program, tasks, goals, and ministry of a church help to determine the need for space, either additional or reassigned. This Department seeks to work with each church to plan and erect buildings, or renovate existing buildings, reassigning space to meet the program needs of the church.

SERVICES AVAILABLE

Services available through the Department include: (1) consultation with church leaders in on-site visits at the church property; (2) provide helpful information through literature and otherwise to guide the church in the choices made; (3) assist the church in gathering statistics and other data needed by the Church Architecture Department of the Sunday School Board, in order that they may be of maximum assistance through feasibility studies; (4) act as liaison between the church and the Church Architecture

Department of the Sunday School Board; (5) review and interpret sketches received by the church from the Church Architecture Department of the Sunday School Board; (6) maintain files of information on architects and other service groups, to be shared with the churches upon request; (7) explore various ways of financing with church leaders, including Together We Build, a capital fund drive approach to raising money; and (8) advise and assist by telephone, mail, or in office visits.

STATE CHURCH BUILDING CONFERENCES

Each year, there are two scheduled church building conferences. For 1976, these are: April 20, Baptist Building, Raleigh; September 21, First Church, Charlotte.

STATE TOURS

Tours will be scheduled for two or more times during the year, with Jack Bagwell, consultant, Church Architecture Department, Sunday School Board, participating.

7. Brotherhood Department

J. EDWIN BULLOCK, director

After several years of decreasing enrollments, one of the joys that North Carolina Baptist men and boys have had during the past six years has been consistent annual increases in enrollment. It was encouraging to begin 1975 with the good news that work had grown again in 1974. Even though many of the missionary education emphases (and even a more sizable number of the missions-type activities being conducted by the churches) are not labeled as Brotherhood by those churches, the statistics are still important. They are, at least, some indication of a growth pattern. A good many of those churches that do provide special missions studies, Baptist Men's days, missions activities for boys, and other community missions service activities with their men and boys do use the Brotherhood curriculums and resources for those emphases. Getting those churches to understand that conducting those studies and doing those missions activities with their men and boys does constitute a church Brotherhood program is one of the frustrations and challenges of the Brotherhood Department staff. In any case, enrollment is only one measurement of success, and it is the concensus of the Brotherhood Department staff that 1975 has been a year of growth for the overall North Carolina Baptist State Convention program.

Over the past several years, a number of approaches have proven to be fundamental in helping the churches with their men and boys missions emphases. These approaches could be grouped in the categories of training, motivation, and demonstration.

Training Programs that have been provided successfully again in 1975 were: (1) the training of 70 approved workers who specialize in various phases of Baptist Men and Royal Ambassador age level work; and in so doing, train the people in the churches to perform those duties; (2) a state conference for church Brotherhood directors, Baptist Men's officers, and Royal Ambassador counselors; (3) ten spring training sessions for associational Brotherhood leadership and a fall state conference for associational leadership; (4) a spring training conference for adult home mission study teachers and a similar fall training session for adult foreign mission study teachers, (5) a fall training session for coordinators and team members of lay witness revivals; (6) spring and fall training sessions for coordinators and team members of Lay Renewal Weekends; (7) a late spring training session for people involved in correctional ministries; (8) eight regional training sessions for persons who conduct church and associational day camps; (9) two training sessions for campers on a mission; (10) a state training session for camp counselors; (11) the training of regional leaders and state officers; and (12) the conducting of thirty associational Brotherhood workshops and Royal Ambassador leadership courses.

Inspirational programs of the Brotherhood Department designed to encourage men and boys to get involved in their churches' missions programs that were held again in 1975 were: (1) the State Laymen's Conference held at Merrimon Avenue Baptist Church, Asheville, November 9-10, 1975 (2) the Pioneer Royal Ambassador Congress held on the Wake Forest University campus, Winston-Salem, March 21-22; (3) the Crusader Royal Ambassador Congress held at First Church, Raleigh, November 21-22; (4) thirteen weeks of Royal Ambassador camping at Camp Caraway, Truett Camp, and N. C. Baptist Assembly; (5) three Royal Ambassador Weekend Camps at Caraway; (6) two Family Camping weekends; (7) World Missions Week at N. C. Baptist Assembly; (8) six Royal Ambassador "See College Days"; (9) the State Royal Ambassador Track Meet; (10) a European Missions tour which provided people an opportunity to attend the BWA in Stockholm, Sweden and see and visit missionaries and mission points in five European countries; and (11) the Lay Witness Institute held in January at Gardner-Webb College, an inspirational meeting for those involved in Lay Witness revivals throughout the year.

Demonstration programs involves Department staff members as well as the selected officers participating in all of the missions service activities which are sponsored and encouraged by the Brotherhood Department. Examples are: Lay Witness revival, Lay Renewal weekends, overseas and pioneer state ministries, correctional ministries, Baptist Men's Corps, and disaster relief. As a result of involvement in these missions activities, state leadership can speak with more expertise in encouraging the involvement of men and boys in the churches and associations.

All of these programs are among those sponsored by the Convention's Brotherhood Department in previous years. They were continued in 1975, and in most all cases, there was larger participation and obvious improvement in each of these fundamental missions emphases.

SHORTAGE OF FUNDS

A few Brotherhood missions emphases were canceled in 1975 due to a shortage of budget funds. The emphases that had to be canceled were: the eight missionary education dialogues planned to be conducted with pastors and church staff members in eight associations, the Business and Professional Men's Retreat, one of the fall weekend Royal Ambassador Camps, the Royal Ambassador basic campcraft course, and assistance to the associations in conducting fall Brotherhood workshops. These are considered to be meaningful and needed Brotherhood programs, and it is hoped that the budget will permit their continuation in 1976.

NEW 1975 BROTHERHOOD EMPHASES

In spite of the loss of several Brotherhood emphases in 1975 due to budget shortages, new programs were added. Some of these were made possible by increasing registration cost for both old and new activities. The new programs that were received with a good measure of success were: (1) lay overseas ministries where at least thirty men went to three different countries at their own expense to do construction work; (2) Michigan leadership training with eight North Carolina men touring the State of Michigan at the invitation of the state, training men and boys' leadership; (Those traveling partially financed their own trip while selected Baptist Men across the state also gave money to make the tour possible.) (3) new Royal Ambassador sports programs—e.g. in addition to the Royal Ambassador track program and Crusader Car competition, two new RA sports events were added during 1975, the first state playoffs for basketball were held in March at Wake Forest University, and the guidelines for state RA baseball playoffs were presented to the associational leadership in September at Caraway; (4) an expanded correctional ministries emphasis, known as prison ministry, is now expanded under the term "correctional ministries"; (This provides assistance for parolees, probationers, and families of inmates. A state Brotherhood chairman and committee was selected in November at the State Laymen's Conference to oversee this missions program.) (5) new resources and personnel for lay witness revival and lay renewal; (The Brotherhood Department has doubled and continues to enlarge on its personnel for these two emphases. New manuals and other resources have been developed for coordinators, team members, and the churches to use in these missions emphasis.) (6) a new Royal Ambassador college scholarship program; (In addition to the very successful college scholarship programs for senior high Royal Ambassadors active in Service Aide at Campbell and Gardner-Webb, a new program was adopted at Wingate College during 1975.

This is a much appreciated addition to the Royal Ambassador program.)

THE BEST CAMP SEASON

The year 1975 produced the best attendance ever at Camp Caraway. The 1,565 boys attended the camp in only nine weeks. Since adequate space limits the camp to approximately 160 boys per week, this means that the camp was way beyond normal capacity during each of the weeks. Still, space was provided with the staff, generally acknowledged as the best ever, doing a magnificent job. Hundreds of boys made decisions for Christ and committed themselves to missions service. Excellent camp weeks were also conducted by the Department staff at Camp Truett, Hayesville. Three boys' camp weeks were held at Truett and one other week at N. C. Baptist Assembly, Southport. These weeks were also well attended (two weeks at capacity) and very much appreciated by the boys. David Langford and Bob Watson who direct these camping programs were very pleased about the obvious growing interest among N. C. Baptist boys in Royal Ambassador camping.

CONCERN FOR CARAWAY

Brotherhood Department staff members expressed their concern during 1975 to the locating of the conference center in the area which they felt was generally accepted to be the boys' camp area. The staff members who have the responsibility of directing the Royal Ambassador camps at Caraway felt that the privacy which was necessary for an outdoor camp was not being respected by the placement of the conference center on the camp lake side. This was in no way an objection to the conference center itself, in that many Department programs are expected to be enhanced through the use of the Center. The General Board Executive Committee and the Board itself ruled that the conference center was to be placed at the lakeside site. As a result, the Brotherhood Department staff will have to seek to make every effort to sustain a summer Royal Ambassador camping program that will not lose its atmosphere of being with nature and away from the world of other activities. The concern was there, it was registered, and now a genuine effort will be made to sustain the Royal Ambassador camp as the finest in the Southern Baptist Convention, while, at the same time, seeking to help the Convention make the best use of the conference center.

A NEW ORGANIZATION

In 1975, the N. C. Baptist Men's organization enlarged its organizational structure. The constitution was changed to include officially the ten regional directors as a part of the state officers. In addition, state leaders were also elected in the areas of the following special ministries: lay witness revival, lay renewal, correctional ministries, lay overseas ministries, disaster relief, and Royal Ambassadors. Two seven men committees were selected to work with the correctional ministries leader and the state Royal Ambassador leader. It was concluded that this new organization would bring many more laymen into the processes of planning and conduction of the growing multiple missions ministries being conducted and envisioned for North Carolina Baptist men and boys.

A NEW RECEPTIONIST SECRETARY

In September of 1975, Joyce Burchette came to the Brotherhood Department staff as receptionist secretary. Mrs. Burchette had been church secretary at Samaria Church, Raleigh, and is the wife of Jim Burchette, Raleigh Associational RA Leader. She has a great spirit and a lot of experience and will be a great asset to the Department staff.

BETTER COMMUNICATION

The Brotherhood Department staff used the quarterly newsletter, Missionary Education News, to communicate its multiple programs throughout the year. In addition to that, the lay witness newsletter, The Word of Their Testimony, and a new publication for those involved in lay renewal, Renewal, were also most helpful. Department staff members used their own "Opportunities" print outs, program brochures, memos to selected leadership, and group meeting announcements to get the word to interested Baptist people. The Biblical Recorder was extremely helpful in acquainting laymen with opportunities for service. There has been continuous commitment on the part of all the staff members in the mailing of resources to help Baptist Men and Royal Ambassador units in the churches. In addition to the resources, the men in the Department have made weekly trips to the associations and churches for the purpose of teaching, training, and speaking about the need for Brotherhood units in the churches and the involvement of men and boys in missions. Staff strength has been consistent, and all staff members have worked diligently in 1975. Previous programs have continued to meet with success and the new programs bear the mark of better things ahead. If all continues to go well, men and boys will be an integral missions force through the N. C. Baptist State Convention in 1976.

8. Woman's Missionary Union Auxiliary to the Baptist State Convention

MRS. GILMER CROSS, president
SARA ANN HOBBS, executive secretary

The work of Woman's Missionary Union of North Carolina is conducted by 139,434 members in 2,418 churches.

These are the churches and organizations in which the on-going study, mission action and mission support are done. These members are the ones who attend meetings, involve themselves in mission service, give generously, and pray regularly for missions. These are the folks for whom all state WMU activities are designed.

WMU is a democratic body with each church WMU member having the privilege of open discussion and vote on matters brought to the State WMU Annual Session. This deliberative body receives reports, hears promotional plans and emphases and takes action regarding policy and finances. The 1975 Annual Session was held at Ovens Auditorium, Charlotte, and registered 1,109 delegates.

The primary planning group for the work of Woman's Missionary Union is the State WMU Executive Board. This Board is composed of the officers, certain designated chairmen and 15 members-at-large selected from the ten regions. The WMU Executive Board meets three times each year in January, May and September. The Board initiates and/or refines plans related to state WMU meetings, leader training, field services, finances and the operation of Camp Mundo Vista. In the interim between meetings of the full body of members the Executive Board is authorized to conduct all business of WMU as long as they do not take contrary action to the full body. The officers of Woman's Missionary Union are the officers of the Board. An Executive Committee elected from Board membership is charged with the responsibility of making decisions between meetings of the Executive Board. Members elected were Mrs. Claude Gaddy, Raleigh; Mrs. Horace McRae, Lumberton; Mrs. Harry Poovey, Greensboro; Mrs. John Privott, Rocky Mount; and Mrs. B. F. Williams, Currie. This committee meets on call of the president.

The third group responsible for planning and conducting WMU work is the employed field personnel and office staff, housed in the Baptist Building in Raleigh. There are eight persons on the full-time staff and part-time help is employed as needed. The full-time staff is composed of:

Sara Ann Hobbs, executive secretary
Nancy Curtis, Baptist Young Women director
Jolene Ivey, Acteens director
Pat Ritchie, Girls in Action/Mission Friends director
Mrs. Robert G. Maynard, administrative assistant Sandra Dillard, financial secretary
Mrs. Betty Bass, secretary

Miss Kathryn Bullard resigned as Baptist Women director to become executive secretary of Virginia WMU. Miss Suthel Walker has been elected to begin work in this position on December 1.

Approved workers are elected to assist employed field personnel in leadership training and conducting state meetings. Five are elected and those serving in 1974 were:

Mrs. Oren Bradley, Mount Airy
Mrs. Alfred E. Andrews, Jr., Wilkesboro
Mrs. Fred Scott, Littleton
Mrs. Ronald Carter, Surf City
Mrs. William Wilson, Gastonia

This report covers the work of each of the three above-mentioned groups and is organized under (1) regular meetings for inspiration and leader training, (2) special or one-time meetings, (3) Camp Mundo Vista operation, (4) finances, (5) missionary gifts, and (6) special activities.

REGULAR MEETINGS

Thirty-seven meetings were conducted in which one or more WMU age-level organization members could participate. This included at least one for each age-level with the exception of Mission Friends (preschoolers) for which no state meetings were planned. These meetings attracted 5,888 participants as follows:

Baptist Young Women Conventions (2), 329 attending Associational Acteens Officers' Retreat, 111 attending
Day Camp Workshops (9), 305 attending
Baptist Women Retreats (5), 956 attending
Mother-Daughter Camps (2), 390 attending
Acteens Camps (4), 802 attending
Girls in Action Camps (8), 1,584 attending Baptist Young Women Retreat, 201 attending World Missions Week, Caswell, 643 attending
Associational Officers' Workshops (3), 426 attending
Couples' Retreat, 141 attending

SPECIAL MEETINGS

A Senior Adult Conference for Baptist Women 55 years and up was held at Ridgecrest Conference Center, September 25-27, 1974. One hundred sixty-eight women were in attendance. The emphasis of the meeting was opportunities of mission service for the senior adult.

April 25-27, 1975, 1,500 Acteens attended the first State Acteens Convention at Ridgecrest Conference Center. This is planned as a "once every two years" meeting, alternating with the State Youth Convention.

North Carolina Acteens, under the leadership of Jolene Ivey, joined in the crowd of 11,000 attending the second National Acteens Conference in Memphis, June 25-29. Three chartered buses took the group of 118 from North Carolina.

CAMP MUNDO VISTA

Attendance at state meetings held at Mundo Vista reached a record high. Of the 37 state WMU meetings reported, 23 were held at Mundo Vista with a total attendance of 4,223. Meetings conducted by other groups in which the Mundo Vista facilities were used brought 1,609 more people to the campsite.

The operational budget at Mundo Vista, including summer and off-season operation, totaled $110,682.74. Of this amount $82,477.65 was for the 10-week summer camping, $13,272.00 for state WMU promoted meetings held other than in the summer, and $14,933.09 for rental groups. Money for operation of Camp Mundo Vista is received from the Heck-Jones Memorial Offering, from fees collected and from rental of the facilities. Accounting of the monies handled from operation of Mundo Vista is reported in the regular financial reports of Woman's Missionary Union.

The remaining indebtedness on Camp Mundo Vista is $54,000.00. This note, held by Wachovia Bank and Trust Company, will be completely repaid in November, 1976. The repayment of the loan is done with monies received through the Heck-Jones Memorial Offering and overages in operating budgets of the camp.

Decisions regarding capital improvements and operational policies of Camp Mundo Vista are made by the WMU Camp Committee. Mrs. Larry Sides, Welcome, is the chairman of this committee. Serving with her on the committee are Mrs. Randy Britton, Ahoskie; Mrs. W. T. Dorrity, Durham; Mrs. Thurman Fox, Pfafftown; and Mrs. Henry Rowe, Mt. Airy.

FINANCES

The financial records of Woman's Missionary Union are reported in the Minutes of Woman's Missionary Union, a copy of which is mailed to each church WMU director. These are fully audited annually by A. T. Allen & Company, which firm also audits the records of the Baptist State Convention. The WMU budget receives an allocation from the Cooperative Program for salaries, housing, travel, building operations, field promotion and the State WMU Annual Session. All other activities and meetings are financed through the Heck-Jones Memorial Offering.

The major financial emphases by WMU are the Cooperative Program, the Lottie Moon Christmas Offering, the Annie Armstrong Easter Offering, the State Missions Offering and the Heck-Jones Memorial Offering. The special offerings, promoted all or in part by WMU, showed increases during the year.

Lottie Moon Christmas Offering..	$2,361,738.33	$2,409,653.78	2.0%
Annie Armstrong Easter Offering	693,656.68	805,559.91	16.1%
State Missions Offering.....	327,867.65	335,262.64	2.3%

At Christmas a book and magazine subscription are sent to each career woman missionary from North Carolina and a book to short-term and retired missionaries. These were sent to 116 missionaries—92 foreign, 12 home and 12 retired.

SPECIAL ACTIVITIES

Woman's Missionary Union was asked by the Department of Corrections to furnish a member for the Advisory Committee to the Commissioner of Corrections. Kathryn Bullard served until her resignation and was succeeded by Nancy Curtis. This committee serves to advise the commissioner on providing for the spiritual needs of inmates.

Mrs. Gilmer Cross was sent by Woman's Missionary Union to speak at the Annual Session of the Ohio WMU. Sara Ann Hobbs was sent to the Baptist Convention of New York to speak at a WMU luncheon and at the general session of the convention. Each of these was done in response to invitations by the respective groups.

Jolene Ivey and 11 members of the 1974 Camp Mundo Vista staff went as a team to Barbados, West Indies, to conduct Vacation Bible Schools, train for camp leadership and conduct church services. They worked in five churches during the 12-day stay on the island. This project was paid for by the summer camp mission offering and was under the direction of Southern Baptist missionaries.

Mrs. Perry Crouch presented an updated history of North Carolina Woman's Missionary Union to the president, Mrs. Gilmer Cross, and chairman of History Committee, Mrs. J. Frank Gilreath, Jr., at the Annual Session of Woman's Missionary Union in Charlotte. The historical document entitled "The Magnificent Nobility" was a gift to Woman's Missionary Union. It covers the period from 1952 to 1972, the period not covered by the earlier history, "Hitherto."

SUMMARY

Woman's Missionary Union grew slightly in membership. Offerings showed increases. More state WMU meetings were planned and regularly scheduled meetings showed increases. It is hoped that the increases in spiritual growth were equal to the statistical growth.

9. Department of Camps and Retreats

B. W. JACKSON, director

The purposes of this Department are (1) to provide facilities at Camp Caraway for both state planned meetings, including Royal Ambassador Camps, and church retreats; and (2) to render consultant and site planning services to any church or association requesting such services.

The facilities at Caraway consist of: office, guest lodge, dining hall-kitchen, dining hall lodge, conference rooms, cook's quarters, maintenance superintendent's residence, eleven cabins, a tent camp, canteen, gymnasium, swimming pool, lakes, and the family camp of thirty-two sites and bath facility. The capacity is approximately 225 for summertime, and 160 for winter use.

The Caraway Conference Center, a self contained facility of 52 bedrooms and baths, and meeting and dining space for 300, is presently under construction. The Center will be ready for use beginning in early 1977.

The use of the facilities has been near capacity during the summer and weekends. The Royal Ambassador camps brought about 1,600 campers plus staff. Off season brought about 190 different groups. The camp operated 234 days during the year, with a total of approximately 8,534 people registered, with approximately 50,000 meals served.

The director continues to work with Woman's Missionary Union in the operation of Camp Mundo Vista, providing all food services, and doing all bookings for off-season use. Approximately 80 groups came for off-season.

Consultant service was provided to the General Baptist State Convention in the planning, locating, and equipping three buildings at J. J. Johnson Baptist Assembly near Laurinburg. On-site visitation was made to Dan Valley Association Camp, with subsequent plans and recommendations made. Also, on-site visitation was made to two Virginia WMU camps with suggestions made for improvements leading to long range study.

Two overnight meetings were held with camp committee members from the Brotherhood Department of the Mississippi Convention.

The fulltime Camp Caraway staff, in addition to the director, are: Kathleen Short, food service; Evelyn Cooper, secretary; Earl Underwood, buildings and grounds; Resal Craven, foreman of Conference Center construction.

10. North Carolina Baptist Assembly

FRED J. SMITH, director

This year has been a busy year for the North Carolina Baptist Assembly. Over 17,600 people attended either the pre-post season, the summer conferences, or as one-day guests.

Construction is now underway to add two Church Group Apartment Buildings for next summer. Work has also begun to give the outside appearance of the buildings a new look for the coming year. (Painting and redecorating the outside of each building has been needed for quite some time.)

Each year the facilities for year-around activities are being used more and more. The space for deacon and other retreats, conferences and banquets, and family vacations is becoming more and more popular and in greater demand. For information concerning any of these types of programs write to the North Carolina Baptist Assembly, Fred J. Smith, manager, Southport, N. C. 28461.

The schedule for the 1976 summer program is as follows:

May 17-20—Senior Adult Conference
June 7-11—Children's Choir Camp
June 14-18—Youth Ministries Week
June 21-25—Church Ministries & Training Week
June 28-July 2—Sunday School Bible Conference
July 5-9—World Missions Week
July 12-16—Youth Conference
July 19-23—Youth-Adult Music Week

F. Council on Christian Life and Public Affairs

JACK NOFFSINGER, president

CHARLES V. PETTY, executive director

Jesus commanded his followers to "Take up your cross and follow me." To follow is to live according to his instructions. This is difficult, yet the disciple has no other choice. The Christian life is not an option for the believer. Your Council on Christian Life and Public Affairs has attempted to do its "following" through these activities.

I. Conferences

A. Youth ministers. The Christian Life Council co-sponsored a conference with the Youth Ministry Service for youth ministers. An attempt was made to sharpen the skills and insight of those who work day in and day out with thousands of Baptist teenagers.

B. Single adults. The Single Adult Conference in Charlotte attracted more than 500 singles. An effort was made to provide Christian fellowship, and insight regarding the concerns of adults who are not married.

II. Research, Resource, Referral

Almost every day requests are made for information regarding the application of the gospel to life. The Christian Life Council attempts to fulfill the role as a resource, research and referral agency for North Carolina Baptists.

III. Literature

The Council prints 21 tracts pertaining to family life. Approximately 200,000 copies of these tracts were distributed in 1975. In addition, a series of six tracts on citizenship has just been printed and will be available either in late 1975 or early 1976.

IV. Citizenship

Several issues before the 1975 General Assembly were of vital concern to all North Carolinians. The Christian Life Council attempted to share pertinent information with Baptists, and encouraged them to become involved in the passage or defeat of specific moral issues.

V. Issues of Concern

The Council on Christian Life and Public Affairs is charged with helping North Carolina Baptists "to become aware of the ethical implications of the Christian gospel with regard to such aspects of daily living as family life, human relations, moral issues, economic life and daily work, citizenship, public affairs and related fields. . . ."

Rather than speaking directly to several specific issues in our annual report we have chosen, in view of our nation's observance of its bicentennial, to focus on this event.

Our Baptist forebears were very active in the American revolution. Before 1776 many of them had suffered and paid heavy penalties to prepare the way for the Declaration of Independence to proclaim: "We hold . . . that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable rights, that among these are life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness—that to secure these rights, governments are instituted among men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed. . . ."

Baptists supported the Declaration of Independence, fought in the War of Revolution, and subscribed in word and deed to this commitment contained within the Declaration of Independence: ". . . And for the support of this Declaration, with a firm reliance on the protection of divine providence, we mutually pledge to each other our lives, our fortunes, and our sacred honor."

In this year of America's bicentennial we record our profound gratitude to God for His preservation of this nation and for the inspiration afforded us by the personal examples of many of the founding fathers, including many Baptists. As they did, we desire to make a commitment to the unfinished work of the American revolution.

The Preamble to the Constitution expresses the purposes for which the nation exists: "We, the people of the United States, in order to form a more perfect Union, establish justice, insure domestic tranquility, provide for the common defense, promote the general welfare, and secure the blessings of liberty to ourselves and our posterity, do ordain and establish the Constitution of the United States of America."

Each of the statements in the Preamble remind us of unfinished business we have in 1975 as American citizens, and, even more significantly, as Christians and as Baptists.

We propose to call attention to some issues related to our responsibilities as Christian citizens in this bicentennial year and to invite you to affirm with us a "Covenant of Christian Freedom and Responsibility" which we submit and recommend to you for adoption.

RELIGIOUS LIBERTY

"Eternal vigilance is the price of liberty"—especially religious liberty. We must be zealous to guard against inroads into that provision of the First Amendment to the Constitution which says: "Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof. . . ."

We must continue to resist attempts either to prescribe or to prohibit prayer. Furthermore, we must continue to insist that the separation of church and state is essential to the maintenance of religious liberty.

There are subtle dangers to religious liberty in the spread of what has come to be called "civil religion." Civil religion is a generalized, nationalistic and falsely patriotic expression of Americanness. It lacks a point of transcendent reference to God, and it can easily lead to idolatry. In place of a "religion in general" and a "faith in faith itself" which are hallmarks of civil religion, we Christians need to proclaim as never before the Word of God which comes to persons and to nations as the Word of judgment and of grace.

THE ESTABLISHMENT OF JUSTICE

We believe in equal justice under the law for all people. Hence, racism, sexism, and all other forms of discrimination are unjust, and we should seek their removal wherever they exist in the laws and in the implementation of laws.

Just laws should be supported, enacted and enforced for the maintenance of freedom and order which are essential in a democracy. We affirm the right to a speedy trial as guaranteed under the sixth amendment to the Constitution. Persons responsible for judicial reform should continue to work toward this end.

The prison systems in this country are in need of reform. Approximately 75 per cent of the inmates are repeaters, and this fact alone merits immediate and serious attention to prison reform.

We await a ruling from the U.S. Supreme Court concerning capital punishment. Meanwhile, North Carolina still leads the nation in the number of persons on "death row" awaiting execution. This convention has twice gone on record as favoring the abolition of the death penalty. We affirm our conviction again that the death penalty should be abolished and that careful attention to judicial and prison reform should proceed apace. We encourage the churches of this convention to seek ways to become informed about, and involved in, the process of these reforms.

DOMESTIC TRANQUILITY

The mood of the nation is more tranquil than it was a few years ago. This fact should not lead to complacency but, rather, to seeking of ways to "insure domestic tranquility."

We have lived through startling documentations of a crisis in integrity. This crisis has reached into the highest levels of government, business, labor, athletics, family and personal life. The multiplication of instances of a lack of integrity must not anesthetize our Christian consciences. On the contrary this is a day which demands moral indignation, energy, self-discipline and rigorous advocacy and practice of truth telling and truth doing as minimal expressions of integrity. Now is the time to "flesh out" the meanings of such important realities of integrity as wholeness, soundness, consistency, faithfulness, justice, love, honesty, responsibility, accountability, sharing, caring, and involvement.

In the third century of our nation it will be of utmost importance that Christians participate in the political processes, including running for office, supporting good candidates, lobbying for just legislation, and seeking to impress upon eighteen-year-olds the importance of voting.

The reduction of violence is essential to domestic tranquility. Violence takes many forms: physical, psychological, technological, mass media, verbal, auditory, obscene, subtle, sinister, and cynical. This problem requires attention and appropriate action.

THE COMMON DEFENSE

The provision for the common defense against enemies, both at home and abroad, is a valid function of government. Realism requires the maintenance of a strong defense capability. However, "overkill" capacity, the stockpiling of armaments, and the indiscriminate provision of armaments to other nations are immoral. We are especially mindful that great care should be taken in negotiations with other nations, that diplomatic agreements should be open and forthright, and that unilateral or bilateral agreements should be shunned in favor of broad-based international agreements.

THE GENERAL WELFARE

The promotion of the general welfare is a multifaceted governmental responsibility. We propose to speak to two facets of this shared responsibility.

Despite efforts to deal with poverty in the United States twenty per cent of our people still live below the "poverty line" (defined as a family of four, living in an urban place with a family income of $5,050 per year). The delivery of social services to situations of real need is often bogged down in bureaucratic structures, with half the welfare budget consumed by the bureaucratic system before it reaches the poor. We should find ways to utilize our resources, including the delivery of services, to cope more adequately with persisting and recurring problems of poverty.

Beyond our borders, as well as within our nation, hunger is a problem on the increase. We commend North Carolina Baptists for a generous and quick response with contributions to relief in 1975, both at home and abroad. In a world of scarce resources we must seek a more equitable stewardship of those resources and continue to ask ourselves individually, as churches, as a convention, and as a nation: "What can we do to help to alleviate the problems of hunger in the world?"

THE BLESSINGS OF LIBERTY

To "secure the blessings of liberty to ourselves and our posterity" is named as a purpose for the establishment of the government. We are concerned as Baptists and as American citizens with this task.

There is an urgent need to protect and promote civil liberty. We are concerned lest inroads permanently damaging are made into civil liberties. National security is an important and a legitimate national concern, but zeal for security must not be allowed to diminish civil liberties. The FBI and the CIA, and all investigative and police forces, must exercise their duties with utmost care in order not to violate the blessings of civil liberty, so precious in our heritage and essential to our continued well-being.

We joyfully affirm that freedom in Christ is the best way to "secure the blessings of liberty." We must be even more effective as we reach out to win others to faith in Christ. Truly, "if the Son makes you free, you will be free indeed." (John 8:36). Freedom from sin's bondage is the Saviour's gift. We can and must share this gift!

A COVENANT OF FREEDOM AND RESPONSIBILITY

In this bicentennial year, as we thank Almighty God for the blessings we have enjoyed as a free people in this nation, and as we look at responsibilities of the present and of the immediate future, we joyfully covenant with God and with each other the following:

We covenant to be advocates and guardians of religious liberty, that basic liberty without which no other liberty will long endure.

We covenant to be more diligent in the tasks of a wholesome Christian evangelism, seeking to lead others to reflective and sustained commitments to Christ as Lord.

We covenant to participate more fully in the processes of government, recognizing that persons of faith, intelligence, integrity, and informed involvement in the affairs of this government are needed if this nation, under God, is to endure and prosper as a free nation.

We covenant to seek justice for all people through all the resources available, and we denounce and renounce all efforts to frustrate the full effects of equal justice under the law for each person.

We covenant to seek greater integrity in our own lives, and to insist upon integrity in our elected and other governmental officials.

We covenant to seek the elimination of all forms of violence in our society.

We covenant to share the material blessings we enjoy with those in genuine need in this nation and in other nations.

We covenant to pass on to future generations the blessings of liberty, both civil and religious.

We covenant to live as Christian citizens acknowledging that God alone is Lord of the conscience.

We covenant to repent of our sins and to seek the renewal of ourselves and of our nation under God.

Finally, we covenant to encourage all our Baptist churches to seek ways to implement the spirit of this Covenant of Freedom and Responsibility.

G. COUNCIL ON CHRISTIAN HIGHER EDUCATION

W. HENRY CROUCH, president

T. ROBERT MULLINAX, executive secretary

ENROLLMENT

The following full-time student enrollments in the North Carolina Baptist colleges and university were reported as of September 19, 1975 by the registrars:

Campbell College	1,694
Chowan College	1,015
Gardner-Webb College	1,367
Mars Hill College	1,633

Meredith College	1,317
Wake Forest University.....	4,229
Wingate College	1,115
Total	12,370

COUNCIL MEMBERSHIP

Since its beginning in 1944, the Council on Christian Higher Education has been an effective means of communication among the colleges, and between the colleges and the Baptist State Convention. The Council membership is made up of the following: presidents, deans, chairmen of boards of trustees of the colleges; and the General Board's Committee on Christian Higher Education. Ex officio members of the Council are W. Perry Crouch, general secretary-treasurer, Baptist State Convention; Allen Bailey, president, Baptist State Convention; Billy Mobley, president, Baptist State Convention; and Mrs. Gilmer Cross, president, North Carolina Baptist Woman's Missionary Union.

The following new members from the General Board were elected to Council membership last year: F. D. Allen, Carl Benfield, Walter S. Jones, Alton McEachern, Larry B. Patton, Murray Tate, and Marshall B. Whitehurst.

A BIBLICAL FOUNDATION

A sound biblical foundation is required for a program of Christian Higher Education. The educational endeavors of the Christian college grow out of two basic convictions: that God, as creator, redeemer and sustainer of life in the universe is actively involved in his creation; and that his interest extends to the whole of his creation. The subject matter for education is life itself, in its wholeness. Thus, Christian education proceeds without fear into whatever knowledge may come; for the ultimate meaning of that knowledge is the meaning which it has in God. In a Christian college, the Christian faith supplies the frame of reference for interpreting and understanding facts. In terms of values, the Christ is the standard by which values are to be determined and measured.

COLLEGES ACTIVE IN MISSION SUPPORT

Baptist colleges in North Carolina see themselves as active participants in the Christian mission to share the Gospel of Jesus Christ with all people everywhere. In addition to the important role of preparing future lay leaders for local churches, the colleges continue a strong emphasis upon ministerial and church-related vocational training.

In April of 1975, our seven colleges reported a total of 715 persons who were preparing for careers in church leadership. Most of these persons will complete their preparation by attending a seminary. Southern Baptist seminaries listed an enrollment of 303 graduates of North Carolina Baptist colleges in the spring of 1975.

The Foreign Mission Board has under appointment 152 of our graduates at present, more than 6 per cent of the total number of current missionary personnel. In addition, a significant number of Baptist college trained persons serve in strategic posts with the Home Mission Board, Baptist state conventions, and associational missions throughout the Southern Baptist Convention. Baptist college students receive excellent experience and training for church and missionary service through Baptist Youth Corps. Approximately 100 Baptist college students were assigned to churches for the summer of 1975. The colleges furnish one-half of the Youth Corps worker's salary, and thus enjoy a vital partnership with churches and students in summer mission work.

THE COOPERATIVE PROGRAM

It is accurate to say that the ministry of North Carolina Baptist colleges is the direct result of Cooperative Program support. With the exception of what students pay, the Cooperative Program continues to be the largest single source of annual income for the colleges. The colleges are grateful for the level of support which North Carolina Baptists have maintained.

BAPTIST COLLEGE AND SCHOLARSHIP OFFERING DAY

Each Father's Day the Baptist colleges are recognized by the churches and an offering is received for student aid. This offering is a vital part of the program of student aid. These funds are made available to North Carolina Baptist students according to the degree of need as determined by the individual school.

INTERDEPARTMENTAL FACULTY MEETINGS

Once every two years the teachers in the same discipline in the North Carolina Baptist colleges are invited for two days of professional sharing on one of the campuses. The meetings are professional in nature, and offer a unique opportunity for growth and fellowship among the professors from the seven colleges. There are fifteen disciplines currently involved: business education; education; psychology; English; foreign languages; mathematics and natural sci-

THE IMPORTANCE OF BAPTIST STUDENTS

The colleges make a special effort to recruit North Carolina Baptist students. In recent years, pastors have been especially helpful in furnishing the names and addresses of students for contact by the colleges and the Council office. Churches can help their students and their colleges by encouraging interested young people to apply for enrollment in one of the seven North Carolina Baptist colleges.

1. CAMPBELL COLLEGE

FREDERICK LESLIE TAYLOR, chairman, Board of Trustees
NORMAN A. WIGGINS, president

Campbell College opened her eighty-ninth year of operation on August 25, 1975, with a total enrollment on the campus and the two off-campus programs of 1724. The full-time equated enrollment is 1694. In the average year about seventy-five per cent of the enrollment comes from seventy-five of the one hundred North Carolina counties. The remaining twenty-five per cent will come from about 25-35 states and from 15-25 foreign countries.

The college is pleased to report a balanced budget operation for the fiscal year ending May 31, 1975. The audit for the year showed gross receipts operational income of $6,624,140.98, and net operating income in the amount of $4,826,478.75. The net income contributed by students was 62.21 per cent of the total net income. Stated another way, each student was subsidized 37.79 per cent of the amount the college expended for his educational cost. As inflation has increased the cost of education, it has become increasingly necessary for the college to provide a greater share of the instructional cost from sources other than student income. Campbell College is most grateful to North Carolina Baptists for the $399,102.21 received from the Cooperative Program. Without the gifts from the Cooperative Program a balanced budget could not have been achieved. Cooperative Program income made up 8.27 per cent of the educational cost.

In the area of student aid, during the year ending May 31, 1975, the college is pleased to report that financial assistance was received by 79.50 per cent of the student body. Every effort is made to see that students are not denied admission because of a lack of funds.

Looking at the eight-year Comparative Balance Sheet included in the Campbell College annual financial report, we are pleased to report that during the past eight years the book value of assets has been increased from $9,873,810.72 on June 1, 1967, to $22,839,560.33 on May 31, 1975. The total combined net worth of the college during this period was increased from $5,976,125.53 on June 1, 1967, to $15,433,121.51 on May 31, 1975. This was a total increase in the net worth of the college during the past eight years of $9,456,996.03, averaging $1,182,124.50 each year for an increase in net worth of 158.25 per cent for the eight-year period.

For the fiscal year ending May 31, 1975, the net worth of the college increased by the sum of $1,486,878.25. During the past year, Campbell College received in gifts and grants from all sources the sum of $1,992,928.93. The college is deeply grateful for the inspired leadership of trustees and advisors, and for all who are helping to make it possible for Campbell to achieve its goal as one of North Carolina's finest senior colleges.

As Campbell enters the period in her history looking toward the development of a fine School of Law and the adding of limited graduate work, she does so with great confidence in the financial ability to achieve the goals that have been prayerfully and carefully selected. The tasks will not be easy, but with God's help and the continuing support of those who believe in Christian higher education, they can be accomplished.

During the year, construction of the Keith Hills Development was completed and is proving to be an asset for the college. At the writing of this report, we are nearing the completion of the Nathan Johnson Memorial Hall, which contains a championship indoor swimming pool and other needed physical education classroom space and facilities.

During the year, the Campbell College family has been saddened by the death of the following wonderful friends: Wesley C. Watts, former trustee; George E. Simmons, active trustee; E. Weldon Johnson, former chaplain of the college and pastor of First Church, Buies Creek; William S. Dorman, college staff; and James Monroe Shouse, generous benefactor of Campbell College.

2. CHOWAN COLLEGE

J. E. FEREBEE, chairman, Board of Trustees
BRUCE E. WHITAKER, president

Chowan College began her 128th academic year as an institution of Christian higher education on August 21-23, 1975, with the annual Faculty Workshop prior to the arrival of freshmen/transfer students on August 24. Featured speaker for Workshop was James Y. Greene, director, Department of Campus Ministry, Baptist State Convention of North Carolina. While the Board of Trustees of the College had authorized budget/personnel projections to provide for a minimum enrollment of 900 for the fall semester, actual enrollment figures are well in excess of this minimal projection. Distribution of students enrolled shows: freshmen and transfer students, 643; sophomores and other returning students, 364; special students, 16; Medical Secretarial Interns, 1; audit students, 2. Thus, the total enrollment for the semester is 1,026, with an FTE enrollment of 1,015. The instructional staff includes 51 full-time and 11 part-time (54 FTE) teaching faculty.

The academic year 1974-75 was concluded on May 18 with the awarding of degrees and diplomas to 209 students who had completed one of the several curricula offered by the College. Commencement speakers were Billy T. Mobley, pastor, First Church, Ahoskie, and president, General Board of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, who delivered the baccalaureate sermon; and E. Bruce Heilman, president, University of Richmond, who brought the commencement address.

Of major significance in terms of capital improvements during the past year was the thorough renovation of the college's chapel-auditorium, housed in the south wing to the historic McDowell Columns building. Begun in December 1974, at a projected cost of $120,000, the renovated chapel-auditorium was ready for use at the first regularly scheduled chapel service of the current academic year. Renovation features include the replacing of the original wooden seats with cushioned, opera-type chairs; carpeting; ceiling and lighting fixtures; heating and air conditioning system; audio system; entrances/exits at both main floor and balcony levels; stage curtain; and the provision of more adequate dressing room facilities for purposes of dramatic productions and/or concert performances. The renovation of the chapel-auditorium marks another stage in the efforts to up-grade and maintain the McDowell Columns as both a functional facility as well as a campus landmark.

In an effort to assure additional revenues for Operating Fund purposes, the college's Department of Development initiated an Annual Giving Fund program in 1974-75, setting a goal of $50,000.00 for the initial year. At year's end the Annual Giving Fund had netted a total of $50,697.82. In this regard, Chowan's annual giving program reached the final round of judging in the Improvement Category for the 1975 U. S. Steel Alumni Giving Incentive Awards Program. While the college did not place first in the final round of judging, we are honored that our efforts were recognized, nationally, by the Council on Advancement and Support of Education.

The indebtedness of Chowan College on October 1, 1975 was as follows:

1.	12/1/62	$ 550,000	3 1/2 %	West Hall
				Men's Dorm 216 beds.....	$ 434,000

In the first two instances above, loans were made from the Department of Housing and Urban Development, covering a 40-year period and carrying interest charges indicated; each is self-liquidating. In the third instance, the loan was from the U. S. Office of Education. In the fifth instance, the loan was from the Department of Housing and Urban Development, for purposes of constructing a new 280-bed dormitory for men. The loan for additional land is by arrangement with the original owner who, for tax purposes, would not agree to be paid other than over a period of 12 years; approximately 115 acres immediately adjacent to the campus is involved. In the sixth instance, Chowan has been granted permission by the Convention to borrow $1,105,000.00 for purposes of constructing a new science-engineering facility which cost $1,300,000.00 equipped and including landscaping. The loan is from Planters National Bank and Trust Company of Ahsokie, N. C.

Chowan College continues to be proud of her affiliation with and relationship to the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina and the local Baptist congregations which support her ministries. As a Christian college, a vital facet of her curricular and co-curricular program involves learning about and giving expression to one's faith and heritage. The college continues to require six semester hours of religion studies for all students who complete requirements for a degree or diploma. The weekly chapel-assembly series is attended by all full-time students. Encouragement is given to participation in the Baptist Student Union-Campus Christian Fellowship, in other religiously oriented curricular and co-curricular programming, and in the churches in the college and/or home communities of the students.

Members of the administrative staff, faculty, and student body were engaged in Cooperative Program Promotion in churches of the Chowan, New South River, and West Chowan associations during 1974-75. Ordained members of the faculty-staff—and some lay members—engage, regularly, in pastoral supply work in the churches of the region. Numerous other faculty-staff members hold one or more positions of leadership in their respective churches in the Murfreesboro community.

Through the joint efforts of the Baptist Student Union-Campus Christian Fellowship and the Chowan College Ministerial Alliance, students conducted revival emphases in 15 churches throughout the past year. Many of the same students—along with others—were also involved in ministries to the elderly, to maintenance staff personnel on campus, to fellow students, and to the Roanoke-Chowan region through a radio devotional ministry. These same students anticipate a continuation of these forms of ministry in 1975-76, along with the enlistment of additional fellow students towards the same ends. The entire college community invites the churches to call upon the college personnel for any services we may be able to render in the name of Christ.

Finally, this report cannot be concluded without mention of loyal friends and supporters whom death has claimed during 1974-75. Among these were Garland Exum Bobbitt, member, Board of Advisors, 1972-1975; E. R. (Ned) Evans, Sr., member, Board of Trustees, 1958-1961, 1963-1966, 1968-1971; and Mrs. D. P. Harris, dean and professor of mathematics, 1922-1929.

3. GARDNER-WEBB COLLEGE

J. L. NICHOLS, JR., chairman, Board of Trustees
E. EUGENE POSTON, president

Gardner-Webb College is enjoying the beginning of the seventieth year as an educational institution. From 1905 to 1928, the school served students through high school curriculum. From 1928 to 1971, two years of college were added. In 1971, Gardner-Webb College received accreditation as a senior college from the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools. Gardner-Webb is also a member of the North Carolina Association of Colleges and Universities.

It is with joy and pride that the college is a part of the family of North Carolina Baptists. The Cooperative Program is the life-line of support for the schools as well as for missions around the world. The college continues to strive for excellence as an academic institution. The entire educational program works toward the fulfillment of the stated purpose — "To develop quality Christian students who will think for themselves and who will dedicate themselves to the Christian way of life in the vocation of their own choice."

Currently, there are approximately 1,400 students led by a dedicated faculty and staff of 140 people. The students and their leaders are striving daily to find God's will for their lives and preparing to carry out God's will.

Gardner-Webb College lost one of her most faithful trustees during the year, T. R. Hendrix, Sr. of High Point. Mr. Hendrix had served on the board for three full terms. At his death he was serving as vice chairman of the trustees. His influence will continue to live at the college.

The present indebtedness of Gardner-Webb is $1,410,611. It is being amortized monthly. The current budget is $3,909,685. The college is in sound financial condition; however, with inflation running high, great care must be exercised in buying and spending.

At the present time there are 302 students studying for full-time Christian service. There are 141 students who served in some capacity of Christian vocational work during the past summer in eleven states.

Gardner-Webb College, in addition to its regular curricula, continues to offer a two-year program in nursing, data processing, and secretarial science. The college has a joint four-year program with the Bowman Gray School of Medicine in medical technology.

As Gardner-Webb College looks toward another successful year of operation, we are grateful to the Baptists of North Carolina for their generous support and for their prayers.

4. MARS HILL COLLEGE

CECIL L. PORTER, chairman, Board of Trustees

FRED B. BENTLEY, president

The year 1974-75 was a very rich and fulfilling period for Mars Hill College. This was the first full year into the competence-based curriculum, which was well received by students, faculty, and the general college community. The college was also gratified in late spring to be notified by the W. K. Kellogg Foundation that the competence program has been funded for another two-year period in the amount of $157,000. This program enrichment money should enable Mars Hill College to continue to serve as an outstanding Christian institution of higher learning.

This was a great year in terms of the creative and responsible leadership for religious life on the campus. The school year began with a two-day retreat and planning session for the leaders of the Christian Student Movement. The fall retreat for new students was held the weekend following freshman orientation. "Sing and Share," the student informal worship hour, met each Thursday evening. A number of share groups and Bible study groups met each week. The Christian Student Movement Choir and folk teams have had an active schedule throughout the year. Students involved in CSM planned a five-day tour following the spring holiday. Various student teams have led weekend revivals and youth retreats in more than 20 churches. Regular out-reach work was maintained on a weekly basis at Western North Carolina Sanatorium, the Juvenile Evaluation Center, and Oteen Veterans Hospital. In addition to these regular campus activities and those immediately surrounding the campus, 29 students took part in a three-week venture of the Seventh Church in Baltimore, Md., an activity arranged through the Home Mission Board. Not only did these students carry on their ministry of Seventh Church, but they were invited into various Baltimore churches to lead worship services.

One of the highlights of the year was "Happening '75." The college, in support of the Christian Student Movement and the Fellowship of Christian Athletes, sponsored "Happening '75" during the first three days of the spring semester. The student leaders involved, as well as approximately one thousand participants, considered this revival to be an affirmation of the historic, distinctively Christian purpose of Mars Hill College.

Enrolled for the 1974-75 fall semester were 1,575 students, with a cumulative enrollment for the year of 1,664, representing an all-time high enrollment at Mars Hill College. Again, we experienced an approximate even breakdown between the numbers of males and females enrolled at the college.

The total replacement value of the campus now exceeds $19 million, with an outstanding indebtedness of approximately $1.4 million. The indebtedness is approximately eight per cent of the net worth which is below the national norms for capital indebtedness.

Mars Hill College was privileged to host over 3,000 visitors during the summer of 1975. Most were involved in conferences: the week of Christian Study and Fellowship, the Fellowship of Christian Athletes, the supervisors of Maintenance and Public School Systems, the North Carolina Association of Student Councils, the Air Force Chaplains, and similar groups. It is, of course, the hope of Mars Hill College that such exposure will provide a broad range of opportunities for conferees to note our commitment to Christian higher education.

The college graduated 271 students in May and 79 in August, a total of 350 graduates for the year 1974-75.

The year-end audit demonstrated that Mars Hill College again operated with a slight excess of income over expenditures. There is no way to articulate the important role which the gifts through the Cooperative Program play in our ability to operate in a stable, financial position. The college is indeed pleased to be in partnership with the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina through the Cooperative Program, the Baptist College Day Offering, and the recruitment of Baptist young people to attend Mars Hill College.

5. MEREDITH COLLEGE

SHEARON HARRIS, chairman, Board of Trustees

JOHN E. WEEMS, president

The paramount objective of Meredith College is to provide the best possible Christian education for women. In order to do this, there must be a superior faculty, outstanding students, a Christian atmosphere, a progressive attitude, an up-to-date library, modern physical facilities, and a sound financial foundation. Much was achieved in the 1974-75 academic year toward this ambitious goal. The president's report which has been presented to the trustees reflects the spirit and vitality present on the campus as a result of efforts made and goals reached.

At the Meredith graduation exercises of May 16, 1975, degrees were conferred upon 315 young women. During the three sessions of summer school, 470 students were enrolled for academic credit. In addition to these students, 4,000 people participated in various programs on campus, which included the Foreign Mission Board Journeymen orientation, swimming, equitation, tennis, cheerleading and majorette camps, sports camps, and music workshops.

As of September 1, 1975, the fall enrollment, the highest in the history of the school, totaled 1,790 students. This included 1,268 degree candidates, 178 special students and 123 non-college music students. The Continuing Education Program continued to flourish with 44 adults enrolled in pre-degree credit courses and 177 enrolled in enrichment courses offered in the program.

The 1974-75 school year was one of accelerated activity in curriculum change. A task force on academic reform was at work throughout the summer of 1974 and the academic year, working on the problem of relating the college's traditional emphasis on the arts, sciences, and humanities to the growing concern for vocational direction at the undergraduate level. The curriculum in psychology was completely revamped and re-oriented. An interdisciplinary major in political studies was established. Increasing numbers of students took advantage of the opportunities in cooperative education. The social welfare sequence was strengthened and refined and accreditation by the Council on Social Work Education is in process. The Meredith Study Abroad program had its second successful summer in London, England.

Meredith College is extremely fortunate to have attracted highly-qualified, well-prepared, and exciting faculty, who are not only interested in their own discipline, but show considerable interest and leadership in curriculum development as a whole. As one means of insuring the maintenance of a highly qualified faculty, the percentage of the faculty with doctorates is being increased from 38 to 50 per cent over a three-year period. Because of a grant from the William Rand Kenan Trust, Meredith has been able to appoint her first distinguished professor in the Department of Music. It is the college's objective to establish a distinguished professorship in each department.

Meredith has just completed its most successful year in development and advancement. The gifts and grants income for 1974-75 was $1,702,315. Because financial security is a high priority of this administration, the development program is firmly focused upon increasing endowment and reserve resources.

Total assets for the 1974-75 fiscal year were $17,345,514.86, with an indebtedness of $2,875,326.43. The College is grateful for the generous financial support it received during the year, of which $332,800.50 was from the Baptist State Convention through the Cooperative Program. Meredith operated with a balanced budget, and endowment and reserves have been increased during the last three years by more than $1 million.

The significant contributions from North Carolina Baptists have enabled Meredith to keep tuition lower than most private undergraduate colleges for women. The scholarship funds which Baptist contributions have helped to establish, make it possible for every student who qualifies for admission to have the opportunity of a Meredith education.

Formed in the fall of 1974, the Student Development Division at Meredith was designed to promote personal and intellectual growth, citizenship, and leadership among its students, in fostering cognitive thinking, personal awareness, decision-making, and service to the community. Student Development is committed to aiding students in developing communication skills, interpersonal relationships, and self-awareness.

The death of L. M. Massey, a loyal friend and staunch supporter of Meredith, on September 19, 1974, was a time of sorrow and a time for reflection on the hours shared with him and his untiring efforts in support of Meredith's service and progress.

6. WAKE FOREST UNIVERSITY

E. LEE CAIN, chairman, Board of Trustees

JAMES RALPH SCALES, president

As the nation began its bicentennial celebration, Wake Forest University was nine years away from its 150th birthday.

Since its founding by the Baptist State Convention in 1834, Wake Forest's history has been one of steady growth in stature, academic excellence and positive contributions to the life of the Baptist denomination. The 1974-75 academic year continued the tradition.

The University ended the fiscal year with a balanced budget and with all of its programs intact. During the year the president had recommended, and the trustees adopted, strict budget controls and other economy measures to cope with the rising cost of energy and other campus expenses.

In spite of the troubled economy, there was a $405,008 increase over 1973-74 in gifts for the Reynolda campus. The University is especially grateful to the Baptists of North Carolina, who contributed $611,997 through the Cooperative Program, and to alumni, who gave $709,969. The One-Fifty Fund campaign moved closer to its $10 million goal. By June 30, $9.5 million had been committed.

The total enrollment of 4,308 for the 1975 fall semester reflects small, planned increases in the professional schools and includes 2,958 undergraduates, 465 in the School of Law, 369 in the Bowman Gray School of Medicine, 199 in the Babcock Graduate School of Management, and 317 in the Graduate School.

The law school has reached its maximum enrollment (from 235 five years ago) and the medical school will reach its maximum enrollment of 432 (twice the enrollment of 10 years ago) four years from this fall. There also have been enrollment increases at the Babcock School.

Applications for admission to Wake Forest University continued high. About 950 freshmen and transfer students were admitted from 3,600 applicants. There were 4,076 applications for 90 places in the medical school and 1,200 for a first-year law class of about 150.

The library will have 600,000 volumes after 1975-76 purchases. The university also is proud of the Ethel Taylor Crittenden Col-
